First Generation

1. Benjamin Conger was born about 1700 in Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ. He died about 10 Mar 1762 at the age of 62 in Morristown, Morris Co., NJ. Benjamin Conger

PARENTS: The parents of Benjamin Conger were, John Belconger and Sarah Cawood.

Problem: Was the date of death, 10 Mar 1762 or as listed in Ancestral File, 19 Mar 1762?

PROBATE:

Very little is known of the early life of Benjamin Conger. He was perhaps about twelve years old when his father, John Conger, died. He is mentioned in his father's will, and is given one-half of the farm home, but with the express provision that his brother, Joseph, was to have the use and improvement of Benjamin's portion for the ensuing ten years, when it would revert to Benjamin.

PROBATE:

Benjamin Conger's children, mentioned in his will in 1762, include among others: Daniel, Enoch, Sarah, Elizabeth and Lydia. In the case of Lydia, she was to be paid 50 pounds on her marriage day. If she were to die unmarried the 50 pounds would go the grandchildren, Sarah and Martha Goble, daughters of Simeon and Abigail (Conger) Goble; to Lydia, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Conger) Goble; to Zipporah and Abigail, the daughters of Daniel and Mary Conger.

Benjamin's will, dated at Morristown, was proved 10 Mar 1762. He described himself as Yoeman. To his wife, Experience, he left one third of the proceeds of his personal estate, and the use of the profits of one third of his real estate.

To his son, Daniel, he left the use of 10 acres at the east end of his plantation, adjoining Jonathan Wood. At Daniel's death it was to go to his son, Jonas. Another piece of land was given to Daniel for life, then to go to his son, Benjamin.

To Enoch he left wearing apparel and the rest of his real estate.

To daughters, Abigail and Elizabeth, 10 pounds each; to daughter, Lydia, unmarried, 50 pounds as mentioned.

Executors, son Enoch and friend, Jonathan Stiles. Witnesses: Samuel Oliver, John Primrose and Ezekiel Cheever.

PARENTS: Daniel Conger and Mary

BIOGRAPHY:

Benjamin Conger was a Revolutionary Soldier. He entered the service as a Private in 1776 for 3 months in Morristown, New Jersey. He was in the company of Capt. Seeley, under Col. Martin and Gen. Sterling. He marched to Barga (?), then to New York, then to Long Island, where he was in a battle, then back to New York, to Fort Washington, to White Plains and was guarding some prisoners until his 3 months were up, then discharged.

In 1777, he enlisted again under the same Captain, under the command of Co. Lindley for three more months. He marched from Morristown to near Elizabethtown where he fought in three battles. From there he marched to near Woodbridge where he was in a battle at Strawberry Hill and another above Woodbridge at Asward (worth?). He was then discharged a second time.

He volunteered again in 1778 at Elizabethtown in the artillery under Capt. Clark to serve until the close of the war. He was not in a battle; it was a guard artillery stationed at Elizabethtown. He helped cut off the retreat of the Monmouth Battle and returned back to Elizabethtown where he remained until the close of the war in 1781.

After the war, Benjamin Conger lived in Morristown, New Jersey for several years. He then moved to Henry Co., Virginia and then to Rockingham Co., NC. It is presumed that he was the Benjamin Conger living in Rockingham in the 1790 census, but it could have been a son of Jonathan, 1732, who settled in Rowan county, NC.

At any rate, this Benjamin Conger moved to Pendleton District, SC where he lived until 1821 or so. He then moved to Gwinnett county, GA, where he lived until 1840. He received land in the 1832 Cherokee and Gold Land Lottery. It was taken up (deeded to him by Cherokee County) on 24 May 1841. On 1 Dec 1846, Zachariah Conger of Cobb County sold it (40 acres) to Edmund Coffee for $100. It now belongs to the Georgia Power Company.

Benjamin's close friends were in the Suwannee Baptist Church at Buford, GA, so it is likely that Benjamin and Rachel were Baptists.

It isn't known whether Benjamin was an educated man, but he could write his name. His son, Simeon, wrote very well.

There is still no proof that Benjamin was the son of Daniel Conger. But, he was born at approximately the same time. The names, Jonas, Simeon, and Benjamin were very common in this line of Congers before Benjamin, and these names are prevalent among the descendants of this Benjamin.

The Morristown, NJ records have information concerning the other children of Daniel, but nothing on Benjamin after he married a "Phoebe Armstrong." Perhaps he did marry her and she died -- and Rachel was a second wife. Or perhaps Rachel's surname was, Armstrong.

The 1810 census indicates there were two more boys and one girl that can not be accounted for. One of the missing sons was probably, John Conger, b. 1806 in North Carolina, listed in the 1860 Cherokee County census.

Benjamin Conger died on 21 Dec 1841 in Cobb County, GA

Further research is necessary.

Descendants of Benjamin Conger, Experience Foord

31 January 2015

RESEARCHER: Connie Frehner Money, Susanville, CA and her mother, Beulah Conger Frehner researched this family. (CFA I, p. 37)

Benjamin Conger and Rachel Unknown were married in Morris Co., NJ. Rachel Unknown was born in New Jersey. Rachel Unknown

AKA: Phoebe Armstrong.

AKA: Rachel Unknown, in Ancestral File; b. Abt. 1765, SC; married Abt. 1788, NJ; d. Aft 1845, GA.

AKA: Rachel Unknown, CFA I, p. 36 & p. 555

CONFLICT: If Benjamin Conger was the son of Daniel Conger, the records show that he married Phoebe Armstrong, but this is questionable after reviewing his widow's application for a pension, 22 Oct 1845. It is Maxine Leonard's belief that Rachel's surname may have been Armstrong, and a mistake was made in listing the spouses. Benjamin's brother, Jacob Conger, married a Phoebe Johnson.

PENSION:

The widow of Benjamin Conger was named Rachel. She states in her application for his pension, 22 Oct 1845, that she married Benjamin Conger in Morris County, New Jersey after he returned from service in the army. She says they then moved to Pendleton District, South Carolina.

In 1845, Rachel Conger was about 80 years old. She was still alive in 1848 and living in Cobb County, GA. Bird Stegall, her daughter's husband, states in his deposition that he knew Benjamin and Rachel Conger for more than 40 years as man and wife, since they lived in Pendleton District, SC. This would mean that Rachel was the wife of Benjamin in 1820 when the census shows him as having no woman in the household.

Benjamin Conger and Rachel Unknown had the following children:

- 29 i. Simeon Conger, born 6 Oct 1789, North Carolina; married Mary Jane Vowell, 17 Sep 1812, Pendleton, Anderson Co., SC; died aft 1851.
- 30 ii. Jonas Conger, born abt 1794, Pendleton Dist., Anderson Co., SC; married Parthena Pelfrey, 24 Dec 1816, Pendleton Dist., Anderson Co., SC; died 29 Nov 1836, Gwinnett Co., GA.
- 31 iii. Zachariah Conger, born bet 1802 and 1804, Pendleton Dist., Anderson Co., SC; married Mary Unknown, abt 1824; died abt 1848, Cobb Co., GA.
- 32 iv. Abigail Conger, born abt 1804, Pendleton Dist., Anderson Co., SC; married Bird Stegall, Jan 1819, Pendleton Dist., Anderson Co., SC; died 9 Aug 1878, Paulding Co., GA.
- 33 v. John Conger, born 1806, Pendleton Dist., Anderson Co., SC; married Jane Unknown.

9. Jacob Conger (Daniel-2, Benjamin-1) was born in 1760 in Morristown, Morris Co., NJ. He died in 1803 at the age of 43 in Locke, Cayuga Co., NY. Jacob Conger

PARENTS: Daniel Conger and Mary

Problem: Ancestral File lists the birth as, Abt 1766/1768, Morristown, Morris, NJ.

EMIGRATION: Jacob Conger removed about 1796 to Binghampton, NY, and about 1800 to Locke, NY where he died. (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 249 - Maxine Crowell Leonard) .

OCCUPATION: Blacksmith and operated a trip hammer.

CONFLICT: Maxine Leonard states that the children of Jacob Conger were born in Morristown, NJ. This is in conflict with the information she listed in the emigration note for Jacob Conger.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 249 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

Jacob Conger and Phoebe Johnson were married on 2 Mar 1787 in Morristown, Morris Co., NJ. Phoebe Johnson was born about 1770.

Jacob Conger and Phoebe Johnson had the following children:

PARENTS: Enoch Conger and Susanna Whitehead

BURIAL-QUESTION: Ancestral File lists the burial place of David and Elizabeth Conger as, Morristown, Morris Co., NJ. Were their remains really returned from Indiana to New Jersey? Who can cite a source?

COMMENT-CONFLICT: Apparently there is some question about the facts surrounding this David Conger. The lack of source citations concerning the information recorded about David Conger contributes to the problem. [REH]

RELATIONSHIP: Omer T. Conger, 1835, of Indianapolis, IN, a grandson of David and Elizabeth Conger, made quite an extensive study of the genealogy of the descendants of his grandparents. He spoke of them having 13 children, but only 11 are listed. (CFA I, p. 99)

DEATH-CHILDREN: The Register of Deaths of Morristown Presbyterian and Baptist [sic], gives the following: Mary, daughter of David Conger, fits, d. July 28, 1796 (no age). Also, child of David, fits, Oct. 3, 1805 (no age). These children do not seem to tie in with the other David Conger, 1760, of Morristown, NJ.

BIOGRAPHY: By Omer T. Conger, apparently with additional comments by Maxine Leonard.
Not much is known of the Morris County, NJ life of David Conger, other than he was said to have been a Captain of a militia company. This may have been the David Conger, 1760, who married Elizabeth Ayres.

Omer T. Conger goes on to say that his grandfather was a Private in Capt. James Rhea's Co. 7th Reg of Inf USA. He enlisted 7 Nov 1808 for five years, transferred to Gilbert C. Russell's company 26 Mar 1810; promoted to Sgt. 9 Oct 1810. Reduced to Corp. 1 May 1812; promoted to Sgt. 12 Feb 1813. Discharged and re-enlisted at New Orleans on 13 Feb 1813, for the war, as a Private in Captain Uriah Blue's Company. Discharged at New Orleans, LA, 8 Apr 1815.

It doesn't seem likely that this is the same David. There were several David Congers in the New Jersey area who could have had this service. This David, 1760, had at least 9 children. It is questionable that with a family of this size he would enlist for five years at the age of 48.

In 1801, he inherited his father's homestead of 90 acres.

Omer T. Conger describes his grandfather as "tall and strong. Being the eldest son he inherited all his father's estate, English fashion, leaving the other three children poor. He married Elizabeth Blue, of excellent spirit, of North German descent. A small woman, but very staunch, with blue eyes, who could stand inside a half bushel measure, and shoulder a bag containing two bushels of wheat. She was the salt of the earth in spirit.

David was not successful in finances, and his estate became involved, and when he reached Indiana, in 1820, with a family of 13 children, he had barely enough money to buy a quarter section of land from the government. He lost about $4,000 on the journey west; nobody knew how, and he never told. He was a corker on a drunk and smashed things generally.

He and his wife both died about 84 years of age, in Dearborn county, Indiana.

Perhaps he could have been the David with the military service mentioned. He does appear to have been irresponsible ... being reduced in rank could have come from drinking. One thing for certain is that Elizabeth did not lead a dull life!

RESIDENCES: Pendleton District, SC; 1832, Braker's District, Gwinnett Co. GA

MILITARY:

In 1836, the Creek Indians had an uprising near Columbus, Georgia. Jonas Conger volunteered for [service with the] Georgia Volunteer Militia about 1 May 1836. He served two months during which time this particular regiment from Gwinnett county was in at least one major battle with the Creeks. Jonas was discharged in July.

MILITARY:

Jonas Conger served in Capt. Reid's Regiment of the Georgia Volunteer Militia from 1 May 1836 to 23 Jul 1836. He was mustered out of the service at Columbus, Georgia and apparently returned immediately to Gwinnet Co., [GA] where he died 29 Nov 1836, leaving his wife, Parthena, to care for the family.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 327 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

DEATH: The cause of his death is not given, but coming closely after his discharge it may have been as a result of a wound received in the war. He died on 29 Nov 1936 in Gwinnett county.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Researcher Connie (Frehner) Money writes the following: "Very little is known about Jonas Conger. It seems likely that he was born in [either] Rockingham county, North Carolina or Pendleton District, South Carolina, about 1794 ([some] Census says the latter). He was the son of Benjamin Conger, b. 1757.

"Family records have always said that Jonas had two wives [name of only one revealed in CFA I. REH]. I think this is probably in error and became confused with his father, Benjamin, who probably had two wives [name of only one revealed in CFA I. REH]. Jonas appears to have been approximately the same age as Parthena and it seems likely that she was his only wife. Parthena was born in 1794 and married at the age of 22.

"Family records also state that Jonas had a son named, John, by a 2d wife. Parthena out-lived Jonas by a good many years and they did not have a son named, John, who was younger than Simeon Washington. Both of the children living with them in 1820 were born after 1815. They were married in 1816, so it seems likely that the two children were both children of Jonas and Parthena. (Compiler's note [Maxine Leonard?]: The John Conger born about 1806 in North Carolina, living in Cherokee county, Georgia in 1860, was probably the brother of Jonas [Conger].)

"Jonas and Parthena left South Carolina prior to 1830. He was not located on a census record in 1830. In 1832, Jonas was living in Braker's District, Gwinnet county, Georgia. He drew land in the 1832 Cherokee Land and Gold Lottery. The land drawn was lot #15, 6th District, 3rd Section and consisted of 160 acres located in Cass county. The grand was taken up 20 Dec 1837 in the name of Jonas Conger, Sr. He also drew lot #1277-15th District, 2nd Section. This consisted of 40 acres and was located in Cherokee county. This land was taken up 2 Mar 1838.

"We visited Suwannee Old Baptist Church in Gwinet county on our trip through the South. It is known that Jonas' brother, Simeon, was a member of this church and it is possible that Jonas was also. He might very well be buried in the graveyard behind the church but here again we most likely will never know. There are many old unmarked graves which cannot divulge the names of those who lie beneath their ground.

"[Son] Benjamin fought with the South. After the war, [sons] Benjamin and Zachariah visited their brother Simeon's place. They, with some other young men, were organizing a posse to call on some of the Northern carpet-baggers, including their negro friends.

"Simeon informed them the war was over and they had better go back home and go to work. The boys remarked, 'Over -- like Hell it is! So far as we are concerned the war has just begun. We don intend to let no damned Yank with a bunch of Negroes rule over us!'

[Note: While this account is quite interesting the reader should keep in mind that there are no source citations and many uses of the word, "likely." REH]

COMMENT:

Connie Money and her mother, Beulah (Conger) Frehner, did a lot of researching to establish the parents of Simeon Washington Conger. The summation was substantiated by some family notes found by Willa Dean (Beall) Eaves, [grand]daughter of Maude Conger, b. 1890, who is a descendant of Zachariah Conger, [son of Jonas Conger]. One fragment of paper stated, "Anna (sister) married Bill Finley." On the same paper was the notation, "Simeon Washington Conger, War 1861. Benjamin Conger, Indian War." (CFA I, p. 327)

The greatest mystery of this family is, "Benjamin Simeon," age 26, who appears with Parthena [Conger] on the 1850 census, along with Anna, 23, and Zachariah, 21. Willa Dean (Beall) Eaves has interviewed many of the descendants and done a lot of research, but cannot find any trace of such a person. Perhaps Parthena was telling the census reporter about her family,

Descendants of Benjamin Conger, Experience Foord

that she had a son, Benjamin, and a son, Simeon, and the reporter understood this to be one person. Benjamin had his own household at this time, so "Benjamin Simeon" must have been "Simeon Washington," who cannot be found in the census.

While Mrs. Money did not have Benjamin listed with the family, Mrs. Eaves has proved that Benjamin F. Conger in the 1850 census was the brother of Zachariah and Simeon Washington Conger. Evidence indicates that Benjamin F., 1828 (referred to as "Junior") was the son of Zachariah, nephew of Benjamin F. [Conger] (Senior).

Jonas Conger and Parthena Pelfrey were married on 24 Dec 1816 in Pendelton Dist., Anderson Co., SC. Parthena Pelfrey was born about 1793 or 1794 in Virginia. She died after 1850 at the age of 57 in Cobb Co., GA. Parthena Pelfrey

BIRTH: Listed as age, 57 in 1850.

EMIGRATION: Sometime after 1840 and before 1848, Parthena Conger moved with her family to Powder Springs, Georgia. (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 470 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

Jonas Conger and Parthena Pelfrey had the following children:

- 69 i. Benjamin F. Conger, born abt 1817, South Carolina; married Emily E. Daniel.
- 70 ii. Simeon Washington Conger, born 12 Sep 1820, Pendelton Dist., Anderson Co., SC; married Eliza Ann Mc Kenney, 1855; died 8 Feb 1872, Alexandria, Rapides Parish, LA.

- 72 iv. Zachariah Conger, born abt 12 Mar 1828 or 12 Mar 1829, Georgia; married Unknown Finley; married Pamela Davenport, 4 Jul 1865; died 11 Nov 1901, Palmetto, Fulton/Coweta Co., GA.

31. Zachariah Conger (Benjamin-3, Daniel-2, Benjamin-1) was born between 1802 and 1804 in Pendleton Dist., Anderson Co., SC. He died about 1848 at the age of 46 in Cobb Co., GA. Zachariah Conger

PARENTS: Benjamin Conger and Rachel

NAME-CONFLICT: Zacharia Conger, CFA I, p. 555

Zachariah Conger and Mary Unknown were married about 1824. Mary Unknown was born between 1803 and 1805 in North Carolina. She died before 5 Jan 1874 at the age of 71. Mary Unknown

COMMENT: In 1860 only Laura and Emeline were living with Mary; no Issac. In 1870, Mary was 65; Emma 28; George B, 37; Martha, 37; Ben 12; Lija 22; Elizabeth 25; Franklin 1. It is believed that Lija (Elijah) was the son of Benjamin, 1828, and Nancy, and that Benjamin was the son of Zacharia and Mary.

PROBATE:

I, Peter B. Conger of the township of Richmond in the Midland District and Canada West, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound mind, blessed be Almighty God, for the same, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, (that is to say),

First, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Deborah, the northwest room of my dwelling, now standing on part of the broken front on Lot No. 17 in the first concession of the aforesaid township, while she remains my widow, likewise the use of a cow. I also give her the furniture which is now in said room, to be at her disposal.

I also give to my eldest son Belyat, a Bible, worth one pound.

I also give to my second son John a Bible worth one pound, which gifts will and order shall be paid within six months after my decease.

I further give and bequeath to my eldest daughter Anarchy the feather bed she now claims and bedding, and also a fall leaf table now standing in the southwest room, with a Bible worth ten shillings.

I also give and bequeath to my third son Peter W. my house and the lot situated lying and being in the above mentioned place, together with all the stock on said premises. I further request that he shall support his mother in sickness and in health, so long as she shall remain my widow, likewise all my children that as yet under age shall be under his control and have support until they become of age. And that he shall pay all legacies.

I also give and bequeath to my two youngest sons Harris and Enoch, on Bible each worth one pound each, when they become of age.

I also bequeath to my youngest daughter Elisabeth Annah, a Bible worth ten shillings when she becomes of age.

I further give and bequeath my claim on the American Government for military services, to my children, to be equally divided.

I appoint my son Peter W., my wife Deborah, and the Rev. Saltern Giverns, to be executors of this my last will and testament, hereby working all former wills by me made, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty second day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine.

OBITUARY: Death of Mrs. Conger.

At her home near County Line, Dec. 25th, 1881, of paralysis, occurred the death of Mrs. Tacey Conger, aged eighty-four years, four months, and fourteen days. In the death of the subject of this sketch Jefferson County, [IA] loses another of its pioneers, so many of whom have departed within the past few years.

Mrs. Conger's maiden name was Tacey Barr. She was born in Philadelphia in 1797 and lived there until 1816, when she was married to Zacharia S. Conger, a young man of Morristown, NJ, who had been honorably discharged at Philadelphia after service in the recent War of 1812. Mr. Conger was five years her senior. The young couple married on the 3rd of July, and the following day they turned their faces westward.

They journeyed until they reached Indiana. Here they stopped in what is now Dearborn County, until 1842, when they removed to this state arriving soon after the Indian treaty was made permitting white settlers in this part of the country.

The fall of 1845 brought a sad bereavement to Mrs. Conger in the death of her husband. This event occurring before the land sales, it devolved upon Mrs. Conger to make the purchase of a claim, which she did with the means at her disposal, securing a tract of land in the eastern edge of Wapello County. In the fall of 1860 she met with another bereavement in the death of three sons, all occurring within a period of three months.

During the latter years of Mrs. Conger's life she was much afflicted with ill health.

She is survived by two sons, one Benjamin, living here, the other Enoch, living in Oregon.

PROBLEM: According to the obituary of Tacy (Barr) Conger she lost 3 sons within three months in the fall of 1860. CFA II, p. 238 lists them as: Henry, 1841; Francis, 1845; John, 1847. Was Frances (Francis) a son of Zacharia Conger who died in Sep 1845? Who was the father of John Conger?

QUESTION: Where did Tacy Barr die? From the obituary it is not clear whether she died in Jefferson Co., IA where Fairfield lies or in Wapello Co., IA, to the west, where the Ottumwa lies. CFA II, p. 238 lists the death place as, Wapello Co., IA.

Zacharia S. Conger and Tacy Barr had the following children:

PARENTS: Jonas Conger and Parthena Pelfrey

QUESTION: Were Simeon and his wife really both born on 12 September?

RECOLLECTIONS-RESEARCHER:

The following conclusions concerning the birth, parentage and life of Simeon Washington Conger are based upon the research and trip of my mother, Beulah (Conger) Frehner and myself (Connie (Frehner) Money) to the states of Alabama, Georgia and others.

Records handed down through the family have always shown Simeon Washington (S.W.) to have been born, 12 Sep 1832. His father is said to have been, Jonas; his mother's name was not known. He supposedly had two brothers, Benjamin and Zachariah, and a sister, Annie.

It is our conclusion that S.W. was not born in 1832, but about 1820 and was considerably older than his wife, Eliza Ann McKinney, who supposedly was born 12 Sep 1839. We base our conclusions on the following items of information, which are not actual proof, but we feel offer enough evidence to warrant our conclusions.

He is listed on the 1848, 1849, and 1851 tax digests for Cobb county, Georgia. We had this information for some time, but what we didn't know was that the tax digests were for a "poll" tax. The poll tax was paid when an individual voted and a man had to be 21 to vote in the state of Georgia. It wasn't until 1943 that 18 year olds were allowed to vote. If this was true, then S.W. had to have been born no later than 1827 if he paid a poll tax in 1848 and could as well have been born prior to 1827.

It disturbed us that Simeon Washington [Conger] was not found on the 1850 US Census of Cobb county, Georgia, but I personally feel he was somehow missed. His son, William Jonas, was born in Georgia in 1858 and S.W. enlisted in Alabama in 1861.

The official US Census record of Randolph county, Alabama, for the year 1870, which we examined in the National Archives in Washington, DC gave his age as 50. This would indicate he was born, about 1820.

We conclude that Simeon Washington (Conger) was born around 1820 in Pendleton District, South Carolina. Sometime between 1820 and 1824 his family moved to Georgia, presumably near an area called Suwanne. It's possible they were Methodist, because [the parents of Simeon] Jonas Conger and Parthena Pelfry were married by a Methodist preacher named Richard Burdyne, on 24 Dec 1816 in Pendleton District, South Carolina. However, other family members were Baptist.

Simeon left Georgia between 1858 and 1860. He most likely went to Randolph county, Alabama, because he enlisted as a Private in the 125th Alabama Volunteer Infantry, Co. F, on 19 Oct 1861, at Wesobulga, Randolph, Alabama. The name of the town, Wesobulga, has since been changed to Cragford, but the creek near there is still called, Wesobulga Creek and in elections the Cragford area is still called, Wesobulga Beat.

While Simeon was in the army he received $11 a month pay. He was sick a good deal of the time. He complained of rheumatism and was in the 1st Mississippi Confederate States Army Hospital at Oxford, Mississippi. He was there at least through April of 1862. In November 1862, he was sick at Saltillo, Miss. In Sep. and Oct. of 1863 he apparently went home because he is listed as a possible deserter from the hospital. However, he was back with the army on 24 Nov 1863 to pick up clothing.

All of the known papers available show him signing his name with an "X".

Family records say that Simeon Washington [Conger] died at Elaxander, Alabama, and was buried in Sandy Level Cemetery. We feel that Elaxander is in reality, "Alexander." We visted the "Sunny" Level Cemetery, near Alexander. There were no Conger headstones, but [there were] many many unmarked graves. There is another Alexandira, not far from Linesville.

Judging from the little bit of information we have concerning Simeon Washington Conger, I feel that he must have been very poor, most likely uneducated, but with a sense of responsibility to perform his duties as a good citizen by voting and by serving in the Confederate Army, although he was not a slave holder himself. [Note: These two researchers do not cite sources for their information. They reach a number of conclusions that may or may not be possible to prove. LAND: Zachariah Conger, 1828, once owned the land that is now the prime area of downtown Atlanta, GA where the Henry Grady Hospital sits.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 43a - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

RELATIONSHIP: Zacharia Conger and Pamela Davenport were sweethearts, but they broke up and each married someone else. When Zacharia returned from the Civil War they were reconciled and married. No one seems to know what happened to their first mates. (CFA I, p. 556)

SPOUSE: Zachariah Conger was the 2nd spouse of Mrs. Pamela (Davenport) Parks.

DEATH: Died of cancer of the ear and face, at the home of his son, Joseph Jonas Conger. He had been hit with a mini-ball during the war, which probably caused the cancer. (CFA I, p. 556)

RECOLLECTIONS: Researcher Willa Dean (Beall) Eaves wrote, "From all the descendants of Zacharia Conger I have talked with, I keep hearing the story of how the Congers owned the land which is now the prime area of downtown Atlanta, [GA], on which the largest bank and the Henry Grady Hospital sit."

"The Gwinnett county courthouse was burned in 1871 and through some sort of fraud and no records of proof, the Congers lost the land.

My great uncle says my grandfather, (Jonas Joseph Conger) was born on that very land. Boundaries have changed so much, and I believe that section has now become Fulton county."

for Billy (William Jonas) and his baby sister, Marietta. Though William was very small he remembered vividly how hard his mother worked to keep the home and children. Many times in the snow and sleet of winter she went to the woods for fuel to provide warmth for the children.

Their food was meager, consisting of corn bread and bran coffee. For a while they had milk, but their faithful old cow ventured too far into the swampland and sank in the mud and died. They were without milk until Simeon drew enough money from the army to buy another cow. Their clothing, bedding, etc. was all made at home from hand woven cloth. Billy often held a pine torch for his mother to see by as she wove far into the night. He also went into the fields to gather Sumac berries, which she mixed with walnut hulls and cooperas, to dye her thread.

When Simeon returned from the war, he leased a farm from a man who owned a grist mill. Simeon worked for as little as 14 pounds of corn per day to provide for his family. He died when Billy was 14 years old. A year later, Eliza married a man named, James Bowers, and William left home shortly thereafter.

William hired out to a man who was to pay him $50.00 cash, a suit of clothes and one month of schooling for a year's work. When time came for settlement the man didn't want to pay him, but finally handed him a note for $25.00, due the next fall.

He first saw his future wife at a music school, but didn't get to meet her until later. He was invited by her brother, Walter Mitchell, to spend the Christmas holidays at their home. While there, William and Walter went to a "house-raising." William's axe slipped and cut a deep gash in his foot. This wound was sewn up with a darning needle and black thread by an elderly man who was working on the house. He was taken back to Walter's home to recover from his wound. Hicksey, his future wife, acted as his nurse for a week and that is when their courtship began. They were married by Calvin Knight, a Baptist minister.

They rented a farm for one year, from Rev. Knight, and their principal crop was cotton and corn. The next year they bought a farm of their own, at Delta, Alabama, and it was there their first two children were born.

In the spring of 1881 they moved to Shinbone Valley, Buckeye, Clay county, Alabama and bought another farm. It was here the William Jonas Conger heard that the Mormon Missionaries were speaking in a schoolhouse not far from his home. He and a friend rode over to see if it was true that Mormons were different. He was quite surprised to find them quite normal. Soon after hearing them speak he was baptized.

In 1890, William left Alabama with his wife and six children and settled in Spring City, Utah. His wife and children were baptized after reaching Utah.

The family stayed there about a year and then returned to Alabama for another ten years.

In 1901, they again moved to Utah and settled in Parawan, Iron county, Utah. About a month after they arrived, the whole family was quarantined with smallpox for 5 weeks. William obtained work with the Stark Brothers Nursery, where he remained six years. From there they moved to Washington county in the southern part of Utah, and then to Wiser Ranch, Moapa, Clark county, Nevada.

COMMENT: Often called the most beloved and popular of college fraternity songs, "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" was written in 1911 by Byron D. Stokes (Albion, Class of 1913) and F. Dudleigh Vernor (Albion, Class of 1914). Stokes had written the words while in class one June day that year, and presented them that afternoon to Vernor, who was practicing the piano in a local house, and composed the music at that time. The song has since become a favorite among ballroom orchestras and was used in two movie musicals of the same name, in 1933 and 1946. When asked about the song's inspiration, Stokes replied, "The 'Sweetheart' is the symbol for the spiritual ingredient in brotherhood. It was the Sigma Chi Fraternity itself that inspired the song. I wrote the words not long after my initiation, and the magic of our Ritual with its poetic overtones and undertones was, I suppose, the source of my inspiration".

The song was first sung by Harry Clifford (Albion '11), who later drew the cover for the original sheet music published by Vernor's brother Harry Vernor (Albion '13). The song became a big band hit, has in film and television, and continues to be recognized around the world. Through the years many people have tried to pin the title of "original sweetheart" on many women, however the two most likely candidates are Elsie Munro (Vernor's girlfriend) and Helen Beall Russell, who lived next to the old chapter house. Either way since then the concept of the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi has gained popularity all across the world with the adoption of sweethearts at every chapter and even an international sweetheart.

Lyrics: The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi Words by Byron D. Stokes, Albion 1913

When the world goes wrong, as it's bound to do

And you've broken Dan Cupid's bow

And you long for the girl you used to love the maid of the long ago

Why light your pipe, bid sorrow avaunt,

Blow the smoke from your alter of dreams

And wreath the face of your dream-girl there

The love that is just what it seems.

The girl of my dreams is the sweetest girl

Of all the girls I know

Each sweet co-ed, like a rainbow trail

Fades in the after glow

The blue of her eyes and the gold of her hair

Are a blend of the western sky

And the moonlight beams
On the girl of my dreams
She's the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

The girl of my dreams is the sweetest girl
Of all the girls I know
Our sweet romance
Like a timeless dance
Dwells in my heart and soul

The love in her eyes and the warmth of her smile
Endure as the years go by

And the moon still beams
On the girl of my dreams
Like a bright shining star in the sky
My sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

BIOGRAPHY: John W. Conger

Among the many industries that have employed the hand of man, none are more ancient, more widely followed, and more necessary for the sustenance of the race than those of raising stock and farming. Grant county, [OR] has a wide awake, progressive and intelligent company of patriotic citizens who have given themselves to the prosecution of these industries and prominent among them is the gentleman of whom we now have the pleasure of writing and who has been instrumental in assisting materially in the development of the resources of the county and its substantial progress, as well as demonstrating his ability and good financiering in handling his own private affairs.

Mr. Conger was born in Lane county, Oregon, on March 7, 1861, being the son of Permellia (Hall) Conger, who migrated to that county, whither they had come from their native state, Indiana. Remaining with his parents, in working on the farm and in attendance upon the public schools, the minority of John W. was passed, and in 1879 he came direct to this valley and settled on his present place, which is six miles from Longcreek.

He took a pre-emption and also a homestead, and then bought one hundred and sixty acres more, which gives him the generous estate of four hundred and eighty acres. To the improvement and cultivation of this land he has given his careful attention since and the result is that unbounded success has been the meed of his endeavors.

In addition to this he handled sheep for two years immediately succeeding his advent here, then in company with his brother they handled them on share for eight years, wherein he has prospered continuously, owing to his vigilance in every detail and his sagacity and executive ability in manipulating the enterprise.

After the close of this time he sold the entire bands and alone bought cattle, which he has been handling since with his accustomed success and prosperity. His fine farm is well improved, having a comfortable house and large barn and other accessories.

The marriage of Mr. Conger and Miss Olive E., daughter of John P. and Harriet V. Baird, of Sumpter, occurred in October 1888, and they have become the parents of three children: Willard M., deceased; Addie B., deceased; Sadie Marie.

In 1881 Mr. Conger's parents removed from their donation claim in the Willamette valley to Longcreek where the mother is still living, but the father died in 1895. Mr. Conger is a member of the Modern Woodmen of America, at Longcreek. He is one of the substantial and successful men of the county and actively interested in public matters, every manifesting uprightness and integrity.

RESEARCHER: Elijah Hagens Conger, D.D.S. paid to have the records of Charles Leslie Conger, [in the collection of the Library of Congress] microfilmed. He then purchased a reader and with the help of his wife, Carrie, retyped them, making three copies. The project required about three years. The film was donated to the Salt Lake Genealogical Society. After Elijah's death, his copy was given to his sister, Era (Conger) Jones. She loaned it to H. Maxine (Crowell) Leonard for copying.

RESEARCHER: Elijah Hagens and Carrie Iola (Braden) Conger

Elijah Hagens Conger, born on 22 Oct 1878 in either Shiloh, Randolph county, AL or Dempsey, Clay county, AL was another person who was very interested in Conger genealogy and history.

He learned that the papers of Charles Leslie Conger, including the correspondence, was in the Rare Book Division of the Library of Congress. In 1941, while living in Caliente, Nevada he made these records available to the public.

In a letter to Maxine Leonard dated, 4 Mar 1963, Elijah's wife, Carrie, wrote, "My husband did so much research and received so much information from so many different people. I am quite sure that he received the information from Charles L. Conger's widow that he had deposited these eight volumes in the Library of Congress in Washington, DC. I know he wrote to the Library and made arrangements to have the eight volumes microfilmed. Cost $32.00. Then he had to buy a reading machine, $75.00, so that we could type them back into book form. As my husband was practicing his profession (dentistry) at this time we could only do this typing in our spare time, it took us three years to complete the assignment. As you can see the spelling is far from correct. That was one thing my husband just couldn't master. He wrote a beautiful hand, though. When we finished typing the films my husband deposited them in the Genealogy Library in Salt Lake City, UT."

In another letter Carrie explained that Charles Leslie Conger's eight volumes were made into four books in re-typing the records, and that there were 990 pages. They made two sets -- the original and one carbon. One set was given to Dan Conger (nephew, Dan Lewis Conger? ) and after Elijah's death the other was given to his sister, Era (Conger) Jones of Overton, Nevada. (Of the 990 pages, much space was wasted by so many indentations. Copies of all correspondence was included also. [Probably a comment my Maxine Leonard. REH])

Era (Conger) Jones later let Maxine (Crowell) Leonard copy the books one at a time.

Elijah Hagens Conger died on 2 Dec 1950 at Las Vegas, Clark county, NV. His wife, Carrie Iola (Braden) Conger, who was born on 19 Apr 1880 in Wildwood, Randolph Co. AL, died on 5 Jun 1966 at Oakland, Alameda Co. CA.

RECOLLECTIONS: Beulah LaVoun (Conger) Frehner, oldest child, wrote the following: This was dictated to me, 1 Mar 1965, at his home, 4300 Evergreen, Las Vegas, Nevada. Papa was 82 years old on the 12th of February 1965. His health is good, he is active, drives his car to Overton and around Las Vegas. He doesn't take long trips anymore. He mows the lawn and last summer painted his house. He and his wife, May, have been married since 1946. They have a dog, Bobo, who Papa says can talk to him.

Papa believes his name is Simeon David Conger, but [he] was known only as "S.D." Conger until 17 years old. At that time he needed to write his name out in full and wrote it as, Samuel David Conger, which was later shortened to Dave. His records in Salt Lake City are, Samuel David.

I asked Papa when he first came to the Valley, he said, "on August 2, 1905." I will try to tell it just like he did.

I had been living in Milford, Utah. Pa and Ma, Era, Agnes and Zeke had moved to the Wiser Ranch and the girls were lonesome, because they had no one to take them down the valley. My folks had been on the ranch two or three months.

I came from Milford to Moapa on the train, then on a buck-board. I can't remember the name of the man who drove it. He was the first person I met from the valley. I left in September and went to Arizona, New Mexico, California and Old Mexico. This was the year 1906, when San Francisco had its great earthquake. Bill Gann and Bert Thomas went along with me and we swam our horses across the Colorado River at Greggs Ferry. Then I came back and went to work for Old Man Gunn. I worked for him about two years, from 1907 to 1909.

In 1910 the first day of January the big flood came down, it washed out the railroad track in the Meadow Valley, leaving the train on an island. It was six months before the train was moved back to Las Vegas. But they took the people off the train the day after the flood.

(Note from Connie (Frehner) Money, Beulah's daughter: At the time of the flood the Arthur Lewis family was living on the Capalapa Ranch between Logandale and Overton in wooden floored tents. Dave went with some other men on horseback to see if the family needed any help. This was the first time he met Maybell Rosalie Lewis, a very lovely, talented girl who used to sing with her two sisters in the Tabernacle Choir. The Lewis family wasn't too happy that Dave was courting their daughter for the next six months. He seemed too wild a young man, racing his horse through town, but Dave married Maybell and they lived on the Pixton Ranch.)

The water from the flood was from one side of the valley to the other. The Wells, Bowman and Gunn homes were all that was in the upper part of Logandale. The water came all the way from Panaca and down the Meadow Valley wash. Some parts of Logandale didn't get water.

In 1902, an Indian named, Swain, that I knew went on a rampage (maybe it was his daddy) and he killed Albert Jones' half-brother. He was tried in St. Thomas and turned over to the Indians to kill. Now it was either the son had to kill his father or the father had to kill his son, I have forgot which. They tied the Indian to his horse, his feet under the horse's belly and his hands around the neck, and sent him towards the reservation. On the way the Indians shot him in the back and buried him at the reservation.

Two years before, Pa was selling fruit trees in the valley. Pa was in St. Thomas and sleeping on one side of a hay stack. On the other side was an Indian who had run away with another Indian's squaw. During the night he was killed by the squaw's buck. He killed him with a wagon horn. A wagon horn was used to hook wagons together, then the teams would be put at the front to pull all the wagons.

The first family who lived in Logandale was Bert Mills. Pa had leased the Wiser ranch and I lived with them, Elijah was still in Parawan, Era, Agnes and Zeke and Ma were there but the rest were still in Alabama. I didn't get married until four and a half years after I first came to the valley. I lived, or we lived, in Overton, but I rode a horse or drove a buggy to Capalapa Ranch where I worked for Dan Livingston. I helped build the three houses, then we moved into one of them. We raised sheep and alfalfa, until Livingston went broke. He owed me $1,200. I went to a lawyer in Las Vegas to collect it, and he did for half. The lawyer's name was Bustead.

There was another flood while we lived on the Capalapa Ranch, but it had more channels to go down. I had to pick the pigs, sheep and chickens out of the water on horseback. That was about 1918, when there was lots of flu. I took you kids and your mother down to Overton in a hayrack. I don't remember where you stayed. The pigs, sheep and chickens were put in an empty house next door to where we lived to keep them alive or from drowning. We raised hay and grain and asparagus. The Lewis family raised cantalopes when they first moved to the ranch.

We moved to the Weber ranch and lived there about three years. That was where Dan was born, May 10th, 1921, and that was where we had smallpox. I had already had the smallpox when we lived in Parowan, so I was able to nurse many people who were sick.

While we were living on the Weber ranch, I bought our place in Kaolin. That was in 1922. I also owned a piece of ground next to Perkins store. Beatrice was born on June 28, 1917 when we lived there. We thought she wouldn't live. Mrs. Lytle was the midwife in those days. I don't know how many of our children were delivered by her.

We also lived in the house that Clarence McDonald had lived in. You kids rode the bus to get to school. Except when you and Dave and Carl Marshall drove to school in a wheeled buggy with one horse. That was when you (Beulah) were in first grade. We lived on the Overton Ranch, just a little way from town. That was where we were living when Whitehead's tractor went through the corner of the house and just missed Elinor's buggy.

When we lived on the Overton Ranch, Harry Hill came to town. He helped me and from then on when he came back each spring he camped somewhere on my ground. Brig Whitmore had a store in Overton when I first went there. I mean the valley. He also was the first Bishop in Overton. His wife was named, Mame Perkins.

I was ordained an Elder by Willard Jones. We were married in St. George on May 10th, 1910 and about two and one-half years later went through the temple in Salt Lake City, Utah. That was the 9th of October, 1912.

I was the first Scout Master in Moapa Valley, and for twelve years. I was a counselor in the M.I.A. Edwin Wells was the president. We had a long way to go in those days. (He remembered something else and forgot to say how far they traveled.)

When we moved from the Weber Ranch to Kaolin I had already built chicken coops and runs and bought 500 chickens from Bert Galloway. I built a cellar to put my incubators in. I could hatch 2500 chickens at a time. I sold baby chicks in Overton, Bunkerville and Misquite. I sold fryers to a meat market in Las Vegas for 15 cents each. I also sold eggs to a cafe in the old Overland building. I went into the egg business with Albert Jones, Clarence Lewis and John Lewis and one other person. I can't remember the person, but I do remember all the dirty eggs that had to be washed.

I was water boss for about 10 years. I didn't have anything but trouble. If the water got turned off at the upper Muddy it took 24 hours for it to get turned back on and down the ditches again. If the Indians turned it off we couldn't do anything about it because there was some kind of agreement with the government.

We were living in Kaolin when Maybell died. When you kids went to school I took Naomi and Charles with me in the "Puddle Jumper" that I drove to tend the water. The kids had Scarlet Fever after Mama died and I would leave water for the ones who were too sick to go to school or go with me and tell them not to get out of bed. I don't think they did much, because the others would tell on them. Maybell and I had ten children. I lived in the valley 28 years altogether.

When the government bought us out I had married Jesse Harrison and we moved to Hurrican[e], Utah. We lived together for five years, then we divorced and I moved back to Overton for a while.

I married May Caldwell in June 21, 1946. Kent was my youngest. He asked May what her name used to be, and she said, "Change the name, not the letter; change for worse, not for better." Kent became most indignant and said, "And what's the matter with Conger?"

We used to have good times on the 4th of July and other holidays. We would have horse races. I remember Joe Perkins had a gray stallion, and John Bunker had a gray mare. John bet Joe his mare could beat his stallion in a race, but Joe's stallion won. John was so sure that his mare would win they set up a race for the 24th of July and bet $5.00, but Joe's stallion won. The mare was fast at running but not long-winded.

We had a cross-lot pulling. I had the best horse, her name was "Gyp." She pulled eleven men on a cross wagon. I won $5.00 off Huntsman. We pulled in a street across from where Bishop Jones lived. We chain-locked both wagons. The horses were on the end of the tongue. She had to pull 10 inches by stretching without raising her feet. We each had ten men on each wagon. I told little Joe Perkins to get on because he didn't weigh much. Gyp pulled eleven against the other ten. The horses were owned by Huntsman, who lived by Windy Jones.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Connie (Frehner) Money adds that after the completion of the dam, Dave worked as a guide in the dam for a number of years. He met May Caldwell in Boulder City, and they lived there many years. Dave and May at one time ran the station at Wheaton and later he was the night clerk at the Charleston Hotel in Las Vegas.

During his lifetime Dave became noted for his unselfish assistance to needy families, sometimes much to the chagrin of his own family. Once he brought home a woman with her six children, and they remained for two weeks, including the Thanksgiving holidays.

May was a great help and companion to Dave. Her devotion to him and her hard work during all their time together was a source of admiration and appreciation, especially during his illnesses, by the children, grandchildren and the many friends of Dave. Her great sense of humor and easy conversation were a pleasure to Dave as these were his outstanding qualities also. A guest in their home couldn't help but feel the joy of their association and know that they were blessed with a special kind of happiness.

RECOLLECTIONS: Life Sketch of Ezra (Conger) Jolley McGavin

Ezra Tooele Conger was born March 28, 1885 in Buckeye, Alabama to William and Hicksey Ann Mitchel [sic] Conger. She was the fourth of seven children.

There home was a small acreage cleared in the woods, where they raised cotton, peanuts, sweet potatoes, a few sheep for wool, a milk cow and a span of muloes for plowing. Everyone helped with the farm work. They raised their own food and clothing. The cotton and wool would be spun into thread on the spinning sheel then woven into cloth on the loom. They knit their own sweaters and hose from the wool and made their clothes from the cotton material.

Her mother being in poor health, she was needed at home so was only priviledged to go to school to the fourth grade. However, through experiece she was educated in the important things of life.

The Missionaries converted her family to the Gospel in 1890 so she was raised in a Latter-day Saint home and was baptised when 8 years old.

In January 1901 the family moved to Parawan, Utah, then later to Washington, Utah. Here Ezra worked in the cotton mill and hired out as a maid to families and hotels. While living there she met and married Reuben James Jolley, July 13, 1905. He was a widower with four small children so even as a bride she began raising a family.

To this union was born five daughters and six sons, one son dying in infancy, making a total of fourteen children that came under her influence.

In 1913 they moved to Oakley, Idaho. Her husband came overland by team and wagon while she came on the train with the smaller children. It took her husband six weeks to make the trip. He then helped build the canals on the Oakley Project. Later they moved to Albion, Idaho and in 1918 moved to the Burley Project.

They settled on a farm and there is no reason to think that farm life with a family the size of the Jolley's was easy. Husband and wife worked side by side to raise their children and give them a testimony of the Gospel that they might grow up to be honorable and respectable men and women.

In 1940 her husband died leaving her with four sons still at home. She worked at many different places and on one occasion even moved to Portland, Oregon to manage a hotel, but in 1955 she moved back to Burley, ID.

For 17 years she was a widow, but while doing Temple work at Idaho Falls she met Roland McGavin who she married in the Idaho Falls Temple on February 27, 1957. They did a great deal of Temple Work until his death in May 1961. Though left again a widow she was never idle. One might say that she did not live alone because her hands, with their accomplishments in various kinds of needlework, from small fancy stitching to quilt making, kept her not only busy but seemed to give companionship, because she was making these things as a labor of love for her many children, grandchildren and others near and dear to her. One can be sure that these articles made with the labor of love will be cherished by their owners for many years to come.

She had a firm testimony of the gospel and her church activities were many, her main love being for the Relief Society organization and she was a visiting teacher for many years.

After five days of illness she died at the Cassia Memorial Hospital on June 28, 1973 at 4:45 a.m. as the dawn was breaking in the eastern sky to begin a new day.

She is survived by ten children:

- Agnes Hogg, Jerome, Idaho
- Tallie Vanek, Portland, Ore.
- Wanda Anderson, Boise, Idaho
- William Jolley, Rupert, Idaho
- Carol Rayborn, Baker, Ore.
- Lula Mae Baird, Boise, Idaho
- Anthony Jolley, Bruneau, Idaho
- James Jolley, Molalla, Ore.
- Edsel Jolley, Talon, Ore.
- John J. Jolley, Boise, Idaho

Three step-children:

- Delpha Westover, Salt Lake City, Utah
- Ella Mercier, Hollywood, Cal.
- Bryan Jolley, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Forty-three grandchildren, eighty four great grandchildren, and eight great great grandchildren, a grand total of one hundred and forty-five progeny.

She is buried in the Pleasant View Cemetery at Burley, Idaho, beside her husband and infant son.

BIOGRAPHY: Ezra Jolley McGavin

Ezra Jolley McGavin, who at nearly 85 years of age now stays "young" by keeping busy making quilts, afghans, fancy work, attending church regularly and walking, was born March 27 [sic 28], 1885 in Buckeye, Ala.

When 12 years of age, she moved with her family to southern Utah. She married Reuben J. Jolley on July 13, 1905. In 1913 they moved to Oakley, traveling overland with their horses and wagons, camping along the way.

In Oakley her husband worked for a construction company building the canals. They later moved to Albion which at that time was the county seat of Cassia County.

In 1918 the family moved from Albion to the Burley project where they farmed for many years. Her husband died in 1940, and in 1957 she married Roland McGavin. He died in 1961.

Mrs. McGavin is the mother of 11 children, 10 still living. She has 40 grandchildren, 66 great grandchildren and two great great grandchildrn - 119 descendants. She also reared four step-children.

She will soon be 85 years old, is still active and cares for herself. In the summertime she can be seen outside at her home in Burley, wearing her sunbonnet, tending her flowers.

Ezra Tooele Conger and Reuben James "Rube" Jolley were married on 13 Jul 1905 in Utah. Reuben James "Rube" Jolley, son of Washington Lafayette Jolley and Emily Knight, was born on 13 Feb 1866 in Washington, Washington Co., UT. He was buried in Oct 1940 in Burley, Cassia/Minidoka Co., ID, Pleasant View Cemetery. He died on 5 Oct 1940 at the age of 74 in Burley, Cassia/Minidoka Co., ID. Reuben James Jolley

AKA: Called, Rube, in biographical sketch written by his daughter, Hicksey Caroline.

CHILDREN: 13 children living at the time of this death.

MARRIAGE: Reuben James Jolley was a widower with four small children when he married Ezra Tooele Conger on 13 Jul 1905.

RECOLLECTIONS: Reuben James Jolley

Reuben James Jolley was born, on 13 Feb 1866 at Washington, Utah, the second son of Washington Lafayette Jolley and Emily Knight. He was the fifth child of a family of ten children. His father's family was one of the first families to be called, by President Brigham Young, to southern Utah to start a settlement. Some of the families became discouraged by the many hardships and went back to their former homes, but Washington stayed.

Life was very hard for the few families in the little settlement on the Virgin River. Many times they did not have enough to eat or wear and they had to work very hard to make a living. Reuben had very little time to go to school, therefore he only got to the fourth grade. Nevertheless, he was well educated from life experience. His parents taught him the Gospel and the important things in life. One winter he had no shoes so he carried a pan of hot ashes to school with him to keep his feet warm.

He would go with his father to sell vegetables, chickens, eggs and other produce to the mining towns and surrounding communities. On a trip in 1889, his father was taken ill with pneumonia and he drove the horses to their limit to get him home to a doctor. In spite of all the doctor could do, his father died 8 November 1889, leaving his mother a widow with four small children.

Reuben played several musical instruments as well as having a good singing voice. He played in the town band and also a dance orchestra. He could play the guitar and harmonica at the same time, or the organ and harmonica. He had talent as an actor and would go from town to town with a troupe and put on shows, among them many minstrel shows. The townspeople of the many small towns in southern Utah enjoyed these shows very much and there would always be a good turn out, as there was very little entertainment in those days. This also helped the actors to make a living for their families as well as having a very enjoyable time themselves. He was a caller for square dances and composed several songs.

He was a very good teamster and took great pride in his horses. Horse racing was a very popular pastime in those days and he always had a horse to enter in a race. These races were very important events and would be talked about for days ahead and would always draw a large crowd. Much betting would go on among the horse owners.

He married Margarite Alice Jackson, in St. George Temple. Alice was the daughter of Johnston Jackson and Alice Robinson. She was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, and came to Dixie with her parents. She worked in the cotton factory when she was so small she had to sit on a high stool to reach the loom.

After Margarite's death, Reuben James married Ezra Tooele Conger, daughter of William Jonas Conger and Hicksey Ann Clementine Mitchell. Her family was converted to the Latter-day Saints church in Alabama and moved to Utah in 1891. They moved to Idaho in 1912 and followed farming.

He was an Elder in the church and enjoyed the church all his life, especially singing in the choir. He had a pleasant disposition and made many friends.

He died at the age of 74, leaving his widow and family of 13 living children and many friends.

RECOLLECTIONS: In October 1969 he wrote, "I have followed many occupations from driving a street car in Kansas City to teaching Adult Education during the Depression. At present I am Managing Editor and Business Manager of "The Liberty Press," a weekley newspaper at Liberty Center, Ohio.

"My biography would fill a book. I have been nearly everywhere and seen nearly everything, and am still a student, both of history and mankind.

"My father was Charles L. Conger, also born in Douglas county, Kansas, and was born in the late 1850's [sic, 1862]. He was a Jack-of-all-trades and master of none. My grandfather was John Conger, b. 1817, who moved from New York state before the Civil War, coming overland alone and shipping his furniture by water down through the Gulf, up the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers to Westport landing (now Kansas City) and then overland to his homestead in Douglas county, Kansas. He operated the first underground station for run-away slaves out of Missouri and missed being burned out by Quantrell by a hair. He was a dairy farmer and sold butter to the army at Fort Leavenworth.

"My father, Charles, moved to Lawrence from Hesper when I was five years old so that he could send me to school at Lawrence.

"I left Kansas in 1927, and have traveled from coast to coast and border to border and followed many trades in my travels. If you (Maxine Leonard) think you are the 'crazy cousin,' you ain't seen nothin' yet! My experiences would make Mark Twain look like a piker. I may write them someday, in spite of the embarrassment it might cause my children.

"I wish you the best of success in your work on genealogy. You must be a detective or a skip tracer at heart."

"Mr. Hulburt's oldest daughter is at this minute more than 12,000 miles away, being the wife of Presbyterian clergyman, George P. Conger, whom she met at Heidelberg while she and her younger sister were traveling in Europe. Mr. Conger was associated with John R. Mott, the International YMCA Secretary and after their marriage here was sent to a point 400 miles north of Vladivostok, on the Pacific north of China, to make life tolerable as he can for 100,000 German prisoners taken by the Russians. These include lots of German students and professors to whom Mr. Conger, speaking their own language, is most acceptable. Mrs. Conger was taken ill at Petrograd, last January, after a voyage across replete with many experiences, and remained there for a time, afterwards making the journey across Siberia, to her husband, 5,800 miles alone. The younger sister is at present Mr. Hulburt's secretary."

RECOLLECTIONS: Rememberances

I remember Uncle Elijah Conger. He lived in Utah and my mother would go there to visit him. I remember Aunt Era who lived in Nevada. My mother would go there to visit her. My oldest sister, Agnes had the middle name of Era after my Aunt Era. My sister, Agnes, married Ray Hogg. I remember Aunt Agnes who lived in Utah and Uncle John Jay. My brother, John Jay, was named for him.

I remember Grandpa Conger. He rode the bus to Rupert, Idaho and walked from the bus stop to our farm. I was about 5 years old when he came the first time and I was hanging on the fence. He came over and asked me if this was where Ezra Jolley lived and I told him it was. He had fiery red hair and was not a very tall man. My mother said he was Welsh and Irish. He was a jolly type of guy.

I remember HixAnn Mitchell. Her real name was Hicksey Ann Clementine Mitchell. She married William Jonas Conger. They lived un at Albion, Idaho on the south side of Burley. I was born in Albion and Lula Mae, my younger sister, was born in Albion. She was called "Rusty" because of her fiery red hair. Agnes went to school in Albion. She was 10 years older than I was. Agnes is 95 years old now and I will be 85 years old next April.

Since my birthday was on April Fools Day my mother always had buttermilk setting in front of my plate for breakfast. She knew I didn't like buttermilk, but she thought that was a good April Fools joke.

When my mother, Ezra, was growing up in Alabama, her grandparents lived on one side of the woods and her parents lived on the other side of the woods. She would go through the woods to get from one place to the other. Bootleggers were all over at that time and they had set up a still in the woods. They dumped the fermented sour mash in a gully in the woods and a bunch of pigs found it and ate it all up. When Ezra came through the woods here was this bunch of pigs staggering and running around in circles, drunk as could be. She often said she wondered if the people who ate those pigs realized that they were eating bootlegger pork.

Mother once said that Grandpa Conger had six wives, all at different times, and his wives kept dying on him. I remember one named, Molly, I believe. He lived to be 96 years old. He used to love to dance and every Friday night would go to the square dances. He drove a car right up until he died. He died in a car accident on a Friday night coming from a dance. He was coming out of a side road onto a main highway and a big freight truck collided with him and he died. This was before I was married and I was married in 1934.

Ezra was real religious and used to have my brother, Bill, drive her to church in the Model A Ford. "Rube," my dad, was also religious when he was younger but as he got older he didn't go to church much. Ezra saw that the girls went to church also.

Rube Jolley was an alcoholic and he would come home after drinking most of the night and not be able to find the gate to the house. Ezra would go out and lead him into the house. He had a fiery temper and would use a whip on me if I crossed him in any way. There was an old shed in the yard and sometimes he would lock me in that shed while he went to get his whip.

He would whip me across the back, but I would never let him see me cry.

When I did something Ezra didn't like she would say, "You are just like your Pa!" I didn't mind being like my Pa because he would get mad and then forget it, but she never did. She would come in when I was little and after I had gone to bed she would switch my legs with a willow switch. I couldn't get away from her because I was up against the wall. I didn't feel that was playing fair and she was just plain sneaky and mean.

When I was five Ezra had a baby boy, named Woodrow, who died. He was born in Janauray and got pneumonia. She kept him in the bedroom laid out on a wide windowsill and would sit in the rocker beside him and rock back and forth. The undertaker was in town and in those days they had the viewing in the home. The ground was frozen and they had to wait for a warmer day to bury him.

After Reuben and Ezra were living in Utah, they moved to Albion, Idaho and bought a farm. From Albion they moved to Rupert, Idaho and from Rupert they moved to Burley, Idaho. Reuben bought a farm and big fancy house, with a wrap-around porch from this man. Just when he had the crops planted and everything was going well, a man pulled into the yard and asked where the manager was. He said this was his farm and the fellow had no business selling it. He took over the farm and we had to move to Burley. The man that sold Pa the farm had gone to Canada and couldn't be touched by the law. About the same time, the Depression started, and the banks closed. Reuben lost a lot of money when the banks closed. He had a little house in Burley that we moved to. With all those kids there wasn't much room. I had to walk two miles to school. When it was real cold we didn't have to go to school. Reuben worked in a brickyard in Burley. He had a beautiful set of horses and a wagon that he used to haul bricks from one place to another.

Ray Hogg, whom Agnes married, was a preacher-type. He dressed like he had just stepped out of a band box. Agnes was working at Kings Department Store in Burley at the time. Ray Hogg had a borhter, named June, nicknamed Junior. He was a real rip-snorter. Agnes chose Roy Hogg over his brother. Ray Hogg was sick with asthma the last half of his life. He worked as a plasterer when he was younger. He died in a nursing home. Agnes is still alive.

Rube had a sister named, Caroline, and when I was born Pa was drunk and Ma named me for Hicksey Ann Conger and "Aunt Cad" (Caroline Jolley). She figured that would fix Rube for being drunk when I was born. Then "Aunt Cad" Hamaker and her husband couldn't have children and wanted to adopt me and have me live with them, because Ma was mean to me and didn't like me anyway, but even though she had plenty of children, she refused to let me go there.

Ezra raised turkeys from eggs to the table. I would help her with this. Those old turkeys were not very smart. I didn't mind working on the farm and would help her in most everything. She always asked me because she knew that Rusty would go and hide when something needed to be done. She knew Rusty wouldn't do her best, but I always did. I learned a lot about cooking, cleaning, and farming from that. I also used to help Ma make lye soap in the Spring. I would keep the fire going in the yard for her. Pa would let me ride on the tractor with him because he knew I wouldn't chatter. He was a lot older than Ma, this being his second marriage. Ma had children to raise almost as old as her when she married Pa. I didn't know my step-siblings very well. They were pretty well gone when I was born.

In the early 1960's Ezra lived in Baker, Oregon for awhile. She was living there with John Jay Jolley and one of his many wives, and then she was living just a block from where we had a small grocery store, named Rayborn's Market. She said she lived in the little house behind the big house. She was in pretty good health at that time.

When we lived in the mountains above Portland, Oregon in the 40's and 50's Ezra would come and visit us and stay for a week or two. She always said she could not see why we wanted to live out there where the only other living thing was a wild animal. She stuck a little kitten under her coat one time and took it away because she didn't think it was healthy for girls to have kittens sleeping in bed with them.

At the time were were living in the mountains above Portland, Oregon Lula Mae came to stay and said she wasn't feeling well. She was soon after diagnosed with tuberculosis and put in a sanitarium near Portland. We had to burn the bedding she was sleeping on and everything she touched. We had a big bonfire with the mattress, pillows, sheets, blankets and everything. She lost a lung because of that disease and her health was not completely good after that.

BIOGRAPHY:

Hicksey Caroline never went by that name. She went by Carol or Caroline. The Hicksey was signified by an H. Later she changed her name to just plain Caroline, and took off the Hicksey. The night that Caroline was born, Reuben James was drunk and Ezra said she would name the baby what she wanted to, because when Rube sobered up it would then be too late. She was named Hicksey for Hicksey Clementine Mitchell and Caroline for Aunt Caddy.

Caroline was closer to her dad than she was to her mother. She had a nature like her dads and Ezra used to say, "You are just like your dad." Caroline used to go out into the fields with Rube and follow him around. He would let her go with him when he wouldn't let the others. One time he got her a lipstick and gave it to her and told her don't tell the others. He used to treat her special, when he was sober. When he would come home drunk he would take a whip and beat her across her back, and lock her in a shed. She said it was her own fault, because she would "sass" him and he hated that.

Caroline was a real rebel rouser. She would go to dances, drink bootleg liquor, go out and party until late at night. Her sister, Wanda, and Rusty were worse partiers than her. She used to stay out of trouble quite well. She could talk her way out of any type of trouble. She could convince an eskimo that he needed a refrigerator, if there was something in it for her. She finished her schooling in Burley and then went to Portland to help her sister, Talley, with a new baby. When Talley no longer needed her help, she got a job with Tom and Alice Hayes as a housekeeper and babysitter.

Norman Rayborn, Walt Hayes, and some of the other family were in the yard playing horseshoes the day that Caroline came to the Hayes home for an interview. When Norman saw her walk down the block, he said, "That is the girl that I am going to marry." He married her three weeks later. Norman was 19 at the time they were married in Vancouver, WA. and Caroline was 18. Caroline said Norman had to kick Ethel Jacobus, age 34, out of his apartment before he could bring Caroline there to live. Norman learned life on the streets and grew up without a mother to tame him and polish him. He was a rather rough fellow, but a very good looking one.

Caroline was the one that had the ideas and knew how to follow through. She learned early in the marriage that Norman was used to having a woman to find solutions to his problems. That came from having two older sisters to mother him, and all the women he ever met that felt sorry for the "little orphan" and wanted to mother him. Caroline found out after her children were born that she couldn't count on Norman to see that they had all they needed and during the depression she used to go to the Fire Station in St. Johns and rustle whatever food they would give her, or go over to the welfare dept. and bully them into giving her can milk for her babies. Norman and Walt Hayes used to go out and steal chickens or potatoes or whatever they could find, just so that they would have something to eat. If there were jobs available, the men would go stand in line, but there were usually a hundred men for every job.

Caroline wore three inch high heels until she was in her seventies. The only reason she quit wearing them then, was because of the stroke that made one leg almost useless. She would do her housework every morning, and then in the afternoon she would get all dressed up in a nice crisp cotton housedress and do her hair up and put on her high heels, and be ready for Norman when he came home from work. He was always the most important one in the house when he came home from work. The kids were not to disturb him while he was reading the paper. Then after supper the kids could talk to him or sometimes he would rough house with them, and pretend like he was boxing with them. When Norman wasn't in the house, then her kids were the most important things to her. Her kids knew that they could always come to her with any problem, or to tell her anything and she would listen to them. If they needed a solution to a problem, she was also there to help them with that.

The grandkids loved to come see her when she had the grocery store because she always gave them a big sack of candy to take back home. She was always giving kids candy bars when they had a good report card and for years when the store was over by Brooklyn School, every report card day the kids lined up at the store to get their candy bar, if they had a good report card. If they didn't have a good report card, she would give them a little lecture and give them some penny candy anyway. She called all the kids that came in the store, "Her penny candy kids."

Caroline often said she was so glad to have lived through so many different eras. She lived through the horse and buggy era, the first car era, the astronaut era, the VCR era, the TV era, the telephone era, the train era, the electric car era, and so very many inventions that have made her life either easier or more complicated. The best invention she ever knew of was the telephone, and then there is the TV and the VCR, which she couldn't do without.

Hicksey Caroline Jolley and Norman Wesley Rayborn were married on 13 Jul 1934 in Vancouver, Clark Co., WA. Norman Wesley Rayborn, son of James Atlas Rayborn and Zora May Hayes, was born on 5 Oct 1914 in Brownsville, Linn Co., OR. He was buried in Jun 1998 in Baker, Baker Co., OR, Mt. Hope Cemetery. He died on 6 Jun 1998 at the age of 83 in La Grande, Union Co., OR. Norman Wesley Rayborn

BIOGRAPHY:

Norman Rayborn was born in Brownsville, Oregon in a square clapboard house. His mother died when Norman was ten years old. She died in the tuberculosis sanitarium in Troutdale, near Portland, Oregon. The family moved to Portland about 1920. They had moved around quite a bit. When Norman was thirteen, he was driving a delivery truck in Portland. He used to deliver bootleg liquor by keeping it in a special empty space under the seat. He worked for the 3C's for a time and ruined his stomach on grapefruit. He said they used to get grapefruit that was as sweet as an orange and they would peel them and eat them one after another. It burned his stomach out and he had stomach troubles the rest of his life. Norman worked at the Portland Woolen Mill for years. He used to drive the jitney (forklift) to pick up the bales of clothes. He brought home a big bag of buttons that kept the kids busy for hours at sorting them and threading them on string. He worked as a mechanic for Windolph Pontiac, before getting a job with Richfield Oil Corp. and moving to Baker, Oregon in 1954. He fixed TV sets in his spare time and one day got a shock that set off a heart attack at the age of 43. After that he bought a grocery store from Mildred Ransom at 1204 Washington Street and named it Rayborn's Market. Then he bought another store at 1303 Elm Street and moved the one store over there and called it Rayborn's Market. They sold the store and retired when he turned 65.

Norman liked to fish, take care of the yard, grow roses, watch baseball games (especially the Atlanta Braves), he watched all of the Blazer basketball games. He and Caroline bought some land up in Canada and was going to move there and homestead someday, but they never could find the money to do that, so they gave the land to their nephew, Kelly Snyder, and he sold it.

When Norman was born, James Atlas was 50 years old and Zora May was 40 years old. Norman was the baby of the family. Norman was an amateur boxer when he was in his teens. After he met Caroline he quit boxing. Norman had an 8th grade education. The teacher asked him to leave school because the other students in the class would go to Norman with their math problems, instead of going to the teacher. Norman was a math whiz and he could show them how to do any of the math problems, but it was never the way the teacher had taught it to be done, and the teacher finally told him there wasn't room in the classroom for two teachers. Norman could fix anything mechanical, but he may have parts left over when he got through fixing it, and it usually worked better than before he took it apart.

BIRTH: Certificate in possession of Sheila K. Morgan, 1940 Myrtle St, Baker City, Oregon, 1997.

BIOGRAPHY:

Sheila born in Portland, Multnomah, OR at Emanuel Hospital. Parents lived at 9476 N. Trumbull Ave. Portland, OR. Mother was 25 yrs old and Father was 26 yrs old. Father's occupation was a ship fitter at Willamette Iron and Steel in Portland, OR. Sheila was born at 3:10 a.m. and delivered by Dr. T.P. Staats. The mother had been in Oregon seven years when Sheila was born.

When Sheila was about one year old the family moved out into the country, about 20 miles from St. Johns, up in the hills. The nearest little town was Cornelius Pass where there was a little grocery store and Skyline Elementary School. The house was down in a gully, off Multnomah Road. Our address was Rt. 3 Box 402. We had a neighbor a half mile down the road, at the Washington County line, and his name was Mel Deal. He had a big wart on his nose and was awfully ugly, but very nice. He never did get married. Down the other way, a mile down the road, was Skyline Ranch where Albrights lived. They were rich and had a manager, Old Man Fred, who kept care of the place while they just came out on weekends. They raised sheep, a horse or two, etc. When it was time for the kids to go to school, a bus shack was built down by Skyline Ranch at the crossroads and the bus picked them up there. They went to Skyline Elementary School down by Cornelius Pass road. The house they lived in started out as a one room house and then later was built onto. There was no running water. Water was gotten from a spring down on Logey Trail where it was carried in large milk cans. Later a well was dug on the property. There was no indoor plumbing. The house was built on a kind of hill and the view was of the valley over by Hillsboro where there were berry farms.

The family moved to Baker, OR in the summer of 1954 when Norman got a job as maintenance man for Richfield Oil company. Sheila attended Helen M. Stack Junior High School and Baker High School, graduating in 1959. The family lived at 1134 Elm Street in a red brick house for a couple years and then bought a Mom and Pop grocery store, which they called Rayborns Market, that was located at 1204 Washington Street. After graduation from high school Sheila went to Medford,

OR and worked for American Finance Co. for a year. Then she joined the Air Force and was stationed first at Shephards Air Force Base in Wichita Falls, Texas, where she went to Teletype School and then was stationed at Travers Air Force Base, Fairfield, CA. She was honorably discharged in May 1961. She met Donald Morgan, who was stationed at the Baker Radar Base in Baker, OR. the summer of 1961. They became engaged in October 1961, and married in Boise, Ada, ID on Jan. 29, 1962.

Sheila was blessed in the St. Johns Branch, Portland Stake, Portland, OR on May 3rd, 1942 by Bishop Ira G. Wakefield. Sheila was baptized and confirmed a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on July 30, 1954 by Cantril Wyatt in the Baker Ward, Union Stake, Baker, Oregon with Kenneth Kofford as the Bishop. Sheila was sealed to Donald Morgan for time and all eternity in the Idaho Falls Temple on Aug. 1, 1968. Sheila received her patriarchal blessing in Rochester, N.Y. by John Stonely July 1968.

COMMENT:

Connie Money and her mother, Beulah (Conger) Frehner, did a lot of researching to establish the parents of Simeon Washington Conger. The summation was substantiated by some family notes found by Willa Dean (Beall) Eaves, [grand]daughter of Maude Conger, b. 1890, who is a descendant of Zachariah Conger, [son of Jonas Conger]. One fragment of paper stated, "Anna (sister) married Bill Finley." On the same paper was the notation, "Simeon Washington Conger, War 1861. Benjamin Conger, Indian War." (CFA I, p. 327)

John Eric Conger, 58, the former director of drunken-driving prevention programs for Colorado, was found guilty of driving while his ability was impaired by alcohol. When Conger was the state Transportation Department's director of safety, he administered the Law Enforcement Assistance Fund, which provides state grant money to communities to beef up drunken-driving prevention. According to the Denver Post, the police officer who arrested Conger in Grand Junction was working under that program.

Descendants of Benjamin Conger, Experience Foord

31 January 2015

He entered high school in NY, graduating from White Plains High School in 1953.

After enlisting in the Army, he attended leadership school at Fort Gordon, Ga., graduating with honors. He was later assigned to Fort Monmouth, where he taught microwave technology.

Ben married his high school sweetheart, Barbara New in 1955.

He attended Monmouth College/University, earning both BS degrees in physics/engineering and a Masters in Business.

While in West Long Branch, Ben served on the town's Planning Board and standards committee for SCI. During his 27 year career with Electronic Associates (EAI), he earned five patents and developed safety assessment software for nuclear power systems. Concurrently, he co-founded Nova and consulted for nuclear power plants, developing software programs under his own company, Systems Integration. Following his tenure with EAI, he moved to Maryland, employed by Texas Instruments. After eight years at TI, he relocated to Bellevue, Wash. as VP of ESCA Corporation. He attended McGill University obtaining certification in ISO 9000. Following ESCA's purchase by Cegelec, Ben and Barb moved to Coral Springs, Fla., where Ben continued consulting for Cegelec as QIP President. He later joined Citicorp as Assistant VP of software security systems for the Latin American Banking Division, receiving the Doors Master Award.

Ben enjoyed sailing, spending time with family, model trains and eating!

He is survived Barbara, his wife of 55 years; sons, Ken (Carole) and Brian; daughter, Bressia (Fred); brother, Bruce; and grandsons, CJ and Will.

Arrangements by Kraeer Funeral Home and Cremation Center, Coral Springs, Fla.

OBITUARY: Conger, Jon Charles, 65, 12/5/1945-1/10/2011

Jon Conger, devoted and loving husband and father, died Jan. 10, 2011, in Beaverton, [OR] after battling Parkinson's disease for 19 years.

Born in Hood River to Maurice and Arletha Meyers Conger, Jon graduated from Centennial High School in Gresham in 1963 and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in chemistry, post-graduate degree in business, and a master's degree in business administration from Portland State University.

Jon enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1968 and served in Vietnam. Later, he served 23 years in the U.S. Naval Reserve, retiring as a captain in 1993.

Jon married Bonnie Gilstrap in 1977. They were blessed with a son, David Conger, in 1982.

Jon enjoyed sharing his love of photography, model railroading, woodworking, computers, movies, and music with his son. His knowledge of trivia and historical facts amazed everyone. He had a subtle sense of humor hiding behind his quiet exterior. Jon worked for Cromwell Formal Wear in Portland for 12 years and for Georgia Pacific Corp. for 22 years. He managed GP's accounting and billing department when he retired for medical reasons in 2002.

He also served on the City of Beaverton's budget committee, audit committee, and Committee for Citizen Involvement, and was vice chair of the Greenway Neighborhood Association. A member of Murray Hills Christian Church since 1988, he was a deacon for six years and a member of the board of trustees.

After years of home care for Parkinson's disease, Jon spent the last 27 months of his life at Christiana's Adult Foster Home in Beaverton. The family deeply appreciates the compassionate care given by Georgeta Ivers and her caregivers.

Jeffrey Denys Morgan

BIOGRAPHY:

Jeffrey Denys Morgan was born in Baker, Oregon at four o'clock in the afternoon at the old St. Elizabeth Hospital on Fourth Street. It is now the St. Elizabeth Towers. It was on a Sunday afternoon. Dee Fuller, the doctor, had gone to LaGrande to a church meeting and got back in town just in time. Jeffrey wanted to get into the world in a hurry because the first pain was at eight in the morning and it only took until four o'clock to get the job done.

Jeffrey was thought to have colic from the time he was born until he was almost a year old. The pharmacist at the Payless Drug store told Sheila that he didn't see how a baby could have colic all that time. So she took the baby to Boise and the doctor told her that Jeffrey was allergic to cows milk and would have to be put on Soy milk. Jeffrey had projectile vomiting for all the time that he was on cows milk and the stomach pain was enough to make him scream in agony. His mother and Grandmother Rayborn would bounce and jounce him until he would finally fall asleep from exhaustion. Then the next time it was time to eat, they would go through the same thing again. Jeff was about three years old before he got over the allergy to cows milk. The doctor said Jeff didn't have the right digestive juice developed in his stomach for cows milk. Jeff was born a month early, although he weighed eight pounds, and the doctor in Boise said that would be enough for the digestive juice not to have developed properly.

Jeffrey was named for an actor, Jeffrey Hunter, and his middle name is for a school chum of his Dad's, Denys Clem. If it had of been a girl, Donald was going to be able to name her his favorite actresses name, which was Julie. That just shows how immature the parents of Jeffrey were when he was born.

When Jeffrey was born, Donald and Sheila lived over the old Gales Grocery on Broadway Street, where they had moved just a couple weeks before. In fact, going up and down the stairs was one reason the baby was born early, along with the problem of gestational diabetes, and the development of extra fluid in the mother. The gestational diabetes was caused by the craving for snow cones and the Dairy Queen being just a few blocks away from the Baker Street apartment. Every day Sheila would take coins from Donald's coin collections and go get a snow cone. Then when they moved almost next door to the Dairy

Queen, the temptation was just too great, and sometimes it was two snow cones a day.

When Jeffrey was about four months old, his grandparents from New York came to see him. That was the first time that Sheila had met her in-laws also. When Jeff was years old, Donald was discharged from the Air Force and they moved back to Paris Station, New York where his home was. They stayed with his parents for a time and he worked for Lincoln Davies and later Furners Appliances in Sauguoit.

Jeffrey was the little man of the hour, until 1964 when his brother, Kevin, was born. Jeffrey used to sit on the couch at Grandma Morgans when she had the Paris Hill Garden Club ladies over for the meeting. He would talk just like a little man and they would dote on him. He loved to go up to the Morgan camp on the St. Lawrence River. It was right on the river and it was always a wonder that Jeff didn't fall in more than he did. His dad had to make more than one emergency dive into the river to save the little guy. We always tried to put a life jacket on him as soon as we arrived at camp.

When it came time for Jeff to go to school, we lived on Summit Road, and the bus came by to get him. He went to Kindergarten for half a day. He went to Whitesboro School first, and then changed to Waterville School. He had a good friend in Jon Townsend, who was also a neighbor. He also had a friend in Jones, who was also a Paris Station neighbor.

Jeff liked to go up to Cedar Hill Farm, a mile up the road from Grandpa Morgans, and ride on the tractor with Great Grandpa Roberts. The Morgan and Roberts family all lived within a five mile radius and they were a close family, so Jeff had a lot of cousins, aunts, uncles, etc., to play with. Grandpa Morgan was an artificial inseminator when Jeff was growing up, and used to take Jeff with him on his calls. He used to let Jeff drive the car while sitting on Grandpa's lap, and do a lot of things that Jeff's mother knew nothing about, but it was an education for little Jeff. And Grandpa always had gum or suckers for the kids.

Jeff was baptized into the Congregational Church on Paris Hill, and then later baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Whitesboro, N.Y. at the age of 8. When he was 10 years old the family moved back to Baker, Oregon. He moved to Oregon in January 1973 and turned 11 in June of that year. Donald bought the Schwinn bike shop and Mower repair shop from Glen May on Broadway Street. Jeff was able to help his dad at the bike shop after school and on weekends. He was able to have skateboards and the newest in Schwinn bikes because of his dad's shop. He had a good friend in Mike Gubler and at the age of 16 he had his first car, a white Wagoner that he bought from George Gubler. George Gubler and Grandpa Rayborn taught Jeff how to fix cars. His dad taught him how to fix bikes and mowers. He also had a good friend in Mark Long.

Jeff went to South Baker School, Baker Junior High, and Baker Senior High School. He spent two years at Ricks College in Rexburg where he worked on his Manufacturing Engineering degree. He then went to BYU where he graduated.

He met Megan Egbert at Ricks College and married her before going down to BYU. They had their first child, Amy Morgan, just before Jeff graduated from BYU. They then moved to Seattle, where he was employed by Boeing and he is still employed there.

BIOGRAPHY:

Kevin Donald Morgan was born in Utica, N.Y. at Faxton Hospital. He was a breech birth and it took four hours of walking the hospital halls before he decided to be turned and come on down! He has been just as independent about his decisions since then also.

Kevin was always taking chances and doing things his Mom had told him not to. Once after he got a spanking he turned and said, " I hope that makes you feel better."

The first day he had his drivers license he decided to play chase with Ernie Bootsma. Ernie took out through a back alley with lots of pot holes and so did Kevin. He called soon after, as one of the potholes was deeper than expected and had caused havoc with the radiator. Another time, Kevin walked in the house and handed his parents his drivers license. He had been told that if he got a ticket, he would lose his license for a time. He was playing chase again, this time on Broadway, and made a U-turn in front of a policeman. One Halloween night, Dad got a call from the police station that they had Kevin there and Dad needed to come and get him. It seems he was with some "friends" who were throwing water balloons at the street lights. The police came along and everyone could outrun them, except Kevin, and Kevin wasn't even the one throwing the water balloons.

Kevin found a better outlet for his energy when he got to high school. He became a member of the Company B singing group and Mr. Torrance helped him to develop his singing talents and excel in that area.

When Kevin was in Junior High, he found out that if you were in sports your father would notice you and give you all the great things you ever wanted, (leastways this is what he told Harvey Witham). Anyway, Kevin played football and he was like a little bulldog. He was little and wiry and when he got a hold of a players leg there was no way to get him off. Once he was dragged half way down the field and still kept holding onto the players leg, (now that is endurance).

AKA: Danny

BIOGRAPHY:

Daniel Robert Morgan was born at St. Lukes Hospital in New Hartford, N.Y. Dad worked midnight to seven a.m. shift at GE in Utica, NY. Mom started labor during the night and went all night with pains. When Dad got home that morning she said,

"I think we had better hurry because this baby is ready to be born." Jeff and Kevin were taken over to Grandma Morgan's which was about a mile down the road. Then Dad and Mom were off to New Hartford, which was about twenty miles away and all downhill. There was a stop light a block from the hospital and just as the car got there it turned, but Dad just kept going. There was almost a pile up there. As soon as Mom was wheeled into the hospital, the desk clerk said, "We'll need to fill out these papers." Dad said, "Not this time we don't because this baby is about here." By the time we got upstairs and into the delivery room, the baby was born. That was exactly fifteen minutes after getting to the hospital. Grandpa and Grandma Morgan had planned on going to their camp on the St. Lawrence River that weekend, so they just piled Jeff and Kevin in the car and took them with them.

Crystal Lynn Morgan

BIOGRAPHY:

Crystal Lynn Morgan was born at St. Elizabeth Hospital in Baker City, Oregon. It was not the same facility that Jeff was born in. This was the new hospital that had just been built out on Pocahontas Road. It was on a Friday and Dr. John Higgins had a wedding rehearsal for one of his kids. That day Mom had been to see him and he told her, "You have at least two more weeks. No don't call me tonite because I am going to be at a wedding rehearsal." In the afternoon Mom knew something was up, because she started cleaning the house and getting the clothes all washed up. This happened everytime it was time for her to have a baby. By 7:30 she was in labor and on the way to the hospital. The water broke on the way and by the time she got there, they knew the baby was almost here. At 8 p.m. the baby was born, and it was a little girl. Dad was waiting in the hall, because he knew better than to get near me when I was in pain. When they told Mom it was a girl, she wouldn't believe them, but had to look herself to make sure. The doctor never did get there and the nurse delivered the baby.
