PROBATE: Will of Gershom Conger - 29 Nov 1735

In the name of God, Amen.

The 29th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred thirty-five, I, Gershom Conger, Junr of Woodbridge, in the county of Middlesex, in the Province of New Jersey, carpenter, being very sick in body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, therefore calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

That is to say, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul unto the hands of God, that gave it. And for my body I recommend it to the earth, to be buried in a Christianlike and decent manner, at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting that in the general resurrection, I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such wordly estate, wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give, devise, and dispose of the same in the following matter, and form.

Impremis: It is my will, and I do order that in the first place, all of my just debts and funeral charges be paid and satisfied.

ITEM: I will and bequeath to my dearly beloved Couzen Gershom Cawood, thirty-six pounds current money, at eight shillings to the ounce, to him and his heirs forever, to be put out to interest to the best advantage which is upon bond, and my will is, that my executors do sell five cows and their produce the next spring after date hereof, and put the money arising therefrom to the best advantage, to the sole use of my said Couzen Gershom Cawood, and his heirs until he shall arrive to the age of twenty-one years.

ITEM: I give and bequeath unto my loving brother Thomas Cawood, his heirs and assigns, one yearling bull, and one mare. I also appoint Thomas Cawood, my whole and sole executor of this my last will and testament.

ITEM: I give and bequeath to my loving brother Robert Mitchell, one cow to him, his heirs and assigns. It is my will, and I do order my executor to sell my tools to enable him the better to pay my debts.

And I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all any other former Testaments, Wills, Legacies and Executors, by me in any way before this time named, and willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other, to be my last will and Testament, in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this day and the year above written. GERSHOM CONGER (L.S.)

Witnessed: James Wilkison

WILL-PROBLEM: The will of Gershom Conger, b. 1711, is equally confusing [as the will of John Conger written 11 Jan 1711]. He died at the age of 25, unmarried. He speaks of his cousin, Gershom Cawood -- which would be correct if his mother was a Cawood and had a brother with children. He referred to himself as "Gershom, Junr," indicating his father was, Gershom, yet if named for a brother he was probably called, "Junior."

COMMENT:

Gershom Conger has been the most controversial figure in the Conger history.

This Gershom Conger was born between the time John (Primus) [Belconger] made his will on 11 Jan 1710 and the addition of the codicil to the will on 14 Jun 1712, in which codicil provision is made "for his son Gershom, who had been born since the dating of the will."

The naming of this youngest son, Gershom, has caused more or less confusion and conjecture, owing to the fact that the elder son, Gershom, was named in the will of John [Bel]Conger, primus, dated 11 Jan 1710. At this time, the elder son, Gershom, was married and was the father of, David, born 1707 [and] Phebe, born 1708. [Researcher] Charles L. Conger places this Gershom, b. 1711, as the son of Gershom, b. 1685. This seems to be the most accurate identification for several reasons.

The elder Gershom, b. 1685, died before his father, although no death date is given. If John was the father of a son born [in] 1711, this is probably why he named him after the son he lost.

It seems more reasonable to believe that John may have been having hallucinations in his last days -- and that the family pampered him in his belief that his grandson was indeed his son. The codicil reads, "being very sick in body and not expecting many hours in this life," -- and nothing about being "sound in mind."

John's first wife, Mary Kelly, was born in 1641; she and John were married in 1666, so John was probably born around 1640. It is possible, but not probable, that he had fathered a child during his ill health at the age of 70 or older.

The will of Gershom Conger, Junr, was witnessed by James Wilkison, who was probably a son of either, John, Edward, or Allen Wilkison, who were grandsons of John & Mary Kelly [Bel]Conger.

Gershom refers to himself as "Gershom Conger, Junr" [in the will], so his father would have [probably] had the name, Gershom. His "loving brother Thomas Cawood," could have been his brother-in-law, husband of his sister, Phoebe. Perhaps his "loving brother Robert Mitchell," was married to an unidentified sister.

Maxine Leonard was inclined to side with Charles L. Conger in placing this Gershom as the son of Gershom Conger, b. 1685, [the son of John Belconger].

PARENTS: David Conger and Dorcas Oliver

PROBLEM: Listed as a child of David Conger and Dorcas Oliver in Ancestral File. It states he was born 1753, of Middlesex Co., NJ and died of Middlesex Co. NJ. Can this be proven? His next older sibling was born 12 years prior to this.

3. Phoebe Conger (Gershom-1) was born on 22 Sep 1708 in New Jersey. Phoebe Conger

PARENTS: Gershom Conger and Ann DeSigney

Phoebe Conger and Thomas Cawood were married. Thomas Cawood was born (date unknown).

Third Generation

PARENTS: David Conger and Dorcas Oliver

Problem: Was the date of death, 12 Apr 1792 or 13 Apr 1792? CFA I, lists both dates.

Problem: Was the date of marriage, 20 Aug 1751 or as reported in the Higgins family genealogy, 25 Aug 1751?

PROBATE: David Conger was an heir to the estate of his grandfather, Dr. DeSigney. (CFA I, p. 97)

PROBLEM: Ancestral File of Jan 1996 lists a second wife for Peter DeSigney Conger. Her name is listed as, Nancy, born Abt. 1771, perhaps in Ont. Married in Ont. They had a daughter: Jane Stinson Conger, born 13 Feb 1793 at Fredericksburg, Lennox/Addington, Ont. Can this be proven? What evidence is there that Peter DeSigney Conger ever lived in Ontario, Canada?

In CFA I, p. 425 there is a second Peter DeSigney Conger listed, born 16 Jan 1770 in Piscataway, Middlesex Co., NJ. He was the nephew of Peter DeSigney Conger, b. 1737. The parents of the younger, Peter, were David Conger and Rachel Willson. The younger Peter married, Elizabeth Seymour and they had a child, Jane Stinson Conger, b. Abt. 1792, who married Moses White on 20 Mar 1810.

It is said that he left his house one evening and never returned. His son, David, later removed to Indiana, where he died after raising a large family.

Records of the Presbyterian Church, New Providence, NJ state, "Polly Crane Conger, daughter of DeSigney, baptized Jan. 19, 1785 'on his wife's account'." The entry is also made that Polly Crane Conger, an infant child of DeSigney Conger died Jan. 19, 1785.

The records further state that DeSigney Conger died Dec. 7, 1785. There were probably other children.

RECOLLECTIONS:

I have the following information from:

Becker, John (1994). "Goldsmith: A Genealogy From Richard Goldsmith of Wenham Massachusetts 1644 to John Adams Becker, born in 1632, great grandson of Tabitha Goldsmith (1840-1930)." Becker Associates, Concord, Ontario. October 1994. ISBN 0-919387-25-X

Asenath (Arsenah) CONGER b: 22 Dec 1755, Piscataway NJ. dau of David Conger and Rachel Willson (Wilson) m: Thomas Goldsmith c1776 (son of Thomas Goldsmith and Phoebe Gilbert)

Asenath & Thomas Goldsmith removed to Canada in 1786 with two children (Stephen and Rachel) and with Asenath's parents - David & Rachel Conger. Asenath and the children traveled with the Conger family while Thomas struggled to herd cattle through the Wilderness - and losing all but one heifer.

They eventually received land grants in Hallowell Twp. Prince Edward Co. Midland District.

When the first Methodist church was built in Hallowell near Picton in 1809 it was built on the corner of David Conger's farm. The church, known as Whites Chapel, still stands today as an Historical Monument. Stephen Goldsmith, the oldest son of Thomas (UE) and grandson of David Conger contributed his labor as a young man to the building of this chapel and his efforts are recorded in the "day book" kept by Stephen Conger for the expenses of building the chapel.

I also have a note that David Conger's name was struck off U.E. List: OC 28 Feb 1805. - I think that was listed in Reid.

I recommend Becker's work. I received a copy through interlibrary loan. Becker is descended through Thomas and Asenath's first born son Stephan who married Elizabeth Hagerman and also their daughter Sabra Ann Gardiner Goldsmith who married Richard R. Clute.

Descendants - Gershom Conger and Ann DeSigney

31 January 2015

I have these notes because I'm trying to locate the ancestors of Eliza Goldsmith. Eliza Goldsmith b. abt 1825. - died 3 Jan 1890 in her 65th year m: Jan 13, 1844 - Aaron Spike Marriage Certificate reads: I certify that I married Aaron Spike and Eliza Goldsmith, both of Portland this 13 of January 1844 By publication of Banns in presence of William Goldsmith and Hester A. Wortman as witness. My Hand Robert Perry Esq. Witnesses Present - William Goldsmith, Hester A Wortman.

William could be father, brother or other male relation. Hester is unrelated as far as I have been able to determine.

Spike papers also have a reference to a John Goldsmith in Aaron's father's will c1840.

Aaron and Eliza named their children: Phoebe (Phebe Ann); William Bryan; Eliza Phadila Jane; and Mary Ida Maud Spike. William, Bryan, and Mary are all names in the Spike family - also Elizabeth. Phoebe, Phadila, Jane, Ida, & Maud are not found in previous generations of Spikes.

Do you have any information of the descendants of Thomas and Asenath, esp. sons John m: Phoebe Orser and Thomas m: Mary.

Becker makes a reference to a publication "The Descendants of David Conger" compiled by Beach Conger in 1968. I haven't seen a copy of the document yet.

BIOGRAPHY:

D.S. Conger, a former well known resident and pioneer settler of North township, now retired, was born in Butler Co., Ohio, November 9th 1810, the son of David and Eve (Troutman) Conger, natives of New Jersey and Pennsylvania respectively.

The family moved to Butler Co., Ohio in an early day, and the father served in the War of 1812.

D.S. Conger grew to manhood in Butler Co., Ohio, remained with his parents until twenty-one years of age, at which time he started life for himself as a farmer. He was married in 1831 to Sarah, d/o Jacob and Nancy (Linn) Powers, who was born in Butler County, Ohio, February 7th 1810. Two years after his marriage Mr. Conger came to Indiana and located near Logansport, Cass County, settling upon land which he had previously purchased and upon which he resided until his removal to Marshall County [IN] in 1836.

On coming to this county he located a farm in what is now North Township in which part of the county his father-in-law also moved, the two families having been among the pioneer settlers.

Mr. Conger's life was that of nearly all early settlers in a new country, and he experienced in full measure the many hardships and trials incident to clearing and developing homes in the forest. He cleared three farms in Indiana and still owns a fine place in North township, from which he retired in 1878, moving to Plymouth, [IN], where he [is] now passing his reclining years in retirement.

Mr. Conger filled several official positions, having been trustee of North township for fifteen years and also commissioner of the county for one term. He is a Republican in politics, voted in 1836 for Gen. Harrison and also cast his ballot for him in 1840.

Of Mr. Conger's children, three are living at this time: David, of New Albany; William, on the homestead; and Mary Jane, wife of John H. Chase of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Conger are members of the Baptist and Methodist churches, respectively.

BIOGRAPHY: According to "Canadian Biography," p. 575:

"Mr. Conger's life has been an active one. Before attaining his majority, he took charge of the "Picton GAZETTE," which, in connection with his brother, John William, has continued to be managed by them. Besides the onerous duty of editing and managing a weekly paper since 1856, Mr. Conger has served the county and town in many capacities. He has been repeatedly a member of the town council, chairman of the high school board, etc., besides being a member of the Masonic craft for many years, in which he has filled some of the most eminent positions. In religion he holds to the faith of his progenitors, who were mostly Methodists; and in politics has always been a Liberal - Conservative. He is the recognized head of the Conger family in Canada, and wears the honor with quiet dignity, as it suits him best."

COMMENT: Missing links are found in the most unusual ways. Wayne Hobbs Conger of 3235 N. Raceway Road, Indianapolis, In 46234 was interested in buying a copy of THE CONGER FAMILY OF AMERICA, be he nor his father were in it. His father, Harry Elmer Conger, 1870, was born in Plymouth, Marshall [Co.] IN. Wayne did not know his grandfather's name, but he was postmaster in Plymouth for many years.

Your editor wrote to Plymouth for this information but never did get an answer. Then over a year ago, Ottice Ridgley Bauman of Charles City, Iowa received a letter from her sister, Gladys Morris of Plymouth, IN. Gladys had enclosed a bulletin about the history of the county because there was a write-up and picture of W.H. Conger -- former postmaster of Plymouth. (Ottice and Gladys are granddaughters of Joseph Morris Conger, 1861, not in CFA [I]; daughters of Ottice Conger Ridgley.)

BIOGRAPHY: William H. Conger

One of the first families to become permanently identified with the interests of Marshall county [IN] was the Congers, their founder here having been the father of our subject, De Signey Conger, who was born in Butler Co., Ohio, November 9, 1810.

It was on the 6th of August 1836, he came to Marshall county, establishing his home in what is now North township, where he improved a farm and in time he became one of the largest land owners in this part of the county.

He donated 400 acres to the Lake Erie Railroad, and was a public benefactor of Marshall county, giving of his means to all worthy objects and furthering all measures which he deemed of benefit to his fellow citizens.

He voted at the first election held after the organization of the county and was the recipient of many public honors, serving in the early days as a school commissioner.

The death of this honored and revered Marshall county pioneer occurred at the advanced age of eighty-four years, in 1894, and his wife, who bore the maiden name of Sarah Powers and was also a native of Butler county, Ohio, died at the same age.

She was born in February 1810.

Of their family of eight children, four died in infancy, the eldest being but seven years of age, and three now living -- Mary J., the wife of John H. Chase of LaFayette, Indiana; David J., of Avenue, Arkansas, and William H..

William H. Conger, the only representatie of the family in Marshall count at the present time, was born in its township of North, October 24, 1842. He attended the district schools during his early life, but the principal part of his education was received at his own fireside at home, pursuing his studies during the long winter evenings by the aid of candle light.

He also taught for a time during the winter months, and remained at home and assisted in the farm work until twenty-two years of age, while for three years thereafter he was engaged in the lumber business in Plymouth.

Returning at the close of that period to the farm, he carried on its work until in January 1894, when he came to Plymouth and entered upon his four years' term as the postmaster, this being during the administration of President McKinley.

Since his retirement from that office he has been identified with the real estate and insurance business.

In 1867 Mr. Conger married Lottie A. Smith, a native of Montgomery county, New York, and a daughter of Jacob N. and Catherine C. Smith of Tioga county, that state.

Four children were born to bless this union: Harry E., a resident of Kokomo, Indiana; Charles H., of Woodstock, Illinois; Ray E., who makes his home in Indianapolis, Indiana; and Effie M., the wife of A.O. Wilcox, of Ravenswood, Illinois.

Mr. Conger has membership relations with the Masonic fraternity, in which he has attained the Royal Arch degree and affiliates with the blue lodge, chapter, council and commandery, and has filled all of the chairs of the order.

He also affiliates with the Miles H. Tibbitt Post, G.A.R., being entitled to membership therein by his services in the Civil War, in which he enlisted in March 1864, joining Company I, One Hundered and fifty-fifth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and served until the close of the conflict.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Edwin Burn Conger wrote of his father, Edwin David Conger: He was born in Bellville, Ontario and as a very young man went to St. Paul, [MN], I think, to see if he would like to be a druggist, like his cousin there.

From there, with his cousin Eddie, on to New Orleans, New York and Cuba. I understood they played the stock market, and at one time my father told me he made more money in those few years than the rest of his life.

Going back to Ontario, he hit the road again and this time to Alberta where he homesteaded. The farm prospered very well and then he sold it and we moved to Vancouver, B.C. where he purchased a hotel. They did not tell him that with the coming of Prohibition it would not be profitable -- so after a short time he joined the Army.

My brother, Roger, could not take the climate, so we moved back to Alberta -- Phillips, to be exact. After my mother died Dad moved to Mercoal where he lived until his death. As there were five of us all under ten, my sisters and I went to Toronto to live with his sister, and my brothers lived with a cousin in Alberta for a number of years. We all ended up in boarding school in Edmonton. When I was 17 Dad remarried and it was a very happy marriage. I am as fond of my half family as the full.

His grandmother (maternal?) took care of the three boys, John, Lee and Joseph until her death, which happened when they were quite young. Then they were taken by a family in Iowa--Dow's, I think their name was, until they were able to fend for themselves. Don't think the Dows were any kin to the family, and I think they lived in the vicinity of Villisca, Iowa."

"I have little snippets of information about these grandparents: my grandfather was a journalist. Either he, or my great-grandfather was a Princeton University graduate. My grandmother was reared at the family homestead in Kingsville, MO. As a young man in the Army, I learned from my father that Laura died in the late 1930's. Chances are that she was interred at the Kingsville cemetery.

"Someone in my family told me that the initials 'WBC' are important to family traditions, that my name carried on the custom, without saddling me with 'Wilhelmus.'

"Wilhelmina Bogart is my great-aunt's name. I was told that she was secretary to the president of Tulane University at New Orleans. I used to hear from her as a child; she subscribed to "Nature" magazine for me, a publication that was way over my head. At one point she forwarded a loose-leaf compilation of the family tree."

BIOGRAPHY: Maumee Man Has Close Call in Korea; Red Guerrillas Put Torch to Truck, Fail to See Hiding Yank
A 21-year-old Maumee [OH] soldier had a narrow escape in North Korea recently when Chinese guerrillas set fire to the truck in which he was hiding.

He is Pfc. John (Jack) Hoag, son of Mrs. Grace S. Hoag, 100 North Masters Ct., attached to the 35th Regiment, 2nd Battalion, 25th Infantry Division. He has been recommended for the Bronze Star.

Routed By Shells

In a letter to his mother, Private Hoag said he was on a detail to repair a culvert, but the group had to scurry back to their lines when enemy mortar shells began dropping about them. Two men were wounded.

Later the detail made another effort in the night to fix the culvert so their outfit could advance. Again, just as they began to work, mortar fire got their range. The detail took to cover in various directions. Some jumped in trucks, in which they had arrived and sped away.

Private Hoag was one of the detail who was left behind. He took cover in one of three trucks the U.S. soldiers had to abandon in their haste to escape.

Guerrillas Appear

Almost immediately a band of Chinese guerrillas appeared and began setting fire to the trucks. Private Hoag could not jump out for fear of being shot, he related.

Finally, the Communists left and so did the Maumee soldier who had been curled up between some sandbags and thus escaped being burned.

Private Hoag, who holds the Combat Infantryman's Badge has been in the army two years. He is a graduate of Maumee High School.

BIOGRAPHY: David Louis Conger left Indiana in 1938 and went to California where he worked as a hod0-carrier and laborer for Henry Doelger, a home builder in San Francisco. In 1939 he entered Purdue University and studied Chemical Engineering.

In December 1941 he enlisted in the U.S. Air Corps as an Aviation Cadet, and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant. At the age of 21 he was assigned to the Training Command as a Twin-Engine Instructor. As a member of the 8th Air Force he led his Squadron over Europe on "D-Day." He completed 30 combat missions as a Lead Pilot in B-17's and B-24's and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters.

He returned to Reserve status in 1945 as a Major. In 1949 he was the first Reserve pilot to fly jets in the United States and served as Commanding Officer of the 52nd Jet Fighter Squadron - Reserve, at Hamilton Field.

In 1945 he entered the Real Estate business and in October 1946 opened his own office at 524 Tennessee Street, Vallejo, CA.

He has been extremely active in Real Estate Education for 19 years and enjoys the reputation among his fellow realtors as one of the most brilliant minds in organized real estate. He has taught classes at the Vallejo Evening College, Solano College and University of California. Since 1953 he has served the California Real Estate Association in every educational capacity.

His appraisal partnership, Conger and Fisk, has appraised properties for over 40 national corporations under their Corporate Transfer Program. In addition, the partners completed the largest single appraisal assignment for the U.S. Navy in Northern California -- Port Chicago, an entire city of 4,000 people. In 1969, he and his partner, Les Fisk, completed an appraisal of 1,100 parcels for the federal government on the island of Guam in the Pacific.

BIOGRAPHY: An Integral Part of Vallejo, [CA] - [Dave] Conger has seen the town's history. by Gene Silverman, Times-Herald Staff Writer.

A man instrumental in the real estate appraisal of downtown Vallejo, [CA] "when they got rid of the gambling, etc.," also did the appraisal of Guam after a devastating typhoon. "There is a Luther Gibson Parkway on Guam," he points out, noting the Vallejo connection there.

He brought the Wells Fargo bank to Vallejo, having rented the office building to them, persuading them to locate at Tennessee and Tuolumne streets.

He has brokered about 6,000 houses in Vallejo.

He located the site for Sutter-Solano Hospital and the school site for Armijo High School in Fairfield and 13 land parcels for the Air Base Parkway that leads into Travis Air Force Base. He has been involved as a mover and shaker in the widening of Interstate 80 from the Carquinez Bridge to the Yolo Causeway, also the Georgia Street and Redwood Street overcrossings.

"We did studies for Alcatraz," he notes, adding that he has had great partners and couldn't have done it without them, including Jack Hamilton in Napa and John Simmons, remaining associated with them, and the late Les Fisk.

With all that and a lot more under his professional belt, he still considers himself primarily an educator.

Dave Conger is certainly a Realtor, "but I couldn't stand to be in real estate without knowing values," he says. So he learned appraisal and then taught courses at the University of Southern California. He also taught in Nevada, Idaho, Florida and (ready?) South Africa. He literally wrote the teaching manual on real estate appraisal. "I wanted to teach the instructors because that's what I did in combat," Conger says. He has trained five past presidents of the Solano Board of Realtors.

A Major in the Army Air Corps during World War II, he was known as "Mother Conger" for his concern for and devotion to the men whom he led. "We were like-minded people," he says. "There's nothing more interdependent than a 10-man bomber crew."

Conger hitch-hiked to California from Indiana when he was 17 years old. He opened his Vallejo office in 1946. "It's been a great community. It's well located. With a plane, I can be anywhere in four hours," he says. He means his own plane, you understand. A plane he flies himself. He has even flown prospective customers to Alaska to look at properties.

As a financial consultant, he has helped many people live a comfortable life. "He has been willing to give advice through his experience, knowledge, perception [sic] and wisdom," says Phylliss Grove. "I'm one of the lucky ones who has had the benefit of all this. And it's not just financial advice but help in growing, taking control of my life."

As his assistant, Holly West, says, "He is dedicated to teaching. That's so others will become informed consumers. You'll know more than you did when you walked through his door."

John Simmons, of Conger and Simmons Appraisal, who has been with Conger for 20 years, points out, "Dave has been generously giving freely of his time and expertise, often charging a minimum fee or no fee at all." "Dave taught me that what is needed is a willing buyer and a willing seller and a reasonable time. But between those words is the wealth of expertise and training it takes to define those words. He is as much an educator as a Realtor. As West says, "He certainly has made a difference in this town." (Source: Undated article, republished in Conger Confab, March 2000, p. 1)

RECOLLECTIONS:

Aunt Stella Maze lived in Columbus. They had a home in town and, for a while, a farm outside of Columbus. I have lots of memories of spending weekends with them and weeks during summer vacation. I remember being chased by turkeys and uncle Clinton running to save me and aunt Stella chasing it with a broom.

I also remember two bramha bulls there were in a portable pen for shipping. My brother and I climbed up the metal bars and dropped down inside the pen, with a little clearance between us and the bars. We were brushing the nice bulls when uncle Clinton appeared and very calmly asked us to climb out of there. After he got us out he began screaming at us. The "nice" bulls with the huge horns were not pets. They were bred to be mean and were to be sold to a rodeo.

I was the kid Clinton and Virgil would tell not to eat the center of a donut, because it was poisonous, and I wouldn't, no questions asked. So they had a lot of fun with me.

Of course I didn't always do everything they told me. Aunt Stella would warn us everytime we went out, not to go swimming in any ponds around there. We undressed, swam (in every pond), put our clean clothes back on, and went home. (Written by Carolyn Brumley)
