and knowing when it shall please GOD to call me hence, that I be no more; do find it necessary for divers good causes to me occurring, to constitute and confirm this my last will and testament.

First of all, at my decease, I bequeath my soul to GOD who gave it, as the receiver of SPIRITS, which through faith, I hope to be united with my body, at the general resurrection, and received into GLORY in the heavens.

Furthermore, at my decease, I commit my body to the earth, with all the charges of a decent burial, and my funeral charges to be paid out of my estate. And next, my desire is, that all my lawful debts be paid, and as to the disposal of my worldly goods, I do appoint in the following manner, to wit:

At the time of my decease, or as soon after as may be, that my executors take an inventory of all my goods and chattel, real and personal. And at the proper time expose them to public sale, to the highest bidder. And at the time of receiving the money to dispose of it in the following manner:

First of all, I bequeath to my eldest son Jonathan Conger, ten pounds, and on more;

Next, I give and bequeath to my youngest son John Conger, ten pounds and no more.

And lastly, all the rights of my estate, to be equally divided between Sarah Rounsaval, Phoebe Randall and Hannah Ross, my daughters, and Jane Ross, the daughter of Nicholas Ross, my grand-daughter, which four persons above named is to hold the same, them, their heirs forever, in consideration.

Whereof and for which, as touching the premises, I do constitute and appoint Edward McGuire and Thomas Smith my executors, in all cases touching the premises.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this Feb. 7th, 1784.

(Signed) John Conger, 2nd

Signed, Sealed, Ratified and pronounced in the presence of Benjamin Rounsaval, Jr. and Joseph Warford.

"While excavating the right of way of the south-bound railroad on the farm of Mr. H.L. Holmes in Healing Springs Township, this county [Rowan, now Davidson], Mr. A.K. Lookabill, who has employment on the new road, unearthed an ancient grave wherein reposed the remains of one, Jonathan Conger, so the inscription on the stone ran, who was among the early settlers on this section.

"The railroad will run directly through this graveyard, and it may be that other graves will be forced to give up their dead to the call of progress.

"This particular grave was six feed deep, with a vault of 3 1/2 feet. The bones were intact and properly arranged, with the arms, according to the old custom, parallel with the body, instead of crossed, as is the present day custom. The hair was well preserved, although the date of the stone stated the man died, May 7, 1793, more than 116 years ago. The date of his birth was given as Jan. 22, 1732, his age being 61 years, three months and sixteen days. On the stone also was his message from the 18th century to the 20th century railroad builders, whose surveyors had led them into the old-time burying ground:

"Remember, man, as you pass by, As you are now, so once was I."

Some of genealogical data of Charles Leslie Conger was shared with Mrs. W.R. Wright (Anne Julia (Mims) Wright of Jackson, MS, born 1876, who, in 1911, published a genealogy about the Ross family of North Carolina, "A record of the descendants of Isaac Ross and Jean Brown and the allied families of Alexander, Conger, Harris, Hill, King, Killingworth, Mackey, Moores, Sims, Wade, etc.". The book which is probably 233 pages is at the Library of Congress, Call Number: CS71.R825 1911.

CEMETERY: There is another Conger Cemetery across Abbott's Creek and about 1/2 mile away from the Conger Cemetery where John and Zipporah Conger are buried. This cemetery was in Rowan Co., NC at one time and is probably in Davidson Co., NC now. Here "we find the only tombstone whose inscription is legible, bearing the following: "Mary Conger, deceast on Jan the 4d, 1795. Was born Jan the 28d 1751." This Mary Conger was [nee], Mary Ross, daughter of Isaac and Jean (Brown) Ross, who married John Conger, Jr., son of John Conger 1708. In another grave next to hers, and with a tombstone exactly like that which marks the grave of Mary, probably reposes the remains of her husband John, although the inscriptions has peeled off.

CHRISTENING: 12 Aug 1744 at the 1st Presbyterian Church, Morristown, Morris Co., NJ, according to Ancestral File.

SPOUSE: David Conger, Sr. was the 2nd spouse of Mary (Darby) Green.

BIOGRAPHY:

It is thought that David Conger Sr. was married twice. There is a tradition to that effect and that he had a son, Ishmael, by the first marriage -- that he was only married about a year when his wife died. An Ishmael Conger does appear in the 1790 census of Washington county, PA, where Elias D. Conger and David Conger Jr. (his brother) settled in 1790. Elias D. and David Conger were half-brothers of Ishmael. CFA I, p. 98

MILITARY:

David died during the Revolutionary War, circumstances unknown. From the office of the Adjutant General in Trenton, NJ we find the following:

It is certified that the records of this office show that David Conger served as a Private in Middlesex County, New Jersey Militia, received certificate 1571 amounting to 28:8:2 for the depreciation of his continental pay in Middlesex County, New Jersey Militia during the Revolutionary War.

Any of his descendants are eligible for membership in the Sons or Daughters of the American Revolution.

DEATH-BURIAL-CONFLICT: According to David M. Dodd, he was buried at Dunn's Station, PA; Ancestral File lists, d. 1778 at Green [sic] Co., PA. Others have listed the date and place of death as, 1778, Middlesex Co., NJ.

CHILD: Ancestral File lists a child, Ishmael Conger, born Abt. 1761 at Woodbridge, Middlesex, NJ. According to CFA II, p. 119, "An ISHMAEL CONGER was listed in the 1790 census of Washington county, PA. Speculation was that he may have been a s/o David 1741 and a wife before Mary Darby Green. The will for this man is under the name CONYERS. He died 8 July 1835. He mentioned his wife Mary, sons-in-law Jonathan Thomas and Henry Devore; also a grandson Ishmael Devore."

David Conger and Mary Darby were married in 1762 in Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ. Mary Darby, daughter of William Darby and Mary Unknown, was born about 1742 in Woodbridge,

Middlesex Co., NJ. She died about 1796 at the age of 54 in Morris Twp., Greene Co., PA. She has Ancestral File Number CH6X-HG. Mary Darby

AKA: Mary Darby Green

AKA: This is Mary Darby who was first married to a Mr. Green. She is often referred to as, Mary Darby Green in genealogy notes. Robert Guilinger stated that as far as he has been able to determine she did not have any children with Mr. Green and that none were mentioned in the Conger History by Grace Haegler Conger written in 1941.

PARENTS: Mary Darby Green, his wife, [wife of David Conger] was a daughter of Deacon William Darby and his wife, Mary. Deacon William was the son of William and Elizabeth Darby who were of a group of English settlers of Elizabethtown, N.J. in 1688. He appears in the Scotch Plains' land owners of 1690. His children according to records, were William, b. Abt. 1693, Benjamine, John, and Ephraim. Deacon William Darby organized the Scotch Plains Baptist Church on 5 Aug 1747.

Problem: Was the date of marriage 30 May 1768 Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ or 30 Mar 1768 at Piscataway, Middlesex Co., NJ? See the above marriage extraction.

LAND: On 21 Jul 1772 he mortgaged to Elizabeth Guelett of Perth Amoy for 200 pounds, land lying at Bonhamtown. On 29 Mar 1788, John and his wife, mortgaged to Solomon Hunt 26 acres of land in Woodbridge next to Joseph and Matthew Freeman.

LEGAL_MATTER: Recorded his ear marks on 5 Sep 1780.

PUBLIC_SERVICE: In 1784 he was Town Assessor and the same year he was one of a committee of three appointed to audit the town records.

CHURCH_AFFILIATION-EMIGRATION: John Conger and his widowed mother, Ann, joined the Woodbridge Church on 27 Aug 1786. John's wife, Mary, joined, 28 Oct 1786 and they moved to Metuchen shortly after that. CFA I, p. 288

CHURCH_AFFILIATION: John Conger was one of the first trustees of the Metuchen Church in October 1787. The Trustee's Book shows on 22 Apr 1792, Dr. Melachthon Freeman attended and produced a certificate of his being duly elected a Trustee in the room of John Conger, Esq. who hath moved away. (CFA I, p. 287)

LEGAL_MATTER: Supreme Court Case No. 6698, Middlesex County, shows that on the 2nd Tuesday in May 1792, David Dunham, Lewis Dunham, James Dunham and Andrew Kirkpatrick, Esq. Executors of Azariah Dunham, deceased, were summoned to appear before the court to answer suit of John Conger and Mary, his wife, on a plea of trespass. No particulars of this suit are to be found. RECOLLECTIONS: Charles G.B. Conger stated that there was still a John Conger at Woodbridge [NJ] during the Revolutionary War, which was probably this John Conger. [No source citation for the following. REH]

"The British, in their retreating from Philadelphia and afterwards, played havoc with his belongings, drinking up four hogsheads of cider, on pipe of Endeirn, ten gallons of brandy, seven gallons of Jamaica spirits, one half barrel of cherry rum, and one third barrel of porter. Besides, they burned his barn and all his fencing, damaged his house, broke fifty panes of glass in his windows, and ripped up his wife's feather beds, scattering the good goose down to the winds of heaven."

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 330-332 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

EMIGRATION: He was "from Penn."

SPOUSE: Jonathan Conger was the 2nd spouse of Mary (Frederick) Glass.

COMMENT: May have been the Jonathan Conger who died in Pike Co., IN, and served in the Revolution. (CFA I, p. 328)

RECOLLECTIONS: Who was this Jonathan Conger?

Jonathan Conger and Joshua Harbin had a hunting camp on the White River, near Buena Vista, now Clay Township, Pike county, Indiana, and furnished the Fort at Vincennes with meat. He carried a "Seal" to George Rogers Clark at Kaskaskia in 1780.

Jonathan Conger made a coffin for Sebastain Frederick, Sr., who was scalped in 1786, according to the Frederick Administration file in the Vincennes courthouse.

Mrs. Ruth Fish, treasurer of the DAR Vincennes (Ind.) Chapter, was instrumental in Jonathan Conger being recognized as a Patriot. On 3 May 1970 she wrote, "Thought you would like to know that there are 3 - DAR members in on the Jonathan Conger, Sr. of Gibson county, Ind. line. They are as follows: Sebastian Conger, from Wisconsin, just a new member 1970, Betsy Conger Davidson, wife of Joseph Davidson from Virginia, Matilda Davidson, dau-in-law of Jonathan Conger, Levi Conger - in process at Washington, D.C." Mrs. Fish resided at 1319 Vigo Street, Vincennes, Ind. 47591.

Jonathan Conger could have been the son of Jonathan Conger, b. Abt. 1710, whose birth was approximated as about 1745. This Jonathan and his two brothers, David, Abt. 1741, and John, Abt. 1743, all served in the Revolution from Middlesex county, New Jersey. There is no further record of this Jonathan, except he is mentioned in his father's will in 1779. His brother, David, died in 1778 and his widow and sons, Elias Darby Conger, 1773, and David Conger, 1767 moved to Pennsylvania in 1791. The descendants of Elias moved on to Dearborn county, Indiana. If he was this Jonathan, he may have preceeded his brothers to Pennsylvania, and his life as a hunter and soldier would account for marrying a widow later in life.

He could not have been the Jonathan Conger, Jr. in Rowan county, North Carolina in 1790, as Jonathan's first child was born in 1790 in Knox county, Indiana. Jonathan of Rowan county seems to have disappeared after 1790 but his brother, Isaac, settled in McLean county, Illinois.

Jonathan Conger, b. 1742, had a son, Jonathan, born about 1764, in Essex county, New Jersey, who moved to Philadelphia before 1822 -- after the death of Jonathan Conger of Indiana.

William Russell Conger of Dallas, Texas, wrote on 23 Aug 1969, "The Jonathan [Conger] of Pike county, Indiana is in my opinion a member of the German line around Philadelphia and the Palantine group started originally by Jacob. I can't see any of our line in western Ohio or Indiana prior to the migration into Monroe county, Ohio, nor did any of the group move down from the western reserve -- too many Indians."

(Jacob Conger of the Palatines arrived, 24 Aug 1728, on the "Mortonhouse" and settled around Philadelphia. However, no known descendants of this branch are in this book [CFA I]. Your compiler feels that Jonathan Conger of Indiana is Jonathan Conger from Middlesex county, New Jersey, but nothing can be proved at this time.)

PROBATE: Will of Jonathan Conger recorded 11 Dec 1815, Will Book A, p. 293, Gibson County Courthouse, Princeton, IN.

In the name of God, Amen, I Jonathon Conger of the county of Gibson Indiana Territory (part omitted) do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

To wit:

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

I give and bequeath to Mary, my beloved wife, her bed, bed-clothing, spinning wheels, riding-saddle, and the use of the loom to be found in the spinning truck and provision and one horse to ride during her dowry.

Second, I give to my well beloved son Sebastian Conger a tract of land that lies between Harbin's and Conger's Creek, I also constitute, make and ordain Samuel Marshall and Sebastian Conger sole executors of this my last will and testament.

Third, I give to my eldest and dearly beloved daughter, Sebra Catt, five dollars.

Fourth, I give to my well beloved daughter Hulda Conger her bed, bed-clothing, one cow and twenty dollars.

Fifth, I give to my well beloved son Levi Conger, the plantation the said Jonathon Conger lives on, one horse for his own property, one horse, three cows and one heifer, harness, hoes, harrows, etc. and whatever the executors think is sufficient to carry on his farming business without an impediment for four years - sixteen hundred weight of swine salted down for him and use of the family for one year, two swine of stock hogs and fifteen for the use of the family and reasonable quantity of corn and forage sufficient to feed his stock of this years growth, one stack and a half of wheat for the use of the family, one stack of oats of this years, flax and hemp, five acres of grain at the west end of the field, the household and kitchen furniture, except such as is heretofore exposed of, sugar-boilers sufficient to boil fifty gallons of water at one time.

This property I would wish to be inventory as soon as possible after my decease by my executors, the cartables excepted. The said Levi Conger is to support his mother according to what is written above in her name during her dowry and the three youngest children until they become sixteen years of age, if it is supposed by my executors and the community at large that said Levi Conger is running through what I have given him will not in a very short time be able to support his mother and sisters agreeable to what is written above that my executors shall take said property out of said Levi's hand and not return it without a great amendment, and if he does not mind that, then the property shall be divided amongst his three youngest sisters.

The swine that is not heretofore exposed of I would wish to be put up as soon as possible and fattened and sold by order of my executors, as soon as possible and the horned stock and all other property not heretofore exposed of to be sold at public auction and the proceeds to be divided between my four youngest daughters equally. Likewise the property I have given Levi for four years is to be divided between my four youngest daughters equally. If anyone of my children die without lawful heir the proceeds to be divided between my two youngest daughters.

BIOGRAPHY:

The essay below, by Daniel Lockwood, explains how the family of Jonathan Conger and Mary (Frederick) Glass was linked to the family tree of John Belconger after the publication of Volume One of "The Conger Family of America."

Jonathan Conger born 1745 is a descendent of John Belconger and Mary Kelly.

John Belconger and Mary (Kelly) 5th child was John Conger.

John Conger b. 24 May 1674 m. Mary Tuttle.

John and Mary (Tuttle) Conger son Jonathan b. 1710 or 1716.

Jonathan m. Ann Engard.

Jonathan and Ann (Engard) Conger son Jonathan b. 1745 and d. 1815.

It is true that the exact place and date of his birth has not been determined.

The work done by Maxine Leonard, Mrs. Beulah M. Jackson of Miami FL (not a Conger, but a genealogist who worked with Mrs. Thompson); Mrs. Leona M. Robertson of Hazleton, IN (Leona May Frederick, b. 23 Sep 1907 who married Elrick H. Skidmore and Lee Robertson); and Mrs. Lesba Thompson determined that Jonathan, b. in 1745, was the son of Jonathan and Ann (Engard) Conger. This work was done after CFA I was published. These women researched court records and documents of PA and NJ and determined the parents of Jonathan. What records and documents they researched I don't know but when I talked to Maxine and Lesba on different occasions they both assured me that they were correct.

Mrs. Thompson, born 17 Aug 1912 at Evansville, IN, was married on 26 June 1933 to D.B. Thompson. She published, "Jonathan Conger of Knox and Gibson Counties and his Descendants," which lists about 1600 descendants. I am not aware of which libraries might have copies.

I remember Maxine Leonard telling me, almost in these words, "After years of searching records, documents, census, probate, church, family bibles, immigration, ship records at ports of entry, records in England, there is no doubt that Jonathan of Knox county, Indiana is the son of Jonathan and Ann Engard Conger."

[Extracted by Daniel Lockwood from the book of Mrs. Thompson.] Jonathan Conger migrated from PA where he was listed as a carpenter to Indiana sometime around 1774. In the Spring of 1778 Jonathan Conger and Joshua Harbin had a camp located a short distance above what is now Giro, Indiana, on the south side of White River. They were engaged as hunters, supplying fresh meat to Ft. Sackville, formerly Fort Vincent or Fort Vincennes, located in what was then a part of Great Britain's Province of Canada.

These two hunters were sympathetic to the cause of the American Colonists, and with the coming of George Rogers Clark, the conqueror of the Northwest, this sympathy became more evident. Jonathan Conger was so trusted that in 1780 he was selected by John Doge, then at Ft. Vincent, to carry to Col. Clark, then at Express Falls, Ohio his official seal.

Jonathan Conger was listed as a settler of Knox County, Indiana Territory, as early as 1780. His name is included in a roster of the militia at Vincennes, as returned by Major Francois Vigo, on 19 July 1790. The men listed on this roster saw service against the Indians through the campaign of Tippecanoe in 1811.

(Comment by Daniel Lockwood, "This battle is by far the most important battle as far as changing American History than any battle ever fought in America. If this battle had never been fought there is a good chance that the Civil War would never have occurred, and if so it would have been pushed back to the late 1800's.")

Sometime in 1788/89, Jonathan Conger married the daughter of another Revolutionary patriot, Mary Frederick, widow of John Glass and the mother of two small sons. Her father, Sebastian Frederick, Sr., served as a Ranger on the Frontiers 1778-83, Washington County, PA. In 1785, after residence in Washington County, PA since about 1762, he migrated to Knox County, Indiana Territory, with his daughter, Mary. In 1786/87, he was scalped by Indians one night when he was guarding a sugar camp about six miles southeast of Vincennes.

Jonathan Conger and Mary Frederick were married. Mary Frederick, daughter of Sebastian Frederick and Unknown Unknown, was buried in Nov 1846 in Clay Twp., Pike Co., IN, Old Conger Cemetery. She died on 5 Nov 1846 in Clay Twp., Pike Co., IN. Mary Frederick FATHER: Sebastian Frederick, born in Germany, who arrived in America on 26 Sep 1749 on the ship, "Dragon."

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 330-331 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

FATHER: The father of Mary Frederick was Sebastian Frederick, born in Germany, the son of Johanne Frederick. On 22 Aug 1778 at Fort Pitt, PA he married, Mary Anna Maria Catt, born May 1757 in Germany. Mary Frederick and Mary Anna Maria (Catt) Frederick have been confused. Sometimes one may find that they both died on the same day, 5 Nov 1846, and buried in the "Old Conger Cemetery," Clay Township, Pike Co., IN. Mary Frederick, the daughter of Sebastian Frederick died on 5 Nov 1846, not his wife. Mary Anna Maria (Catt) is not Mary Frederick's mother.

RESIDENCES: Isaac Conger settled near Bowling Green, KY; moved then to Missouri; a few years later moved to Springfield, IL; and then to McLean county, IL, about 1830. (CFA I, p. 240)

BIOGRAPHY:

The history of McLean county, Illinois has a feature of the Conger family that was written by Miss Emma Conger (b. 1841), daughter of Robert [Barrett] Conger, one of the earliest settlers of Stout's Grove. As is usually the case, "family tradition" will vary from statistical facts. Emma's story is as follows:

"Isaac Conger, an only son, was born in England, emigrated to America when young and settled near Mammoth Cave, Kentucky. (He was the son of Jonathan Conger, b. 1732, descendant of John Belconger.) He married Susan Barnett (Barrett) and they had four sons, Jonathan, Robert, Benjamin and Nicholas.

"In 1829 the family emigrated to Illinois and settled at Stout's Grove, in what is now McLean county. Isaac Conger and his wife died soon after coming here, at the age of eighty-three (in 1842).

"Jonathan, Robert and Nicholas Conger made farms adjoining each other.

PARENTS: Jonathan Conger and Euphemia Ross

COMMENT: Listed in CFA II, p. 719; Zipporah, b. 11 Jan 1761 Rowan Co., NC, d. 23 Nov 1823 Madison Co., KY, md. Isaac Todd.

COMMENT: Missing from CFA I, but was confirmed by Paula Van Winkle of El Dorado, KS for DAR record.

Zipporah Conger and Isaac Todd were married on 12 Feb 1781 in Rowan Co., NC. Isaac Todd was born on 3 Jun 1761 in Easton Co., PA. He died on 5 Apr 1843 at the age of 81 in Lawrence, Marion Co., IN. Thomas Todd

AKA-CONFLICT: Thomas Todd, p. 724, CFA II; Isaac Thomas Todd by Robert Guilingen; Issac Todd by others. Thomas Todd by Ruth Ray Edwards. Looks like there is plenty of room for discussion. Can anyone prove his name?

BIRTH: 3 Jun 1761, Easton Co., PA

PARENTS-CONFLICT: Some say his parents were Thomas and Sally Todd (CFA II, p. 411). Ruth Ray Edwards says the parents were: Benjamin Todd and Sarah Giffin.

CONFLICT-RESEARCHER: There is some question about the name of the Todd who married Zipporah Conger. Based on the DAR application (current as of 1996) of Paula Van Winkle of El Dorado, KS the name of Issac Todd is include in the work of Richard E. Henthorn. Some Todd family researchers list the husband of Zipporah as, Thomas. Thomas was probably the father of Issac. More research and some citations to sources needs to be done before these links can be considered more than speculation.

RESEARCHER-RELATIONSHIP: Aldine Thurston, granddaughter of Andrew Dodd Todd was interested in family history and genealogy and shared her information with Ida Mae (Todd) Drommer. Aldine Thurston listed Thomas Todd as the husband of Zipporah Conger, which does not agree with what some of the other Conger family researchers have listed.

QUESTION: Did this family have two children named, Sally Todd, the first dying in infancy?

COMMENT: The Todd family held a family reunion at Minneapolis, KS on 27 May 1996. (Furnished by Ida Mae Drommer)

DEATH-CONFLICT: 5 Apr 1843, Lawrence Co., IN (CFA II, p. 724). Where did he die?

Isaac Todd and Zipporah Conger had the following children:

- ix. Sally Todd was born on 10 May 1801 in Kentucky. Sally Todd

DEATH: Died in infancy

- x. Moses Todd was born on 16 Jul 1803 in Kentucky. Moses Todd

Problem: It has also been reported that he was born in 1807, in CFA, Vol. II, p. 441.

- 95 xi. Sally Todd, born 21 Jul 1805, Kentucky; married William Morrow, 1859; died 10 May 1880.

25. Phebe Conger (Jonathan-3, John-2, John-1) was born about 1764.

Phebe Conger and Benjamin Travis were married on 12 Dec 1791. Benjamin Travis was born (date unknown).

26. Jonathan Conger (John-3, John-2, John-1) was born about 1770 in Rowan Co., NC. He died after Mar 1823 at the age of 53 in Claiborne Co., MS. Jonathan Conger

PARENTS: John Conger and Mary Ross

RESIDENCES: Rowan Co., NC; Claiborne Co., MS

LAND: A deed from Jonathan Conger to Leonard Smith, 3 Feb 1796, registered 12 Apr 1796, Book No. 14, page 261, says that this tract of land was obtained by John Conger, Sr., and has Jonathan and Margaret Conger's names signed to it.

This, and other deeds, indicate that the Congers owned near, or over, one thousand acres of land in this vicinity, now Davidson county, [NC], on both sides of Abbott's Creek.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 284 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

RECOLLECTIONS: A note on this family says, "Jonathan and his family went to Mississippi from St. Louis, MO, on a flat boat about the year 1800 and settled near Natches, MS. He was a captain of the Claiborne Rifles under Andrew Jackson at the battle of New Orleans in 1812." Another note says he settled at Vicksburg or Port Gibson, MS. (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p 332 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

PROBATE: IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN. I, Jonathan Conger of the state of Mississippi and county of Warren, being of advanced age and under bodily affliction, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, calling into mind, the mentality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed unto all men once to die, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament, Viz, principally and first of all I give and bequeath my soul to God.

Secondly, after my just debts are paid I wish my property to descend as follows, to my oldest daughter Elizabeth I have given in my lifetime stock money and a negro girl, Hetta, which is all that I allot her.

Thirdly, to John Labdelle, my son-in-law stock money and a negro boy named Prince and girl Maria to his part. (Mary's husband)

Fourthly, to Pheobe Sims, I have given stock and a horse, and a negro to the amount of what I intend to give her.

Fifthly, to William my son I give a negro girl named Belinda and a horse and one hundred dollars to his part.

Sixthly, I give my son Martin one hundred acres of land layed off south east end of my tract, and a negro boy Nelson to his part.

Seventhly, to Sally Thompson a negro girl named Rachel stock and two horses to her part.

Eighthly, to Jane I have given a negro girl named Elsy a mare and stock to her part.

Ninthly, to my son Wilson I give one hundred and twenty-five acres of land off the north end of my tract and negroes named Solomon, Jack and Cluney, to his part.

Tenthly, to my son Jonathan Lee I give the balance of aforesaid tract of land, the waggon and team together with all my farming utensils, shop tools and negroes names Sam, Patsy, John, and a sorrel mare to his part.

Eleventhly, to my daughter Margaret I give certain negroes named Alford, Amos and Jack and Charlotte and a horse and her saddle, named Toney together with a secretary, and case for to her part.

Twelfthly, I give to Jonathan Lee, Wilson, Martin and Margaret twenty head of cattle to be equally divided, and two steers apiece besides.

Thirteenthly, the balance of my horses and cattle are being sold whenever the crop shall be gathered with Matilda, Violet and Sall. Now when the estate is settled if any remnant, Margaret is to have four hundred dollars more, and the balance if any to be equally divided between the rest of my heirs.

As given under my hand this 14th day of March in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty-three.

/s/J. Conger (seal)

I appoint Foster Cook, Jacob Hyland and Isaac Rapalge my executors and Foster Cook guardian for my son Jonathan Lee. Mr. Benjamin Smith I wish to be guardian for my daughter Margaret.

Attested by: Charles Lee, S.F. Fratwood, Allen Sharkey.

BIOGRAPHY:

Isaac Conger left his home in Rowan Co., NC after the death of his mother and lived for a short time with his uncle and aunt (Henry Moores and Jane (Ross)). He married Mary [Moores], his cousin, and went to Tennessee. There they settled in Lincoln county, which was a cane-break wilderness.

Isaac and Mary were both deeply religious and members of the Methodist church. Their home was about seven miles from Fayetteville [TN] and their nearest neighbor was four miles away. Jane Brown Moores (Mary's youngest sister, b. 1800) lived with them and died a spinster in 1858.

Isaac became convinced that he must preach the Gospel, and so decided. He made preparation and was licensed by the ELK Conference in 1811. The diaries kept while at this work indicate that his wife strongly opposed his missionary work, which greatly depressed him. He was deeply impressed with responsibility of saving sinners and persisted in the work while his health would permit -- preaching and teaching wherever he went. He preached three or four sermons a day, often two or three hours long -- all interspersed with taking in new converts, excommunicating reprobates and riding horseback fifteen or twenty miles. His usual circuit covered the territory now occupied by eight or more counties, but he preached at times in almost every settlement in the state. It took thirty days to ride the circuit.

After a year of riding circuit, Isaac turned again to his farm. The last notation in the diary: "Nov 19 -- started to Georgia for my workman to finish the buildings. Got there in 10 days and returned in a few days over a month. I lost a ___ hundred dollar mare and my wagon had liked to run over me but got but little hurt. Landed safe home the 22nd of December; find my family in health." This trip must have been made to his brother's home in Cobb county, Georgia.

Though deeply fond of his homestead, Isaac seemed to have had an inquiring mind and enjoyed travel. He also took occasional trips on horseback through Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois and back through Kentucky and Tennessee. One interesting trip he undoubtedly made was to his brother, John B. Conger, at Grand Gulf, Mississippi. This particular brother was the owner of 10,000 acres of rich delta land with not a hill on it. His land was worked by a thousand slaves. To house them, there was a mile-long stretch of cabins on the plantation.

Isaac obtained a government grant for about 2,000 acres of land. There is a family tradition that Isaac and Mary journeyed to Tennessee with little else besides a "Pigin," a pot, and a johnny cake board." They lived in a log cabin until about 1808 when he had a brick house built for his growing family. This house is in use and has been extended -- and is probably the oldest house in Lincoln county, TN (by Mrs. Iliff Conger, Rt. 2, Louisville, TN, July 1967 -- filed with a diary by Isaac Conger in the State Archives at Nashville, TN)

Isaac employed a brick mason and together they built the house, using clay from the front yard to mold the oversize bricks for the structure. The two big second floor bedrooms were not connected by a door. One was for boys and the other for girls -- and they had separate stairways. Now (1965), with the addition of extra rooms over the years, it is a 14-room house, but all the woodwork, even the windowsills (made of black locust) of the original house is still intact. With 12-foot-high ceilings and foot thick walls, the house is still in a state of perfect preservation. There is no need for air conditioning. (Feature story on his great grandson, Dixie Lamar Conger, is in "The Chattanooga Times," 2 Aug 1965).

"The original house consisted of four rooms of the two-story brick part (still in use). The one story frame was added before the Civil War. It contained two rooms and an entrance hall, and I assume the porches were added at the same time, because the ornamental appointments seem to be in keeping. Also I assume that the original kitchen was still in use. According to the customs of the day, the kitchen was separate, and to the rear of the new addition. Some time after the Civil War the old kitchen was removed and a new kitchen, dining room, butler's pantry, etc. was added behind the new frame building.

"The bricks for the two story and full basement were burnt at the site, and I presume

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

the dirt from the basement (rock lined) was used for the brick. The old lime kiln was discovered a few years ago about a quarter mile S.E. of the building. The sand had to be hauled in from Elk River some 8 miles away.

"Over the years, little changes have been made in the original brick portion, except large glass panes were substituted for the 8" x 10" glass sashes, and the floors were covered with hardwood flooring. Most of the window frames and doors and door frames are still sound. They are carved out of solid black locust." (John B. Conger, 1970 occupant of the house.)

A paper called, "Tempo" ran a feature story in October 1967, in which John B. Conger was interviewed about the house. He explained that "pingin'" was a leather bucket and the pail referred to by Mrs. Iliff Conger, above, was probably made of either wood or brass.

Isaac first built a lean-to on the creek, now called Hamestring Creek, which meanders through the farm. The area was mostly wooded then and extremely rugged. The stone and log house which the young Isaac built for his family stands directly behind the comfortable home constructed later. The rocks which line the ground floor of that first house are cut identically, inside and out. Rubble was used to fill between them. Walls of the house are two feet thick.

Forming the one room second floor are hand-hewn logs 40 feet long, 15 to 18 inches wide and about 8 inches thick. They are carefully notched and placed. The house itself measures 20 feet by 40 feet. On the lower floor is a large open fireplace in which Mrs. Conger did the cooking. The floor was dirt and small windows were placed in the stone portion of the walls.

Isaac Conger evidently had his mind set on making housekeeping as easy as possible for his wife. He installed "running water." Taking two-by-fours, the young settler cut a one-half by one-inch groove on one side. He did the same to another piece of wood, put them together and water flowed from a nearby spring through a one-inch pipe into the house.

Building the new house was a slow process, taking time out to make crops, to locate stones for the basement, and assemble crews of workmen. In 1813, according to Isaac's diary, he went to Georgia in search of more workmen. The house was finally finished in 1815. It had two rooms downstairs and two bedrooms upstairs, as mentioned, for the boys on one side and the girls on the other. The kitchen, added a little later was to one side of the main house. Walls of the house are 14 inches thick. High fireplaces with fancy mantles were put in both rooms downstairs. The front door, still in its original state, has fancy woodworking and a glass pane.

After the main house was finished, the kitchen was added and a brick smokehouse was constructed. The smokehouse is now used as a refrigerated vault to hold cured hams which John B. Conger sells.

Two more wings have been added to the house and it now has 10 rooms and 2 baths. The Conger house has had running water throughout the house since 1901. Several pieces of furniture have been retained by family members over the years, and the Congers have added other antiques to keep the house as authentic as possible.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

During the Civil War, Union soldiers "stripped the farm bare." However, the farm houses weren't burned. Before the war Sion Conger was quite a wealthy man. Property evaluation records showed Sion had nine slaves valued at $1,000 each and property valued at $14,000 with between 1,000 and 1,200 acres.

But things changed. After the Civil War, Sion's wife developed poor eyesight. She went to Dresden for treatments and letters found in the house, written to her by Sion, promised he would send her $10 "if he could get it together."

Four generations of Congers have owned the property. After Sion died, the farm was owned by his son, Dixie Lamar Conger. Dixie's son, John Beall Conger, is the present owner, and he has promised to sell part of it to his son, John Beal Conger, Jr.

The house is located on Route 5, Fayetteville, TN 37334.

BIOGRAPHY:

Josiah Conger and Catherine Runyon eloped on horseback, she being only 14 years old. She had hidden her clothes behind a log, tied in a bundle, and these she carried on horseback behind her intended husband. In later years she often related the incident with pleasure, and said she had never regretted it.

They emigrated to Preble county, Ohio in 1812, and located near Sugar Valley, where they died. The trip from Tennessee to Ohio was made in a wagon, drawn by four horses, and required about six weeks.

Josiah Conger owned some fine real estate and a very large and imposing residence for the times, where a cordial welcome awaited the travelers throughout that country.

Josiah Conger was a preacher of the Christian Church.

He was a fine marksman. While in Kentucky he was a hunting companion of Daniel Boone, and it is said that he claimed kin with him. His death was caused by the accidental discharge of a gun on 8 Nov 1846.

RESIDENCES: Rowan Co., NC; Grand Gulf, Mississippi (CFA I, p. 242); Grand Gulch, TX (?)

RECOLLECTIONS:

John B. Conger moved to Mississippi with the other families of our ancestors about 1808. His marriage probably occurred in Mississippi. He patented large tracts of land where he resided until 1845, when he sold out and moved to Grand Gulch, Texas.

In a letter, dated 27 Jan 1839, he said that he had 20,000 acres of river bottom land, over 300 negroes, and an annual income of from $120,000 to $130,000. It is said that he married a young lady whose father had been an officer in the Revolution, and as a reward for his service had some large land grants.

On 16 Apr 1843, he wrote that he had taken one of the granddaughters of his brother, Jonathan, to be a companion for his daughter, Martha. She was about 15 and the daughter of Sally Conger who married Felix Thompson.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

He planned a journey for the summer of 1843 for himself and daughter by way of Mobile, and through the states of Alabama, Georgia and to his brother, Eli; South Carolina, Columbia, Camden to Salisbury, NC, Virginia, Maryland and up to Montreal, Canada and back.

In one of his letters, John said, "With all this a man is not entirely happy." It appears that his wife was dead at the time. His son, Fielding, died young of blood poisoning, after being cut by a cotton gin. His son, Isaac W., grew to manhood, was educated at home and abroad, and planned to live in Washington, DC. On a visit home he undertook to cross to an island farm with a slave in a skiff, when they were upset by driftwood and drowned. His daughter, Martha, died without issue in 1857, shortly after he left for Texas. We have no record of his activities in Texas. He was about 65 when he moved, so if he did re-marry he probably did not have another family. (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 298 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

RECOLLECTIONS: Extraction from a letter written by Sion Iliff Conger, son of Sion Moores Conger and grandson of Isaac Conger, b. 1779 and Mary Moores, dated 26 Jun 1904. He wrote, "I have two letters written by John B. Conger, dated in 1839 and 1843. The first is signed, 'John B. & Elizabeth Conger,' and the second is signed, 'John B. Conger,' his wife having probably died in the meantime. I will make a few quotations from them."

"In 1839 he mentions that his daughter, Martha Archer Conger, is a very pretty young woman, about 15 years old, and now at school at Donaldsonville, LA, near New Orleans, and learning music and French, as well as other studies in literature and politeness. He wrote, 'Isaac W. (His son, who later drowned in the Mississippi River.) is a fine looking young man, about 6 feet tall, weight about 1655. Has been home some time. Has been traveling in the Eastern states. Was in Washington at the sitting of Congress, and had an interview with the President.'

"'Brother Jonathan's children are about all dead. Phoebe Jane and Jonathan Lee are about all that remain. Uncle Isaac Ross's family are all no more, pretty much, and the Wade children are taking steps to keep all the negroes in slavery. Also the same with Margaret A. Reed's estate (the daughter of Uncle Isaac, formerly Mrs. Archer.) She had about 130 slaves and willed them to Dr. Stephen Duncan and Zubulan Butler, with a view to having them sent to Liberia.'

"'Eli K. Ross is living in Louisiana, on the Ouchita River, and doing no good.'

"'I am building a fine house on my plantation on the Mississippi River, where I expect to spend the remainder of my days. I have 14,000 acres of rich bottom land and 6,000 acres equally as rich above. More than 300 negroes, as likely as I ever saw. Will make probably 2,000 bales of cotton, which, together with sales of cord-wood to steamboats, should make an income this year of about $130,000. With all this a man is not entirely happy.'"

"In 1843 he mentions a visit just paid by his sister, Hannah, and husband John Railsback, and their appreciation of his magnificent estate."

Sion Iliff Conger goes on to say, "I have heard my father (Sion Moores Conger) speak of the visits of himself and his father (Isaac Conger) to John B.'s and of a visit that he and his daughter made to my grandfather's, and my father's overseer says he remembers when they drove from Memphis, he thinks, and Martha caused her father to remain in the carriage while she ran in the house, and covering grandmother's eyes with her hands, made her guess who the visitor was. This was some time in the [18]40's."

Sion Iliff continues, "My grandfather (Isaac) was a Methodist minister and used to make journeys throughout the South and visit his relatives in Mississippi, Georgia and South Carolina. In some of his journals he would make reference to these occasions. I have none of them at hand at this time to refer to."

Returning to the letters he continues, "John B. Conger also mentions, in a letter to my grandfather, Isaac Conger, that he had one of his brother Jonathan's grand-daughters with him for company for Martha Archer [Conger, his daughter], 'a daughter of Sally Conger, who married Felix Thompson.'" [Probably Mary Thompson.]

PARENTS: David Conger, Sr. and Mary Darby

BIRTH: 8 Jun 1763, Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ

DEATH: Abt. 13 Sep 1843 in Adams Twp., Monroe Co., OH

BIOGRAPHY:

Elias Darby Conger enlisted in the Revolutionary War but was too young to fight, so he "ran bullets." His granddaughter, Elizabeth Conger Henkle, remembered him as a good sized man, sitting in his arm chair reading, and that he had quite a library.

Elias and wife, Mary Goble, accompanied his brother, David, and wife, Sarah, from New Jersey to Western Pennsylvania in 1791. After Mary's death, in 1804, Elias married Mary Gregory and they moved on into Monroe county, Ohio, where they both died. Family tradition says that Mary Darby Conger, mother of David and Elias, went with them to Pennsylvania.

To prove that you can't believe everything you read in print or what family traditions says, the following article from the "Centerville Iowian," 10 January 1934, is given in full.

The following Conger family data is furnished by J.C. Harvey of Seymour: "Appanoose county's history may not be complete without the mention of the name Conger. This family dates its beginning in America in the year 1669, landing at Plymouth Rock. They were of French-Huguenot descent. Hence in years each generation emigrated westward until you find the name Conger in all parts of the United States. They are all related, as the original name, was Koniger, and was changed to Conger by John Conger, the first. (This has not been proved nor disproved.)

The Congers were first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of their countrymen. They furnished soldiers in every war from Colonial wars down to the World War. The first death recorded at Camp Dodge in Des Moines was Conger from Appanoose county.

John Conger, III, was a captain in the Revolutionary War. His son, Gershom, was George Washington's orderly at Valley Forge, and he became the grandfather of the sons and daughters of the Congers who emigrated to Appanoose county in pioneer days. (There is no record of a John Conger having a son named, Gershom, other than John Belconger. Capt. David Conger of the Pennsylvania Militia had a son, Gershom born 1792, after Valley Forge. A Gershom, born about 1763 in N.J., son of Enoch and Berzillah, might possibly have been an orderly to George Washington, but no Gershom in this line could have been.)

Gershom resided and ended his days in Green county, PA. (Son of Elias Darby Conger) His descendants moved over into Monroe county, Ohio, and his grandchildren moved on into Iowa later (this Gershom evidently confused with his father, Elias Darby). Enos and Jane Strayer Conger came first, in 1845 (brother and wife) and homesteaded on the Charlton River. Then came Elias and John in 1849 (brothers) and they homesteaded claims in Caldwell township. They were followed in the early 50's by Benoni, James, Morris, Moses, Max, Mark and Stephen (brothers and nephews), with cousins Charles, Elias and William.

At one time, prior to the Civil War, all these Conger families resided in Appanoose county, Iowa, and Putnam county, MO, and each of these families furnished soldiers in the Civil War -- they were abolitionists and were interested in the underground route in getting slaves north to freedom.

John Conger (John B. 1808) was progressive in the early day movements. At one time he lived in Centerville and built one of the first brick residences in the town. He helped to organize the first bank in Appanoose county, and later was among the founders of Seymour, Iowa. In the early days he owned and operated one of the first tread-powered threshing machines ever run in this section of the state, This was an advancement over the old chaff-piler and flailing system.

Benoni took to growing blooded cattle, and at one time had one of the best herds of Shorthorns (Durhams) in the state.

Elias (Elias Gregory 1806) drifted into growing blooded horses, and Enos was noted in the county as a horticulturist and farmer. All the other Conger boys became thrifty farmers, and their children likewise took up agricultural pursuits, at which most of them were successful.

Many of the Conger descendants moved westward and became great benefactors in building up the great west. However, at this time possibly over 500 of the Conger descendants live in Appanoose and adjoining counties."

EMIGRATION: The Conger family left Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ in 1790, moving to Washington Co., PA. In the party were: 1) Elias Darby Conger, Sr. and his wife, Mary Goble and their five children (Sarah, Mary, Ruth, Hannah and David); 2) David Conger Jr., and his wife, Sara (Welch) and son (Elias); 3) the mother of Elias and David

EMIGRATION: She came to America from Ireland with her parents at the age of 16. (Source: The Conger Family of America - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

SPOUSE: Mary Gregory was the 2nd wife of Elias Darby Conger.

DEATH-CONFLICT: Did she die in Greene Co., PA or Monroe Co., OH? Maxine Crowell Leonard lists, Greene Co., PA. Robert Guilinger writes, "Mary was living as the elderly wife of Elias D. Conger in Monroe Co., OH at the time of the 1840 Federal Census. It seems extremely unlikely that she died in Greene Co., PA."

Elias Darby Conger and Mary Gregory had the following children:

- 152 i. Elias Gregory Conger, born 18 Jul 1806, Greene Co., PA; married Rebecca Patterson, 1825, Guernsey Co., OH; married Ellen Delay, 21 Oct 1877, Appanoose Co., IA; died 18 Aug 1895, Cincinnati, Appanoose Co., IA.
- 153 ii. John B. Conger, born 8 Jun 1808, Greene Co., PA; married Elizabeth Atkinson, 5 Mar 1831, Monroe Co., OH; died 8 Aug 1883, Seymour, Wayne Co., IA.
- 154 iii. Rebecca Conger, born 15 Jul 1810, Morris Twp., Greene Co., PA; married Charles Powell, bet 1831 and 1833, Monroe Co., OH; died 26 Apr 1890, Litchfield, Sherman Co., NE.
- 155 iv. Benoni Conger, born 27 Mar 1812, Greene Co., PA; married Catherine Patterson, 14 Jul 1834, Guernsey Co., OH; died 25 Sep 1890, Centerville, Appanoose Co., IA.

- 156 v. Enos Conger, born 1 Jan 1814, Monroe Co., OH; married Jane Strayer, 30 Aug 1838, Marshall Co., VA; married Mary Jane Ireland, 2 Mar 1862, Appanoose Co., IA; died 2 Apr 1903, Cincinnati(near), Appanoose, IA.

- vi. William Green Conger was born on 28 Dec 1816 in Monroe Co., OH. He died on 16 Jul 1822 at the age of 5. William Green Conger

PARENTS: Elias Darby Conger, Sr. and Mary Gregory

Problem: His birth place has been given as, Greene Co., PA. This does not seem to be correct in light of the fact that it is believed that the family moved to Monroe Co., OH about 1813. It seems more likely that he was born in Monroe Co., OH. Can anyone cite a source for the place of birth?

BIRTH: 28 Dec 1816 in Monroe Co. OH per Ancestral File of Jan 1996.

Elias Darby Conger and Mary Goble were married in 1783 in New Jersey. Mary Goble, daughter of Stephen Goble and Rhoda Corey, was born about 1764 or 1765 in Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ. She died about 1804 at the age of 40 in Greene Co., PA. She has Ancestral File Number 41CP-8L. Mary Goble PROBLEM: The Ancestral File lists the place of death as, Green Co., OH.

HEALTH_HISTORY-DEATH: Died from cancer of tongue.

CEMETERY: Ethel C. Heagler in her Conger History 1664-1941 stated that David and Sarah Conger were people of faith. For a time he was the minister of the Ten Mile Valley Presbyterian Church. When they passed away they were taken down the valley a few miles and buried in Bates Fork Cemetery. [Note: She did not indicate an exact location. Joyce Posey suggests it was probably in Washington Co., PA. JoNelle Linnaus has been there and says it is in northern Greene Co., PA]

QUESTION-CEMETERY: Can anyone prove that both David and Sarah Conger are buried at Bates Fork Cemetery in Washinton Co., PA?. JoNelle Linnaus says they are buried at the Old Bates Fork Cemetery, Morris Twp. Greene Co., PA, with stones on the site. Robert Guilinger writes, "I have been in the Bates Fork Cemetery near Prosperity, Washington County, PA and did not find the graves of David and Sara Conger. JoNelle Linnaus showed me photos she took of the two graves; if she said "Old" Bates Fork Cemetery was in Greene Co. (Morris Twp.) then that could explain it, "two" different cemeteries."

CEMETERY: Capt. David Conger; 1767-1833 and Sarah, his wife; 1769-1844 are buried in the Old Bates Fork Cemetery, Morris Twp., Greene Co., PA. The cemetery is located above Swarts, on Fonner Run, former location of the Bates Fork Baptist Church. (Source: Cemetery Records of Greene County, Pennsylvania, compiled by Dorothy T. Hennen, Vol. 5, 1976, Franklin and Morris Townships, page 267 - furnished by JoNelle Linnaus)

COMMENT: JoNelle Linnaus writes: The Bates Fork Cemetery site in Greene Co., PA is the site of the graves of David and Sarah Welch Conger. Morris Township of Greene Co., PA lies next to Morris Township of Washington Co., PA. The David Congers and their sons, David, Ephraim and William Henry Harrison lived in this Ten Mile Country in the two counties.

PROBATE: According to JoNelle Linnaus the will of David Conger, Jr. was probated in Greene Co., PA.

BIOGRAPHY:

David Conger, 1767, and wife, Sarah and baby Elias, came from New Jersey to western Pennsylvania in 1791. They were accompanied by his brother, Elias Darby Conger, his wife, Mary Goble, and their five children. Tradition says that David and Elias' mother came with them, but this has not been proven.

David and Sarah took up their home in the hills and valleys of Washington county on the extreme southern edge. He cut down the trees and built their home and hewed the logs and made all their furniture on a hillside overlooking a beautiful valley and stream. He was an Indian fighter and was a captain of a company for the protection of the settlers.

David and Sarah were people of faith and he supplied for a time the Ten Mile Valley Presbyterian Church as its minister. This was the first church in the valley. Their children, with the exception of the last one, all had Bible names.

On this farm of 500 acres, [later called "Conger Station," now called "Plumbsock,"] the family grew to maturity -- seven boys and three girls. The mother and father passed away here and were taken down the valley a few miles and laid away in Bates Fork Cemetery.

The son, David, stayed on the old farm and raised a family, and then his son David and wife, Hannah, raised their family; their son David and wife, Adeline, are now living on the old homestead (1940). This old home is beautifully located on a bluff over [Conger] road, and the view from the veranda across the stream to the wooded hills beyond is charming. (Ethel Conger Heagler, 1941)

The tax list for George's Twp., Fayette Co, PA recorded an assessment for David Conger for the first time in 1799, taken for the year 1798. He was a farmer with 1 cow and a cabin; in 1801 he had 3 cows and 1 horse. In the year of 1806 the record stated "David Conger moved out." He was dismissed from Great Bethel Baptist Church of Union Town, PA on 9 Feb 1805. David Conger was also a school teacher.

David Conger and Sarah Welch were married in 1788 or 1789 in Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ. Sarah Welch was born in 1769 in New Jersey. She died in 1844 at the age of 75 in Morris Twp., Washington Co., PA. She was buried in 1844 in Morris Twp., Greene Co., PA, Bates Fork Cemetery. Sarah Welch BIRTH: Listed as Sara Welch, b. Abt. 1772 and Sarah Welch b. Abt. 1771 in the Ancestral File.

RECOLLECTIONS:

On Sunday, 26 Jul 1992, Vern and I visited the Upper Ten Mile country on the border between Washington and Greene Counties, Pennsylvania. We had visited the Prosperity Upper Ten Mile United Presbyterian Church and Cemetery in October, 1987. There David Conger, 1804-1892, son of David and Sarah (Welch) Conger, and his third wife, Mary Bell, are buried as well as some of his children.

On this trip we were looking for the graves of David Conger, 1767-1833, and his wife, Sarah Welch, 1769-1844, in the Bates Fork Cemetery in Greene County and of his sons, Ephraim and William Henry Harrison Conger in the West Union Cemetery.

We followed the winding road west toward Prosperity after turning off the interstate at Ten Mile. At Conger Road we turned left (southward) toward Dunn's Station. There we asked for directions. We continued on the winding road in a southwesterly direction, until we reached the top of a hill with a road marker that said, "Morris Township, Greene County."

Immediately south of here we turned left up a short rural road to West Union, a small village of about a dozen homes, a Presbyterian Church, and the West Union Cemetery. The lane inot the cemetery took us in the back way behind the church. In the neatly-mowed cemetery we found the graves of many Congers, Dunns, McVeys, Mattoxos, Days, and other names of families who intermarried with the Congers.

We took pictures of a tall brown marble obelisk monument of Ephraim Conger, 1809-1893, and his wife Eleanor, 1814-1907 (Mary Ellen in the Conger History). An older thin rectangular stone may have been the marker for William Henry Harrison Conger (1813-1852). The name was almost unreadable and did not seem to match the three given names, but the death date matched the information given in the "Cemeteries of Greene County" material I had. There were graves of several Congers born in the 1840's and 1850's who were probably the sons of Ephraim or possibly William Henry Harrison Conger.

A Mr. Dunn walked over to the cemetery from the churchyard to visit with us. He was quite knowledgeable about the Congers; he told us no Congers remain in the area, but one female descendant lives in Morgantown, WV. He gave us directions to the old Bates Fork Cemetery. Leaving the West Union Cemetery, we returned to the winding road which had entered Greene County at the top of the hill. We traveled on it to Deer Lick, where we turned left to Swarts. At Swarts, which had a house or two and a Methodist Church, we asked directions again to the Bates Fork Cemetery. We had to backtrack a half mile or so to Fonner Road where we turned and drove up a hill. Near the top we found the small cemetery which was overgrown with weeds.

No sign told us that we had reached the Bates Fork Cemetery, but it was in the right spot. There were two or three dozen stones hidden among the ferns and weeds. Several were broken or unreadable. The encouraging thing was that practically every stone had been decorated for Memorial Day when the weeds were small or had been mowed. Near the fence which we had climbed over, the area around six or seven Clutter graves had been cleared of weeds at some time since Memorial Day because they were small there.

We stumbled through the weeds looking for a Conger monument. Near the far end of the cemetery we found the marker for Capt. David Conger and his wife, Sarah. The gray granite shaft appeared to be the newest and best stone in the cemetery. A floral cross rested against the monument which leaned slightly to the north. An American flag flew bravely at the side of the marker. By trampling the weeds around the marker so that we could take pictures, we found the original small square stones for David and Sarah with the names and dates for them at the right or east of the newer stone. There was also part of a broken flat stone lying between the two older stones, but nothing was readable on it. Undoubtedly one of the sons or a grandchild had erected the newer, larger stone some years after their deaths.

45. Mary E. Conger (David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born about 11 Oct 1769 in Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ. She died about 1831 or 1832 at the age of 62 in Monroe Co., OH. Mary E. Conger

PARENTS: David Conger Sr. and Mary Darby

PROBLEM-BIRTH: Ancestral File lists her birth twice as, Abt. 1765. CFA II, p. 459 lists the date as, 11 Oct 1769, NJ. Others have listed 10 Nov 1769.

Mary E. Conger and Reuben Wright were married about 1791 in Morris Twp., Washington Co., PA. Reuben Wright, son of Reuben Wright and Hannah Graves, was born about 1765 in Northfield, , MD. He died about 1827 at the age of 62 in Monroe Co., OH. Reuben Wright

PARENTS: Reuben Wright and Hannah Graves

Problem: Was he born Abt. 1765 or Abt. 1771? Robert Guilinger believes the date should be Abt. 1765 or earlier, based on the fact that he was listed "as age 45 & up" in the 1810 Greene Co., PA census. He also points out that his son, John C. Wright lists the birth place of his father and MD and of his mother as NJ in the 1880 census of Appanoose Co., IA. Dortha Walters lists, b. 1771 at Northfield, Maine. She did not list a source for this information.

Problem: Was his first name, Reuben or Ruben? Robert Guilinger states that Reuben is the most common usage.

CHILDREN: Children according to Tom Stevens were:
Elizabeth, David, Nancy, Gersham, Catherine, Mary, Reuben, Hannah, John C.

BIOGRAPHY:
The rolling hills of Green County, PA, were a stopping point for Reuben Wright. There he met and married Mary Conger, the Conger family having arrived in Washington County/Greene County in 1790, led by Elias D. Conger his wife and 5 children who were accompanied by: David Conger, Jr., his wife and 1 child; Mary E. Conger the sister of Elias and David; and their mother, Mary (Darby) Green Conger.

They lived in Morris Township. Several of their children were born in Green County, including my great-great-great-grandfather, John C. Wright, who was their ninth child, born 16 May 1811.

A frontiersman, Reuben Wright seemed to have an urge to move on. The family probably boarded a flatboat and went down the river to Marietta. From there, they traveled north over hilly terrain, squatting in Monroe County, Adams Township in 1812. It is not clear if all nine children accompanied them. Elizabeth, the oldest may have been out of the home by then, as well as David, the second child. The only record we have is that of John.

We speculate that Reuben squatted in Monroe County, which he could legally do in those days, for there seemed to be an adequate amount of government land available. ...

COMMENT-DEATH: It has been reported by some that a Reuben Wright died in 1845 at Wayne Twp., Warren Co., OH. According to researcher Joyce Posey that Rubin Wright was a negro with 22 people living in the household. She believes that Reuben Wright who married Mary Conger died in Monroe Co., OH.

Reuben Wright and Mary E. Conger had the following children:

- 176 i. Elizabeth Wright, born 18 Dec 1799, Virginia; married John Redman.
- 177 ii. David Wright, born 1794; married Unknown Nichols.

RELATIONSHIP: On page 797 of CFA I, is listed Dee Bryant Thompson and his spouse, Lesba Lewis. It appears that CFA I doesn't link this family group to the John Belconger family tree. That is to say, the entry on page 797 is the only one for this family group.

Here's the information recorded on page 797.

Dee Bryant Thompson, b. 26 Apr 1907, Columbia, Marion, MS; was married 28 Jun 1933 at Ellicott City, MD to Lesba Lewis, b. 17 Aug 1912, Evansville, Vanderburgh, IN; daughter of Arthur Shannon Lewis and Elizabeth Kinney. The marriage ended in divorce. There was no issue listed.

Lesba (Lewis) Thompson retired from the U.S. government Civil Service after 34 years. She lived at: 1745 Meredith Lane; Belleair, Clearwater, FL.

She was a descendant of Sebasian Catt and Sebra Ann Conger, b. 1792. She did a great deal of research to find, Jonathan Conger, of Pike county, Indiana.

[Note: As of 2000 it appears that Lesba Thompson published the results of her research and placed a copy at the Library of Congress. REH]

BIOGRAPHY:

"Jonathan married Lydia Howell and they lived at Stout's Grove [in McLean Co., IL] until the year 1848. Then they went to Iowa, again to endure the hardships of a frontier life.

"His neighbors in McLean county tell a story of him, which shows the condition of things in the early days. He went on horseback to Bowling Green after a sack of salt. The wolves chased him and he made as good time as some of the brave soldiers in the Black Hawk War. When he had nearly reached home, he said to one of his neighbors, "I'll tell you, they were coming, and oh! They looked so savage -- I barely escaped with my life!" His fright was the subject of much merriment, for the old settlers did not fear the wolves and were anxious only to catch them.

BIOGRAPHY:

"Robert Conger, my father, lived for thirty years on the farm, which he first improved in Stout's Grove. He died in the year 1860 at the age of fifty-six, leaving a wife and nine children, three sons and six daughters.

My father was an old school-mate of Abraham Lincoln in Kentucky, and my mother also attended school with Lincoln near Springfield, Illinois. When I was quite a little girl I was with father in Bloomington when he met Mr. Lincoln. The latter said, "Howd you do, Bob?" Father then told me that Lincoln was a lawyer in Springfield and that he was a good man.

Father once told me of Ephraim Stout, the man from whom Stout's Grove took it's name. Shortly after father's arrival in the country he happened to be at Mr. Stout's cabin in the evening at supper time. Their table had no cloth on it, only the pewter plates and some mush and milk, which the family were eating. The old gentleman was at the hearth eating with a large spoon out of a kettle.

After the death of my father our family continued to live at the home place. Five years after his death my mother and one of my sisters died. The family remained together two years longer. Then our house caught fire and burned to the ground and the family separated.

The associations of our early home in McLean county have made it very dear to us all. It was there we listened to our parents as they told us the hardships of their early lives. I have often heard my mother speak of her fear of the Indians but she would add, that notwithstanding all her trials, those early days were full of happiness. It was great sport for her to go to the sugar camp and help make maple sugar, and eat it too, I suppose. She would tell how she spun her dozen cuts of yarn in one day and did her housework besides. Some young ladies would blush to tell this of their mothers, but I refer to it with pride, for labor was no disgrace in those days and ought not to be now."

PARENTS: Jonathan Conger and Margaret Elston

SPOUSE: Jane Conger was the 3rd spouse of Wilson T. Cummings.

COMMENT: It seems highly unlikely that 10 years would pass between the marriage of Jane Conger and Wilson T. Cummings before the first child was born. Especially in light of the fact that CFA II, p. 287 says she was the 3rd wife.

Jane Conger and Wilson T. Cummings were married about 8 Mar 1817 in Port Gibson, RESIDENCES-RELATIONSHIP:

On 16 Apr 1843, John B. Conger, b. Abt. 1784 who was spouse of Elizabeth Archer, wrote that he had taken one of the granddaughters of his brother, Jonathan, to be a companion for his daughter, Martha. She was about 15 and the daughter of Sally Conger who married Felix Thompson.

This might be the person, referred to as, Miss Mary C. Compton, in the 11 Jun 1853 will of Mrs. Martha Archer (Conger) Tucker.
(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 298-299 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

RELATIONSHIP: John B. Conger of Grand Gulf, MS, in a letter written about 1844, tells of taking a grandchild of brother, Jonathan Conger, as a companion to his daughter, she being the daughter of Sally Conger, who married Felix Thompson.

This grandchild was Mary Thompson, who lived with her cousin, Martha Archer Conger, even after her marriage to Gov. Tiglman M. Tucker. Before her marriage to Gov. Tucker, Martha A. Conger made a will, which provided handsomely for Mary Thompson. After her marriage she made a second will, leaving the bulk of her estate to "Miss Mary C. Compton" (according to the records), who much have been Mary Thompson. At any rate, Mary received most of the estate amassed by John E. [sic] Conger.

Martin Conger

PARENTS: Johnathan Conger and Margaret Elston

BIOGRAPHY:

Martin Conger was born in Rowan county, NC and removed to Mississippi with his father, about 1806, and settled in Claiborne county, where his father was a planter.

About 1830, Martin and his family removed from near Vicksburg, Warren county, [MS], to Clinton, MS. He was one of the pioneer settlers of this region. The road that he traveled to Clinton was, in many places, prepared by him before his wagons could travel. In many places he had to cut trees down to clear a road.

He was a staunch Methodist.

According to Mrs. E.F. Gill, Martin Conger did not leave any will. His estate was administered by Eli Garner. Each of his four children obtained from two to five slaves apiece, according to the valuation of their pro rata of 160 acres of land. Martin had left $4,000 in cash, which Mr. Garner had squandered in some wild speculations or security debts.

Mrs. Gill states that there was a family joke about Martin having red hair. Martin and his brother, Jonathan Lee [Conger], both married women called, Sally. So Jonathan's wife was called, "Sally Lee." Martin's wife was teased at marrying a red head and told that she would have all read-headed daughters. It turned out that their girls had black hair, and Jonathan and Sally Lee had two girls with blazing red hair.

PROBATE: Will of John Congo, July Term 1842, Smith Co. TN Will Book 3, p. 286-287
I John Congo of the State of Tennessee and county of Smith, being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of life and certainty of death, do make and say this is my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby make bond and disannull all former wills and testaments by me at any time heretofore made by me.

And first of all I give my soul to God who gave it.

Secondly, I direct that my body be buried in a decent Christian like manner.

Thirdly, as to such wordly goods as it has pleased God to give me, I give and bequeath all slaves (to wit), I want that my funeral expenses be paid, as soon after my demise as profitable out of any money that I may be possessed of or that may first come into the hands of my Executor.

Fourthly, I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible.

Fifthly, I direct that all my personal property be sold and the proceeds be appropriated first to the payment of my just debts, secondly the balance I give and bequeath to my wife Jincey Congo.

Sixthly, I give and bequeath to my wife Jincey Congo also the tract of land whereon I may live, to have and to hold unto her for and during the being of her natural life.

Seventhly, I give and bequeath to each of my children (to wit): Joshua Congo, Elisha Congo, John P. Congo, Lemuel Congo, Mary Jane Congo, William D. Congo, Miles W. Congo, Isaac R. Congo and Josiah Congo, the sum of one dollar each.

Eighthly, I direct that my tract of land whereon Sidney Smith now lives, be sold on a credit of one and two years, and also I direct that my tract of land in the state of Georgia, containing two hundred and sixty acres in Pike county, be sold and I do hereby nominate and appoint Thomas C. Brice, my agent in the State of Georgia, to sell and dispose of said tract of land in any way that he may think best. I also appoint him my agent to collect all debts that is due and owing to me or that may be due and owing to me in the State of Georgia. Also I direct that the mules that may be have on hand, be sent to said Thomas C. Brice and that he is hereby authorized to sell them and collect the money and pay over the same and all other money to one of my sons and I direct that all the proceeds of the aforementioned property be paid over by him to my Executor and that he pay the same to my wife, Jincey, for her use during her life.

Ninthly, I give and bequeath to my wife Jincey Congo my negro girl, Isabella, for the term of her life.

Tenthly, I direct that after the death of my wife, that all the property and effects of every description whatever sold, and that it be disposed of as follows: to wit I direct that each of my younger children, to wit: Lemeul Congo, Mary Jane Congo, William D. Congo, Miles W. Congo, Isaac R. Congo and Josiah Congo be paid each the sum of one hundred dollars and the balance be equally divided between all my children.

Eleventhly, I do hereby nominate and appoint Henry W. McDonald, Executor to this, my last Will and Testament, witness whereof, I, John Congo set my hand and seal this my last Will and Testament, written on one sheet of paper, this 14th day of April A.D. 1842.

BIOGRAPHY:

The Elisha Conger family was living in DeKalb Co., TN in 1850 and 1860. In 1860, Isaac J. Conger, age 18, was living with them, whereas in 1850 only children Eli and Martha were in the household. Elisha's nephew, Joshua, b. 1818, had a son, Isaac J., who was born in 1842. Perhaps it was this Isaac [who was] living with them to help with the farming. The 1860 census shows Martha Cheatham and daughter, Martha, living with them also. They lived near the river, nine miles north of Smithville. Elisha and Nancy are buried on the homestead.

RECOLLECTIONS: Excerpt of a 6 May 1905, letter from granddaughter, Martha J. (Cheatman) Corley.

"I want to write more to your about Grandpa Elisha Conger. He was a farmer, very ingenious, could make anything out of wood or iron. He made nearly everything he used, also always had boutiful of all good things. He owned a good farm, scarecely ever was in debt. He was honest and religious. He could quote nearly the whole scripture without the Bible. He was so good.

"I was born in his house. He raised me. I think he was the best man I ever saw. He was very industrious. After Grandma died he lived with me most of the time, until he died here with me. He was nearly 90 years old. He was blind and deaf, and nearly helpless the last year or so. We had to feed him and lead him about. He bore it all so good, was always pleasant before he died. He said he believed he knew the way to Heaven as well as he knew the way back to his home. I think he was as spotless as a human being could be on earth. I hope to meet good Granpa and the rest of them, all my good folks in a better land. I shall be glad to be of some help in the Conger Union if I can, in the future."

144. Martha Archer Conger (John B.-4, John-3, John-2, John-1) was born about 1812. She died on 8 Sep 1857 at the age of 45. Martha Archer Conger

SPOUSE-NO_ISSUE: Martha Archer Conger was the 2nd spouse of Tiglman Tucker. There was no issue.

RESIDENCES: As of June 1853, Clairborn County, Mississippi

RELATIONSHIP-STEP-CHILD: Mrs. William McWillie of Jackson, Miss., was the daughter of Governor Tucker by his first marriage. [She was the step-daughter of his second wife, Martha Archer Conger.] She had a large and very beautiful portrait of her step-mother. Her face is expressive of the fine character that Mrs. McWillie said was hers. No real daughter could speak of a mother in more endearing terms than did Mrs. McWillie in telling about this, the only mother she really remembered, her own having died when she was quite young.

PROBATE: Will of Martha Archer Conger Tucker

I, Martha Archer Conger, of Claiborn county, State of Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and anxious to dispose of all my property and expectancy do make and publish this my last will and testament.

It is my wish that all just debts which have been recognized by me and which are legally provable against the estate of my Father and Brother Isaac shall be paid and also my own debts.

It is my wish that Miss Mary C. Compton shall remain at Elidon, my present residence, if she desires, and that she shall have possession of the slaves, Sophia, Phil, Lucinda and Allison, and also to have $250.00 paid to her annually until the debts shall have been paid. Also during the period I wish her to remain in possession of one third of the stock of cattle and hogs which I desire her to hold. Finally and when the debts of my Father and Brother and my own debts shall have been liquidated, I wish her to have altogether eight (8) negroes of such as will be considered average value and also the residence and land known as Eldon, as her property, together with every article upon it and convenience of every kind belonging to the premises except such as shall hereafter remain. (Mary Compton may have been Mary Thompson.)

"Third" [sic, no First or Second were listed in the will extraction] I wish Mr. Franklin F. Thomas, who resides with me, after his salary is paid to devise to him the tract of land bought from David Lee, guardian of his infant child. I bequeath him also two negroes.

"Fourth" to Rev. Zebulon Butler, I give and bequeath one Negro.

"Fifth," to Mrs. Mary A. Morene, I give and bequeath one Negro and also a pair of painted china flower-vases that ornament the front parlor mantel piece.

"Sixth" request [sic] to Mrs. Nancy Hughes, I give my mother's gold spectacles.

"Seventh" to Benjamin H. Moorhead, I give the books used in classical course of studies by my brother Fielding.

"Eighth" to Julia T. Moorhead I give my elegant center table books.

"Ninth" to Emma McAlphin, I give my watch.

"Tenth" for Agnes McAlphin, and Mary Sessions, I wish two handsome rings bought costing at least $50.00 each.

"Eleventh" to Mrs. Eliza M. Ingraham, wife of Alfred Ingraham, I give my copy of Humes' "History of England," 12 volumes; also 45 volumes of the writings of the British Essayist and the writings of Josephus as a token of my recollection of her unceremonious tenderness to me on first acquaintance.

"Twelfth" to Dr. Robert W. Harper, of Port Gibson, I give as a testimonial of my friendly regards, my brother Isaac's gold-headed walking cane.

"Thirteenth" to William Sidney Wilson, Esq., of Port Gibson, I give my father's watch and rocking chair, being a low hair-covered one sitting in the front parlor, and also my Mother's sofa, it being a very large one standing beneath the mirror in the front parlor, and also the oil painting on the mantle piece of the same apartment, as a mark of my high esteem, it being a pet ornament with me.

I also give to Mr. W.H. Wilson all the land not already mentioned, to which I may have any claim, either legal or equitable, and the other third of cattle and hogs and other 21 slaves, and all increase of the whole from this time. 11 Jun 1853

BIOGRAPHY:

From the County History, Appanoose County, Iowa, Pleasant Township, pp 531-593, William Russell Conger of Dallas found the following pertaining to Elias Gregory Conger.

E.G. Conger, Farmer, Sec 33: O.O. Cincinnati; born in Greene county, Penn. in 1806; in 1812 his father Elias D., removed to Monroe county, Ohio; engaged in farming until his death in 1845; at the age of 16, E.G. ran away from home, having no advantages of schooling; went to the Ohio River and engaged to push on a keel-boat; there he saw the first steamboat on the Ohio River. At the age of 20 he returned to his native county in Penn., married Miss Rebecca Patterson, with whom he lived fifty years; she was born in Green county, PA, in 1806, died 25 Nov 1876, leaving seven children: Mary A., Mark, John, Elias, Enos, Martha J., Sam. (Thomas died in 1858, Benoni married and Robinson must have died young before Rebecca's death.)

After their marriage they settled in Monroe county, Ohio, remained until 1848; came to this county where he now resides, owning 170 acres of land valued at $25.00 per acre. He first settled in Caldwell Twp. and for a time lived near Centerville; part of the town is built on land previously owned by him, thence to Walnut Twp; thence to

BIOGRAPHY: Carried Gold In False Bottom of Their Tool Chest

Among the early settlers of Caldwell township, [Appanoose Co., IA], was John Conger, born in Green county, Pennsylvania in 1808. His wife, Elizabeth Atkinson Conger, was born in Ohio. She was the daughter and granddaughter of Revolutionary war soldiers and a half-sister of General Atkinson, prominent in the Black Hawk war.

Mr. and Mrs. Conger and their six children came from Ohio by flat-boat down the Ohio river to St. Louis where they transferred their belongings to a Mississippi river boat bound for Keokuk. They landed in Keokuk in the spring of 1849. The family remained in Lee county, while Mr. Conger looked for a location. In the fall of 1849 they came by covered wagons to Appanoose county, [IA], and paid $500 dollars in gold for an improved claim five miles south of Centerville. The gold was carried from Ohio in a double bottom tool chest. Many beautiful pieces of furniture, china and quilts were brought to the new home in the west. Soon after their arrival the house and contents were destroyed by fire. The family lived in the "claim house" a log house containing one room and a loft, until the new log house was built, a part of which is now standing. The improvements on the claim were some rail fences, small barn or shed, made of logs and a splendid deep well of water. A little girl who came to play with the Conger children told them her, "Granny Van Dike said the Mormons dug the well." When asked if her Granny was a Mormon, she replied, "Oh, no, she is just Granny."

Mr. and Mrs. Conger were charter members of the Christian church of Exline, [IA], which was organized in 1855. The Conger family moved to Centerville in 1864 and to Wayne county in 1869.

When the call came for volunteers in the Civil War, William Conger enlisted in Co., I, 36th Iowa, under Captain J.B. Gedney. He died at Benton Barracks in Dec. 1862. Charles Conger enlisted in Co. B, 6th Kansas Cavalry under Captain E.E. Harvey.

Nancy J. Conger married Wallace M. Harvey in Feb. 1861. In August of the same year he enlisted in Capt. Edwards state militia, traveling through Missouri to St. Joe, Mo., where they disbanded. In 1862 he enlisted in Co. I, 36th Iowa under Capt. J.B. Gedney and served until 1865 when he was mustered out of the service.

Lydia A. Conger married Newton C. Michael, Civil War soldier serving in the 17th Ia. under Capt. J.F. Walden.

[Note: The statement that Elizabeth Atkinson was a half-sister of General Atkinson, prominent in the Black Hawk War is incorrect, according to researchers working on the Atkinson family in 1996. There were two Atkinsons with the same name and no one has ever offered proof that there is any connection between General Atkinson and the Atkinsons of Monroe Co., Ohio. REH]

BIOGRAPHY:

John Conger (John B. 1808) was progressive in the early day movements. At one time he lived in Centerville and built one of the first brick residences in the town. He helped to organize the first bank in Appanoose county, and later was among the founders of Seymour, Iowa. In the early days he owned and operated one of the first tread-powered threshing machines ever run in this section of the state, This was an advancement over the old chaff-piler and flailing system.

ERROR: Ulysses Grant Ross reported that John Conger died about 1878/1879. According to Robert Guilinger, the date of death is 8 Aug 1883 and he believes Mr. Ross was in error. Joyce Posey also lists the date of death as, 1883.

Rebecca Conger and Charles Powell were married between 1831 and 1833 in Monroe Co., OH. Charles Powell, son of William Powell and Elizabeth Unknown, was born about 1813 in Center Twp., Monroe Co., OH. He died on 2 Sep 1874 at the age of 61 in Union Twp., Putnam Co., MO. Charles Powell ERROR-PARENTS: At one time it was assumed that the father of Charles Powell was Abner Powell. Abner Powell was an early settler of Monroe County, Ohio. Apparently this was erroneous relationship information from Mrs. Fedorchak to Joyce Posey. In October 2000, researcher Joyce Posey reiterated to Dick Henthorn that this assumption was in error. She believes his parents were William and Elizabeth Powell of Adams Twp., Monroe Co., OH.

COMMENT: Researching the Powell surname in Putnam Co., Mo., is difficult, as more than one Powell family lived there and they were not related. There are Powell families from Ohio and from Kentucky. Some of the Powell's who were from Appanoose & Wayne counties in Iowa, went across the border to Missouri to be married. Some of the "Ohio" Powell's lived as neighbors to the "Kentucky" Powells. The research becomes very difficult when an Ohio Powell marries a Kentucky Powell. (Furnished by Joyce Posey)

MARRIAGE: Information about the marriage of Charles Powell and Rebecca Conger can be found in Ethel Heagler's book and in CFAI by Maxine Crowell Leonard. CFA II, p. 398 lists the marriage as, Abt. 1835.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Appanoose Co., [IA] history may not be complete without the mention of the name Conger. This family dates its beginning in America in the year of 1669, landing at Plymouth Rock. They were of French Huguenot descent. Hence in years each generation emigrated westward until you find the name Conger in all parts of the United States. They are all related, as the original name was Koniger, and was changed to Conger by John Conger the first. The Congers were first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of their countrymen. They furnished soldiers in every war from Colonial wars on down to the World War. The first [WWI] death recorded at Camp Dodge in Des Moines was [a] Conger from Appanoose Co.

John Conger III was a captain in the Revolutionary war. His son, Gershom, was Geo. Washington's orderly at Valley Forge, and he being the grandfather of the sons and daughters -- the Congers who emigrated to Appanoose Co., in pioneer days. Gershom resided and ended his days in Green[e] county, Pa. His descendants moved over into Monroe county, Ohio, and his grandchildren moved on to Iowa later.

[Note: Joyce Posey points out that Gershom Conger was not the antecedent of the Appanoose Co., Iowa Congers.]

Enos and Jane Strair [Note: Her surname is usually listed as Strayer. REH] Conger came first in 1846 and they homesteaded on the Chariton River. Then came Elias and John in 1849 and they homesteaded claims in Caldwell township. They were followed in the early '50's by Benoni [sic, still in Monroe Co., OH in 1860 census], James, Morris, Moses, Max, Mark and Stephen and with Cousins Charles, Elias and William.

[Note: Joyce Posey states that the cousins were probably the Powell family. Charles Powell married Rebecca Conger and they had sons, William and Elias. Benoni Conger and his family did not migrate to Appanoose Co., IA until about 1862-63. He was still in Monroe Co., OH at the time of the 1860 census.]

At one time, prior to the Civil war all these Conger families resided in Appanoose county, Iowa, and Putnam county, MO., and each of these families furnished soldiers in the Civil war -- they were abolitionists and were interested in the underground route in getting slaves north to freedom.

John [B.] Conger was progressive in the early day movements. At one time he lived in Centerville, [Iowa] and built one of the first brick residences in the town. He helped to organize the first bank in Appanoose county, and later was among the founders of Seymour, Iowa. In the early days he owned and operated one of the first tread-powered threshing machines ever run in this section of the state. This was an advancement over the old chaff piler and flailing system.

Benoni took to growing blooded cattle, and at one time had one of the best herds of Shorthorns (Durhams) in the state.

Elias [G.] drifted into growing blooded horses, and Enos was noted in the county as a horticulturist and farmer. All the other Conger boys became farmers, and their children likewise took up agricultural pursuits at which most of them were successful.

Many of the Conger descendants moved westward and became great benefactors in building up the great west. However, at this time possibly over 500 of the Conger descendants live in Appanoose and adjoining counties.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Enos Conger was my great-grandpa. His farm is a short distance west of me and I see the buildings everyday.

I have stood by his grave many times and am enclosing a picture which I want returned as I have only this one.

He was born 1/1/1814 and died 4/1/1903. He was married in 1838 to Ann Strayer, b. 1818, in Marshall Co., WV. She died and was buried in Monroe Co., OH. I don't know where. There were seven children: Margaret, Mary, Elias, Dorcus, Emma Jane, Caroline and Sarah.

[Note: Joyce Posey writes: Much of Keith Conger's information was already known. I disagree with his statement that Ann Strayer died in Monroe Co., OH. If she did, Enos must have remarried a "Jane" before coming to Iowa. The Appanoose Co., IA census of 1850 lists "Jane" age 37, b. OH and 1856 census of the same county lists "Jane" age 42, b. Ohio, as wife of Enos.]

After her death he and some, or perhaps all, of the kids came to Iowa. He then married a widow whose name was, Mary Jane Ireland (Lang). They were parents of Joseph Wallace, b. 12/22/1863, d. 4/20/1937 (my grandpa) and Fanny, who married Asa Smith.

Enos and Mary Jane Conger are buried in the Bozwell Cemetery. Many times before his death, grandpa, Wallace, would come to our place, a few days before Memorial Day, and he, Dad and I would walk through the fields and meadows to clean up their graves.

I write poetry and am having a book made up. Write again.

OBITUARY: Cincinnati Review

Enos Conger, one of the oldest residents of the county and one of the oldest men in the county, died at his home about four miles southeast of Cincinnati [,IA] about noon yesterday at the advanced age of 89 years. He had been confined to his bed for a long time and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Conger was a pioneer settler in the county. Funeral at 3:00 p.m. today after which interment will be made at the Bozwell Cemetery. [Note: Apparently there was no headstone. REH]

(Source: Centerville, Iowa "Daily Citizen," Vol. IX, No. 88, p. 3, Friday, 3 April 1903 - furnished by Joyce Posey to Robert Guilinger)

Enos Conger and Jane "Ann" Strayer were married on 30 Aug 1838 in Marshall Co., VA. Jane "Ann" Strayer, daughter of John Strayer, was born about 1813 or 1814 in Marshall Co., VA. She died between 1856 and 1860 at the age of 43 in Appanoose Co., IA. Jane Strayer

FATHER: John Strayer

AKA: Ann

BIRTH-CONFLICT: A birth date of 1818 in Marshall Co., VA is usually listed for Jane (Ann) Strayer. This date isn't supported by the available information. The 1850 census of Appanoose Co., IA lists her age as, 37 years old, which calculates to a birth year of Abt. 1813. The 1856 census of Appanoose Co., IA lists her age as 42 year old, which calculates to a birth year of Abt. 1814. Both of these dates are more consistent with the birth year of her husband, Enos, 1 Jan 1814 and they are used here.

COMMENT: According to Wilma Boden Barnett, the father of Jane Strayer (Strair) was John Strayer a Revolutionary War soldier. Jane was born in Marshall Co., VA/WV. No source citation was given to support this information.

CONFLICT: Was her name, Jane Strair (from newspaper article), Ann Strayer or Jane Strayer? Maxine Crowell Leonard lists, Ann Strayer as does Joyce Posey. She is listed as, Jane, in the 1850 census of Appanoose Co., IA. Robert Guilinger lists, Jane Strair. He found her mentioned as "Jane Strair" in an undated newspaper clipping about the Conger family, furnished by J.C. Harvey, of Seymour, IA. [Note: There are a number of statements made in J.C. Harvey article which don't seem to be supported by the facts. See her husband's note for the text of the article. REH]

QUESTION: Can any cite a proof for her name?

Census: 1850, in Appanoose Co., IA, Caldwell Twp., 34/34

Enos Conger, 36, Farmer, b. OH; Jane, 37, b. OH

Margaret, 11, OH; Mary, 9, OH; Elias, 7, OH; Darcus, 5, OH;

Emma J., 1, IA

[Note: The name Darcus on the census record could have been misspelled.]

DEATH-COMMENT: Jane Conger died after the 1856 census of Appanoose Co., IA and before the 1860 census of the same place. In the 1860 census her husband is shown without a wife.

CEMETERY-COMMENT: It is claimed that she is buried in the Bozwell Cemetery, Pleasant Twp., Appanoose Co., IA, without a headstone. There is no cemetery record and there is no death record as of July 1996.

(Furnished by Joyce Posey)

Enos Conger and Jane Strayer had the following children:

- 403 i. Margaret Conger, born 24 Jul 1839, Monroe Co., OH; married Joseph Sanford Leonard, 27 Jun 1861, Appanoose Co., IA; died 15 Nov 1911, Iowa.
- 404 ii. Mary Jane "Minnie" Conger, born 20 Jan 1841, Monroe Co., OH; married William Fletcher Marshall, 21 Feb 1858, Caldwell Twp., Appanoose Co., IA; died 6 Jan 1887, Plainville, Rooks Co., KS.
- 405 iii. Elias Gregory Conger, born 18 Mar 1843, Senecaville, Monroe Co., OH; married Margaret Jane Ireland, 30 May 1861, Appanoose Co., IA; married Sarah Ann Baldwin, 4 Mar 1870, Glenwood, Mills Co., IA; died 4 Sep 1919, Oakdale, Antelope Co., NE.
- iv. Darcus Conger was born about 1845 or 1846 in Monroe Co., OH. She died before 1903 at the age of 58 in Perkins, Payne Co., OK. Darcus Conger

PARENTS: Enos Conger and Jane (Ann) Strayer

Problem: Was the first name, Dorcus, Dorcas or Darcus? The name is spelled, Darcus on the 1850, age 5, and 1860 census. This person was a female and apparently never married. Age 10, on 1856 census

DEATH: Apparently died Bef. 1903 as she is not mentioned in the Probate record of Enos Conger.

- 406 v. Emma Jane Conger, born abt 8 Jun 1849, Appanoose Co., IA; married John Wesley Teter, 21 Oct 1868, Appanoose Co., IA; died 19 Feb 1923, Perkins, Payne Co., OK.
- 407 vi. Caroline "Aunt Line" Conger, born abt 1851 or 1852, Appanoose Co., IA; married Ivan Weatherly, 10 Mar 1872, Appanoose Co., IA; died abt 1926, Ottumwa, Wapello Co., IA.
- 408 vii. Sarah E. Conger, born 27 Nov 1854, Iowa; married Jim Putnam; married John J. Chance, 22 May 1883; died Nov 1928, Ottumwa, Wapello Co., IA.

Enos Conger and Mary Jane Ireland were married on 2 Mar 1862 in Appanoose Co., IA. Mary Jane Ireland, daughter of William Linn Ireland and Biademia Shaklee, was born about 1822 or 1823 in Morgan Co., OH. She died on 6 Feb 1908 at the age of 86 in Mendota, Putnam Co., MO. She was buried on 7 Feb 1908 in Cincinnati, Appanoose Co., IA, Bozwell Cemetery. Mary Jane Ireland

PARENTS: William Linn Ireland and Biademia Shaklee

BIRTH: Abt. 1822, in OH from 1870 Census, Appanoose Co., IA

AKA: Mrs. Mary (Ireland) Lang was the 2nd wife of Enos Conger. She was first married to Lowell Lang, in Ohio. They had a son, Lowell Frank Lang. Listed as Mary Lang in Ancestral File.

Problem: Was her surname, Ireland or Irelan? The spelling is usually, Ireland.

SPOUSE: Mary Jane Ireland was the 2nd spouse of Enos Conger.

RELATIONSHIP-RESEARCHER: Lowell Frank Lang, son of Mary Ireland, married Virginia Amelia Bozwell the ancestor of Dortha May (Bozwell) Walters: of RR1, Box 183A; Mystic, IA 52572 (As of Jan 1996). Mrs. Walters was interested in genealogy and did work on the Conger family of Appanoose County, Iowa which she shared with Mrs. Joyce Posey.

SIBLINGS: According to L. Keith Conger, she was the sister of Elijah Simon Ireland.

OBITUARY: Mrs. Mary Conger of near Cincinnati, [IA] died last Thursday [6 Feb 1908] at the home of her son, Wallace Conger, of Mendota [MO], whom she had been visiting. The funeral took place Friday. The remains being interred at Bozwell cemetery [Appanoose Co., IA]

Enos Conger and Mary Jane Ireland had the following children:

- 409 i. Joseph Wallace "Wallace" Conger, born 25 Dec 1863, Cincinnati, Appanoose Co., IA; married Jennie Cattern, 25 Dec 1884, Mendota, Putnam Co., MO; married Unknown Unknown; died 20 Apr 1937, Mendota, Putnam Co., MO.
- 410 ii. Francis E. "Fannie" Conger, born abt 26 Feb 1866, Appanoose Co., IA; married Asa Marion Smith, 1 Nov 1885, Appanoose Co., IA; died 9 Sep 1887, Appanoose Co., IA.

157. Sarah Conger (Elias Darby-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born on 29 Feb 1784 in New Jersey. She has Ancestral File Number HRML-CF.

Sarah Conger and Martin Boner were married about 1804. Martin Boner was born about 1782.

158. Ruth Conger (Elias Darby-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born in 1786 in New Jersey. She has Ancestral File Number HRML-N0.

Ruth Conger and John Fisher were married about 1806. John Fisher was born about 1783.

He died on 7 Oct 1865 at the age of 84 in Guernsey Co., OH. Israel has Ancestral File Number HRML-TT. Israel Hafer

NAME-CONFLICT: Israel Hofer on Ancestral File; Israel Hafer on the tombstone

COMMENT: The Israel Hafer family can be found in the Conger and the Yoho genealogy files of researcher, Richard E. Henthorn.

RESIDENCES-CHILDREN-RELATIONSHIP: According to John Knisely, they lived in Greene Co., PA; then in Morgan Co., OH and later in Guernsey Co., OH. He lists the birth date of Israel Hafer as, Abt. 1781 and of Hannah as, Abt. 1794. The states, "Among their children were John Hafer, m. Jane McBride; Elias Hafer; and probably Joseph Hafer. ... I suspect that my ancestor, Sarah Jane Hafer, b. 2 Sep 1826, PA, d. 25 Dec 1863, Greene

Co., PA, who married William Knisely, is also one of Israel and Hannah's children."

He also states, "Israel was the brother of Joseph Hafer and (probably) the brother of Jacob Hafer, b. c1795, m. Elizabeth Simpson and lived in Greene Co., Pennsylvania."

Further, "There was a widow, Lydia Hafer on the 1840 census of Morgan Co., OH. I think it's likely she's a relative of Israel; perhaps she's the widow of his brother, Joseph."

CHILDREN: It is known from the biographical sketch of John Hafer, the husband of Jane McBride, that he was the son of Israel Hafer and Hannah Conger.

CHILDREN: Researcher John Knisely lists the children of Israel Hafer and Hannah Conger as: Jacob (probably); Joseph (probably); Elias; John; Sarah Jane his ancestor (possibly/probably); Rhoda J.; Samuel (possibly); Israel Jr.; Charlotte; Hester. Further research will be necessary to prove the members of this family.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Robert O. Conger, son of John Spencer Conger, wrote the following on 4 May 1911: "Our great grandfather (Elias Darby Conger) was a hard-shell Baptist preacher during the War of Revolution of Long Island. He came from Essex county, NJ.

David married into a family of Pennsylvannia Moonshiners. Father told me all this. He says he remembers folks used to gather at his father's home. They were all raw-boned fellows, wore red shirts, broad hats, with their pants in the tops of their boots. I don't know when they left Pennsylvania or Peach Creek."

BIOGRAPHY:

David and Rebecca Conger left Manchester, IN in 1854 and settled at Bluff Creek Twp., Monroe County, Iowa. They had just moved into their new house when Rebecca died of the Spotted Fever. She and David and son, Elias, were buried on the homestead, on Section 10, owned by Frank Durbala in 1961. Years later, after a cemetery was established in the area, relatives tried to remove the bodies but nothing was left. They built a stone wall around an area 10' x 16' and deeded it to the county as a cemetery. A tree grows in the middle of the graves, as of 1965.

RESIDENCES: As of the 1870 census he was living with his son, Elias Milton Conger and family.

DEATH: David Conger, of this county, died a short time ago while on a visit to one of his daughters near Albia [Iowa]. He was about 80 years old.

David S. Conger and Rebecca Sharp were married between 1810 and 1814 in Greene Co., PA. Rebecca Sharp, daughter of Isaac Sharp and Mary Wolverton, was born between 1786 and 1788 in Greene Co., PA. She died in Aug 1854 at the age of 68 in Bluff Creek Twp., Monroe Co., IA. She was buried in Aug 1854 in Bluff Creek, Monroe Co., IA, Farm Cemetery. Rebecca Sharp Problem: Was the year of birth, 1786, 1788, or 1796?. Ancestral File lists, Abt. 1794, perhaps in Monroe Co., OH.

FATHER: Isaac Sharp, the father of Rebecca Sharp, was a native of New Jersey.

David S. Conger and Rebecca Sharp had the following children:

- 416 i. Elias Milton Conger, born 2 Aug 1812, Pennsylvania; married Mary Jane Hatton, 8 Nov 1851, Kankakee, Kankakee Co., IL; died bef 1880, Bluff Creek, Monroe Co., IA.

RECOLLECTIONS: Conner's Ridge Cemetery Holds Stephen Conger - b. 23 Oct 1796; d. 12 May 1859 by Willis and Dorothy Hollingsworth

On August 4, 1997 we turned off I-77 at Caldwell, OH to drive 30 miles east to Woodsfield, OH. We were only 25 miles from Marietta, OH.

Our first stop in Woodsfield was the Monroe Co. court house. The recorder's office had no records; they had been destroyed by fire many yearss ago. They recommended the library where we did find info on the cemetery. We also stopped at the county engineer's office and he gave us a county road map. A county worker gave us detailed instructions how to get to Wayne Twp. The library info verified that Stephen Conger and Mary (Piatt) Conger were buried there.

It was very hot that day, but Dorothy finally found Stephen Conger's marker. We never found a marker for Mary. It wasn't here Stephen's. We should have searched more. In the row directly in front of Stephen's marker were Isaac and Mary Lowe's markers. They were the parents of Elizabeth Lowe, wife of James Conger, son of Stephen (two more of Willis' g.g.grandparents). We were very lucky to have found them.

Stephen and Mary (Piatt) died 21 years apart. This may be the reason her marker was not near her husband's. The markers are in the center of the old cemetery, west of the Conner Ridge Methodist Church. The cemetery is in the Wayne National Forest. We were driving our 1960 Edsel.

[Note: Two photographs accompanied the article. One showed a view of several stones, with that of Stephen Conger indicated. The other was a close up of the stone of Stephen Conger which read: STEPHEN CONGER; DIED; MAY 12, 1859; AGED 62 Yrs. 6; Mo. & 22 Days. Under a line there is a verse inscribed which can't be read in the photograph. REH]

PARENTS: David Conger, Jr. and Sarah Welch

RELATIONSHIP: According to Joyce Posey this Elias Conger was the nephew of Elias Darby Conger Sr., born 8 June 1763 in New Jersey. The younger was sometimes called Elias, Jr. to differeniate. Can it be proved that he was called Junior?

Problem: Joyce Posey lists his middle initial as, "D.". Can it be proved that his middle initial was, "D."?

AKA-BIRTH-DEATH: Ancestral File of Jan 1996 lists him as: Elias Darby Conger, Jr.; born 4 Oct 1790 in Middlesex, NJ; died 17 Nov 1869 in Monroe Co., OH; buried at Old Cameron Cem., Jamestown, Monroe, OH.

BIRTH-CONFLICT: Robert Guilinger lists the following dates: b. 4 Oct 1789, Woodbridge, Middlesex Co., NJ, d. 17 Nov 1869, Cameron, Monroe Co., OH. He has the estate record, dated Dec 1869. Clyde Decker lists the following dates: b. 3 Oct 1789, d. 17 Nov 1869. Others have listed a birth date of 16 Oct 1788. Maxine Crowell Leonard lists, b. 6 Sep 1789, Woodbridge, Middlesex, NJ, d. 17 Nov 1869, Cameron, Monroe, OH (CFA I, p. 140), then corrects the birth date to, 6 Apr 1790 (CFA II, p. 715)

MARRIAGE-CONFLICT: Some say he was married in Green Co., PA and others in Monroe Co., OH. Ethel Conger Heagler listed, Green Co., PA. [Note: Robert Guilinger thinks that Mrs. Heagler was in error. He states, "No source quote for location of marriage, however Margaret moved as a young child with her father, Charles Atkinson, to Monroe Co., OH around 1799. Elias moved to Monroe Co. in the 1813 time period. There is no reason to believe they were not married in 1815 in Monroe County, OH."]

LEGAL_MATTER:

Journal 2, June term, 1835 (Court of Common Pleas) indicates that Elias Conger and wife sued Elizabeth Atkinson, Elijah Atkinson, Abel Atkinson et. al. The Elizabeth in this record is the widow of Charles, and her maiden name was Stephens. Elias Conger was married to Margaret Atkinson, a dau. of Charles. The suit was brought to prove whether the purported will of Charles Atkinson was true. Page 131 of the same Journal 2 indicates that the court found the will to be valid. The court records also show that Elizabeth, the widow, had declined to act as executor of the will, and the court appointed John Watson. He was married to Rebecca, another dau. of Charles and Elizabeth Atkinson. Perhaps he was a brother of David Watson who was possibly married to a Duvall - see the column on Conrad Duvall.

BIOGRAPHY:

Elias Conger (1789-1869), the great-great grandfather of researcher, Robert Guilinger, apparently left Washington Co., PA about 1813 and moved to Monroe Co., OH. There he resided and worked on the farm of his uncle, Elias Darby Conger (1763-1843). It is my opinion that Elias Conger left Pennsylvania in 1813 to avoid being drafted to serve in the War of 1812. Elias, being the oldest son of David Conger (1767-1833), was the first in line to inherit the family farm. I think his father gave Elias his inheritance as a lump sum when he left home.

Elias married a few months after the end of the War of 1812 on 17 Jun 1815 and bought a farm in Monroe Co., OH. He and his wife, Margaret Atkinson, had 10 children, all born in Monroe Co., OH.

I am descended from David A. Conger (1818-1895), the oldest son of Elias and Margaret. (Furnished by Robert Guilinger)

Elias Conger and Margaret Atkinson were married on 17 Jun 1815 in Monroe Co., OH. Margaret Atkinson, daughter of Charles Atkinson and Elizabeth Stephens, was born on 17 Jun 1793 in Waynesburg, Greene Co., PA. She was buried in Jun 1872 in Cameron, Monroe Co., OH, Atkinson Cemetery. She died on 20 Jun 1872 at the age of 79 in Clarington, Monroe Co., OH. Margaret Atkinson

PARENTS: Charles Atkinson and Elizabeth Stephens

RELATIONSHIP: Margaret Atkinson was the twin of Stephen Atkinson. They were born at Fort Jackson near Waynesburg, (now Greene Co.), PA where their father was stationed. This area was on the South Fork of Ten Mile Creek which passes through the Waynesburg area of Greene County, PA. [Note: Robert Guilinger points out that a Ten Mile Creek also passes through the Prosperity area of Washington Co., PA. There are two different creeks with the same name!]

RECOLLECTIONS:

Julianna Conger Walton wrote that her father, Elias, and Uncle Gershom entered land together in Monroe county, Ohio. They built their houses and improved the land by clearing it. Elias bought out Gershom a few years later. Gershom went west, but spent the winter of 1847 with relatives in Ohio.

Gershom Conger and Mahala Unknown were married about 1815. Mahala Unknown was born about 1795.

168. Aaron Conger (David-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born on 15 Apr 1795 in Washington Co., PA. He was buried in Jul 1876 in Licking Co., OH, Bell Cemetery. He died on 6 Jul 1876 at the age of 81 in Licking Co., OH. Aaron Conger

Problem: Was the date of death, 1867 as listed by Ethel Conger Heagler or 6 Jul 1876 in Licking Co., OH as listed by others?

BIOGRAPHY:

In 1824, Aaron and Mary McVey Conger left Pennsylvania and purchased a new home in Licking county, Ohio, near the north county line. Here the remainder of their family was born and they lived until their death. They never went back to the home in Pennsylvania or saw their parents again. When Ethel Conger Heagler visited the family in 1938 she was told she was the first of any of the descendants ever to go back in 115 years.

Aaron and Mary are buried in the beautiful Bell Cemetery, located by the church where they were members. This church is a landmark in that community. It sets on a hill overlooking a panoramic view of the country. It is 12 miles north of Newark, [OH]. This is pictured on page 15 of Ethel Heagler's booklet, "Conger History 1664-1941."

The following story is taken from Ethel Heagler's booklet, written by Clara A. Watson:

Aaron Conger and his blue-eyed wife, Mary McVey, who was of Scotch ancestry, moved from Pennsylvania to Licking county, Ohio, in the 1820's. This woman was very energetic and ambitious in a material way, but found little time for study or reading in the hard life of pioneer days.

The couple bought a tract of hilly, stony, timberland for a home. The young man had been a school teacher in Pennsylvania, but found all the work he could do in making a home on the new land.

The first work necessary was to provide shelter. Felling trees and hewing of logs provided the material for house and out-buildings. After this was done, the stones with which the land abounded were carefully gathered and used for building fences - a back breaking task.

A wonderful spring in a shallow ravine was an outstanding feature of the homesite. A spring house was built over it, and to this day, more than one hundred years later, a spring furnishes all the water needed for this farmhouse.

Within twenty-five years following this marriage, twelve children were born. As they grew up each child assumed certain responsibilities. The sons all learned to chop down trees and hew them into logs; clear timberland, and split rails for fencing the farmland. They learned to build fences that were, "horse-high, hog-tight, and bull-strong."

The oldest daughter learned the milliner trade and carried on a business in the home, which was far from a town of any size. The oldest son learned to repair boots and shoes. He provided a cobbler's bench and tools which he used to keep the family and neighbors in comfortable footwear. The third son learned to weave when he was 13 years old. From that time until he was 21 he did most of the weaving of the materials for the family clothing, including linen, woolen and linsey--woolsey, a cloth made of both flax and wool.

Aaron and Mary were members of the Christian Church, having been Presbyterian who embraced the faith of Alexander Campbell, and who insisted on being called, "Campellites."

Aaron Conger was a invalid during the latter part of his 72 years. He suffered from a form of rheumatism which made him an almost helpless cripple. No doubt this was brought on by exposure and hard work.

Aaron and Mary are buried in a picturesque spot in Licking county, [Ohio]. Bell Church stands on a steep hill commanding an entrancing view in all directions. Winding roads from three sides lead to this beautiful, "God's Acre."

Aaron Conger and Mary Mc Vey were married in 1819 in Greene Co., PA. Mary Mc Vey, daughter of Jacob E. Mc Vey, was born on 11 Jun 1799 in Washington Co., PA. She was buried in May 1878 in Licking Co., OH, Bell Cemetery. She died on 12 May 1878 at the age of 78 in Licking Co., OH. Mary McVey Problem: Was the date of death, 12 May 1870 or 12 May 1878? Ethel Conger Heagler lists, 12 May 1870 in Ohio.

Aaron Conger and Mary Mc Vey had the following children:

- 453 i. Elizabeth Ann Conger, born 19 Mar 1820, Greene Co., PA; married James Ryan, 13 Dec 1841; married William Penn Smith, 7 Sep 1848; died abt 1874, Mount Vernon, Knox Co., OH.
  - 454 ii. Jacob Ervin Conger, born 12 Dec 1821, Washington Co., PA; married Miranda Constable, 1859, Mercer Co., MO; died 4 Mar 1886, Princeton, Mercer Co., MO.
  - 455 iii. David Washington Conger, born 7 Mar 1824, Greene Co., PA; married Priscilla Kraft, Ohio; married Julia Lewis, Kansas; died 1874, Marshall Co., KS.
  - 456 iv. Cary Mc Vey Conger, born 24 May 1826, Licking Co., OH; married Rebecca Marriott, 1847, Ohio; died 14 Mar 1898, Gibson, Ford Co., IL.
  - 457 v. Elias Jackson Conger, born 24 Apr 1828, Licking Co., OH; married Harriet Marinda Miller; died 8 Oct 1871, Newark, Licking Co., OH.

QUESTION-DEATH: When and where did Moses Conger die? The Biographical sketch of his son, E.M. Conger states he died at the age of 75 years. If the date of birth was, Abt. 1791, the date of death would be, Abt. 1866. If the date of birth was Abt. 1801 the date of death would be Abt. 1876.

BIOGRAPHY:

The Moses Conger family was in Wayne Twp., Monroe Co., OH in 1850. They removed to Appanoose Co., Iowa, where most of the family died.

Moses is probably the Moses Conger who married Mary Ketchum on 27 Mar 1852 [sic] in Appanoose county, which would indicated that Elizabeth died shortly after the 1850 census. The first 3 children were listed in Mrs. Heagler's record, whereas she did not have some of those listed in the 1850 census. It appears that Moses did not marry until he was in his middle 30's. Had issue, some born in VA.

COMMENT:

In 1852 or thereabouts, "Mose" Conger bought a barrel of whiskey and began business in a cabin.

One Sunday, two residents of the town called on Mose for a pint of the article, and found him on his chair so inebriated that he could not rise. The visitors asked him to furnish them, but he refused pointblank, saying he would not sell on Sunday.

He explained, "I was raised a Presbyterian and some old faith sticks to me yet."

But, so good a customer was Mose to himself that when his barrel became empty, his circumstance did not admit of his obtaining a fresh supply. [Note: These two items about Moses Conger and the whiskey point out vividly how difficult it is to obtain exact quotes from other documents unless the extractor can view the original. COMMENT: How Many Moses Congers Were There in Appanoose Co., IA?

One or more men named Moses Conger lived in Appanoose Co., Iowa. Three women married a man named Moses Conger. The research challenge is to determine whether all three of these women married the same Moses Conger? Can it be proven using the available information that the three women married the same man? If so, in what year was he born? In what state was he born? What was the date of death?

Here's a summary of census information, with birth dates calculated, which will then be discussed in more detail.

1840, age 30-40, b. Abt. 1800 to Abt. 1810
1850, birth state of PA, age 59, b. Abt. 1791
1856, birth state of PA, age 54, b. Abt. 1802
1860, birth state of PA, age 56, b. Abt. 1804
1870, birth state of NJ, age 64, b. Abt. 1806

It is troubling that the birth state listed in the 1870 census is NJ, and not PA.

In the 1840 Monroe Co., Ohio census Moses Conger was between 30 and 40 years old. Using those two ages we can calculate an earliest and a latest possible birth date. If he was 30, he would be born Abt. 1810 (This is not likely in light of information we have from later census records.). If he was 40, he would be born, Abt. 1800. This gives us a range for the birth date, Abt. 1800 to Abt. 1810.

Based on the 1850 Monroe Co., OH census record it appears that Moses Conger, was born Abt. 1791 in Washington Co., PA. Maxine Leonard in "The Conger Family of America" lists the date of birth as Abt. 1797 with no source citation. Maybe the age, 59, listed in the 1850 census, was in error, either when recorded or when extracted. Perhaps his age was actually, 49, rather than 59. If so, the calculated birthdate would be, Abt. 1801, which would be more consistent with the ages listed in the other four census records.

John Conger Jr

Using the birth dates calculated from the other censuses we have: Abt. 1802 (1856 census), Abt. 1804 (1860 census), Abt. 1806 (1870 census), thus narrowing the birth date down to a period of 5 years 1802-1806. That's probably what should be entered in his record, born Abt. 1802/1806, although Abt. 1801 also should be considered as a possibility for the first date in the range.

We know from a biographical sketch of his son, Elias Milton Conger, that his father lived to be 75 years old. Adding 75 to the birth range of Abt. 1802/1806 we arrive at Abt. 1877/1881 for the date of death.

What do we know about the marriages?

Abt. 1828, in an unknown place, he married Elizabeth Powell, born Abt 1810 in OH. Source: No citations for either date.

On 27 Mar 1854, at age 53 (b. Abt. 1801), he married, in Appanoose Co., IA, to Mary Kitchen, age 45, who was born Abt. 1809. Source: Appanoose Co., Iowa Marriage Records, Book 1, page 119.

On 7 Jan 1863 (no age listed) he married, in Appanoose Co., IA, to Lucinda [sic, Lorinda] (Dale) Powell, who was born, Abt. 1822/1826 in Madison Co., KY. Source: Appanoose Co., Iowa Marriage Records, Book 2, page 111.

Moses and Lorinda Conger have an 1870 census record which says he was 64 and born in New Jersey which would make his birth year, Abt. 1806. Why does the 1870 census record give the birthplace as New Jersey?

Moses and Lorinda Conger had a child, Moses D. Conger born on 9 Apr 1864 in Appanoose Co., IA. Based on the 1870 census data, the father would have been 58 years old when Moses D. Conger was born.

If the women didn't all marry the same man this would create another research problem. For example, the Moses Conger who married Lorinda (Dale) Powell, didn't just drop out of the sky at the time of the 1870 census. If there was another Moses Conger why haven't other records of his existence been found?

In this genealogy file the Appanoose Co., Iowa, Moses Conger, is entered as one person with three marriages. His birth date is entered as, Abt. 1802/1806 and the death date, Abt. 1877/1881. If, and when, additional information becomes available this is subject to change.

RELATIONSHIP: It is not known if Elizabeth Powell had a relationship to Charles Powell. Joyce Posey doesn't think they were related.

DEATH: Date of death and burial is unknown as of May 2004. She was living at the time of the 1850 Monroe Co., Ohio census.

Moses Conger and Elizabeth Powell had the following children:

- 464 i. George Washington Conger, born 23 May 1829, Greene Co., PA; married Elizabeth Catherine Brown, 15 Jun 1856, Centerville, Appanoose Co., IA; died 28 Feb 1915, Sumner, Chariton Co., MO.
- 465 ii. Mary Elizabeth Conger, born 10 Dec 1830, Greene Co., PA; married William Early, abt 1848, Monroe Co., OH; married Solomon Howard, abt 27 Aug 1854, Appanoose Co., IA; married Unknown Dougherty, Iowa; died Adams Twp., Dallas Co., IA.
- iii. Jane Conger was born about 1831.
- 466 iv. Sarah Anne Conger, born 17 Feb 1833, Monroe Co., OH; married Delarmer Theodore Stevens, abt 30 May 1852, Putnam Co., MO; died 23 Feb 1913, Cunningham Twp., Chariton Co., MO.
- 467 v. Lovina Conger, born abt 12 Feb 1835, Ohio; married John Howard, 26 Dec 1857, Appanoose Co., IA; died abt 28 Nov 1879, Appanoose Co., IA.
- vi. Harrison Conger was born about 1837 in Ohio.
- vii. Elizabeth Conger was born in 1839 in Ohio.
- viii. Margaret E. Conger was born in 1841 or 1842 in Ohio.
- 468 ix. Rhoda Conger, born 15 Mar 1843, Monroe Co., OH; married Frank Potter; died 25 Apr 1931, Sumner, Chariton Co., MO.
- 469 x. Elias Milton Conger, born 4 Feb 1846, Monroe Co., OH; married Anna Mariah Dillion, 4 May 1886; died 19 Feb 1929, Sumner, Chariton Co., MO.
- xi. Moses Conger was born about 1849 in Ohio. Moses Conger

PARENTS: George Washington Conger and Elizabeth Catherine Brown

COMMENT-QUESTION: This person was listed in the 1850 census as age, 1, and born in OH. Could this be the person later known as, Elias Milton Conger, who was born in 1846? Perhaps the census extraction misread the age, 4, as age 1.

Moses Conger and Mary Kitchen were married on 27 Mar 1854 in Appanoose Co., IA. Mary Kitchen was born about 1809. Mary Kitchen

NAME-CONFLICT: Mary Ketchum; Mary Kitchen

SPOUSE: Mary Kitchen was the 2nd spouse of Moses Conger.

Moses Conger and Lorinda Dale were married on 7 Jan 1863 in Appanoose Co., IA. Lorinda Dale was born between 1822 and 1826 in Madison Co., KY. She was buried in Mar 1909 in Putnam Co., MO, Mendota Cemetery. She died on 19 Mar 1909 at the age of 87 in Appanoose

Co., IA. Lorinda Dale

MARRIAGE: First married to Abram Powell and had at least two children, Arimeda and Michael. See 1870 census record for Moses and Lorinda Conger of Pleasant Twp., Appanoose Co., IA.

MARRIAGE: Lorinda Dale was married to: Abram Powell, Moses Conger, Mr. Worley, Mr. Livingston

NAME-CONFLICT: Lurinda Powell; Lucinda Powell on marriage record to Moses Conger.

MARRIAGE: Lorinda Conger married twice more after the death of Moses Conger. Apparently these marriages took place outside of Appanoose Co., IA. Further research is required. (Furnished by Joyce Posey)

PARENTS: David Conger, Jr. and Sarah Welch

CONFLICT: Records [Not cited. REH] stated that Ephraim Conger married, Eleanor Parns. In 1968, Lillian Conger Minor of Prosperity, PA said he married, Mary Ellen Iams in 1835 [Source not cited. REH] Ethel Conger Heagler said he married Eleanor Panis and had 12 children. Maxine Leonard listed both ladies as his wives. As of Aug 1999 it appears to researchers that the surnames, Parns and Panis are in error. The best guess as to the name of the wife of Ephraim Conger is, Eleanor Iams.

QUESTION: Who can prove the spouse or spouses of Ephraim Conger?

QUESTION-CENSUS: Who were the parents of, Belle Conger, age 19, shown as a granddaughter of Ephraim and Eleanor Conger in the 1880 census? Could this have been Elizabeth B. Conger, daughter of Elias and Hannah (Dunn) Conger? If so, she was listed in two 1880 census records.

CHILDREN: As of 1904, 12 children with 8 living, 21 great-grandchildren

Ephraim Conger and Eleanor Iams were married on 25 Feb 1835 in Pennsylvania. Eleanor Iams, daughter of Reason Iams and Phoebe Clark, was born on 2 Apr 1815 in Cranes Creek, Greene Co., PA. She was buried in Feb 1907 in West Union, Greene Co., PA, West Union Cemetery. She died on 24 Feb 1907 at the age of 91 in Morris Twp., Washington Co., PA. Eleanor Iams Problem: Some researchers list the date of birth as 2 Apr 1814. According to the 1904 newspaper article her date of birth was clearly listed as April 2, 1815 at Cranes Creek, Greene Co., PA.

NAME-CONFLICT: Mary Ellen Iams; Eleanor Iams; Eleanor Parns; Elenor Parns; Eleanor Panis. Eleanor (Iams) Conger in 1904 newspaper article. Take your pick.

Problem: What was the name of this person? Was this one person or two persons? If two persons, what was the order of the marriages and who was the mother of the children?

CHURCH_AFFILIATION: West Union Cumberland Presbyterian

RESIDENCES: As of 1904, near Dunns Station, Morris Township, Washington, Co., PA.

ANNIVERSARY:

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

A social event that enlisted the hearty sympathy of a large number of relatives and a host of friends as well, was the celebration Saturday of the 89th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Eleanor (Iams) Conger which occurred at her home near Dunns Station, Morris Township [Washington Co., PA]. Upwards of 30 (?) people were in attendance at the celebration which has been an annual event for several years past.

Mrs. Conger was born on Cranes Creek, Greene Co., PA on 2 Apr 1815, and when she was four she was removed with her parents to Bakers Fork, where she resided till 1835, the year she was joined in marriage to Ephraim Conger, who died in 1893. The newly wedded couple went to the home that Mrs. Conger still occupies and there for almost three score years and ten, set as the span of human life by the Palmist, she resided, not only doing good as a neighbor but also as a wife and mother. For over six decades she has been an active and consistent member of the West Union Cumberland Presbyterian congregation and old as she is, her seat is seldom vacant in favorable weather. And this 89 year old lady disdains the use of a horse and carriage but climbs the hill a half mile long to the house of worship. She does her own housekeeping too, and seems to resent any proffered assistance from the younger people.

Twelve children blessed this union of Ephraim Conger and Eleanor Iams, eight of whom are still living and most of whom were gathered at the old home Saturday to be with their mother on her natal day. They are: Hiram, Elias and Albert Conger and Mrs. Hamilton Penn, all residing in the vicinity of the family home. Mrs. Mary Longdon and Mrs. Oliver Mattox of Washington, [PA]; Mrs. Joseph Dunn of Greene County and Mrs. Wm. Penn of Nebraska City, Neb. Mrs. Conger has 21 great-grandchildren. She is the oldest person residing in Morris Township and, with the single exception of a slight deafness, retains all her faculties.

EMIGRATION-CENSUS: The Redman family must have left Monroe Co., OH very early as there is no record of any Redman families in the 1830 or 1840 census of this county.

RESEARCHER: Information about John Redman and Elizabeth Wright and their children was submitted to World Family Tree, CD 2 #1985, by Phyllis J. Freeman. Mary Ellen Palmer shared it with Richard E. Henthorn.

BIOGRAPHY: Thomas Freeman on the 16th of August, 1849, was united in marriage with Miss Nancy Redman, who was born in Monroe County, Ohio, in the same year as himself [1826], and on the 16th of the month following that of his own birth [April].

Her parents were John and Elizabeth (Wright) Redman, natives of Virginia, the former born 1792, and the latter Dec. 18, 1779. They passed to their long home years ago. The children of the parents of Mrs. Freeman were born as follows:

Reuben, Feb. 10, 1820;

Mary, Sept. 11, 1821;

Sarah, Nov. 15, 1822;

Hettie, Dec. 28, 1824;

Nancy, March 16, 1826;

Rachel and Ruth (twins), Nov. 27, 1828;

John, Feb. 10, 1831;

Martha, March 4, 1833;

Elias, April 21, 1835;

Isaac, now deceased, July 22, 1837;

Rebecca, July 4, 1840;

and Clarinda, Jan. 4, 1844., and died June 08, 1846 in Illinois

BIOGRAPHY:

John C. Wright, farmer, Sec. 10, P.O. Centerville, [IA]; born 16 May 1811, in Greene Co., Pa. When an infant, came to Monroe Co., Ohio, with his parents; in 1847, came to Appanoose Co., Iowa, he being one of the oldest settlers of this county; owns 124 acres of land, valued at $25.00 per acre.

Married Margaret McElroy in 1833, she was born in 1816, in Ohio, died in 1845; they had five children, three living; Melissa, William and Reuben.

Second marriage to Lucinda McElroy [first wife's sister] in 1845; she was born 9 Jul 1827, died 24 July 1862, in Iowa; they had four children: Isaiah, Milton, Sarah and Elizabeth.

Third marriage to, Mrs. Elizabeth Cochran, 8 March 1863, she was born 9 Sep 1816 in Hamilton Co., Ohio; she came to this county with her husband [John Wesley Cochran,] in 1845, he died 30 Sep 1855, in this township. [Elizabeth Cochran Wright died on 23 Mar 1902, age 85 years, 6 months, 14 days. She was buried in New Salem Cemetery, Caldwell

Twp., Appanoose Co., IA.] Democrat. (Sharon Township)

QUESTION: Delm Bayley reported that he died on 14 Jul 1890 in Centerville, Appanoose Co., IA. Can anyone cite a source for Centerville as the place of death?

CONFLICT-CEMETERY: Some say she was buried at the Wright Cemetery. Duane L. Jones thinks that the cemetery is Brannon Cemetery. He writes, From the book, Appanoose Co., IA Cemeteries of Sharon Township that I found at the courthouse, there is a picture of the tombstone of, Martha A., wife of William Wright, with the death date of March 28, 1871, age 32y, 2m, 10d. Another picture on the same page #1 is that of J. Wright's tombstone, stating that he died July 14, 1890, age 79y, 1m, 28d.

CEMETERY: The Old Wright Cemetery became the Pleasant Hill Cemetery in Pleasant Twp., Appanoose Co., IA

John Conger Wright and Margaret Mc Elroy were married about 1833 in Monroe Co., OH. Margaret Mc Elroy, daughter of Jesse Mc Elroy and Sarah Unknown, was born on 23 Feb 1816 in Ohio. She died about 1844 or 1845 at the age of 28 in Monroe Co., OH. Margaret McElroy

EMIGRATION: Parents emigrated from Monroe Co., Ohio to Appanoose Co., IA.

REFERENCE: An article on the McElroy family appears in "Monroe County Ohio Families," page 226, submitted by Charles "Tom" Stevens. Much of the article deals with Samuel McElroy, brother of Margaret. Apparently he had returned to Monroe Co., Ohio from Appanoose County, Iowa in order to marry. Shortly after marriage he became ill and died in Nov 1852. It is not clear why Samuel McElroy chose to spent the last 5 weeks of his life living with Stephen and Sarah Randall Henthorn in Washington Twp., Monroe Co., OH. He was most certainly sick and needed someone to care for him. In 1853 Stephen Henthorn submitted a bill for $31.80 for reimbursement of expenses incurred during the care of Samuel McElroy. The bill was found in the estate papers of Samuel McElroy. It was common to bill the estate for care given to a sick person and the bills were usually honored by law as long as costs were reasonable.

Problem: Did she die in Monroe Co., OH or as suggested by Tom Stevens, in Preston, Randolph Co., IL?

John Conger Wright and Margaret Mc Elroy had the following children:

- 507 i. Melissa Wright, born 8 Apr 1834, Monroe Co., OH; married William Stevens, 16 Jun 1861, Appanoose Co., IA; died 1881, Henry Co., MO.

- 513 v. Elizabeth Wright, born 30 Jan 1856, Appanoose Co., IA; married John Brady Mc Grew, 24 Mar 1872, Appanoose Co., IA.

John Conger Wright and Elizabeth Richards were married on 8 Mar 1863 in Appanoose Co., IA. Elizabeth Richards was born about 9 Sep 1816 in Hamilton Co., OH. She was buried in Mar 1902 in Caldwell Twp., Appanoose Co., IA, New Salem Cemetery. She died on 23 Mar 1902 at the age of 85 in Centerville, Appanoose Co., IA. Mrs. Elizabeth Cochran

EMIGRATION: John Wesley and Elizabeth Cochran came to Van Buren Co., IA about 1840.

AKA: Elizabeth Richards; Mrs. Elizabeth Cochran; Granny Wright

QUESTION: How do we know that her maiden name was, Elizabeth Richards?

Census: 1856, Iowa state census, in Appanoose Co., IA, Abt. Dec 1855, 162/162

RECOLLECTIONS: Jonathan Clark Conger House - Washington, Iowa
Ella Conger Hartmann of Davenport, Iowa sent a note card to Job C. Conger. On the front was a very nice drawing labeled, "Home of Washington County Historical Society - Since 1848."

On the backside is printed the following, "Jonathan Clark Conger, an early pioneer in Washington County became wealthy buying and selling land. He died in 1904 and bequeated the house to his daughter, Clara (Mrs. C.J. Wilson).

For many years this house was the center of Washington's social life. It is being restored to its former splendor and is considered a showplace of 19th Century living.

The original brick farm house built in 1848, was enlarged after the Civil War by Conger and is not the Museum and headquarters for Washington County Iowa Historical Society. (Source: Conger Confab, March 2000, p. 11)

RESEARCHER:

Iliff Conger was very active in trying to compile the Conger genealogy and gave much assistance to Charles L. Conger of McIntosh, Minnesota. A letter from him dated, 29 Aug 1906 indicates the organization had been established and a publication was being considered.

"I have just learned with deep regret of the death of Charles G.B. Conger of the 22d inst., and presume you have also been informed of the sad fatality. The secretary wrote me about it, and I also had a copy of the Washington Star, containing an account of his death.

"The secretary was in favor of returning the subscriptions, and making a settlement with the publishers of the Bulletin, and let the affairs of the Union drop, but am not at all in favor of it. It is a whole lot of trouble to get this sort of work started and some member of the family can undoubtedly undertake to carry on the work that has been inaugurated, and it is my impression that your are the man to do it.

"The addresses of his brothers, as given in the STAR, are Clinton B. Conger, Grand Rapids, Mich, Norman B. Conger of Detroit, and Edmund D.R. Conger, Edenton, NC. I presume that one of these would agree to carry on his work.

"I will write to them and recommend it, and you can specify your willingness to undertake the work, if not permanently, at least until a permanent editor can be found. Make a proper memorial announcement of the death of our Chief in the Sept. number, and we will soon have things in working order."

The next letter from him, dated 13 Sep 1906, indicates that Charles L. [Conger] had accepted the recommendation. In another letter, Iliff, mentioned that he had sketched some trees of the different branches.

RECOLLECTIONS: Sion Iliff Conger wrote the following about his family, "As to a sketch of my grandfather, [Isaac Conger], I am unable to give you very much. My father, Sion Moores Conger, died when I was 12 years of age, and, being the last of his race -- a very modest man, with quiet manner, seldom speaking except when questioned -- it happened that I learned very little from him about his father or antecedents."

In speaking of his grandfather, Iliff wrote, "He was an untiring preacher, often preaching 12 to 12 sermons a week, and rarely less than two hours at a time. He died in 1847. He was opposed to slavery, and 'turned his members out of society' for 'trading in black meat.'"

"My father was married at the age of 49. He was a planter, and following the custom of the times, was a slave owner, as was also his aunt, Jane Brown Moores. Being possessed of considerable lands in cultivation, and having inherited the slaves belonging to his aunt as well as his own, he had at the outbreak of the Civil War, perhaps thirty slaves to till his soil."

OBITUARY:

Birth: Feb. 20, 1864, Lincoln County, Tennessee, USA

Death: Apr. 4, 1952, Lincoln County, Tennessee, USA

Dixie L. Conger, Civic Leader, Died At Home April 4 [1952]--

Dixie Lamarr Conger, 88, died at his home in the Mimosa community Friday afternoon.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Higgins Funeral Home. The Rev. J. E. Wolfe and R. A. Largen officiated. Burial was in Rose Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Conger was a native of Lincoln County. Except for 10 years when he lived in Tullahoma, Tennessee as a young man, he had spent his entire life on his farm at Mimosa. He was the son of Sion M. and Beall Norton Conger. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

He was a former member of the county board of education and was active in the school consolidation movement. He served as Vice President of the Elk National Bank and President of the Lincoln County Electric Membership Corporation for many years. He also served as president of the farm bureau, and helped organize the Producer's Livestock Association, and was a director of the organization for many years.

Mr. Conger was instrumental in obtaining TVA power for Lincoln County and having this county become the first county in the nation to have TVA current.

As long as his health permitted, Mr. Conger was highly active and influential in all civic movements of the county.

Mr. Conger was the grandson of Isaac Conger, the first Methodist circuit rider in Tennessee who built the ancestral home in 1808 where the family resides. He died in the same room in which he was born, as was his father before him and each of his children. The home has always been a landmark in the county and a center for civic and social affairs.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Shofner Conger; two daughters, Mrs. Bert Madden, Nashville, and Mrs. Robert Lamb, Darien, Conn.; three sons, Iliff Conger, Knoxville, D. L. Conger, Jr., Chattanooga, and John Conger, Lincoln County; and 10 grandchildren. (Source: Lincoln County News, Fayetteville, Tennessee, April 10, 1952, found on FindAGrave)

RECOLLECTIONS: War Letter Home Conveys Idea of Tense Situation
Taken from a letter written by Charles A. Conger, Co., B., 6th Kansas Cavalry, with Capt. E.E. Harvey's company:

Westport, Mo., August 4th, 1863.

Dear Folks at Home:

I heard from you a day or two ago by Mr. Fisher and the folks who arrived here safely -- they were rather unexpected visitors to some, but were no less welcome. I haven't much news of interest from the frontier -- but bushwhackers are numerous in this part of the country and our soldiers occasionally have a skirmish with them, but catching them seems to be almost an impossibility. There was rather a serious accident occurred a few evenings ago between two detachments of our soldiers who had gone to the rescue of a Mexican that was camped a short distance from this place and was being robbed by bushwhackers. Capt. Harvey went in command of the troops from this place -- when he got to the train he found it had just been robbed a few minutes before. He took the trail of the enemy and intended pursuing when a detachment of Federals -- about 200 -- came up from another way and mistook Capt. Harvey's men for the enemy (it being dark) and fired on their rear, creating a perfect stampede. Captain Harvey's horse fell with him or rather on him, hurt him pretty badly. There were several hurt and one killed. Capt. Harvey's men were nearly all Indians, and they all ran the first fire or it would probably have been more serious.

I suppose the people of Iowa have begun to come to the conclusion that the war will soon be over. -- Union people of this country have been made to rejoice since the late glorious victories we have had. I hope it will have a tendency to hasten the dawn of Peace so earnestly desired by all Christian people, but still I do not see much prospect yet.

I have not received a letter from home for over two months.

Yours most Affectionately

C.A. Conger.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Charles Atkinson Conger wrote the following to Charles Leslie Conger, dated 1 Jan 1908 from Seymour, IA:

"Your favor of the 16th Ult (?) was duly received, am enclosing memoranda of my line of the Conger family. I was glad to know you had taken up this work, which was so ably conducted by our lamented relative, Charles G.B. Conger of Washington, DC, whose social, mental and generous qualities endeared him to all those who were fortunate in knowing him.

I knew him personally and intimately, and regretted exceedingly that he should be cut off in the midst of his vigorous manhood and usefulness. I spent the greater part of one winter at his home in Washington, and had much pleasure in looking through his voluminous correspondence regarding the Conger family, and I feel pretty sure if I had undertaken this intricate task I would have been crazy long ago.

I was very glad to hear from you, and appreciate your generosity in undertaking so laborious a task, and hope you will be eminently successful, and the relatives may all interest themselves in contributing to your assistance."

EMIGRATION-MILITARY-BIOGRAPHY:

Charles Atkinson Conger moved to Iowa in the year 1849 and located near Appanoose County. He graduated out of Duff's College, Pittsburgh, PA, in 1858 and engaged in the mercantile business. Soon after, when the Civil War broke out, he closed out the business and joined the Army of the Frontier, acted for a time as Independent Scout in connection with the 6th Kansas Cavalry; later appointed Sutler of that Regiment, but resigned that position, and returned home and assisted in raising Co. B., 47th Iowa Volunteer Infantry. He was commissioned on the muster in date of June 4, 1864 as a 2nd Lt. of that company, and served down on the Mississippi River in the region of Helena, AR until 28 Sep 1864 when the regiment mustered out at Davenport, Iowa upon expiration of the term of service (100 days).

OCCUPATION: Teacher

BIOGRAPHY: School Teacher Outlived All Her Pupils

The following is a list of the names of the children attending the Long Branch School, Caldwell Township, [Appanoose Co., IA], during the summer of 1864. The school was taught by Mrs. Nancy Jane Conger-Harvey, while husband, Wallace M. Harvey, was serving in the Civil War.

Alice, Virginia and John Boswell
Clement, Asberry and Iven Cline
Emma, Sarah, Caroline and Mitilda Conger
Isiah and Mary Davis
Thomas, Franklin and Jonathan Harper
Matilda and Franklin Lange
Mary Marshall
William, Phelix, Loranzo and Lyman Michel
[Note: Surname spelled, Michel in the article, may have been Mickel.]
Zebadee, Mary Etta, Nancy A. and Martha A. Points
Mahala, Benjamin and Wilson Irelan
Jesse Riddle
Nancy and Isaish Williamson
Martha, Mary Isabell and Samuel Windland

In July, the names of David Burns and Isaac Michel were recorded.

Mrs. Harvey died at her home in Seymour, [IA] in 1930, at the age of 93, having outlived all the children that came to her school.

Note:

Emma, Caroline and Sarah Conger mentioned in the article were the daughters of Enos and Ann Strayer Conger. Enos Conger was the uncle of Nancy Jane (Conger) Harvey.

As of 1996 the family of Matilda Conger has not been identified.

Alice, Virginia, and John Boswell were the sisters and brother of Dortha Walter's grandfather. Virginia Boswell married Lowell Frank Lang, his mother, Mary (Ireland) Lang was the second wife of Enos Conger

Mahala, Benjamin and Wilson Irelan[d] were siblings of Margaret Jane Ireland who married, Elias Gregory Conger (b. 1808, PA)]

Mary Marshall who later had a sister, Emma Alice Marshall. Mary was known as Jane. They were the daughters of William Fletcher Marshall and Mary Jane Conger. Mary Jane Conger was the daughter of Enos and Ann (Strayer) Conger.

DEATH:

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

W.G. POWELL, one of the best known residents of Seminole township, [Lincoln Co., OK] was killed in a run-away accident Last Friday. [20 Dec 1901]

Mr. Powell and his wife and a neighbor were driving home from Chandler. As they were descending a long hill the team began to run. Mr. Powell, in attempting to put on the brakes was thrown out of the wagon against a tree, killing him instantly. As soon as they got the team stopped Mrs. Powell and the neighbor went back to the spot and found Mr. Powell dead.

Mr. Powell was known to almost everyone in the county. He was a man of great originality and his appearance was as characteristic as his mind. Tall, spare, with keen eyes and jovial in manner, he attracted attention everywhere. He was one of the kindest natures we have ever known and he was universally loved and esteemed. He had been in poor health for a long time and was preparing to go to California for the winter.

[Note: There is no cited evidence that he lived in in Seminole County, OK. To the contrary, the 1900 census shows him living in Seminole Twp., Lincoln Co., OK. REH] (Source: Chandler, Oklahoma newspaper, date cut away - furnished by Joyce Posey)

DEATH:

WILLIAM POWELL, a noted citizen of Seminole Township [Lincoln, Co., OK] fell from a wagon while returning from Chandler, last Friday evening, [20 Dec 1901] and was instantly killed. The deceased was about seventy years old; he was a regular frontiersman in this county long before it's opening to settlement. "Uncle Billy" leaves a wife, an adopted daughter, and some grown up children to mourn their loss. He intended to emigrate to California, next month.

OBITUARY: Another Old Soldier Gone

Isaac Powell, one of Putnam's oldest settlers, died at his home near Howland, [MO] on July 19, 1908, after an acute illness of only two weeks, although he had been failing for a year or more.

Mr. Powell was born in Monroe county, Ohio June 17, 1838, and was therefore 70 years, 1 month, and 2 days old at the time of his death. When but a child he came with his parents to Iowa and when about 18 came to Missouri which has since been his home.

He was married to Miss Martha Folwell in 1859 and to this union was born fourteen children, eleven of whom are still living, viz: Mrs. Ellen Jewell of Olney, Colorado; Jackson Powell and Mrs. Amanda Morgan, Mendota, Mo.; Mrs. Eva Hedge[s], Howland, Mo.; Oscar, William, Edward, Ora, Ira, Emma and Ida Powell who are still at home.

He was united with the Christian church 35 years ago and was an active worker and a true Christian till death.

The funeral services were conducted by Elder H.L. McKinley at the home and the remains were laid to rest in the Unionville Cemetery.

He was a soldier of Company C, 42[nd] Regiment of Missouri Infantry, and served his country with becoming bravery.

He was an honest, hard working, sincere man, a good citizen in every way. His death will be universally regretted.

The only relatives in Putnam county, [MO] besides his immediate family, is a sister, Mrs. Howard.

The family desire that we extend their thanks and appreciation for the kindness of neighbors and friends, shown during the illness of their father.

PENSION:

According to a pension petition, dated 11 Jun 1886, Alexander Powell was wounded at Kingston, Georgia during a Cavalry charge on or about 15 Aug 1864. He received injury to his back and a broken leg. The leg was set by fellow soldiers as there was no doctor available.

A document from the War Department states that he was in a hospital in Nashville, Tennessee in August 1864 with a gunshot wound to the abdomen.

In an affidavit dated 3 Dec 1886, Alexander Powell had to list all the places of residence since his discharge from the service: Wayne County, Iowa 1865-1867; Putnam County, Missouri 1867-1872; Appanoose County, Iowa 1872-1877; Mills County, Iowa 1877 to present (1886).

A Declaration for Pension, dated 4 Jun 1920, states that his residence was Mills County, Iowa until 1907 when he moved to Haxtun, Phillips County, Colorado. He is described as 6 ft, 6 inches, light complexion, blue eyes and black hair.

(Source: National Archives Pension Records - Furnished by Joyce Posey)

RECOLLECTIONS: Family stories were told that Alex Powell had the index finger of his left hand shot off during the war. Years later, a headstone he was helping to move fell on him, crushing his leg which had to be amputated.

Some family members recalled the twenty-one day trip to Colorado by wagon train. (Furnished by Joyce Posey)

Alexander Powell and Susan Reed were married on 31 Oct 1861 in Liberty Twp., Putnam Co., MO. Susan Reed, daughter of George Burt Reed and Henretta Patterson, was born on 29 Nov 1844 in Edgar Co., IL. She was buried in Mar 1920 in Haxtun, Phillips Co., CO, Haxtun Cemetery. She died on 5 Mar 1920 at the age of 75 in Haxtun, Phillips Co., CO. Susan Reed

AKA: Susan; Mrs. A. Powell; Susan Powell; Grandma Powell; always listed as Susan in the census records, except for 1900. Listed as Mary Susan Reed, probably on the 1900 census.

RESIDENCES: Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Colorado

George Reed, 37, farmer, KY; Harriet, 30, housekeeping, KY

Thomas, 10, IL; Ann, 7, IL, Susan, 5, IL; George, 3, IL

[Note: Another son, John, was born after the 1850 census.]

(Census furnished by Joyce Posey)

EMIGRATION: The George Reed family migrated from Illinois and settled in Franklin Twp., Appanoose Co., Iowa. George Reed died during the trip to Iowa. A family story is that there was an explosion on the riverboat they were traveling on and that George was among those killed. No proof of this account has been found.

Alexander Powell and Susan Reed had the following children:

- 877 i. Rebecca Ann Powell, born 3 Aug 1862, Wayne Co., IA; married William Kilgore, 1 Feb 1880, Mills Co., IA; died 8 Nov 1931, Lodgepole, Cheyenne Co., NE.
- 878 ii. Charles Powell, born 27 Apr 1869, Putnam Co., MO; married Evaline Stevens, 30 Aug 1891, East Plattsmouth, Cass Co., NE; died Nov 1945, Cheyenne, Laramie Co., WY.
- 879 iii. Mary Angeline Powell, born 4 Jul 1870, Pacific Junction, Mills Co., IA; married Malon Richardson, abt 28 Oct 1888, East Plattsmouth, Cass Co., NE; died 10 Nov 1939, Pacific Junction, Mills Co., IA.
- 880 iv. Minnie A. Powell, born 27 Mar 1872, Iowa; married Unknown Foden; died 1 Sep 1894, Plattsville, Mills Co., IA.
  - v. Johnny Powell was born (date unknown). Johnny Powell
- DEATH: Johnny Powell drowned at the age of 2 1/2 years.
- 881 vi. Harriet Kate Powell, born 3 Sep 1875, Appanoose Co., IA; married Daniel S. Secrist, 12 Apr 1894, Pacific Junction, Mills Co., IA; married Andrew J. Bane, 1902; married Richard T. Fisher, 1 Aug 1908, Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., IA; died 1 Apr 1937, Haxtun, Phillips Co., CO.
- 882 vii. Oath Franklin Powell, born 18 Jan 1877, Fremont Co., IA; married Vernia Madora Early, 23 Jan 1906, Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., IA; died 29 Mar 1956, Denver, Denver Co., CO.
- 883 viii. Isaac Peter Powell, born 17 Feb 1885, Pacific Junction, Mills Co., IA; married Violet Gertrude Jarred, 4 Jul 1908, Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., IA; died 29 Sep 1960, Denver, Denver Co., CO.

396. Elizabeth Powell (Rebecca Conger-5, Elias Darby-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born in 1844 in Monroe Co., OH. Elizabeth Powell

AKA: Elizabeth "Libby" Powell, CFA II, p. 389 and p. 398

MARRIAGE-ERROR: Marriage of Charles Flanigan and Elizabeth "Libby" Powell on 5 Aug 1861, listed in CFA II, p. 398 is wrong. She was never married to Charles Flanigan. Some information from a paid researcher turned out to be in error after it was submitted to Mrs. Leonard. Apparently there was an Eliza Powell who married a James Flanigan and this is recorded in the Putnam Co., MO Marriage Record Index. (Furnished by Joyce Posey)

MARRIAGE: Elizabeth signed an affidavit that she was married to: (1) George Dodrill, (2) Elias A. Veach, (3) James Bone. (Furnished by Joyce Posey)

RELATIONSHIP: Elizabeth Powell apparently wasn't related to Sarah Jane Powell, who married William and James Dodrill. Sarah Jane Powell was the daughter of Lorinda (Dale) Powell, Conger, Worley, Livingston. Sarah Jane Powell was the mother of Effie Dodrill, who married James Ezra Conger.

COMMENT: Evidently Elizabeth Veatch was visiting her parents at the time of the 1870 census. She appears on the 1870 census twice, at her parents house in Union Twp., Putnam Co., MO and at her home with Elias Veatch in Lincoln Twp., Putnam Co., MO. From the 1870 Elias Veatch census record it is evident that Elizabeth was married previously to a Mr. Dodrill and had at least one child, Wesley Dodrill born Abt. 1868 in Iowa. A review of marriage records of Appanoose Co., IA and Putnam Co., MO did not reveal the record of the marriage to Mr. Dodrill. There were persons with that surname living in Appanoose Co., IA.

George Dodrill and Elizabeth Powell had the following child:

- 884     i. George Wesley Dodrill, born 7 Jul 1868, Unionville, Putnam Co., MO; married Lulu Cleveland, 16 Nov 1888, Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., IA; died 7 Feb 1932, Omaha, Douglas Co., NE.

Elizabeth Powell and Elias Anderson Veatch were married on 10 Nov 1869 in Putnam Co., MO. Elias Anderson Veatch, son of Isaac Veatch and Mary Ellen Miller, was born about 1822 or 1823 in White Co., IL. He died on 31 Jan 1897 at the age of 75 in Davis Co., IA. He was buried in Feb 1897 in Schuyler Co., MO. Elias Anderson Veatch BIRTH-CONFLICT: White Co., IL. is the birthplace according to Joyce Posey. Census records list the birth place as: IL, IA, and MO.

Problem: Was the surname, Veach or Veatch? Both spellings found. Elias Veatch in the 1870 census.

MILITARY: Civil War Veteran

SPOUSE: Elias Veatch was the 3rd husband of Elizabeth Powell. He was married at least 3 times, and had children prior to marrying Elizabeth (Powell) Dodrill his 3rd wife. He was first married to Emily Gray Abt. 1846. He was married to Rebecca Howard (his 2nd wife). She was the niece of Solomon Howard Sr. who was married to Mary Elizabeth (Conger) Early. Rebecca was the mother of the children listed Veatch household in the 1870 census. See the 1870 census of Putnam Co., MO for the names of at least some of his children.

OBITUARY:

At 9 o'clock p.m., Thursday [12 Mar 1914], the angel of death entered the home of our estimable fellow citizen, Col. Sam Powell, and released his wife, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Bacus Powell from her earthly sufferings which have been especially severe for the past three months.

Mary E. Bacus was born in Canton, Ohio, on the 9th day of July 1851, and moved with her parents to Unionville, Missouri, in 1865, where she was married February 23rd 1871 to Samuel Powell, settling in Cheyenne county, Nebraska, in 1889, and Scotts Bluff county, near the present villiage of Minatare in August 1894.

Mrs. Powell was an earnest consistent Christian woman and joined the Christian Church in Unionville, Mo., when she was a girl of seventeen years. Besides a kind and affectionate husband she leaves to mourn her loss, a son, Curt Powell of Bridgeport and two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Evans of Bayard, [NE] and Mrs. Fernie Norris of North Platte, [NE].

The funeral services for Mrs. Powell will take place at her late residence corner of Niagara and Vancouver streets, Saturday morning [14 Mar 1914], at ten o'clock conducted by Rev. T.C. Osborne of Scotts Bluff, an old friend of the family, and interment will be made in East Lawn Cemetery.

PARENTS: Benoni Conger and Catherine Patterson

Problem: Was he born on 1 Jul 1833 in Monroe Co., OH or 3 Jul 1835 in Guernsey Co., OH? Maxine Leonard lists, 3 Jul 1835, Guernsey Co., OH.

CONFLICT: Some say that Samuel P. Conger left home at age 27 and arrived in Colorado in 1860. Joyce Posey says: he was still living in Monroe Co., OH at the home of his father at the time of the 1860 census and he went to Colorado Abt. 1863-1864.

REFERENCE: There is an article about him in "Nederland, A Trip to Cloudland," by Isabel M. Becker, prepared and published by Scott Becker, Ltd., P.O. Box 501, Denver, CO 80201.

BIOGRAPHY:

Samuel P. Conger was born 1 Jul 1883 in Monroe Co., OH to Benoni and Catherine (Patterson) Conger. Benoni was born in 1812 to Elias Darby Conger Sr. b. 1763 and his second wife, Mary Gregory. Elias came to Monroe County from Greene County, PA, about 1813. He was an early settler of Adams Township. Elias died June 1847. Elias and Mar's other children were: Elias Gregory b. 1806 md. Rebecca Patterson; John B. b. 1808 md. Elizabeth Atkinson; Enos b. 1814 md. Ann Strayer (1), Mary Lang (2); and Rebecca b. 1810 md. Charles Powell. Most of the Congers migrated to Appanoose County, Iowa by 1850.

Samuel Conger left Monroe County at age 27, crossing the Great Plains in a covered wagon, arriving in Colorado in 1860. The 1860 Census shows Samuel and wife, Diantha, living at Central City, Colorado. He may have prospected on his own along Chicago Creek or he may have worked at the Chain of Mines, owned by Horace Tabor, to learn all he could about mining.

Boulder, Colorado history credit Sam Conger as the discover of the famous "Caribou" silver mine in 1868. The Caribou was one of the richest silver mines in Colorado mininin history. It was located in a treacherous area. Snow drifts as high as 25 feet blanketed the area in winter. Conger sold his interest in "Caribou" for $500.00 and full ownership of the "Poorman," in the same vicinity. By the late 1870's, Sam also sold all interest in the "Poorman."

John Conger Jr

Sam and Diantha both appear on the 1870 census.

Caribous Camp was platted in 1870 and within months over 3,000 people lived there. The camp produced more than a half million dollars in gold and silver in 1875. The camp started fading in the 1880's. Then the silver panic struck in 1893. The Caribou never fully recovered. Then a fire in 1900 virtually wiped Caribou Camp off the map.

In 1879, "Conger's Cammp" was established by Sam Conger. It was located in Blue River Valley, near Breckenridge, Summit Co., CO.

In the 1880 Census he and Diantha were living in Blue River Valley of Summit County, Colorado. Samuel was 47 and Diantha (maiden name unknown) was 39. Samuel's mine, located in Indian Gulch, was the "Diantha," a rich fissure mine which was reported to run 1,000 to 1,200 ounces per ton.

Around 1899, Sam Conger and his partner, Nelson Wannamaker discovered Tungsten (Black Iron) near Nederland in Boulder County, CO. They took ore samples to Denver to be assayed, after getting two opinions, they secured a lease and work on the property began. The mine was known as "The Galena." The partners sold the lease to Dr. Robert M. Bell, who developed the mine and renamed it, "The Conger." In it's day "The Conger" was the greatest tungsten mine in the world.

It was said that Sam Conger was a grand old man of the mountains, had made and lost three fortunes and lived his last few years financially uncomfortable. Tradition says Sam was a government scout during the Indian wars and that he was a friend of Buffalo Bill Cody. Sam was entitled to a pension but he felt he was capable of making his own way in the world.

Samuel Patterson Conger died at age 92 at the Denver General Hospital, Denver, CO on 23 Oct 1925. He is buried without headstone at Riverside Cemetery, W 1/2 Lot 13, plot 4. ### BIOGRAPHY:

JOHN HAFER of Proctor District, Wetzel Co., WV and Jane MCBRIDE were united in marriage in Marshall county, Virginia, May 7, 1850, and made their home in Wetzel county, April 5, 1855. The country was then in an unsettled condition and they experienced many pioneer hardships. He engaged in business as a stone and brick mason, and in farming, they prospered and reared a family of ten children: now settled as follows: Israel S., born August 19, 1851; Samuel N., March 13, 1852; Hannah J., September 25, 1853; John W., April 15, 1855, these four living in Wheeling, Ohio county, West Virginia; James H., March 8, 1857, lives at home, Susanna, January 3, 1859, lives in Marshall county, this State; Jefferson B., January 26, 1861; Robert E. L., February 28, 1863; Joseph E., January 28, 1866; Elle Z., December 6, 1869 - the four last named at home.

John HAFER was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, November 22, 1824, and his wife was born in the same State and county, May 15, 1825. His parents were Israel and Hannah J. (CONGER) HAFER, and they died in Guernsey county, Ohio. Joseph HAFER, his father's brother, was a soldier in 1812 from "Old Virginia." The wife of Mr. HAFER was a daughter of Samuel and Margaret (MCCRADY) MCBRIDE. Her mother is still living in Centre district, this county, at the age of 83 years.

John HAFER has been six years justice of the peace in this county. His post office address in Proctor, Wetzel County, West Virginia.

Conger, b. 1806, had settled in Appanoose county, Iowa.

A year after the death of her husband [in July 1853], Mary Conger Croel sold the land [in Indiana] and with her nine children (the youngest born 4 months after Hiram's death) emigrated to Monroe county, Iowa in a covered wagon with her son-in-law, Omer Palmer, and her brother, Edward, to assist her on the journey. She settled at Bluff Creek Township, [Monroe Co., IA] where her children grew to maturity.

BIOGRAPHY:

Mary bought 160 acres of land at $1.25 per acre and cleared it with oxen. She deeded an acre of land on the corner for a Methodist Church. Across the road was a grocery store, cheese factory and school. In later years, her son Wilber, attended the store and once a week drove to Oskaloosa for the mail. This little community was known as "Bluff Creek," in the township of the same name. This was near the prosperous town of Buxton, a mining town of about 5,000 people. For many years the only remnants of the town were the abandoned railroad tracks and the rebuilt schoolhouse which was razed in 1963.

LAND:

The Monroe County, Iowa census of 1860 revealed that Mary Crowel had 60 acres of improved land, 140 acres unimproved with cash value of $2,500, implements worth $750, also 2 horses, 1 milk cow, 2 oxen, 8 sheep, 5 swine valued at $160, 35 bu wheat, 300 bu corn, 48 lbs wool, 200 lbs butter, 8 tons of hay, 30 gal molasses, value of animals slaughtered, $50.

In 1870 her real estate was valued at $6,300 and personal property at $1,580.

Census: 1880, Las Vegas, NM

At the age of 66, Mary (Conger) Crowell was shown in the Las Vegas, New Mexico census, visiting her daughter, Electa Jane Sutfin, accompanied by her son, Wilber Fish Crowell.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 720 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

LAND: Mary willed 40 acres a piece to her sons, Wilber and Hiram, and the remaining land was divided equally among the other children. David (D.G.) acquired his 80 acres by buying and trading with others -- in one instance, giving a sewing machine to one of his sisters for her land. Recipient of the 40 separate acres of timber land is not known.

NAME-CONFLICT: Hiram S. Croel & Hiram S. Crowel; Crowell

Problem: Was the surname, Croel, Crowel or Crowell? Maxine Crowell Leonard lists all three. (CFA I, p. 719)

BIRTH: 1809 in New York state, supposedly in Chautauqua, Co. (CFA I, p. 719)

RELATIONSHIP: So far as is known, Hiram had one brother named, Sylvanus, who was a millwright and sisters Martha (Starkey & Acres), Elizabeth (Newkirk), Lorena and Elmira (Stebbins). According to some family notes, the mother died enroute to the "west," and the father died soon after arriving in Ohio. The father had brothers, John and Royal Crowell, who stayed in New York.

BIOGRAPHY:

Hiram Croel seemed to prefer spelling his name CROEL, as shown by a letter he wrote in 1847. However, on his property deed he spelled it CROWEL on one page and CROEL on another.

Hiram was a cooper by trade and he worked in a shop on his home place until his death in 1853.

According to his obituary, Hiram, "came with his parents to the West when but a child of 9. At the age of 20 he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and a few months later he experienced religion." Also, "After his physician had informed him that he must soon die, he called his family around him, he gave them his last counsel and advice, solemnly charging each of them to meet him in heaven; and when he could no longer articulate, he conversed by signs with his deaf and dumb brother-in-law (Elias Milton Conger, b. 1816) about his prospect of soon getting to heaven."

MILITARY: John Spencer Conger kept a diary during his time in the Mexican War. The diary covered the period 10 Jun 1846 to 8 Jul 1847. The first few lines of the diary are given here (See: Maxine Crowell Leonard's book, p. 318 for the full text).

June 10-- The Dearborn volunteers started from Lawrence-burgh, Indiana, on the S.B. Pike No. 7. Landed at Louisville, KY the same evening.

June 11-- Cross the river next morning to North Albany, Ind. The Rendevous for the Indian[a] Troops.

June 18-- Mustered into the service of the United States for the term of 12 months. So much for the start. We rather took the shine of the other companies--at least the North Albany girls said so.

June 25-- This day the Election of Officers for the three regiments took place. The election for the 3rd Regiment resulted as follows: Lane, Colonel, McCarty, Lt. Colonel, and Gorman, Major.

Feb 22-- The long roll beat, and we sprang to arms to meet Santa Anna, who was advancing with 21,000 men, and we did meet him and gave him a hearty welcome.

Feb 23-- Early in the morning the strife recommenced, and the greatest victory of America was won this day. The Mexicans numbered 21,000 and the Americans about 4,500.

RECOLLECTIONS: Electa Jane Crowell Sutfin (daughter of Mary Conger Crowell) spoke of her uncle as follows: "When visiting at Madison, Indiana, sometimes my uncle John would take me with his wife and baby out in a skiff to ride the waves of the big steamboats. Sometimes we would be eight or ten feet up -- and then down to the level -- then up again. My, I wonder how I ever did such a thing! Sure thought it fine fun then."

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 318 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

BIOGRAPHY: The family records state that John died at the Soldier's Home at Waupaca, Wis. and Charles L. Conger records say Marshalltown, [IA]. Prior to going to the Soldier's Home he lived with his son, Robert, and was remembered as "a fine looking aristocratic old gentleman." John must have removed back to Manchester, [IN], because at one time he was the sheriff.

RECOLLECTIONS:

In the 1800s "the grass was greener farther west" (and the land was free).

James Conger, b. 1820, and Elizabeth Lowe left Monroe county, Ohio and moved west, settling in the Appanoose county Iowa and Putnam, county Missouri area.

In 1873, they moved to Jewell Co., KS and five years later to Rooks Co., KS where they died in 1911. Most of their children settled in this area or in Nebraska. Three of their sons moved back to Ollie, Jackson Twp., Keokuk Co., Iowa: (John) Sherman, Elias, and William. Sherman and Elias died there. William moved to Fairfield, Jefferson Co., IA and then in 1911 he moved to Lyons, Burt Co., NE.

OBITUARY:

James Conger, son of Stephen and Mary (Piatt) Conger. The subject of this sketch was born in Monroe Co., Ohio, Feb. 17, 1820, and died Jan. 25, 1911 at the home of his son, Isaac Conger, near Codell, [Rooks Co.], Kansas. At the time of his death he was 91 years of age. In July 1843 he married to Elizabeth Lowe, with whom he was permitted to live in congenial companionship for nearly 68 years.

In 1873 they came to Jewell county, Kansas, and five years later to Rooks county, where they have made their residence during the greater part of the time since. To them were born 12 children, 10 of whom, with the aged wife, survive him. All, but four, were present at the hour of his death.

Besides his family he had 46 grandchildren, 38 great grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. His mind was clear to the last, and he had quite rugged health for a man of his age until about three weeks before his death. At that time he fell, hurting himself badly. From that time he failed rapidly until the close of life came about 1 o'clock on the date mentioned above. Every effort was made by friends and family that his life might be prolonged. But it was evident that they soon must bid him good-bye.

He was much respected as a citizen and neighbor, and friend. He was faithful and loyal in his devotion to this family, and they loved him, and cherished his presence. Funeral services were conducted Friday, Jan. 17, from the home of M.D. Ross, Pastor of the Methodist Church, and the body interred in the neighborhood cemetery. (Note: His wife, Elizabeth, died one month later.)

Isaac Conger was a great stock buyer and shipper. Jane lived at Superior, Neb., Melvina at Blair and Florence at Natoma. Jock was "a soldier in Iowa," Elias and Sherman lived in Ollie (Olin?) Iowa, Addie at Mankato, Kans., William at Fairfield, IA and Rebecca at Sigourney, Iowa.

She died on 21 Feb 1911 at the age of 84 in Codell, Rooks Co., KS. She was buried on 22 Feb 1911 in Codell, Rooks Co., KS, East Paradise. Elizabeth Lowe

NAME-CONFLICT: Elizabeth Low in her obituary.

CHURCH_AFFILIATION: Member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

OBITUARY: Obituary of Mrs. James Conger

Elizabeth Low was born in Bellemont [Belmont] county, Ohio, November 22nd 1826. In 1843, she was married to James Conger. They came to Jewell county in 1873 and five years later to Rooks county, [KS]. She passed away February 21st, 1911, being past 85 years of age.

It is seldom indeed that people are permitted to live together in companionship so long a time as did Grandpa and Grandma Conger. And an unusual occurance when their lives drew to a close so nearly the same time. For some years they have been making their home among their children. Last summer they came to live with their son Isaac near Codell, [KS].

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

Although grandpa was past 90 and his companion 85, it seemed they had strength for some years yet. But on account of a fall some weeks ago grandpa began to decline and passed away on January 25th. Grandma though ill at the time seemed to improve for a while, but became worse and partially paralyzed and passed away on February 21st, surviving her companion less than one month. Had they lived until July they would have celebrated their 68th wedding anniversary.

To them were given twelve children. The ten now living are: Mrs. Jane Caster, Superior, Nebraska; Jack Conger, Soldier, Iowa; Mrs. Adda Cline, Mankato, Kansas; Elias and Sherman Conger, Ollie, Iowa; Mrs. Mella Lemon, Blair, Nebraska; Mrs. Florence Clair, Natoma, Kansas; Wm. Conger, Fairfield, Iowa; Isaac Conger, Codell and Mrs. Rebecca Brogg, Sigourney, Iowa.

Besides their own family they left 46 grandchildren, 88 great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren.

She became a Christian and united with the Methodist Episcopal church when but about seventeen years and has lived a consistent Christian throughout her life. And her closing hours were hours of peace. To measure the life, one must estimate the worth of a Christian mother, true and loyal to her family, faithful to the Master and a friend to all.

The funeral services were conducted from the home February 22, by M.D. Ross pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, assisted by Rev. Lundey of Natoma and the body was laid to rest in the neighborhood cemetery.

Her course in life has been finished,
Her labors on earth have been blessed,
She received her reward life eternal
And now is enjoying sweet rest.

OBITUARY:

John Allen was born in Belmont Co., Ohio, Oct. 17th, 1819; was married to Mary Conger Aug. 19th 1848, died after a lingering illness, June 9, 1898, aged 78 years, 7 months and 23 days.

He was united with the Baptist church, when a young man and afterward with the M.P. church at Reinersville, [OH]; of which he was a member at the time of his death.

To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were born fifteen children, of whom seven sons and three daughters survive him.

The aged wife and children have the sympathy of the entire community. He was respected by all.

On Saturday June 11, the funeral services were held at Cross Roads Presbyterian church and the body was laid away in the cemetery near by, to await its reunion with the soul at the resurrection.

ELIAS D. CONGER, Pvt E. 9 W. Va Inf and B. 1 W VA Vet Inf.

Last paid at $20, to March 4, 1913, has been dropped because of death March 5, 1913.

General Affidavit

State of West Virginia, County of Mason

In the matter of increase claim No. 71, 122 of ELIAS D. CONGER, Co E 9th W.VA Infantry Vols., on this 26 day of April 1887 personally appeared before me a Notary Public in and the aforesaid county authorized to administer oaths, Oliver Phelps aged 43 years, a resident of Mason in the County Mason and state of West Virginia

I remember that sometime in July, 1862, Elias D. Conger, who was then a member of Co. E 9 W.VA Vol Inf, was afflicted with sore eyes and was sometime under treatment for his eyes. I had been a member of the Company for some 4 or 5 months previous to this and had not known him to have any trouble with his eyes previous to this time. He was afterwards treated for sore eyes frequently, during the remainder of his service and was rejected as a veteran at the time the Company re-enlisted on account of his eyes. He wore green glasses during the remainder of this service nearly all the time.

Sometime in April 1864 said Conger was treated in regimental Hospital at Fayetteville, W.VA for swollen legs and being unable on this account to accompany us on to Lynchburg Raid was left back at Fayetteville in May 1864. Did not see him again until about the 6th of July, 1864, when he joined his company at Martinsburg West VA and accompanied it up the valley. He was wounded in battle on the 24th of July and I do not remember seeing him again during our term of service

QUESTION: Maxine Crowell Leonard stated that the children of Enos and Emily were born at Prinston. Where is this place located? Could it be, Princeton, Franklin Co., KS? In her Volume 2 she lists, Prinston, OH. The IGI lists the place name as, Princeton, Butler Co., OH which agrees with the Rand McNally Commercial Atlas.

CENSUS: Enos and Emily were shown in the 1860 census living with, Sidney Southers, 60, Benjamin and Samuel Southers. They had been married within the year. The place of the census was not listed.

NAME-CONFLICT: Harry Brown Conger, b. 11 Mar 1874 (CFA I, p. 107); Harry Brown (Conger?) in CFA II, p. 91.

COMMENT:

There was a question about whether Harry Brown Conger was the son of David Conger, b. 1861. He was David's brother. He was listed as the son of Enos Conger, b. 1838, in the 1880 census. He probably went to live with his brother, David, after the death of his mother.

In 1900 Harry was living with Bert Cahail and his wife, Mabel E. (she was David's daughter). Harry was identified as brother-in-law of Bert. (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. II, p. 717 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

OBITUARY: J. Morris Conger - Suicides by Cutting his Throat from Ear to Ear with a Razor

Word reached this city early Monday morning [19 Oct 1896] that J. Morris Conger, one of Lincoln townships aged citizens, had taken his own life at his home about two and a-half miles northwest of Howland, [MO] shortly after noon the previous day [18 Oct 1896].

From all the information received from an interview of the family, deceased had been in a fit of despondency for several days. This, however, is brought more impressively upon the minds of the family since he took his life than before. His seven-year old daughter, Margaret E., has been seriously afflicted with diphtheria and Sunday just before he left the house he stated to Mrs. Conger that for Maggie to die would be more than he could stand. He then drew his purse from his pocket, handed it to his wife with the remark, "Take this and provide for the children for I am going away." He bade Mrs. Conger good bye and started from the house. The wife followed and made every effort she could to have him remain, but the more she insisted the faster he would step from her. She pursued him as rapidly as she could, but found that her efforts to have him return were in vain. She screamed and cried out for help from the little boys who had gone to the sawmill a short distance south of the residence. The little sons heard her cries and ran as fast as they could to learn what was the trouble. They stated that their first impression was that their little sister was dying. But it was a great or even greater misfortune. They were informed that the father had left and after being told of what had happened, Joseph, the eldest son at home ran to the cornfield half a quarter distant and tracked the parent to a straw stack in the same field where he found him with a gasping wound in his throat and inch or more deep from ear to ear in length, and breathed his last before he could give an alarm. The work was done with a razor, which he used to do his own shaving.

The neighbors were notified of what had taken place after consulting the family called Justice Anderson McKinley to the scene and an inquest was held. The verdict of the jury being that deceased came to his death by his own hands.

Deceased was born in Monroe county, Ohio, June 14, 1843, and came to Missouri in the 60's. He was wedded to Margaret Oden and to this union were born ten children, nine of whom were living at his death, namely, Mary Wellman and Lizzie Norman of Adair County, MO; Stephen Conger of Rooks Co., Kansas; John Conger of Keokuk, Iowa; Ezra, Joseph, Charles, Sherman and Margaret Conger of this county. The mother of these children died several years ago and later he married Emily Powell, who survives him.

Deceased was a member of the ? Christian Church and served his county faithfully and well for three years in the late war.

The funeral took place yesterday, [20 Oct 1896], the remains being taken to the Mendota cemetery.

David Atkinson Conger and Catherine Lippincott were married on 13 Apr 1840 in Monroe Co., OH. Catherine Lippincott, daughter of Elisha Lippincott and Mary Ann Duvall, was born on 6 Sep 1820 in Cameron, Monroe Co., OH. She was buried in Dec 1890 in Reno, Washington Co., OH, Yankeebug Cemetery. She died on 11 Dec 1890 at the age of 70 in Newport Twp., Washington Co., OH. Catherine Lippincott

PARENTS: Elisha Lippincott and Mary Ann Duvall

QUESTION: Was the date of birth, 11 Aug 1821 or 6 Sep 1820 in Monroe Co., OH as listed by Robert R. Guilinger? Robert says the date of 11 Aug 1821 is listed in 1833 Monroe County, OH court records and the date 6 Sep 1820 is from Conger Family Bible data. He also states that her year of birth is listed as 1820 on the tombstone at Yankeebug Cemetery.

The surname is found spelled in several ways: Lippincott, Lippencott and less frequently Lippencoat. Robert Guilinger believes that Lippincott is the correct spelling and notes that there is a town named, Lippincott, located about 8 miles northeast of Waynesburg, Greene Co., PA.

COURT:

[Note: Calculated birth dates are as follows:

Sarah Lippencott, b. 25 Feb 1815

Mary Lippencott, b. 12 Apr 1817

Hannah Lippencott, b. 26 Apr 1819

Catherine Lippencott, b. 11 Aug 1821

COMMENT-RELATIONSHIP:

Robert Guilinger reports that the parents of the Lippincott sisters were Elisha Lippincott and Mary Ann Duvall. Elisha Lippincott died in 1823 and in 1826 Mary Ann married Christian Hartline and had another family. He stated that Catherine Lippincott had at least 4 sisters and 2 brothers. Perhaps Christian and Mary Ann were having a hard time supporting their growing family and guardianship of the Lippincott children was a step towards resolving the situation.

COURT:

Journal #2 - June term, 1833, Records of the Court of Common Pleas, Monroe Co., OH. Page 15. James Atkinson appointed administrator of the goods and chattels of Wm. Lippencott, deceased. Thomas Hart, Elias Conger, Gilbert McCoy appointed appraisers of personal estate. (Catherine Fedorchak note: This Wm. Lippencott was probably the father of the Lippencott children named on the preceding page.) [Note: Robert Guilinger states: William Lippincott was the older brother of the Lippincott sisters, who had a guardian appointed. William was born, Abt. 1812 and died in 1833. William Lippincott married Keziah Atkinson, daughter of James and Mary (Brown) Atkinson.]

COURT:

Jr.) [Note: Robert Guilinger's notes indicate that he thinks Elizabeth Lippincott was the aunt of Wm. who was suing for her nephew Wm. Jr. REH]

445. Charles Atkinson Conger (Elias-5, David-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born on 3 Mar 1820 in Cameron, Monroe Co., OH. He was buried in Jan 1894 in Eustis, Frontier Co., NE, Older Cemetery. He died on 23 Jan 1894 at the age of 73 in Eustis, Frontier Co., NE. Charles Atkinson Conger

PARENTS: Elias Conger and Margaret Atkinson

CONFLICT: Maxine Crowell Leonard lists his name as, Charles Crogen Conger and says he was buried at Kearney, NE in Vol. 1. She changed the name to Charles A. Conger in Volume 2, p. 714. Robert Guilinger states that he has seen photos of the grave of Charles and Harmony Conger taken at the Older Cemetery, Eustis, NE. He also adds that "Crogen" was a Conger family nickname.

MARRIAGE: A marriage date of Abt. March 1840 in Monroe Co., OH has been suggested. There is no courthouse record of this marriage due to a courthouse fire in the 1860's. This date seems unlikely since marriages in Ohio usually didn't take place at age 15. It seems more likely that the marriage might have taken place Abt. Mar 1845 which would have made the bride's age, 20. The first child, Ellen E. was born in Nov 1845 which would be consistent with a marriage date of 1845.

BIOGRAPHY:

Ellen taught school and boarded at various times. In Elm Creek, Nebraska, Ellen boarded at the Conrad home. The Conrad grandmother had been gone for a while and her house left vacant. Ellen was going to live for the year in the furnished house. Mr. Conrad and his younger brother had been sent back from Omaha with their grandmother to help her with organizing the heavy work "the old ladies wanted done." Everybody at the Conrad house was already up when Ellen came in from the neighbors. Mrs. Conrad inquired as to why she was at the neighbor lady's home when she had a place at the Conrad house. Ellen told Mrs. Conrad that she was going to have to corral the bed bugs that had infested the place in her absence. His Grandmother Conrad drew herself up haughtily and replied "That is not possible, Miss Conger. We haven't one single bedbug in the whole house." "That is quite true," Ellen replied. "They are all married and have large families."

Ellen had brought her own milk cow. Mrs. Conrad had organized her grandsons into the school that milking cows was "men's work." Ellen grabbed a bucket and went to do the job when the time came. His younger brother (about eleven) told Ellen that it was too bad she didn't have a husband. Ellen's answer was, "Young Man, I have a dog that growls, a parrot that swears, a fireplace that smokes, and a cat that stays out all night. Why should I want a husband?" Mr. Conrad at one hundred and one said that to this day every time he sees a single older woman he thinks of Ellen's above answer and has a good laugh. Mrs. Conrad and her grandsons stayed a couple of months while she decided if she really wanted to leave Ellen in charge of her house in her absence.

During this period, a couple of his cousins did the following: They took the body of a centipede, the wings of a butterfly, the legs of a grasshopper, and the head of a beetle, and glued these together to form a weird creature. With the composite insect in a box, they called on Ellen. "Can you tell us what sort of a bug this is?" Ellen looked at the specimen quizzically and then looked at the boys. "Did it hum?" she inquired solemnly. "Oh, yes Mam," replied the boys. "Well, then," Ellen answered, "It is a humbug."

PARENTS: Elias Conger and Margaret Atkinson

QUESTION: Can anyone cite a source for a middle initial of "A." or the middle name, Atkinson? His mother was an Atkinson. JoNelle Linnaus points out that her mother said he did not have a middle name. She also points out that in the notice of probate for Elias Conger (1789-1869) his name is given as: "Aaron A."

Problem: Was the date of birth, 1 Dec 1825 or 1 Dec 1826? Maxine Crowell Leonard lists 1 Dec 1825, Cameron, Monroe, OH as does the family Bible.

BIRTH-DEATH: b. 1 Dec 1825, Cameron, Monroe Co., OH; d. 9 Jun 1892, Clarkson, Colfax, NE

(Source: Family Bible and tombstone - furnished by JoNelle Linnaus)

MARRIAGE: No marriage record for Aaron and Mary Jane Purtlebaugh has been found, as of Dec 1995. JoNelle Linnaus believes they were probably married in either Belmont Co., OH or Monroe Co., OH. The date of the marriage was 1 Apr 1845.

RELATIONSHIP: Siblings, Aaron A. and Mary Conger married siblings, Mary Jane and George John Purtlebaugh, respectively, according to Douglas Schueths.

Census: 1850, in Monroe Co., OH, Adams Twp., 113/113, 23 Jul 1850

Aaron Purtlebaugh, 24, m. farmer, OH; Mary, 24, f., VA

Joshua, 1, m. OH

[Note: JoNelle Linnaus believes that the family surname in this census record is in error. She believes this is the family of Aaron Conger and Mary Jane Purtlebaugh, who did in fact have a child, Joshua, born in 1849. Next door to Aaron and Mary at 112/112 was Eliza Purtlebaugh, 40, with 6 children and apparently a widow. This was probably the mother of Mary Jane. Her parents were, Daniel and Eliza Mayhew Purtlebaugh. REH]

BIBLE:

The Aaron Conger Bible has been passed down through the family. When Aaron Conger (1825-1892) married his third wife, Jane Mabe, about 1866/1867, the Bible was a gift to her. Jane died on 22 Jan 1888 at their homestead in Keya Paha Co., NE, possibly from cancer, although the frontier doctor did not diagnose it. In March, after Jane's death, Aaron Conger gave the Bible to Elias and Sarah Conger who were also homesteading in Keya Paha county. Elias and Sarah Conger passed the Bible on to their daughter, Josephine Conger Wagner. She in turn gave the Bible to her daughter, JoNelle Wagner Linnaus who shared copies of 5 pages from the Bible. The information is presented below as nearly as recorded in the Bible as possible. The front page of the Bible shows that it was printed by: PHILADELPHIA; J.M. STODDART & CO.; CINCINNATI: QUEEN CITY PUBLISHING CO. At the top of this page in long hand is written: Presented to Elias Conger From Aaron Conger March The 10 1888. The entries are in the hand writing of: first, Jane Mabe Conger (in a very nice style of handwriting) and second, Sarah Garner Conger (whose handwriting was not so pretty).

DEATH: Aaron A. Conger died 9 Jun 1892 at the home of my grandparent's [Elias and Sarah Elizabeth Conger] at Clarkson, Colfax, NE. He had gone there to live with his four youngest children: John, Burzilla, Nettie, and Cleaveland. He is buried in the Bohemian National Cemetery at Clarkson, Colfax, NE, beside his six grandchildren and his son Cleveland.
(Furnished by JoNelle Linnaus)

Aaron A. Conger and Mary Jane Purtlebaugh were married on 1 Apr 1845 in Ohio. Mary Jane Purtlebaugh, daughter of Daniel Purtlebaugh and Eliza Mayhew, was born on 16 Feb 1824 in Belmont, Belmont Co., OH. She was buried in May 1855 in Bartholomew Co., IN. She died on 27 May 1855 at the age of 31 in Columbus, Bartholomew Co., IN. Mary Jane Purtlebaugh Problem: Was her surname, Purtlebaugh, Purdlebaugh, Purtebaugh or Pertlebaugh? According to Robert Guilinger and JoNelle Linnaus the spelling is, Purtlebaugh and that spelling is used here.

PARENTS: Her parents, Eliza Mayhew and Daniel Purtlebaugh, were married on 8 Mar 1822 at Frederick Co., VA. I have a book, "I Am a Purtlebaugh," by Geraldine Alford, written in 1978, which uses the spelling with the "u". This seems to be the standard spelling. On census records in the 1800's the spelling varies. In the Conger family Bible, the surname appears to be spelled with an "a", or a "u" written on top of a vowel that was closed at the top.

OBITUARY: On Wednesday evening, June 26, [1901], Mr. E.A. Conger of Vallonia, [KS] died at his home. Over two years ago he received a parlytic stroke from which he never fully recovered, although able to walk about home and ride to town. Since January of this year he has been confined to the house and bedfast since February. He bore his suffering with patience and fortitude until death came as a release from earthly pain.

John Conger Jr

The funeral was held at the house, after which he was interred in the Vallonia Cemetery.

Mr. Conger was born in Monroe County, Ohio, February 4, 1828. In 1860 he moved with his family to Virginia where he resided one year. He then moved to Illinois in which state he enlisted in the Army and faithfully served his country in it's most perilous need for more than a year. After the close of the war he moved with his family to Dodge County, Nebraska where he continued to live until he came to Decatur County, [KS] in 1884, where he has remained until his death.

On November 10, 1851 he married Miss Ruble who still lives to mourn his loss. There has been born into the home 7 children - 3 boys and 4 girls. Three only of which survive their father, 2 boys, Isaac and Albert Conger and 1 daughter, Mrs. David Coulter. During Mr. Conger's residence in this county, he has proven himself to be an industrious farmer and respected citizen. So long as he was able, he was a hard worker and a good business man. His absence will be long felt by the community.

His friends extend their sympathy to those who are left to mourn his loss.

On this 3rd day of September, A.D. 1901, personally appeared before me, H.F. Noyes Clerk of the District court, the same being a COURT OF RECORD within and for the county and State aforesaid Sivilla Conger, aged 77 years, a resident of the Vicinity of Oberlin, county of Decatur, State of Kansas, who, being duly sworn according to law, declares that she is the widow of Elijah A. Conger, who enlisted under the name of Elijah A. Conger at Danville, Illinois, on the Thirtieth day of January A.D. 1865, in Company "C" 150th Regiment Illinois Infantry Volunteers as a private and served at least ninety days in the late War of the Rebellion, who was HONORABLY DISCHARGED Atlanta Georgia, and died June 26th 1901. That she was married under the name of Sivilla Ruble, to said Elijah A. Conger, on the 10th day of November 1851, by Stephen Atkinson, at near Bellville, Ohio there being no legal barrier to said marriage. That she has not remarried since the death of the said Elijah A. Conger. That she is without other means of support than her daily labor. That the names and dates of birth of all the children now living under sixteen years of age of the soldier are as follows: None. That she makes this declaration for the purpose of being placed on the pension roll of the United States under the provisions of the Act of June 27, 1890.

She hereby appoints H.D. Colvin, of Oberlin State of Kansas, her true and lawful attorney to prosecute her claim. That her post office address is Oberlin, county of Decatur State of Kansas.

BIOGRAPHY: Richard K. Walton

Richard K. Walton was born on the farm now known as the Maury Farm, on Sunfish Creek, in Salem township, Monroe county, Ohio (owned then by his father, Jeremiah Walton), on the 2d day of September, A.D. 1836; and at the age of seven years, his father left his residence on the farm and moved his family to the town of Clarington, on the Ohio river, where he engaged in the practice of medicine for six years, during which time Richard was sent to school regularly to such teachers as were then to be employed under the earlier school regime. At the age of thirteen, Richard was removed by his father back to the farm on which he was born; and from that time he labored on the farm, under the direction of his father, who for many years afterwards continued in his practice, as a successful physician. Richard, however, was sent to school only during the winter terms, which were short, lasting each winter about four months, this way he, by close application, became well versed in the common branches of English learning, and at the age of nineteen procured a certificate to teach the common schools.

His first advent into the school room, armed with his first certificate, was in the fall of 1855; wages, thirty dollars per month; length of term, six months. With the proceeds of his first winter's labor in the school room, he, by the consent of his father, attended a school at Woodsfield, Ohio, taught by William Wheeler, the next summer and fall. The former years labor in the same schoolroom was repeated the following year, and he again attended two terms of school at Woodsfield, taught by Professor John Moon, who was an instructor of great ability and learning; after which, on the 15th day of June, A.D. 1858, he was married to Julia A. Conger, the youngest daughter of Elias and Margaret (Atkinson) Conger of Monroe county, Ohio.

He taught school for one year following his marriage, at Cameron, in Adams township, and afterwards in various districts of Adams and other townships of the county, when in 186? (1861 perhaps) he was appointed school examiner by Probate Judge Sinclair.

In the fall of 1862 he was chosen by the board of education of the Clarington special school district principal of the Clarington school; resigned the office of school examiner in the spring of 1863, and thereafter removed, at the close of one term of school at Clarington, to his father's farm in Adams township, where he spent the most of his time for two years following, reading law under the instruction of the Hon. William F. Hunter, of Monroe county, Ohio; after which he was again called by the board of education to labor as principal in the Clarington school, at which place he was employed to labor as principal of the school, with the exception of one term, for ten years.

At the time of his marriage, and during all this period, six children were born in his family, four of which, two sons and two daughters, towit: William ?, Jane, Emma V., and James C., are now living.

After having been engaged in the profession of teaching, and meeting with success in this calling for more than twenty years, and being solicitous for a change from the schoolroom, he became a candidate for the office of probate judge, to which he was elected in the fall of 1878, and afterward, in the fall of 1881, was reelected to a second term of said office, of which he is now the incumbent.

An American Tragedy: Stephen Conger

Stephen L. Conger was born in 1839 near the small town of Cameron in Monroe County, Ohio and was the youngest son of Elias and Margaret (Atkinson) Conger. His father, Elias, was born in 1789 in Woodbridge, New Jersey and was brought west as an infant in 1790 by his parents, David (1767-1833) and Sara (Welch) (1769-1844) Conger. David Conger was a newly-commissioned officer in the U.S. Army and supervised the building of Fort Lindley near the present town of Prosperity in Washington County, Pennsylvania. This fort was one of about 200 forts erected, in the late 1700's, on the then western frontier for protection of the settlers against the attacks of Indians. David Conger also received a 500 acre grant of land about 3 miles southeast of Fort Lindley and he built a homestead there in 1791, which still is occupied today. The area around the original home, where Elias was raised, was later called Conger Station (now called Plumbsock) and included at one time a gristmill, blacksmith shop, hotel and over 20 residents. It also was a stop on the railroad built between Washington and Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, that went out of business in 1934.

Stephen's early years were spent on his father's farm, which consisted of over 200 acres. David A. Conger, born in 1818, was Stephen's older brother, who also lived on the family farm and married Catherine Lippencourt in 1840. Their first two children, Elisha born in 1841 and Charles born in 1843, were playmates of Stephen, when he was growing up. I'm sure Stephen viewed his older brother, David, more as his father and Elias, more as his grandfather, due to the large age differences. In September 1857, Elias received an offer for the bulk of his farm land, over twice the going price per acre, and he sold 180 acres retaining a smaller acreage around his farm buildings. David and Catherine Conger, with their seven children, then moved to Newport Twp., Washington County, Ohio, a few miles southeast of Marietta. The job of farming Elias' reduced acreage fell mainly on 18 year old Stephen and he performed this task for the next four years through the summer of 1861. The Civil War had then broken out and Captain Warren Hollister was recruiting Union Army volunteers in August 1861 for the 36th Regiment of the Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Stephen at this time was 22 years of age and was described as being 5 foot 10 1/2 inches in height with brown eyes and black hair. Patriotic feelings were running high and Stephen, along with many friends of his age, enlisted for a term of 3 years. No decision that Stephen ever made in later life would come to affect his life as this particular one.

The 36th Regiment OVI was initially commanded by Col. George Crook who would in later years gain greater fame as an Indian fighter in the West. Stephen was enlisted in Company E, commanded by his recruitment officer, Captain Warren Hollister, and trained at Summerville, West Virginia till about May 1862. In the next five months the 36th fought in five major battles, two of them included the second battle at Antietam, their popular Regimental Commander, Col. Melvin Clark, a prominent Marietta lawyer, was instantly killed (Col. Crook having been previously promoted to General at the Brigade level.)

The 36th was then ordered back to Charleston, West Virginia for a rest period of nearly three months in the fall of 1862. Morale in the regiment at this time was low and probably even lower in Company E since Capt. Hollister was absent for weeks at a time due to illness. Men started to desert and on Jan. 25, 1863 the 36th embarked on river steamers for Nashville. While docked at Louisville, Kentucky on Jan. 31, 1863, Private Stephen Conger deserted from the Union Army and became a man on the run. Make no mistake the charge of desertion is never removed by statute of limitations or general amnesty and remains permanently on a person's military record. Desertion was not treated lightly during the Civil War and many deserters who were caught received long sentences in a military prison and over 144 were executed.

What happened to Stephen L. Conger you might ask? First, he was not caught as far as we know. I doubt if he ever saw his mother or father or hometown of Cameron again, partly from fear of being apprehended there.

In November 1869, Stephen's father, Elias, died at age 80. The following year, in 1870, some of Elias' property was published in the local paper listing his heirs. Stephen, who I believe kept contact by mail with his older brother, David, was listed as unknown ... in the State of Nebraska. A check of the Nebraska Census records for 1870 and 1880 shows no record of a Stephen L. Conger so it is probable he lived there under an assumed name.

This is why I termed the title of this story, "An American Tragedy" in that one rash act could cut a person off from his family, hometown and friends for the rest of his life. Of course, the story could have had a different ending. I note that the three men listed above Stephen on the Company E roster (Coon, Clute, Carleton) who had also enlisted on the same day with Stephen were killed in a battle or died of wounds received in battle. Perhaps if Stephen had not deserted he would have been killed or wounded in one of 19 additional battles that his Regiment was engaged in through to the end of the Civil War. Don't you think that would have been the greater tragedy? (Source: "Monroe OGS Navigator," April 1994, page 38 - written by Robert R. Guilinger, grandson of Margaret Conger Guilinger)

BIOGRAPHY:

Aaron Harvey Conger was reared in his native county, [Licking Co., OH] and was educated in the typical log school house, with its [c]rude benches and wide fireplace. While his opportunities for acquiring an education were not of the best, he made the best use of them, and by extensive reading in after years he became a well-informed man.

He was reared to farm life, and remained at home assisting in the farm work until he was twenty-one years old. He then went to work in a woolen mill, and in three years mastered all its branches. Leaving the mill at the expiration of that time, he went to work for a stock buyer, raising and marketing his stock, and with him he continued four years. He first received eighteen dollars per month, but before leaving the employ of that gentleman he was getting fifty dollars per month.

Aaron saved his money and went to McLean County, [IL] in 1859, where he purchased eighty acres of land for $12.00 per acre. His acreage later totaled 280 acres. He also conducted a grain and coal business at Fletcher, a small station near his home, for many years.

Aaron Harvey Conger once ran on the Prohibition ticket as a candidate for the state senate, and polled a heavy vote. He was also a candidate for sheriff of McLean county and again polled a heavy vote. He always felt he would rather be beaten in a good cause than to be successful in a bad one.

In his township he served as collector a number of years, and for thirty years was a school director and took particular pride in his home school. He always gave special attention to the employment of competent teachers, and as a consequence this one school sent out more than twenty-five pupils who held responsible and prominent positions.

Aaron traveled quite extensively from coast to coast, and always felt he could learn much from every one with whom he came in contact. He was greatly esteemed in his community.

BIOGRAPHY:

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

Aaron H. Conger, my father left Ohio in 1854 and came to McLean County, Illinois. He purchased his first land in 1860 and continued buying through the years as he and my mother raised their family. For many years he also conducted a grain and coal business at Fletcher, a small station near his home.

Father was a staunch temperance man and voted the Prohibition ticket for many years. He never lost an opportunity to speak against liquor and the downfall if caused.

Father and mother were members of the Baptist church at Towanda, Ill. They are buried in the Smith Grave Cemetery two miles east of Towanda where are also mother's parents, George C. and Julia Noel White and three of her brothers and two sisters.

Aaron Harvey Conger and Ellen J. White were married on 28 Apr 1861 in Towanda, Mc Lean Co., IL. Ellen J. White, daughter of George C. White and Julia Noel, was born on 12 Oct 1839 in Tippecanoe Co., IN. She was buried in Jan 1927 in Towanda, Mc Lean Co., IL, Smith Grove Cemetery. She died on 8 Jan 1927 at the age of 87 in Cooksville, Mc Lean Co., IL. Ellen J. White

CHURCH_AFFILIATION: Towanda, Mc Lean Co., IL, Baptist Church

RECOLLECTIONS: Ethel Conger Heagler said of her mother: "Mother's ancestry goes back to the Whites of Mass. Tradition says to William White of the Mayflower, and I have reason to believe this is correct. George White, who married Sarah Bumpas at Rochester, Mass. in 1728 had a son, George, b. in Mass., 1737, who became George White of the Revolutionary War in New York. He and his wife, Patience, and all their family were members of the church in Amenia, N.Y. (N.Y. Gen & Biog Record, Vol. 35, p. 203). Their oldest son, Nathaniel, b. 1759, was a sergeant in the Revolution. He married Hannah Finch in N.Y. in 1785 and they were mother's grandparents."

QUESTION: Is there evidence to indicate that this James Powell was related to Charles Powell who married Rebecca Conger?

COMMENT: At the time of the 1850 census of Caldwell Twp., Appanoose Co., Iowa there were three Conger and one Powell families living close together.

Enos and Jane (Strayer) Conger were Family #34

Elias Gregory and Rebecca (Patterson) Conger were Family #35

James B. and Hannah Powell were Family #36 with George Conger, 21, b. OH

John B. and Elizabeth (Atkinson) Conger were Family #37

Enos, Elias Gregory, John B. Conger and Rebecca (Conger) Powell were siblings. George Washington Conger was the 1st cousin, 1 generation removed of these Conger siblings.

As of January 1996 it is not known whether James B. and Hannah Powell were related to their 3 Conger neighbors or to Charles and Rebecca (Conger) Powell who were Family #15 in Center Twp., Appanoose Co., IA.

We know from the 1850 Monroe Co., OH census that she was born Abt. 1835. Age, 21 in the 1856 Appanoose Co., IA census supports the 1835 birth year. I think the error is in the death year from this cemetery extraction. It is more likely that she died in 1879 than in 1873. Probably part of the digit "9" was worn away. Using as the date of death, 28 Nov 1879 and the age information as found on the stone, her birth date calculates to Abt. 12 Feb 1835. Richard E. Henthorn]

OBITUARY:

This community was shocked Sunday morning when it become known that Mrs. Rhoda Potter had passed away during the night as she was only ill a short time. Rhoda Conger, daughter of Moses and Elizabeth Conger, was born in Monroe County Ohio, March 15th, 1843, passed away at her home in Sumner, April 25, 1931 at the age of 88 years, 1 month and 10 days.

When a small child she moved with her parents to Iowa where she grew to womanhood later coming to Missouri making her home with her brother Milton Conger for a number of years.

She was united in marriage to Frank Potter.

While she had never united with any church she was converted when a young girl and had lived a Christian life and was a regular attendant at church services as long as health would permit. She was a firm believer in God's word and had read her Bible through many times.

She was the last of a large family and leaves only nieces and nephews to mourn her passing.

Funeral services were held from the home Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock by F. L. Burton. Interment in Lakeside cemetery.

COMMENT:

Concerning the family of Moses Conger [and Elizabeth Powell which appeared on] pg 379 in CFA: It would seem another son should have been included in the family group -- Elias Milton Conger, b. 4 Feb 1846. Neither, George Washington [Conger born] 1829, nor Elias appear in the 1850 census of Monroe Co., OH with this family group, though all the rest did. Since George W.[ashington] left Ohio for Appanoose Co., IA at [the] age [of] 21, this probably explains why he wasn't with the family at the time of the census. It is possible that his brother, Elias, went with him or that Elias was a farm hand with another family. [Elias couldn't have been a farm hand. He was was 4 years old at the time of the 1850 census. REH]

In a County History of Chariton County, MO, in a biographical sketch on CONGERS, it starts with: "Elias Milton and George W. Conger, brothers were born in the east," etc. They both enlisted in the same Missouri company for the Civil War at the same time and place. They are both buried in the same plot in Sumner, MO. Therefore, Elias [Milton] Conger is placed in this family.

[Note: Joyce Posey points out that they aren't buried in the same plot.]

Elias must have been better known as, Silas, as that is the name on his gravestone.

[Note: This assumes that an error wasn't made on the gravestone. REH]

[Elias Conger] ... enlisted in Co. C, 42d MO Inf, Vol., on 11 Aug 1864 at Unionville, Putnam [Co.], MO (same day as, [his brother], George W.). He was described as being, age 18, 5', (?)"; eyes, gray; hair, fair; complexion, fair.

He and George received injuries from the same accident: Elias being crushed under a falling ambulance while boarding the boat at St. Louis. He was unconscious until sometime the day following the accident. [Note: This account doesn't agree with the account in the biographical sketch of E.M. Conger. REH]

No death date is given in any of the records. However, in April 1923 an affidavit giving his condition as being, 77 years of age and unable to dress and undress himself without the aide of someone on account of weakness and general disability of age. He may have died soon thereafter.

BIOGRAPHY:

E.M. Conger, a well known farmer and stockman of Cunningham township, [Chariton Co., MO] is a veteran of the Civil War and a pioneer of Chariton County. He was born in February, 1846, in Monroe County, Ohio, the son of Moses Conger.

Moses Conger and his wife were natives of New Jersey and Pennsylvania. In 1851, they moved to Iowa, where they remained until 1866. They then came to Chariton County and settled on a farm in Cunningham township, which was four miles east of the present farm of E.M. Conger, the subject of this sketch. Moses Conger died at the age of 75 years.

E.M. Conger was reared on his father's farm and attended school in Iowa. He enlisted in the army Aug. 16, 1864, and served with the 42nd Missouri Volunteers. Mr. Conger enlisted in Missouri and was sent to Nashville, Tenn. While in the service he was wounded when a wagon broke down. When he entered the army Mr. Conger said he didn't have any money, but when he was discharged he had ten dollars more than the government paid him. Mr. Conger has always followed farming and stock raising. He now owns a well improved farm of 170 acres and he is a breeder of hogs, shipping two cars each year. Mr. Conger also raises cattle and mules.

On May 4, 1886, E.M. Conger married Miss Mariah Dillion, a native of Pennsylvania. To this union the following children were born: Orville, living in Idaho; Lola Belle, living in Chariton County; Everett, at home; Lizzie, living in Mexico; and Georgia A., at home. Georgia Conger was born in Sept., 1896, and is a college graduate. Mariah (Dillion) Conger died in 1898 and is buried in Lakeside Cemetery at Sumner [MO]. Both of Mr. Conger's sons served in the World War. Everett Conger served in the United States Navy for two years and made 14 trips overseas. Orville Conger served with the Marines and was in France for 18 months.

Mr. Conger is a Republican and a member of the Christian Church. He is a highly respected citizen of Chariton County and has a wide acquaintance and many friends. OBITUARY: Moses D. Conger

Moses D. Conger was born in Appanoose county, Iowa, April 9, 1864, moved to Missouri when he was two years old. He spent practically all of his life in Missouri. He was converted and baptised in the Baptist church years ago.

He departed his life July 13, 1947 at the home of her [sic, his] daughter, Mrs. Mildred Martin, Hammond, Indiana, being 83 years and three months [and 4 days] at the time of his death after a lingering illness. He had been with his daughter 15 months.

He was united in marriage to Sevillar McGee in 1887 [sic, 28 May 1889]. To this union 9 children were born, four having passed away in infancy and one daughter being at the age of 32 years at her death, Mrs. Mary Scheer, Los Angeles, Calif.

QUESTION-RELATIONSHIP: Moses and Sevillar (McGee) Conger had a grandchild, Wanda Mathis, who were her parents?

QUESTION-CEMETERY: When and where was Moses D. Conger buried?

RECOLLECTIONS:

In January 1999, family researcher, Jess Powell, 402 E. Wheller, West Burlington, IA 52655, grandson of Michael Powell, related to Joyce Posey that he personally knew Moses D. Conger. "Moses was unable to care for his children on his own after Sevillar died in 1908. Moses left the children with relatives to raise, while he worked on farms to earn a living for the children's support. He did spend a great deal of time with his children." Jess further stated, "Moses was an outstanding woodsman, he showed my brothers and I many things about tracking and trapping of wildlife." (Furnished by Joyce Posey)

Moses D. Conger and Sevillar Mc Gee were married on 29 May 1889 in Unionville, Putnam Co., MO. Sevillar Mc Gee, daughter of John R. Mc Gee and Louisa Ann Rice, was born in May 1870 in Lincoln Twp., Putnam Co., MO. She died on 7 Feb 1907 at the age of 36 in Putnam Co., MO. She was buried on 8 Feb 1907 in Mendota, Putnam Co., MO, Mendota Cemetery. Sevillar McGee

AKA-SPOUSE-ERROR: Seville; CFA II, lists Sevilla McGee as the 2nd spouse of Moses Conger (Joyce Posey and Richard E. Henthorn believe he was only married once). CFA II, p. 169, Sevillar McGee. Problem: Was he born at Conger, Washington Co., PA or Lindley's Mills, Washington Co., PA? CFA I, lists both.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Henry Herschel Conger, son of David Conger and Mary Bell, gives the following information about his grandfather David: "He fought in the Revolutionary War, for our Independence. He was buried here in Dunn's Station, on the W & W R.R. in Morris Twp., Washington Co., Penn. This is near my grandfather's odl home farm, which is now owned by the heirs of my brother, David Allison Conger. It was willed to him by his father, David Conger, in 1792, and he fell heir to it from his father, David, about 1833.

I don't know if my great grandmother was buried there. The grave at this place was marked with a rough undressed stone, without name or date, and I saw this many times when I was a small boy. The plot of ground has been worked over and cultivated for more than 60 years (in 1908), and there is not a thing to show there was ever a grave there. Standing on this plot is a blacksmith's shop and garden.

Grandfather and Grandmother were buried 5 miles from this point in a grave yard on Bates Fork Creek. Their graves are properly marked with granite.

I saw the old pocketbook a few days ago that belonged to my great grandfather, the date on it is 1758. It is made out of heavy leather, about seven inches long, and folds like a mussel shell with a pocket on either side. When it opens it is about seven inches square. David A. Conger's heirs have it, and prize it very highly." (The owner of this pocketbook would have been David Conger, 1741, who died in the Revolution.) CEMETERY: In 1987 Robert Guilinger discovered the grave of Elias Conger in a small unnamed rural cemetery in southeastern Washington Co., PA. The gravestone clearly reads, Elias Conger, 1826-1865. The name of the wife of Elias Conger was not listed on the headstone or any adjacent stone. There was room on either side of the grave of Elias for another person to be buried there.

BIOGRAPHY:

Elias Conger (1826-1865) was the first born son of David Conger (12 Jan 1804-30 Jun 1892) and his first wife, Nancy Mattox (1806-1826), who died in child-birth or shortly thereafter from complications of child-birth.

Elias was born, apparently in the latter half of 1826, and it is not known for sure who raised him. David, his father, married again in about 1829. The second wife, Maria Palmer (1807-1832), passed away in 1832. David married his third wife, Mary Bell (9 May 1811-6 Sep 1889), on 30 Aug 1834 and she remained his wife for 55 years until her death in 1889.

Elias may have been raised by his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mattox, as he inherited a 103 acre farm from them in the late 1850's (probated in 1859). It is believed that this farm was located near Hackney's Mill, near Amity, Morris Twp., Washington county, Pennsylvania.

Elias is thought to have married Anna (Unknown), b. abt. 1829, around 1857. They had a first born daughter, Mary Lorinda, in about 1858 (Abt. 1858-2 Mar 1922). In the 1860 census of Morris Twp., Washington county, PA Elias is listed as a farmer, age 33, with a farm valued at $2500 and having $300 savings. He is listed with wife, Anna, age 31 and daughter, Mary, age 2. All were listed as born in Pennsylvania.

Some accounts in Washington county, PA list Elias Conger as having died in the Civil War, which seems logical since he died in 1865. This date of death is substantiated by information found at the gravesite of Elias Conger. In 1987, the author found the grave of Elias Conger in a small, un-named rural cemetery in southeastern Washington county, Pennsylvania. The gravestone clearly reads, Elias Conger, 1826-1865. As of August 1999, researchers have been unable to confirm military service in any of the Pennsylvania units during the Civil War. A request is pending with the National Archives to see if he may have served in a Union Army unit from adjoining West Virginia.

Elias and Anna are believed to have had two more children after the birth of Mary Lorinda in 1858, namely:

John Lincoln Conger, (Oct 1860-16 Jan 1921) born near Hackney's Mill,
Morris Twp., Washington County, PA

Belle (or Isabelle) Conger, (Dec 1862-?) born in Washington County, PA

The date of birth of Belle (or Isabelle) came from census data (1870, 1880, 1900, 1910). Belle was raised by her Grand-Uncle and Aunt, Ephraim Conger (8 Jan 1809-Abt. 20 Nov 1893) and Eleanor Iams (2 Apr 1815-24 Feb 1907). They had a larger prosperous farm and were known to take in relatives, who had lost one or more of their parents. Belle married A. Curtis Horn after 1880 and apparently they had no children. Belle and A. Curtis Horn moved from Washington county, PA and resided in Crawford county, PA (near Meadville) at the time of the 1900 and 1910 census. There were no children listed in either census.

Mary Lorinda Conger married John L. Horn (8 Nov 1849-10 Jan 1929) on 24 Dec 1878. At the time this article was written it is not known if John L. Horn and A. Curtis Horn were related.

CEMETERY: According to David M. Dodd, Elias and Anne Conger are buried at the Upper Ten Mile Cemetery, near Prosperity, Morris Twp., Washington Co., PA

CEMETERY-COMMENT:

David M. Dodd wrote to Robert Guilinger, "... I believe that the Morris Tws. map showing the Elias Conger farm with the Cemetery three miles east is the same Cemetery as that on the West Bethlehem map near Ten Mile which you are asking if it may be the Lower Ten Mile Cemetery. This Cemetery is the Pleasant Hill Cemetery which is in Amwell Tws. I have a listing of the tombstones for the Upper Ten Mile Cemetery which is in Prosperity, Morris Tws., that has Elias Conger, d. 9 August 1865, age 38 and Anne D. Strouss, b. 18 Oct 1828, d. 16 May 1883, age 55. Elias was buried with his first wife as is Dr. S.S. Strouss with his first wife Jane Dodd ... at the Lower Ten Mile Cemetery. The Lower Ten Mile Cemetery is in Amity, Amwell Tws. This is where my Dodd ancestors are buried. Anne's parents, John and Sarah (Miller) Day are also buried at the Upper Ten Mile Cemetery as are many other Day's." The Upper Ten Mile Cemetery is about 1/2 mile to the southeast of Prosperity, PA.

Elias Conger and Anne Day were married about 1851 or 1852. Anne Day was born on 18 Oct 1828 in Pennsylvania. She was buried in May 1883 in Morris Twp., Washington Co., PA, Upper Ten Mile Cemetery. She died on 16 May 1883 at the age of 54 in Washington Co., PA. Anne Day

BIRTH: The 1860 census supports a birth year of Abt. 1829. The 1870 census supports a birth year of Abt. 1828.

NAME-CONFLICT: Annie Day; Anna Day; Anne Day; Mrs. Anne Conger

RESIDENCES: Amity, Amwell Twp., Washington Co., PA

SPOUSE: Anne Day was the 2nd spouse of Dr. Simon Schnider Strouss. They married on 12 Mar 1868 in Washington Co., PA. Dr. Strouss was born 10 Jan 1810 in Allegheny Co., PA and died on 24 Apr 1883 in Washington Co., PA.

BIOGRAPHY: Dr. Simon Schnider Strouss (Second husband of Anne (Day) Conger) The first recorded history of the Strouss family in the United States was enacted in Northampton county, Penn. David Strouss and wife came over from Leipsic, Germany, about the year 1750. Of this date we are not quite certain, but there is conclusive evidence that they sailed about the middle of the eighteenth century.

David Strouss was a musician and also somewhat of a fighter. He was chorister in the German Lutheran Church, and took up arms with his adopted fellow - countrymen in the war of Revolution. That he was a soldier worthy of the name, we know from the fact that he was made colonel under Washington.

After the war he settled down to quiet farm life in Northampton county. His son, John Strouss, moved to Allegheny county, Penn., in 1806. He was a millwright by trade, but as he grew older, country life and bucolic charms increased in attractiveness to him, and he started West for his fortune. He pitched his family tent on a little creek in Allegheny county, about twenty miles northwest of Pittsburgh, now the junction of Allegheny, Beaver and Washington counties. Here he spent the remainder of his days. When asked by his children later in life, why he did not settle nearer the confluence of the two rivers, he would reply: "I could see no great advantage then. Pittsburgh was only a few houses near an old fort. One cart load of produce would supply its daily demand, and if we shipped down the river we were obliged to walk back or row up stream, which was slower and harder work than walking." So he concluded to go father into the country and establish a little kingdom of his own. We can look back and say: "What a mistake he made." But, perhaps, our conclusion would be too hasty. Viewed from a financial point of view, doubtless it was a mistake; but when we consider the fact that the thread of life has been spun to an unusual length to almost all the descendants of this line, we may credit it to pure air, sanitary living, and muscle - making necessities of this pioneer farmer.

John Strouss married Mary Schnip, September 10, 1795, and there were born to them four sons and five daughters: Lydia, Elizabeth, Jonas, John, David, Mary, Simon S., Hannah, and Martha.

Mary Strouss died in 1815, and John married the second time to Annie McCoy. There were born to him of this marriage three sons: William, James and Henry.

Of these seven sons, Dr. Simon S. Strouss (whose likeness appears with this sketch) was the youngest of the first marriage. From this brief history of ancestry we can form an idea of the limited pleasures, and opportunities for anything else than farm work, that fell to him in his youth. The "paterfamilias" and his wife and twelve children all believed and practiced strict economy and the daily catechism of hard work, relieved on Sundays by the austere principles and rigorous observance of "Blue-Stocking" Presbyterianism which creed, slightly modified, has been adhered to by nearly all this large family.

Dr. Strouss was born in Allegheny county, Penn., Wednesday, January 10, 1810. His educational advantages were necessarily quite limited. Even public schools were unthought of in his neighborhood, and he was obliged to search a few of not the best books and pamphlets for his little store of general knowledge. Finally, to his great delight, a Latin school was started in Hopewell church, near his father's farm, and he, having expressed a preference for the medical profession, was permitted to study this dry language in all its original dryness, for a few months. Thus equipped, as to his mental outfit, he came to Washington county and read medicine with Dr. Jonathan Letherman, who at that time had an office near Canonsburg. On a faded sheet of old-fashioned letter paper we find the following: "To all whom it may concern: This is to certify that Simon Strouss has attentively and diligently studied the science of medicine, including anatomy, surgery, midwifery, and therapeutics, and I can further state that his moral character is unimpeachable. February 20, 1831. Jonathan Letherman, M.D." This was his diploma, and now he starts out in the world fully equipped, as Dr. Strouss.

He first went to Pittsburgh, and practiced about one year with Dr. Wray, of that city. In 1832 and 1833 he practiced in Beaver county, located in what is now Independence (then Hopewell) township. He left there in the fall of 1833 and established an office in Amity, Amwell township, Washington Co., Penn. It was there that a long and useful life was spent, in service to his fellow-men. He was eminently successful in every sense of the word. Beloved by his clients and respected by all with whom he came in contact. Compared with present customs, his remuneration for service was small; yet his practice became so extensive that he accumulated a comfortable fortune. With this he was liberal to the end of his days. The unfortunate always found a sympathizing helper, and of his church he was a strong moral and financial supporter.

Dr. Strouss first married, August 12, 1836, Jane F. Dodd, who was the eldest in the family of nine children of Rev. Cephas Dodd, viz: Jane F.; Sarah; Thaddeus, M.D.; Cornelia; Elizabeth; Hannah; James F.; Cephas, M.D.; and Elias F., M.D. Their father was the son of Rev. Thaddeus Dodd, the founder and first pastor of Upper and Lower Ten-Mile Churches, Washington county; Rev. Dodd commenced his labor there in 1777, and later in his work was one of the principal actors in the establishing of what is now Washington and Jefferson College.

Mrs. Strauss died Thursday, August 13, 1863. There were born of this marriage two sons and five daughters.

Dr. Strauss was married, the second time, March 12, 1868, to Mrs. Anne Conger ("nee" Anne Day). There were no children of this marriage.

Of the seven children we record the following: Hanna D., born September 20, 1837, died September 29, 1843; Mary Jane, born March 26, 1839; Cephas D., born January 1, 1841, died September 26, 1843; Martha Elizabeth, born November 19, 1843; John D., still-born; Sarah Ann, born March 13, 1846; Ruth D., born June 11, 1848, died October 3, 1858.

Of these, Mary Jane married William C. Condit, July 8, 1858; Martha Elizabeth married Demas McCollum, December 4, 1863; Sarah Ann married David B. Baker, March 2, 1865. These three daughters settled on farms given them by their father, and are still living in Washington county.

Dr. Strauss died Tuesday, April 24, 1883 and his wife on Wednesday, May 16, 1883. Thus within three weeks this beloved old man and his worthy wife passed away, breaking the Strauss line in this branch of the family as no sons were left to carry the name.

The life of Dr. Strauss was one of undeniable consistency, and in his old age there was allotted to him the esteem and regard that true worth justly merits. He was jovial, kind-hearted and earnest. Always willing to sacrifice personal comfort and consideration for a suffering patient. He early acquired a practice that extended to a radius of twelve or fifteen miles from his office. There was considerable of a German element in his locality, [sic] and they still reverence the memory of Dr. Strauss. His pills and drops were a panacea for all their ailments. Many of them affirm that even his jolly presence was enough to put one beyond the notice of suffering. Although he never read psychology, yet he understood the influence of mind over matter, and the power of the will. He had the true secret of the practitioner. This was evinced in his treatment of fevers, in which he was eminently successful; often being called as council, especially in such cases to other localities.

He was an earnest, active follower of the Master, always at his place with heart and purse in the Presbyterian Church of Lower Ten-Mile. He did his life work well, and has left us a noble example of an upright, useful and honorable life.

As a rule, Dr. Strauss never speculated or tampered with the vagaries of fortune. Once he was tempted by the Western sheep craze, and ventured some capital; but finding himself losing, he withdrew, and devoted himself more exclusively to his chosen profession. He has gone to his reward, and to us, his descendants, there is left a sacred memory and Christian example. May we strive toward true merit as he did, and preserve the mantle he has left to us, with his benediction, unsullied from dishonor's pollution. For the name and honor is ours to carry before the searching eyes of an exacting world. This feeble tribute we offer as a token of our undying gratitude, love and esteem.

twenty other families, all from New Jersey, nearly all from the county of Morris, which had been his home before this migration. The families settled at different points along Ten-Mile Creek.

Demas Lindley located upon four hundred acres of land situated on the middle fork of Ten-Mile. This property was warranted to him, Feb. 5, 1785, receiving the title of "Mill Place," it's location being very near the present village of Prosperity. (Prosperity, PA was platted out in 1848, by Robert Wallace, page 845.)

Mr. Lindley became owner of another tract of land called, "Headquarters," warranted to him on 18 Apr 1796, containing 368 acres.

A fort was early established upon the property of Mr. Lindley, called Lindley's Fort, and was the rendezvous for the residents of the county.

Mr. Lindley built a grist and merchant mill on his property soon after his settlement here, the mills were known as "Lindley's Mills."

BIOGRAPHY: Stephen C. Cary, farmer and stock-grower, Swart's, Penn., was born in Morris Township, January 27, 1846. His parents were Abel and Delilah (Mitchell) Cary, natives of this county and of English origin. His ancestors came among the early settlers from New Jersey to Greene County, [PA]. They were usually farmers, of whom his father was one of the most successful. He died in 1875. Stephen was the ninth of eleven children, six of whom reached maturity. Mr. Cary was reared on a farm, attended the common-schools, and has followed the occupation of her father. He has met with great success in his business, being the owner of a fine farm of 448 acres well stocked and improved. His success in life has been due largely to his own efforts.

He was united in marriage April 27, 1872, with Miss Harriet, daughter of Harrison and Elizabeth (Longdon) Conger. Mrs. Cary was born in Washington County, and is of English and Irish descent. Mrs. and Mrs. Cary are the parents of six children -- William H., Lizzie B., Lawrence G., James W., Fannie D., and Hattie M.

In politics Mr. Cary is Republican. His wife is a devoted member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. (Source: History of Greene County, p. 798-99 - furnished by Robert Guilinger)

RECOLLECTIONS:

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

"Thomas Freeman, residing on section 19 Ogden Township, became a resident of this locality during the pioneer days. His residence is a fine brick structure, built in 1877, at a cost of $2,600. Our subject is a native of Ohio, and was born in Belmont County, April 11, 1826. His father, James Freeman, a native of Pennsylvania, was born in 1801, and departed this life Nov. 4, 1867. The mother of our subject, who in her girlhood was Miss Rebecca Ogden, was born on St. Valentine's Day 1804.

The marriage of the parents took place on the 5th of May, 1825, and of this union there were born ten children, eight of who lived to maturity. The mother departed this life Oct. 5, 1854. Both parents were exemplary in their lives, and worthy members of the Christian Church. The family removed from Ohio to Illinois in the spring of 1830, locating first in Vermilion County. Two years later they changed their place of abode to a point on the Salt Fork of the Vermilion River, in this county, where the father of our subject purchased 1,100 acres of land, upon which he continued to live the remainder of his life.

James Freeman commenced life without a cent in his pocket, and at its close had accumulated a large competency. He was a man of much force of character, and one whose judgment was held in high regard. He occupied the minor offices of his township, and was Captain in a company of the State Militia for several years. The first children of the household were Thomas, of our sketch, and Mary (twins). The latter became the wife of David Mead, and died Oct. 25, 1876. The remaining children were Edmund, Lydia A., Angeline, Yates, Eleazer, Andrew, Rebecca who died when three months old, and Martha when four years old.

Thomas Freeman on the 16th of August, 1849, was united in marriage with Miss Nancy Redman, who was born in Monroe County, Ohio, in the same year as himself, and on the 16th of the month following that of his own birth. Her parents were John and Elizabeth (Wright) Redman, natives of Virginia, the former born in 1792, and the latter Dec. 18, 1799. They passed to their long home years ago. The children of the parents of Mrs. Freeman were born as follows: Reuben, Feb. 10, 1820; Mary, Sept. 11, 1821; Sarah, Nov. 15, 1822; Hettie, Dec. 28, 1824; Nancy, March [sic, May] 16, 1826; Rachel and Ruth (twins) Nov. 27, 1828; John Feb. 10, 1831; Martha, March 4, 1833; Elias, April 21, 1835; Isaac, now deceased, July 22, 1837; Rebecca, July 4, 1840, and Clarinda, Jan 4. 1844.

The children of Thomas Freeman and his wife are recorded as follows: Mary M. was born July 16, 1830 [sic, 1850]; Edmund R., March 15, 1852; John R., July 25, 1854; James J., May 27, 1858; William H., May 22, 1861, Martha, Aug 25, 1862. [this part may be condensed from the original text - mep]

Mr. F.[reeman] has held the office of School Director, and is at present Township Trustee. In politics he is a Republican. He and his excellent wife are members of the Christian Church. Their children have been carefully trained and well educated, and are following in the footsteps of their honored parents, being useful in the community, and filling their various stations in life with credit and honor. Their names will be found elsewhere in this work."

HEALTH_HISTORY-DEATH:

Around 1880, Melissa Stevens became ill with tuberculosis. It took several difficult months for death to knock at the door. Neighbor women helped care for the herd of small urchins, and one ten year old girl is reputed to have lived with the Stevens for a few months to help. We are not certain when Melissa died. Her headstone reads 1884, but William remarried in 1882, so I believe that Melissa died in 1881. Buried with her is Isaac, who died shortly after William's remarriage. Family tradition says he died of neglect.

William, Reuben and Jesse and then a sister, Mary Ann. Her mother died in 1844/1845, 12 years after her marriage to John. It did not take long for Melissa to have a stepmother, Lucinda, the younger sister of her mother, Margaret.

William Stevens arrived in Appanoose Co., IA in January of 1860. War clouds were rolling, but that did not deter him from buying land nor from courting, Melissa, John C. Wright's beautiful daughter. They were married on 16 Jun 1861 at Appanoose Co., IA. William already had one child, William, Jr. who had reached his 12th birthday.

It was two years before the first child of William and Melissa arrived. Issac Stevens is reported to have been born in 1863, by the 1870 Missouri Federal Census. However, family tradition says, very strongly, that he was a stepson of Melissa's, besides William, Jr. Isaac had no use of his legs, so his brothers carried him on their backs during later years.

Sherman Stevens arrived in 1865, with Grant arriving in 1867. In the middle of 1869, with Melissa expecting, the family traveled to Henry County, MO. There Charles (Charlie) was born in October 1869. Melissa had two more energetic sons, John in 1872 and William in 1875.

Melissa's husband ran a small sawmill. Considering that he regularly needed new timber, it is assumed that the move from Appanoose County brought him to new cutting. It is assumed that it didn't pay well enough, in that he gave up the farm after Melissa died in 1881.

His third wife was Unity Jarvis. This marriage seemed ill-fated and he died in 1891, alone in an abandoned cabin on the Grand River.

Melissa contacted tuberculois, perhaps as early as 1878. Tradition says that community women helped nurse her and to care for the small band of Stevens boys. Melissa died in 1881 in Henry Co., MO and was buried in the Norris Cemetery. (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. II, p. 432, written by Charles T. (Tom) Stevens - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

Melissa Wright and William Stevens were married on 16 Jun 1861 in Appanoose Co., IA. William Stevens was born in 1819 in Monroe Co., OH. He died in 1891 at the age of 72 in Grand River, Henry Co., MO. He was buried in 1891 in Henry Co., MO, Norris Cemetery. William Stevens

COMMENT: Apparently William Stevens was married twice. The name of his first wife is unknown. They had at least one son, William Jr., b. Abt. 1849, d. between 1870/1875. William, Jr. married in 1869 to Eliza, age 24, and had one child, Rose Marie. [Note: No source citation. REH] (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. II, p. 431 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

RESEARCHER-RELATIONSHIP: William Stevens was the great-grandfather of Charles Thomas (Tom) Stevens.

BIOGRAPHY:

William Stevens was born in Monroe County, Ohio, in 1819. Like many, he moved farther west. As a sawyer he had to keep an eye out for fresh, marketable timber. Thus, every few years, he moved. He left behind the land that produced 2500 oil wells and the railroad that became a part of Monroe County.

His first 42 years are obscure, including his first marriage, which was probably in Monroe County. But we have no record of that since the Courthouse burned so regularly.

He next appears near Centerville, [Appanoose Co.], Iowa in January 1860.

In 1860 when William Stevens came to Appanoose County, Iowa he had 10 year old William Jr. with him. There may have been older children, but we are currently not certain. [Note: Robert Guilinger reports that there was an older daughter named, Rachel, age 14, listed in the 1860 census of Sharon Twp., Appanoose Co., IA.]

William soon met a dark-haired, dark-eyed beauty named Melissa Wright, who became his second wife in August 1861. She also had been born in Monroe County, Ohio, in 1834.

Family tradition says that William also had with him a younger son, Isaac, who died in 1882/1883 and was crippled and unable to walk. The Federal Census of Missouri in 1870 and 1880 lists him as the first child of Melissa and William.

William's marriage to Melissa, a vivacious lass, brought five sons about whom we have no doubt: Sherman, Grant, Charlie, John and William. As was the custom in those days, William the younger, had the name of his older half-brother, William Jr., who had died sometime between 1870 and 1875 of reasons unknown, leaving a widow and one daughter.

In 1882 William gave up the farm, which he tried to buy with borrowed money. It did not work. In 1882 her also married a third time a woman named, Unity.

His family being torn asunder, his new wife, Unity [Jarvis], wanted the Stevens boys out of the house to make room for her own five children from a previous marriage.

The five younger Stevens told tales of their lives on the ranch of Preston Blevins nearby, then as employees of Charlie Gains on another larger ranch about five miles south of their homestead.

The last few years for William were sad, with failed business, twice widowed (we think) and a very poor choice for a third wife. He was found dead in an abandoned cabin on the Grand River in 1891. He is buried with Melissa [at Henry Co., MO.]

All his five younger sons lived into their eighties, each married only once. They were stalwart, hard-working citizens, loving to play pitch with each other, fiercely competitive.

CEMETERY: According to Tom Stevens, William and Melissa share a stone with their son, Isaac, in the Norris Cemetery, halfway between Clinton and Urich, MO and 2 miles north of Hartwell, Henry Co., MO.

[Note: A review of the map of Henry Co., MO reveals that it would be very difficult to be halfway between Clinton and Urich and 2 miles north of Hartwell. REH]

William Stevens and Melissa Wright had the following children:

- i. Isaac Stevens was born in 1863 in Appanoose Co., IA. He died between 1882 and 1884 at the age of 19. He was buried between 1882 and 1884 in Henry Co., MO, Norris Cemetery. Isaac Stevens

COMMENT: Family tradition is that Isaac Stevens was the son of William Stevens by a marriage prior to his marriage to Melissa Wright. Researcher, Tom Stevens states he doesn't accept this information and Robert Guilinger is in agreement. Robert Guilinger writes, "William Stevens was a widower in the 1860 census. He married Melissa Wright in 16 Jun 1861 and Isaac Stevens was born sometime in 1863."

RECOLLECTIONS: Isaac Stevens was not ambulatory due to what must have been polio. He is reported to have been excellent with rugs and chair caning. It is said that he died Abt. 1884 due to the neglect of the 3rd wife of his father, William Stevens.

OBITUARY: William Wright

The following obituary of William Wright appeared in the Dodge City, (Kan.) Daily Globe, and as Mr. Wright was formerly a resident of Appanoose county [IA], and had many friends here, it is published in this paper. Mr. Wright was a brother of I.M. Wright, formerly of Centerville, but not residing near Moulton.

William Wright ws born May 11, 1826, in Ohio, and was married on June 11, 1857, to Martha Lewis. To this union was born six children, Louisa Wright, now deceased, J.L. Wright, and J.M. Wright, of Dodge City, Margaret Wright Bybee, of Chanute, Mary Wright McPherson, of Golden City, Mo., and J.C. Wright of Ensign, Kan. On March 28, 1871 the mother and wife passed to the Great Beyond.

William Wright, early in life united with the Methodist church and followed its teachings in a Christian life, a loving father and husband and a true friend. In 1785 [sic, 1875], Mr. Wright was united in marriage to Sophia Windland and to them was born four children: Isabelle Wright Gill, of Kansas City, Alice Wright Warren, of Savonburg, Allen county, Kan., Clay Wright, of Kansas City, and Sarah Ellen Wright, who died on February 19, 1887. Mrs. Sophia Wright preceded her husband on Janaury 9, 1885. In recent years the aged father has made his home with members of this family.

In addition to the eight children who survive, Mr. Wright leaves thirty grandchildren, one sister and two brothers, who are: Mrs. J.B. McGrew, of Blackwell, Okla., who was present at the funeral services here yesterday, I.M. Wright, of Centerville, Iowa, and Milton Wright, of Evening Shade, Ark.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W.E. Rose, of the Methodist church and interment was in Maple Grove Cemetery at Dodge City, Kansas. (Source: undated and unnamed paper of Appanoose Co., IA, first published in the Daily Globe of Dodge City, KS - furnished by Paul Patterson)

William M. Wright and Martha Ann Lewis were married about 6 Jun 1857 in Appanoose Co., IA. Martha Ann Lewis was born on 18 Jan 1839 in Indiana. She died on 28 Mar 1871 at the age of 32 in Appanoose Co., IA. She was buried in Apr 1871 in Appanoose Co., IA, Brannon Cemetery. Martha Ann Lewis Problem: Was the date of death, Abt. 1875 or as listed by Tom Stevens, 28 Mar 1871?

CONFLICT-CEMETERY: Some say she was buried at the Wright Cemetery. Duane L. Jones thinks that the cemetery is Brannon Cemetery. He writes, From the book, Appanoose Co., IA Cemeteries of Sharon Township that I found at the courthouse, there is a picture of the tombstone of, Martha A., wife of William Wright, with the death date of March 28, 1871, age 32y, 2m, 10d. Another picture on the same page #1 is that of J. Wright's tombstone, stating that he died July 14, 1890, age 79y, 1m, 28d.

RECOLLECTIONS: Abraham Conger (1836-1905) and "Frank" The War Horse (1860-1886)

Everyone has read at least one story about a man's devotion to his dog but this is a true story about a man's devotion to his horse.

Abraham Conger was born in Seneca County, Ohio on 21 Jul 1836, the son of John Baker Conger (b. 1805) and Beulah Carson. He grew up in Ohio and at the time of the Civil War was a Saddler, one who makes, repairs, or sells saddles for horses.

Abe, as he was known, enlisted on 8 November 1863 at Bucyrus, Ohio in Company A of the 12th Ohio Volunteer Cavalry as a Corporal/Saddler. He was then assigned a three-year old horse named "Frank" as his Cavalry mount. The 12th O.V.C. served under General William T. Sherman throughout most of the Civil War, including the famous March to the Sea in Georgia. Abe and Frank were also under the command of General George Stoneman in the campaign that fought behind enemy lines. You might say that Abe's life literally depended on Frank getting him back safely to the Union lines on several different occasions.

Abe was promoted to Sgt. in 1864 and both Abe and Frank survived their war service without any wounds. Abraham Conger was discharged with his unit, at Nashville, TN on 14 Nov 1865. Abe was then offered the opportunity to purchase his mount, which he did. He took Frank back to a farm he owned in Eden Twp., Wyandot Co., Ohio. Abe and Frank lived alone on the farm until Abe married Elizabeth Brintlinger on 21 Dec 1871 at Columbus, Franklin Co., OH. Three children (Ulysses Grant on 12 Oct 1872, Lettie Leora on 14 Sep 1875 and John Curtis on 19 Dec 1877) were born to Abe and Elizabeth while they lived at Nevada, Wyandot Co., OH.

Certainly the children looked on Frank as a member of the family while growing up. Abe Conger took care of Frank for over 20 years, until the horse died in 1886. Abe, with the help of some of his Civil War friends, buried Frank on a farm in adjacent Crawford County, Ohio and erected a monument to Frank's war service. After 112 years this mounument is in need of restoration.

It is rather ironic that shortly after Frank's death Abe's health began to fail and he was forced to sell his farm and move to the small community of Lewis Center, in Delaware County, Ohio

Abraham Conger received a pension in 1890 for his Civil War service. He died at Lewis Center, Ohio on 31 May 1905.

MILITARY: William Conger was with Co., F, 8th Iowa Vol. Inf. from 1861 to 1865, and he wrote to his wife Mahala from Army Training Camp in 1861. He spoke of the Short Term Bonus $500.00 and short enlistment expected. About five months later his son, John Thomas, was born. William was badly wounded at the Battle of Shiloh. He wrote home about this battle saying afterwards a man could hardly walk without stepping on the dead; the Tennessee River was running red with spilled blood.

William was discharged after that but re-enlisted in the Army and was wounded again, resulting in a withered arm. He never returned home. It is believed that he did not want to be a burden to his family so he disappeared from his home and friends. About eight years after his death the family learned he had died of cancer of the stomach, somewhere in Michigan.

DEATH-HEALTH_HISTORY: Had a drinking problem and died of cirrhois of the liver

RECOLLECTIONS:

Charles William Drew first married his first cousin, Margaret [Maggie] Bolin, on 4 Feb 1882, after she became pregnant by him. At that time in our history young men who impregnated young ladies were forced to marry them at what was called a shotgun wedding. The shotgun was held on the back of the groom by the father of the bride. I have even heard of reluctant brides, but that didn't make any difference in those days, as it was awful to have a child born out of wedlock. I don't know if Charley loved Maggie. I have nothing passed down to me that would say either way.

Maggie was the daughter of Maletha's [(Bolin) Drew] brother, William Bolin and Jane Fulton. Maggie died 11 Jan 1886. She left two children. The older one, William, b. 10 Aug 1882, died in 1891, and the younger one, Clarence, born 28 Dec 1883, died in 1922, never married.

Sarah Jane Conger, of Oskaloosa in Clay Co., IL, along with 2 girl friends, had come to Moultrie county, [IL] in early 1887 looking for work. Sarah found work as a housekeeper with Charlie's brother, James, who lived a quarter mile north in Section 29 on the place called, the Grace Dolan farm in the 1978 plat map of Jonathan Creek Township. James and his wife, Susan, decided Charley needed a wife and mother for his two sons more than they needed a housekeeper and talked up a marriage between Charlie and Sarah. They were married on 11 Sep 1887.

Sarah was born in Knox Co., IN and her parents brought her and her brother, James, and sister, Harriet, to Clay county, Illinois in the spring of 1838. Sarah's father was Richard Conger, b. 4 Oct 1833, in Knox Co., IN. Her mother was Martha Davenport, born 19 June 1840 in Kentucky. They were married 14 Mar 1858 in Knox Co., IN.

Richard Conger died, 23 Mar 1893, in Mason City, IL where they had moved and he was employed at a flour mill there. He is buried there. Martha died at her daughter Sarah's house in Section 32 of Jonathan Creek Twp. on 23 Mar 1923. She had outlived all her other children. She was the 6th person to die at the above farm and is buried at Oskaloosa Cemetery.

The Richard Conger family lived in several Clay county [IL] places. One of them was near Farina and Sarah worked a summer or two in strawberry patches near there. Sarah trailed her brother, Jim, around like a shadow and by doing this learned to hunt and fish at an early age. One time, so the story goes, she spent some time in a tree ... in the Little Wabash Valley. She had taken the family boat out in the high water, when she had been told not to. The boat got going too fast for her and as it passed under a tree limb, she grabbed it and got out of the boat. Her brother, Jim, later rescued her after finding the boat missing.

Charley was a director of Two Mile School (see History of Moultrie County Schools, by Vera Slover, 1976). He served one term as road overseer in District 9 which included the same four sections as the school district (see Acts of Township Fathers).

Charley had a drinking problem and died of cirrhosis of the liver. He was the fourth to die in the house he'd built when he married Maggie. He had owned the ground since 1878. At the time of his death he owned 450 acres.

Sarah continued to live in the house off and on until 1929 and then she and daughter, Ruth, moved to town. Sarah joined the J.C. [does this mean Jonathan Creek] Church in 1907 but the records don't show that Charley was ever a member. He gave money for the building of the new church in 1891 so he surely wasn't all bad.

The family is buried at Jonathan Creek Cemetery just about a quarter mile west of the Bolin Cemetery, which is in Section 34. The J.C. Cemetery is in Section 33.

Sarah's 3rd son and 4th child was Clifford [Drew]. He married Sada M. Crowdson just a few months past her 16th birthday. She became the 5th person to die in the Drew house on 2 May 1913 from a tubal pregnancy.

Clifford went with several girls from then until he remarried. He was thought to be a good catch and several parents introduced him to their daughters and several young ladies tried to catch him. His mother moved across the creek several times into another house they owned during the next few years. Each time Clifford would become engaged she'd move herself and two daughters. When the engagement was broken, she'd come back. The younger one, Cora, married in 1919. Sarah and Ruth, who was physically crippled from birth, moved to Sullivan later.

Clifford and Stella (Beals) Drew lost their first child, Elva Pearl. He was born 28 Jul 1928 and died 16 Apr 1929, the 6th to die at the Drew farm. His obituary states he died of acute bronchitis. He had been named for his mother's youngest brother, Elva Davis Beals, and Pearl was the name of one of Clifford's war buddies.

Clifford had been in the Navy in World War I, 1917-1919, and rose to the rank of Fireman First Class. I once asked him why his buddies were all promoted to petty officer classes and he remained a seaman. His reason was that he had been ashore in hospitals so much suffering from sea sickness. His major campaign was the Removal of the North Sea Mines (see National Geographic magazine of February 1920 for an article on this.).

He served as a director of Two Mile School, where he had also attended, for many years before it was consolidated along with 4 other schools to form Jonathan Creek School.

He inherited the home 80 from his dad and also a large mortgage. He had sent enough money home while in the Navy to pay off this mortgage. His former father-in-law, Pete Crowdson, who had been receiving the money, spent it for his own expenses. Clifford ended up paying the mortgage twice, finishing in 1939.

RECOLLECTIONS: Joseph Clyde Conger, b. 1914 writes:

"I remember my grandmother most because she was such a remarkable woman. Deeply religious, active, alive and very alert even to the end. She and my grandfather raised a wonderful family of their own and then borrowed some from the orphan's home to raise.

"I'm sure they had little of earthly value but a lot of the spiritual things.

"As an example of grandmother's love of life, she suffered broken limbs at an advanced age and healed completely. Later she became addicted with the 'tic della rue' and the intense pain could be relieved only with opiates. When she realized that she was in danger of becoming a drug addict she arranged for this then dangerous operation in which the trigeminal nerve was severed inside the skull. Of course this paralyzed the side of her face but relieved the pain and she became normal again.

"As kids, my sister, Sue, and I were never so happy as when we planned a visit to grandma or Aunt Susie and Uncle Ben. These were our favorites, but we loved them all

OBITUARY:

October 29, 1948, marked the closing of the life of Mrs. Martha Jane Conger Fritts, who was born in Arkansas on April 17, 1854. In early childhood her family journeyed to Crittenden county, Kentucky. In those days travelling was slow and her father and brother died on the way.

Aunt Jane, as she was familiarly known by her neighbors, united with the Crooked Creek Baptist Church in 1871, which made 77 years of service.

During her active life she was faithful to her church and modest and unassuming in methods of living and worship. Her black bonnets that she invariably wore to church were symbols of meekness.

She was married on November 1877, to Phillip Fritts, who died in 1896. To this union were born two children: Mrs. Lillie Paris, of Repton and O.W. Fritts, of Crooked Creek Community, with whom she lived. She is also survived by 5 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Fritts lived 94 years, 6 months, and 12 days. Then the cloak of life was folded and she went out to meet her Maker."

OCCUPATION: Wheelwright, carpenter, construction superintendent

NAME-CONFLICT: John Brackston Conger, CFA I, p. 248

RECOLLECTIONS: John Braxton Conger's son, Douglas wrote:

"John B. [Conger] remembers living in Tennessee, although his family left there when he was six. They lived in a log cabin which did not have glass windows and [he] can remember the river boats going up and down with cargo. The reason for going to Texas was because an uncle, Isaac Ross, was there and painted a picture of greener pastures. Isaac Ross had a brother-in-law there before him and he went for the same reason. This change of location took place in 1888. Wiley landed there with 50 cents in his pocket.

"In 1907, John B. and wife, Estella, went to New Mexico. The reason for going was because the state opened up for homestead. They took out a homestead and proved up on it. The first year corn did well; the second year the corn was about two feet high and received about a foot of snow -- that was all for the corn. Estella held down the homestead while John worked as a carpenter in Tucumcari and came home for weekends. The population of Tucumcari was approximately 3,000 with six or seven grocery stores and twenty-eight saloons. There was quite a lot of shooting, as there was a big boom due to the homestead influx.

"The next move was to Oklahoma, which took place in 1908. The next important move was to Merced Falls, California, in 1935, where he worked for Yosemite Sugar Pine Lumber Co.

"Today, at 87 years he has remarkably good health and has never had any serious illness."

One 20 Oct 1969, Douglas [Conger] wrote: "My father is a character. My mother died Jan. 5th, 1969 and father keeps his own house, does his cooking and washing and rides his three-wheel bicycle all over town to do his shopping and visiting. He has excellent health and will live to a hundred if he does not get rear-ended on the bicycle."

John Braxton Conger's formula for longevity: "Just keep on breathin'."

OCCUPATION: Vice President of American National Bank and Trust Company of Chattanooga, TN. CFA I, p. 36a

RESIDENCES: 1201 N. Joiner Road; Chattanooga, TN 37421

BIOGRAPHY: Excerpts from "The Chattanooga Times," 25 May 1965

Dixie Lamar Conger was born in the true Southern tradition. Before the days of hospital births, he was born in the same room, in the same house, as his father and his grandfather. His grandfather and his father were both born in that room and died in it. Dixie was born Jan. 25, 1910. His grandfather, Sion M. Conger, was born on the same day, a hundred years earlier. [Note: The information about place of birth of the father and grandfather and about grandfather and grandson being born on the same date, doesn't agree with information supplied for these two gentleman in the CFAs. REH]

Dixie's father was a farmer and banker, president of the bank of Fayetteville. He had one of the first automobiles in the town and he drove it regularly to work. Although Dixie had farm chores to do, he rode into town every Saturday with his father to see movies and enjoy the social life of the town. One day, with a dime store cap pistol he held up the bank, demanding a nickel from every employee. His father took a dim view of the prank and sent him home, still wearing his cowboy suit.

Dixie attended a big three room public school, which was built of limestone donated from a quarry on his father's farm. It was one of the first schools to offer free transportation to students. A colored man driving two mules hitched to a wagon picked up the children every day.

Later, Dixie went to Lincoln County High where he became class orator and was graduated in 1928. He then enrolled in the University of Tennessee but in 1931, during the Depression, he was forced to drop out for lack of money. He later finished his fourth year of college in the evening school of New York University. At UT he was a member of Phi Kappa Sigma social fraternity and Delta Pi, an honorary school of business fraternity.

Although during his high school years his father let him drive the family Overland, which he used to roam all over the county, he still had farm chores to perform and helped build some five miles of stone fencing around the farm.

Because his grandfather had to stand good for some notes of friends, much of the land had to be sold, and only about a thousand acres remains. But the fence, plus two stone barns, built from the farm quarry, "will last for a thousand years," Dixie says. Some of the stones in the barns are 15 inches wide and 17 feet long he recalls.

His memories of the University of Tennessee are highlighted by one fact that as a freshman he "was the smallest boy on campus," weighing only 85 pounds. But the next year he suddenly grew up. He also recalls that he got arrested for soaping streetcar tracks in Knoxville while at UT.

Dixie majored in agriculture at UT, where the late Dr. H.A. Morgan was department head. He later became chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority. Dixie says his father and Dr. Morgan were good friends, and that the TVA dream was hatched on the front porch of his home in Fayetteville.

Dixie had always expected to follow his father into the field of banking and after he left UT he joined a securities firm in Nashville which has since become the First American Bank. Two years later, in 1933, the firm transferred him to its branch in Knoxville. Suddenly, during an outing to Mammoth Cave in Kentucky, Dixie became dissatisfied with things and on an impulse went to New York City.

There he walked into the offices of Standard Statistics (later to become Standard and Poor) and got a job immediately. The president turned out to be a man from Fayetteville. Dixie's trip and subsequent hiring was so impulsive he had to come home and get his clothes.

His first job was to analyze the credit of the state of Maine, and he made recommendations which the state adopted. Later he was assigned an account which turned out to be Mary Pickford's. Still later he established the municipal bond department for what is now Chase Manhattan Bank, and a program which is still used as a yardstick for bond sales of small cities and towns.

He wanted to come home and when, in 1939, he heard of an opening here at Volunteer State Life Insurance Co., he applied and was accepted. He stayed there until 1943, when he joined American National Bank and Trust Company. In 1952, he was promoted to his present post of assistant vice president.

A a party in New York City he met Florence [sic] Hoyt of Des Moines, Iowa. She was working as a secretary to the Campfire Girls of America. Her father was an Iowa banker and state treasurer.

He and Eleanor were married about a year and a half later, in the Lincoln Chapel of New York Avenue Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C. purely on impulse. Neither of them had been in the church before: they just agreed to meet there to get married. They are members now of St. Martin's Episcopal Church, where Dixie served as a warden last year.

They live on a small farm, which is Dixie's hobby now, plus working around the house and raising peacocks. The expensive birds ($35.00 a pair) tend to roam and Dixie has a little trouble keeping them home.

Dixie is fascinated by his job, which involves the buying and selling of bonds for the bank, for customers and for correspondent banks. He estimated he has bought and sold more than $1 billion in securities since he has been with American, and he makes investments ranging from $25.00 government savings bonds to a million or more for customers. Except for the hometown insurance companies, Dixie probably buys 75 per cent of municipal bonds bought in Chattanooga in a year's time.

RECOLLECTIONS:

According to niece, Minnie Ethel Conger Rees, still residing at Roseville, CA, in 1970, age 86. Thomas, Enos and Mark went to Oregon in 1856. Thomas died in 1858 and was buried in the Sacramento Valley, after which Enos and Mark returned to Centerville. She remembered her Uncle Enos telling how they had gone to Rosevill by train. They camped awhile on the Roseville Dry Creek and then bought horses and wagons and drove to Talent, Oregon. Talent existed before Medford.

Mark and his family returned to Oregon in 1875. Benoni became a prosperous farmer around Blockton and Mt. Ayer, Iowa. John survived the Civil War unharmed and settled near Exline, Iowa; William was lost in the battle of Shiloh; no record of Robinson. Elias tried Kansas for a few years but returned to Iowa; Enos evidently went back to Oregon, for his son, Hemmerly, became a mortician at Medford; Martha went to Kansa in 1880 and had children: Al, Maime and Roxie Crow; Samuel remained in Centerville, Iowa. ## OBITUARY:

"We are again called to note the departure from this life one of the pioneer and citizens of this community. Charles Powell has spent nearly a half -century in this community, and was respected by all the people who knew him, and was especially regarded by pioneer families with whom he lived and neighbored in the early days. He was known as an honest, industrious man, whose deep interest in the welfare of his family and neighbors were marked features of the long years of his life.

Charles Powell was born in Carroll County, Missouri, April 7, 1858 and passed peacefully away at his home southeast of Mason City Friday, August 29, 1930, at the age of 72 years, 4 months and 22 days. He was united in marriage to Rebecca Riles [sic] at Litchfield, Neb, January 25, 1885 [sic 26]. To this union six children, 4 sons and 2 daughters. Benjamin, Ruth, John, Rose, William and Jesse.

John, Ruth and Benjamin preceded their father to the better world. Besides his wife and sons, William and Jesse and daughter Rose, he leaves to mourn his death one brother, Pete Powell, of Cox City, Oklahoma, and two grandchildren, and other near relatives and a host of friends.

Mr. Powell came to Nebraska in 1883, settling in Sherman county before the railroad reached there and before the town of Litchfield was established. He was a active participant in the early day affairs of this community, assisting the needy and doing his share as a good citizen. After living 37 years in Sherman county he moved to Custer county in 1920, and where he resided when the final summons came. He leaves the heritage of an honest man and a good citizen to the community and to his family the memory of a kind husband and loving, indulgent father.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Litchfield Sunday afternoon, with Rev. H.H. Todd, pastor, in charge, and interment made in the Litchfield cemetery." (Source: unknown, may have been The Litchfield Monitor, Litchfield, NE, between 1-10 Sep 1930 - furnished by Joyce Posey)

Jackson Powell, was born in Putnam county, Missouri on October 18, 1861, and departed this life at the Moline hospital in Moline, Ill., Sept. 12, 1946. Age at death, 84 years, 10 months, 24 days.

[Note: There is an error in one of the three pieces of date information listed. The time between 18 Oct 1861 and 12 Sep 1946 is 84 years, 10 months, 25 days. REH]

Mr. Powell lived his entire life here in this county, excepting the last two years when his home was at, 1119 Fifth Avenue, Rock Island, Ill.

He was united in marriage with Miss Alice Probasco of the home community, December 21, 1888. Their home was a happy home for 58 years. Their marriage was blessed with six sons and seven daughters. Two daughters preceded [their] father in death.

In death he is mourned by the devoted wife, Mrs. Alice Powell of Rock Island, Ill.; children: Frank and Guy of Rock Island, Ill.; Charles of Moline; Roy of Phoenix, Arz.; Curtis of Milwaukee and William of Racine; Mrs. Harry Van Vark of Prairie City, Ia.; Mrs. Thomas Strand of Sheridan, Wyo.; Mrs. Carl Johnson of Rock Island; Mrs. Harry Stromdahl of Rockford; Mrs. Ray Couch of Phoenix, Arz.; and Mrs. Henry Paaske of Ago, Iowa; 23 grandchildren; 6 great grandchildren; 3 brothers and 2 sisters all of Unionville, Mo.

He was a member of the Christian congregation at Stringtown. He was sincerely devoted to his church, community and family. He loved his home and his family and was the happiest when they were all home together.

The body was brought to Comstock Funeral Home Friday where funeral services were held Sunday, September 15 at 2 p.m., conducted by a former Putnam county minister, J.D. Noland.

The name of Jackson Powell will be remembered in the Stringtown community for many years to come.

The beautiful floral display spoke volumes of love for their father and husband. Everything was so arranged that it made a beautiful setting for the service. Mrs. Arthur Comstock at the piano, Mrs. Willie Pittmna and J.N. Comstock sang three very appropriate songs. Six young men of his former neighbors families were pall bearers. The body was kindly laid to rest in the Unionville Cemetery.

OBITUARY:

"We are again called to note the departure from this life one of the pioneer and citizens of this community. Charles Powell has spent nearly a half -century in this community, and was respected by all the people who knew him, and was especially regarded by pioneer families with whom he lived and neighbored in the early days. He was known as an honest, industrious man, whose deep interest in the welfare of his family and neighbors were marked features of the long years of his life.

Charles Powell was born in Carroll County, Missouri, April 7, 1858 and passed peacefully away at his home southeast of Mason City Friday, August 29, 1930, at the age of 72 years, 4 months and 22 days. He was united in marriage to Rebecca Riles [sic] at Litchfield, Neb, January 25,1885 [sic 26]. To this union six children, 4 sons and 2 daughters. Benjamin, Ruth, John, Rose, William and Jesse.

John, Ruth and Benjamin preceeded their father to the better world. Besides his wife and sons, William and Jesse and daughter Rose, he leaves to mourn his death one brother, Pete Powell, of Cox City, Oklahoma, and two grandchildren, and other near relatives and a host of friends.

Mr. Powell came to Nebraska in 1883, settling in Sherman county before the railroad reached there and before the town of Litchfield was established. He was a active participant in the early day affairs of this community, assisting the needy and doing his share as a good citizen, After living 37 years in Sherman county he moved to Custer county in 1920, and where he resided when the final summons came. He leaves the heritage of an honest man and a good citizen to the community and to his family the memory of a kind husband and loving, indulgent father.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Litchfield Sunday afternoon, with Rev. H.H. Todd, pastor, in charge, and interment made in the Litchfield cemetery." (Source: unknown, may have been The Litchfield Monitor, Litchfield, NE, between 1-10 Sep 1930 - furnished by Joyce Posey)

BIOGRAPHY:

"The Plattsmouth Journal tells of a narrow escape Charles Powell had from drowning one day last week. He had been to the Nebraska metropolis and imbibed rather freely of their fire water. Upon setting out late in the afternoon for his home on this side of the Missouri river he settled down in his little row boat and was sound asleep. He drifted down stream and was presently seen to fall overboard. Luckily Emma and Minnie Ault saw his predicament and notified their brother Charles Ault and Malon Richardson. These men started down the river and reached Powell just in time. He was clinging to the side of his boat and was about all in when the men reached him. Powell was in the icy water for nearly an hour."

This couple applied for a license at Glenwood on Friday, but were refused on account of the youthful appearance of the bride and their inability to produce a properly certified "permit from papa". The bride is a daughter of David Jarred, the man operating the saw mill in the Bogart timber north of Glenwood. "Isaac Powell and family are back from Sterling, Colorado."

(Source: Newspaper article - Mills County Tribune, Glenwood, Mills Co., Iowa, Aug 15, 1910 - furnished by Joyce Posey)

RECOLLECTIONS:

In 1913, Isaac Peter Powell and his family migrated to Haxtun, CO by wagon train. He was a farmer and involved in road construction and general labor.

A family story is told of how farming, without proper equipment and irrigation, was very difficult on the arid plains of eastern Colorado. Isaac traded his homestead for a pair of mules so he could get work to make a living to feed his family.

The 1920 census listed them living on Grant Street in Haxtun, CO.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

Later, Isaac obtained road construction work at Lodgepole, Nebraska and the family lived there until 1925. Next, they moved to Ovid, Colorado. Ike, as he was called, and his son's Orson and Gail were employed to do excavation and construction work at the Great Western Sugar Factory, Sugar Hotel and the 1929 project to build a new High School in Ovid. His daughter, Dora Mabel, was one of the first thirteen to graduate from the new High School in 1930.

David Jarred, Ike's father-in-law, was a carpenter in the Ovid area.

The family moved to Denver, CO in 1933.

Ike and Violet's sons, Orson, Gail and Fred enlisted in the U.S. Navy during World War II. They served on various ships in the Pacific. Fred was killed aboard the USN Destroyer Twiggs, LS #159 DD, when the ship was hit by suicide planes while at Okinawa on 16 Jun 1945. Gail wrote to his parents about learning that Fred's ship had been hit over his own ship's radio.

Isaac and Violet bought a piece of land at 2560 West 67th Ave., in Westminster, Adams Co., CO after the war and had a small four room house built. They celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on 4 Jul 1958 with a family picnic at Berkley Park in Denver, CO.

Isaac Powell died on 29 Sep 1960 and he was buried on Saturday, 1 Oct 1960. After his death the family home was sold and Violet went to live with her widowed daughter, Dora Miller. In 1966 she moved to 29 E. Ratcliff, Englewood, CO.

On 14 Mar 1967, while in the yard preparing the flower beds for planting Violet was invited by a neighbor to have lunch. She told the neighbor she would take some yard rubbish to the alley and would be right back. When she did not appear after several minutes the neighbor went to the alley and found her dead of a massive heart attack. She was buried on 18 Mar 1967. Both Isaac and Violet are buried at the Highland Memorial Gardens, Northglenn, Adams Co., CO.

OBITUARY: MA BUCK

The auditoriam was filled last Friday afternoon with citizens who sympathetically paid their respect to Ma Buck in the last sad rites. This truly pioneer woman had made her good offices in life secure. Rev. M.A. Braun officated.

Martha Howard Buck was born May 11, 1870, in Unionville., Mo., and passed away January 10, 1933 at 3:20 at her home, of double pneumonia, being at the time of her death 62 years and 8 months of age.

She converted in early life and united with the Christian Church and lived a consistent Christian life.

When she was 18 years of age she was united in marriage to Richard Wilson, to which one daughter, Dolly, was born, who both preceded her in death.

On April 17, 1896, she was again united in marriage to Aaron Linn, who also preceded her in death. To this union was born four children: Three sons, Bud, of New York City; Roy, of Chippewa Falls, Wis.; Bob, of Toledo, Ohio, and one daughter, Mrs. William Blythe, residing here.

On July 15, 1915, she again united in marriage to John L. Buck, whom she leaves to mourn her loss.

Besides her husband and children, she leaves six grandchildren, two sister's: Mrs. W.T.Spence, of Unionville, Mo.; Mrs. Ves Crewson [sic. Stella Krewson] of Lafayette, Colo., and one brother Will Howard, of Onley Springs, Colo., and a host of friends.

"Ma" Buck was a kind and loving mother and companion. She was loved by all who knew her. No person in the community will be missed more than "Ma" Buck, for she was a mother to everybody.

RECOLLECTIONS: Grandfather Was Active Organizing Methodist Churches Mrs. E.A. Boden, address Cincinnati, [IA], puts a lot of information into this short letter about early day events in Caldwell township, [Appanoose Co., IA]. She says:

My father, William F. Marshall, came to Iowa in 1850 from Ohio. His wife's name was Mary Conger who came in 1846 with her parents, Enos and Jane Strair Conger. The Conger homestead was north of where Exline, [IA] now stands. Mother lived there until she was 17, having been seven years old when they came. At 17 she married William F. Marshall, being married by Rev. James Marshall, his father.

William F. Marshall was the head carpenter to build the Benonia Conger barn, the biggest barn in Appanoose county. They had just got it finished when it was struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

Grandfather Rev. James Marshall's wife's name, Mary Wiggins, came from Ohio and organized the M.E. church at the Beard school house when the school house was a log building. He was the first preacher and superintendent of the Sabbath school.

Beard school house was named for Elisha Beard.

Grandfather Marshall organized the church at Zoar and was the first preacher. Their superintendent was one of the two old men who prayed for a preacher to be sent to them and said that he was a direct answer to their prayer. The assistant was the other man.

Grandfather was the first blacksmith in Caldwell township. His shop was located 1 1/2 mile north of the Missouri line, 3/4 [appeared as 3-4 in the original article] mile east of the Pleasant township line.

T.B. Maring was the first postmaster in Caldwell township. The post office was located 1/4 mile east of the north and south road south of Exline. Exline was not there, and on the south side of road going east. (Evidently it was later moved farther north.) The P.O. was named Caldwell. Caldwell township was named for Michael Caldwell.

The Fisher mill was destroyed when Shoal creek was the highest it ever was. The mill was located 1/2 mile west from grandfather's shop.

I was born and lived until I was 17 years old, 1/4 mile west of this mill in Pleasant township.

We should remember we owe every blessing to our Heavenly Father and those pioneers. (Source: Early Pioneer Stories, p. 37, published by Appanoose County, Iowa Genealogical Society - furnished by Joyce Posey)

BIOGRAPHY: Charles S. Conger

Charles S. Conger is a worthy representative of one of the earliest pioneer families of Appanoose county, [Iowa] and is well known in this section, where he was born. His popularity is due to definite attainment in agricultural pursuits and in the field of public life and his success and prominence have rewarded an active, useful and honorable business career filled with hard work and persevering labor.

He was born on the farm which he now operates and which he calls the "Hillside Stock Farm, August 8, 1862, and is the son of Elias Conger, a native of Ohio.

The grandfather of this review, Enos Conger found the family in Iowa, moving to this state in the early period of its pioneer development and making a definite location in Appanoose county when the father of our subject was still a child. About the year 1844 he preempted land in this section of the state, upon the present site of the town of Exline, [IA], which is now a thriving and prosperous village.

Enos Conger later left his original tract and located upon the farm now owned by his grandson, this property having therefore been in possession of the family for three generations. The grandfather (Enos) owned two hundred acres which was all raw land when it came into his possession. He broke the soil and made substantial improvements and in the work of development was aided by his son, Elias, who was reared upon the farm and who after the death of his father continued its operation.

At the outbreak of the Civil War Elias enlisted in the 18th Iowa Volunteer Cavalry and served three years and six months in the Federal Army. He received his honorable discharge and returned home, where he remained a short time, later going to the Pacific coast. His wife, Miss Jane Ireland, was also a representative of a well known pioneer family. She died in 1868 and afterward Elias Conger went to Washington, where he engaged in the timber business, and later removed to Texas.

Charles S. "Seigel" Conger remained at home until after the death of his mother, when he was bound out (age 6) to a Mr. Tibler, a farmer of Putnam county, Missouri, from whom he received kind treatment and where he found a good home, and a quiet but strong affection sprang up between master and employee. After serving his time Mr. Conger remained on the farm which he operated, carrying forward the work of improvement and caring for Mr. Tibler in his old age. He thus grew familiar with the details of practical farming.

Later he purchased the farm and operated it for a number of years, disposing of it in 1886. He left Missouri and returned to Appanoose county, where he purchased 80 acres of the old homestead, which he began to farm and further improve. He is now the owner of 240 acres, all fenced, drained and developed, and most of which is under cultivation. He first erected a fine residence and later a good barn. He has excellent outbuildings and has a number of acres of orchard. He has made a speciality of raising and feeding stock and sometimes ships his animals direct to the markets. A man of quiet, steady industry, sound judgement and conservative business methods, he has advanced step by step from poverty to wealth and from humble position to one of prominence, being ranked today among the men who establish and promote agricultural standards in this part of the state.

Mr. Conger married in Putnam county, Missouri, December 15, 1884 [sic 21 Dec 1884;], Miss Betty Speak and they became the parents of six sons, of whom Roy N. met death by accident in 1911, when he was 25 years of age. Those who survive are: Finis T., Ira I., Benoni, Lowell E. and John L.

Mr. Conger gives his political allegiance to the Republican party and has always been a force in community affairs although he has never desired political preferment. In 1910, however, he was elected township trustee of Pleasant township and served as a delegate to numerous county conventions. For years he has been identified with educational work.

PARENTS: Charles Seigel Conger and Betty Speak

DEATH: Roy Conger killed by train

The morning papers give accounts of the death of Roy Conger, of Cincinnati, Ia., who was rundown by a M.& St. L. freight train Fri. night [14 Jun 1912] near Grinnell, [IA] and instantly killed, the body being badly mangled. The papers stated the the supposed identity was established by means of papers found in the young man's clothing. A coroner's inquest did not hold the train crew responsible.

By telephoning Cincinnati today it is learned that the young man's father received a message last night from Grinnell in regard to his son and left for that place, and later the report of his death came. The mother is prostrate over the shocking news.

Roy was 22 or 23 years of age and a very good young man. Sometime ago a strange circumstance which came into his life seem to greatly affect him. He became very much interested in religious work. He left recently for Oakaloosa to attend a Holiness meeting and was supposed to be walking back this way and distributing tracts, of which he carried a number when he met his death.

Mrs. Conger, the mother, had a stroke of paralysis several years ago and it is feared that the sad occurrence will prove a serious shock and the many friends and acquaintances of the family are greatly sorrowed. Roy had several brothers. --- Centerville, Ia., Citizen.

RECOLLECTIONS: L. Keith Conger, son of Charles Marion Conger, of Cincinnati, IA wrote to Maxine Leonard on 20 Nov 1973.

I have a picture of my grandpa, Enos [Conger] and his wife. I have a cane handed down, that Enos made. I have visited his grave many times. He lies in a little cemetery south of Cincinnati, [IA].

My father, Charles M., was born in a log cabin east of Cincinnati in 1887. He is still living. When he was a boy his dad used to pack up the family in a covered wagon and go to the Indian Territory out in Oklahoma. They made several such trips and would work in the hay fields of the cattle ranches nearby. What adventures he and his three brothers, Jesse, Pearl and Frank would have.

They hunted and fished with the Indian boys, rode ponies, swam and 'rassled Indian style. All this was passed on to my brother and myself on long winter evenings as we watched the flickering flames of fire.

My dad would also play the harmonica for us and could play the organ too. His favorite tune was, "The Oklahoma Sunset Waltz." I will never forget it if I live to be thousand years old.

I own and live on a 200 acre farm south of Exline, [IA]. This farm has been in the family (both sides of the house) for almost 100 years. Eighty acres of it was purchased from an heir to the Jospeh Leonard (who married Margaret Conger) estate.

We are members of the Exline Christian Church which was established in a hayloft in a barn on the John Conger farm in 1852. John was brother to Enos and used the barn as an underground railway station for the slaves in pre-civil war days.

I have always been proud of and claimed a relationship to all Congers, and am so pleased to have this excellent book to verify it.

BIOGRAPHY: Cincnnati's 'Golden Poet' says piano got him started, by Marlys Thomas, Staff Writer

To make a long story short - his "Doc Sturdivant" piano made him a poet.

L. Keith Conger of rural Cincinnati, [IA] is an award-winning poet. This month he was notified by the World of Poetry's Board of Directors that his poem, "Ode To A Cookbook," had earned him the Golden Poet Award, the highest honor that World of Poety bestows on a poet.

What makes "Ode to a Cookbook" an award-winning poem?" Conger was asked. "People relate to it all over the country," he said of his humorous poem about the tribulations of eating. "People are mainly well=fed and they ride instead of walk, so they can relate to it."

Conger, who owns and operates a 200-acre century family farm south of Exline, [IA], says he began writing poety about three years ago. How he got started writing poetry has to do with his piano.

"I play the piano," Conger says, "and I read music. I sang for five years at the Golden Age Care Center, so I know my rhythm and my meter."

Conger claims to be a self-taught pianist. "I've been playing the piano since 1944," he says of the year he acquired his "Doc Sturdivant" piano, which still sits in his home. "My brother-in-law, Ford Kerby, bought it for me at an auction sale that year, because I couldn't afford it myself," Conger says of the piano, for which a price of $38 was paid. "I paid it off by working for him and vulcanizing tires at his garage. I earned $1 for each tire I finished, so I vulcanized 38 tires to pay off my piano."

Then Conger has to laugh about what his brother[-in-law] didn't tell him till later. "He told me years later that every one of those tires blew out," Conger said.

"But I still have that piano," he informs. "I wouldn't part with it for the world."

Using his self-taught piano skills and reading lots of music, Conger realized that he could also become a self-taught poet, because in reality all songs are just poems put into music.

"I like to write lyrical poems and ..."

Ode To A Cookbook L.K. Conger

For those of us who love to eat
This little book cannot be beat
For just plain food or gourmet treat
It is superb

But if its pages much we use
And then to stoop and tie our shoes
We huff and puff and weeze and wooze
Alas, alack - our handsome figure
Is gonna get big and big and bigger

Dare we refooze

We stand afore a glass reflective
And stare aghast with grim perspective
"This can't be us - it is defective"
O woe is we

And so to work with pan and pot
To fix it cold or fix it hot
Proceed along with some redoubt
To serve it up or throw it out
It is elective

RECOLLECTIONS:

In a 6 Jul 1996 letter, Keith Conger wrote: "Sigel" [son of Elias Gregory and Margaret Conger] got the home farm that Enos and Mary Jane had. Enos and Mary Jane were well to do farmers, indeed. They had a 320 acre farm just west of me and sold it to Sigel. I knew Sigel, of course, and he was extremely well-to-do. My dad was born in a log cabin on that farm in 1887.

I have a 200 acre farm. My folks sold it to me in 1964. I am the 3rd generation to own it and it has long been a century farm. I don't grow crops anymore and hire the hay baled. I run a small herd of hereford cattle. I have arthritis and walk slowly, but I keep on top of things, keep the fences in repair and of course can do tractor repair. I have 3.

I will be 72 in August. I am not the man I used to be. I weigh 225, stand 5'10", neither booze or smoke. This forenoon I climbed 2/3 up a sheet metal roof on a high barn and nailed down a loose sheet, so I can still do a few things. I nailed that roofing on in Oct. of 1950, with help of course, from my Dad and brother Charles.

Charles (Chuck) is a preacher at the Christian Church at Green Top, MO. He owns and lives on a 430 acre farm north of Blakesburg, Iowa.

[Note: A "century farm" must be in the same family name for 3 or more generations. Enos Conger, b. 1814, gave or sold Joseph Wallace Conger the land. Siegel Conger probably got the portion where the old homestead was located. Joyce Posey] (Furnished by Joyce Posey)

HOBBIES: The Pony Express by L.K. Conger

In the mighty far-flung regions of the old romantic west
A problem was increasing and becoming distress
To achieve communication cross the mountainous desert sand
So to make of us a nation that we may united stand

Then a young man had a vision to earn immortal fame
The year was 1860 -

William Russell was his name A series of pony riders to quickly move the mail Across the wide expanses through summer heat and winter gale

One hundred ninety stations were set up along the trail Five hundred ponies and 80 riders - utmost mileage to avail From the hills of old St.
Joseph - up along the river Platte Through the passes and the deserts to where Sacramento sat

One of the youthful riders whose memory lingers still Was known as William Cody but folks just called him Bill In Western lore immortal as he rode o'er plain and hill Into our hearts forever - our beloved Buffalo Bill

For 19 months the Indians chased them o'er the pleasant grassy land
Through the mountains of the Rockies and the burning desert sand For 10 days the mail pouch traveled and only one was lost O'er a mileage of 66 and 1900 and five dollars was the cost

From April 1860 through October 1861 Our daring riders and their ponies earned their place within the sun Then a telegraph line completed - could more swift a message run The last letter was delivered - hail to them a job well done.

HOBBIES: Family Reunion by L. Keith Conger, Nov. 1997, Wright - Riggle
Family Newsletter, Vol. 7

Family reunion once again joyous fellowship is here.
To meet and greet our kith and kin and renew old friendships dear.

To laugh and tease and to recall last time who told the biggest one
Of all the whoppers - his was best took the prize - the dog he won.

At noon hour to line up and eat how everything tastes so good Co/op dining is hard to beat attend everyone we could.

Kids lining up with their parents photographs - this way and thus We take note how so apparent everyone has aged but us.

And then the history to give and make sure that we all know
Of the beginnings - and relive
the merry times long ago.

At last we gather 'round and sing
auld Lang Syne of yesteryear Golden memories - teardrops bring family reunion time is here.

CONFLICT: L. Keith Conger, of Cincinnati, IA wrote to Maxine Leonard on 15 Feb 1974.

There is a picture in the Conger book that is wrongly identified, according to my father and he swears that he knows.

It is the pictured of a so-called, David S. Conger, 1787, who md. Rebecca Sharp. My father says this is his grandpag, Enos Conger, 1814-1903, written about on pg. 164.

My father was about 15 or 16 years old when Enos died. Dad lived in the same house with him and of course knew and remembers him well.

You claim him as your great-great grandfather, and I claim him as mine. I have the same picture, given to me from Uncle Jess [Conger], who got it from Wallace, the son of Enos.

[Note by Maxine Leonard: The picture in question could be mistaken identity, as David 1787 and Enos 1814 were half-brothers. The photo was given to Henry Crowell by Edith Conger Johnson (deceased). Her father was Halleck Gettus Conger, s/o Elias Milton Conger, pictured along with two sisters, Mary Conger Crowell and Rachel Conger Brewington. ### Obituary: B. B. Newman--Obituary

Mr. B. B. Newman, prominent farmer and leader in the Democratic circles in Wetzel County, died at his home in Bebee at 4:50 o'clock Wednesday evening. Mr. Newman had not been in good health for some time and suffered a paralytic stroke on Main Street in New Martinsville about three months ago. He was confined tin the Wetzel County Hospital for a short time and recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home in Proctor District, where for a few days he was able to be up and around. He suffered a relapse a short time ago and had been confined to his home for several days prior to his passing.

A son of James and Sophronia Newman, B. B. Newman was born near Proctor, this county, on May 18, 1854, and had been a resident of Proctor District all his life. He was well known and highly respected throughout the county having been County Engineer for a period of thirty-two years. He was for many years an active member of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and had for the past forty-three years been a devout member of the Christian Church. Mr. Newman was a good man, a leader in those projects designed to benefit his community and county, and by his death Wetzel County suffers a loss which is deeply deplored and will be felt for a long time.

His widow, three sons, William Newman, Joseph Newman, and J. W. Newman all residing near New Martinsville; one daughter, Mrs. Auttie Haudenschildt, of New Martinsville, one sister, Mrs. A. R. McHenry of Wileyville 14 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren all survive.

RECOLLECTIONS: Of Electa Jane Crowell Sutfin

My father, Hiram Crowel, was born in New York. His parents died when he was 9 years old. He went to Dearborn county (Ind.) when a young man and married Mary Conger. They lived there until his death.

David Conger, my mother's father, was born in New Jersey. When about 20 years old he went to Ohio, and there married Rebecca Sharp. (She lists the four boys and six girls.) They lived in Ohio for some time, then moved to Indiana, lived there until the children were all grown. The year 1851, I think it was, they moved to Monroe co. Iowa. My grandmother died of typhoid fever in the fall of the same year they got settled in their new home.

My father died when I was about 17 years old, leaving mother to care for and rear eight children. Mother sold her farm in Indiana about two years after father's death and moved to Monroe county, Iowa. She bought a farm about 10 miles from Albia. We travelled overland from Indiana to Iowa, mother's brother driving the team. The household goods were shipped by railroad.

I will now mention some of the incidents that occurred during my girlhood days. I had relatives in Cincinnati, Ohio and in Madison, Indiana whom I visited often, going by steamboat. Consequently I made many trips up and down the Ohio River.

Our parties and amusements were very different those days than now. We had Apple Peelings, or Apple Cuttings, Quiltings, Corn Shuckings and sometimes play parties. Some farmer and wife would invite the girls for all day or the afternoon to quilt, and the boys at night to shuck corn by moonlight. They would have them pulled and thrown in piles to shuck. They would run races and have so much fun. And my! What good things to eat! The tables would be loaded down with the best of everything.

Many a day I would spin my dozen knots of yarn at the big wheel, go out at night, and never feel tired; would get up the next morning and go at it again. Horse back riding was the way young people would go those days. Some ten or twelve couples would go off together, several miles to a camp meeting or the 'Cathedral' on Easter Sunday to see the special services of the Catholics -- always a great crowd on that day. Sleigh riding was another thing we enjoyed very much. There was usually good sleighing most all winter.

RECOLLECTIONS: Of Electa Jane Crowell Sutfin

I was married Dec. 25, 1855 to John Henderson Sutphin. We had five children. In August 1862 my husband enlisted and went to war. He was gone three years. Co. D. 36th Reg. Iowa Volunteer Infantry. I cannot describe the trouble and sorrow I was called to pass through during that time.

My husband contracted lung disease while in the service, and was very sick for a long time after his return home. Dr. Buck, our home physician, gave him up and said he couldn't get well. He went to Cincinnati, Ohio, to Dr. N.B. Wolf, a specialist for lung diseases, and took his treatment for three months. With the remedies and my persistent care he finally regained quite his normal health.

RECOLLECTIONS: Of Mary Eliza Sutfin Koogler as recorded for her granddaughter, Marietta Jane Burtch Caywood, in Kansas City, MO, in 1936 Father contracted tuberculosis during the war and returned home on a stretcher. At last, in 1870, in an effort to benefit his health, the family decided to move to Denver, Colorado. Father was still ill at the time. I was fourteen years old, but very little, sickly and thin. My brother, James Harlan, was about nine, very thin and small, and John, as a baby of two had pretty curls. Father took his dental books and equipment. He had studied dentistry in Oskeluis (Oskaloosa), Iowa.

Uncle Vic came over and ate supper with us the first of June 1870. At eleven that night we went through the woods in a big old lumber wagon to the little place where we took the train. Father couldn't even walk at that time. At age fourteen I had never been on a train before. The sparks and coals frightened me, and the train made me so 'seasick.'

When we came to Albia, [IA], Uncle Vic left us. There were no Pullman cars. We ferried at Omaha, Neb. and took the Union Pacific westward to Evans, Colorado. A box of books burst open after we got off the train to take the ferry. Mother had to collect them and fix them, as father was so ill and couldn't help. We went fifty miles by stage-coach to Denver. Later we watched the gold spike railroad come into Denver.

The stage-coach had men on top to guard against the Indians. There was a caravan of six coaches -- four horse carriages. The rolling of the coaches made all of us sick. A German girl watched while I got sick, and then she said, "Let me by the window. I just have to wommit," and she did. I was so sick I could hardly hold my head up.

We arrived in Denver at 3 a.m. and stayed first at the American Hotel. The Crossens family made us welcome and we stayed there three or four days while finding a house to rent. We rented a two-story brick house with a little square house in front of it. About 25 foot frontage, and located on Stout Street and about 16th. Indians would often come through the trail to the house. They were Ute Indians, with red blankets and all on horseback. Mother and I would run up to the attic and hide.

Mother bought an adjoining lot, and Father opened his dentist office. We went to the Lawn Street Methodist Church. There we got acquainted. Father and I both joined the Red Cross Society. We were both officers in it.

A stock man from New Mexico, a patient of father's from whose throat he had taken a fish bone, suggested we go to New Mexico. They thought the Hot Springs near Las Vegas might be beneficial to my brother James, who was about fourteen then, and who had a rheumatic heart. While in Denver we had homesteaded a place and built a cute little complete cottage, but we let it go.

In July 1875, we left for Las Vegas, New Mexico. We had three covered wagons, seven horses, one $900 stallion. A little riding pony we had, had to be broken every day. A storm had covered up a narrow plank bridge, but we drove over it anyhow. It rained every day or night of the trip. Trees were often across the road. Often there was no road at all. We had to build it out of the mud. Once we had to take a wheel back 9 miles to get it fixed. Indians would come buying and begging. They talked about my hair and picked it up and handled it. They wanted some of my light curls.

It was September when we arrived in Las Vegas. There were no trees. Green's ranch was the only thing on the East side of the river when we arrived. We could stand in the door and see wagons on the nine-mile hill -- a hill nine miles away. There was nothing to obstruct the view.

Father practiced dentistry and medicine in Las Vegas, and built the Grandview Hotel, the first four-story building in town. It had roses. It was well sodded, and had red flagstone walks.

Actors and actresses stopped at father's Grandview Hotel on the way to the west coast. Lew Wallace (author of "Ben Hur") and his daughter stayed in the hotel for months. Col. Sellers lived there a long time. There were many big parties in the Grandview Hotel Placita.

Problem: Was the middle name, Harlin or Harlan?

RECOLLECTIONS: Of Electa Jane Crowell Sutfin

The year 1870 we moved to Denver, Colo. We had been there only a short time when James (our oldest living son) was taken seriously ill with rheumatism of the heart, and from that time on was afflicted with the disease. We lived in Denver seven years, then went to Hot Springs and Las Vegas, New Mexico, thinking it might help James, but he received very little benefit. He died of Endocarditis at the age of 19.

However, D.G. was most remembered for his "miserly" ways. He bought all household supplies, and never anything that wasn't absolutely necessary. His wife, Molly, hoarded sugar, a spoonful at a time, until she had enough to make a small cake. This she did when he was in the field, for she didn't dare serve him any. His frugal way of living was really for his family, or this would not be mentioned. He sent his youngest son to college to study chemistry, built a home as a wedding present for his second son, and left his homestead to his eldest son, a bachelor, who never did a day's work in his life!

PARENTS: Hiram S. Crowell and Mary Conger

Problem: Was he born in Manchester, Dearborn Co., IN or Lawrenceburg, Dearborn Co., IN? The Ancestral File lists, Lawrenceburg.

BIOGRAPHY:

Wilber Crowell went to Las Vegas, NM to visit his married sister, Electa Jane Sutfin and while there met Margaret (Maggie) Bowler. The Sutfins owned and operated a hotel which they sold, before moving to Kansas. Wilber remained in New Mexico and worked on the railroad.

He casually mentioned that railroading was hard work, due to coupling the cars by hand with pins. After his death, the man who bought the house found some papers in the attic that proved Wilber had invented the coupling device that was being used by the railroads in the early 1900's. His plans had been stolen and patented by someone else!

Wilber took his family to Iowa, after his mother's death. He farmed the 40 acres he inherited. He also taught music -- except to his own children. After his death the land sold for $100 per acre.

1911: "Soon I will write and give you what data I have regard to my father's sisters and brothers, but enclosed you find a book of the beginning and ending of the Mexican War, which my father was a member of, from 1846 to 1848, before father was married.

Now you will see in this little old book where the lead pencil begins, the death of his brother, David Conger. I have several letters from his father and sisters and brothers while he was in the Mexican War, but not place mentions their deaths.

One of his sisters, Hannah Jane Conger, died in 1854. I will find out for certain through some old letters that were sent to my father when he was in the Mexican War. Please send the letters and book back, as I think when I die I will have them placed in my coffin or confined to the four winds." (See data for John Spencer Conger)

My cousins are scattered everywhere and they are so long in answering my letters. I will write again to them, and a cousin Edward Conger in Phoenix, Ariz. His father, Edward Conger, was my father's youngest brother, and the youngest of David Conger's children. He died somewhere about 1870, I think, or about 1868. ..."

OBITUARY:

Isaac Conger, son of James and Elizabeth Conger, was born July 26, 1847, at Maryette, Monroe county, Ohio. He departed this life Monday evening, March 28, 1932, at 9:30 o'clock. He was married to Emma Thompson at Bradyville, Page county, Iowa, March 12, 1871, and moved to Jewell county, Kans., in the year of 1872, coming to Rooks county [KS] in 1878, where they purchased and maintained for 54 years a most hospitable home.

To this union were born nine children: James L., Lidia Estella, Russell Addison, Jennie Nevada, William T., Marshall M., Isaac, Cloie Ethel and Vesta Lee. Of these, six are left to mourn his departure, Lidia, Russell and Isaac having preceded him; also his wife preceded him, having passed away, March 17, 1929.

Mr. Conger came west with his young bride 60 years ago, making the journey into this then unsettled country in an ox team and wagon, and two hundred dollars were they possessions. Only those who have had experience in this way can know anything about the courage and fortitude necessary to overcome and succeed as he has.

It is not possible to do justice to this man in written word. Sixty years of social, business and religious contact caused his exemplary life to shine brighter. Generous was he, always ready to help all worthy enterprises, especially generous to the cause of religious enterprises. He was converted to Jesus his Lord, uniting with the M.E. church at Codell, [KS], afterward transferring his membership to Natoma.

He was greatly interested in the welfare of his state, having served as a commissioner, also elected to the legislature at two different times.

He was a great lover of company, and delighted in little folks. His children numbered nine, and there are just ten grand children, also three great grandchildren. There are three brothers and three sisters still living. Sherman and Elias of Ollie, Iowa, Will of Lyons, Nebr., Mella Lemon, Blair, Nebr., Addie Clie, Otego, Kans., and Mrs. Florence Clair, Natoma, Kans.

The funeral service was conducted at the home, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. F.L. Courter, former pastor gave a very touching address. Mr. and Mrs. Crane sang three beautiful appropriate songs.

The family lot at East Paradise cemetery was the scene of another service conducted by the Masoni lodges of Codell, Natoma and Plainville. A large crowd was present to show their sympathy. The floral offerings were exceptionally fine, leaving no doubt of the high esteem in the minds of all for this beloved neighbor and friend.

confusion about where he was born. Marietta, is in Washington county, Ohio. REH] on July 26, 1847. His parents, James and Elizabeth, were the parents of eleven children, which included two sets of twins. Isaac had a twin brother, John.

When Isaac was nine years of age, the family decided to go west, and settled on a homestead near Centerville, Appanoose County, Iowa, where he lived until his marriage on March 12, 1871 to Emma Jane Thompson. She was born near Bradyville, Page County, Iowa on February 12, 1850. Her father was killed when Emma was very young, and her mother, Eliza, married Wesley Farrens.

Isaac and Emma ventured farther west, homsteading on the banks of White Rock Creek near Burr Oak, Jewell County, Kansas in 1817. Their trip was made in a covered wagon drawn by two owen, and their possessions were a few pieces of walnut furniture made by Emma's step-father, Wesley Farrens. They also had a dog, pig, and a cow.

Their first home was a dugout where their first son was born. It was not unusual for friendly, but curious, Indians to visit them. Most of their meat was buffalo meat. Isaac would sometimes be away for several days at a time hunting buffalo, leaving his young wife and son alone at the dugout. Pioneers accepted these things as the usual type of occurrences.

In 1878 they sold their claim and migrated to Rooks County, [KS] where they purchased land near a little town known as Old Motor. Here the first home was in a dugout also, until a stone house could be constructed. Later a large frame house was built, and in time the litte stone house became a bunk house for ranch help. In this east Paradise Township home, in the southeastern part of Rooks County, the nine children were reared. Cattle and crops were the order of the times in this part of Kansas, and the size of the ranch increased over the years to indicate prosperity and industry.

Ike, as he was known, served his community as a leader, as a commissioner, and twice as a member of the state legislature. Such successes of early times could seldom happen but for the strong support of a wife and mate such as Emma. She was the hub of the wheel around whom her family and friends gathered for strength and guidance.

The Conger family were members of the Codell Methodist Church, later transferring to the Natoma church when a storm destroyed the Codell church building. They were active members always.

On March 12, 1921, Isaac and Emma celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with many relatives and dear friends coming long distances to congratulate them. Seven of their nine children were with them. The two sons missing from the family circle wree: Russell A. and Isaac Jr., both of whom died as young men.

The Congers, their children and families have taken part in, and seen many beginnings and developments in Rooks County since 1878 when they first came to call this good area "home." Their lives have gone with this growth. Today none of the children are living, and but five of their grandchildren remain to remember Isaac and Emma.

Isaac died March 28, 1932, near Codell, Kansas. His wife, Emma, died May 15, 1929 at home near Codell. Burial was in East Paradise Cemetery.

OBITUARY: Mrs. Wm. Conger Dies Suddenly

Mrs. William Conger, age 64, succumbed at her home east of Lyons, [NE], Monday. Her death was due to a heart attack. Mrs. Conger appeared to be in good health and just a short time prior to her death was assisting in the work of culling poultry and complained of being cold and went in the house to get warm. One of the boys went into the house a short time later and found her lying on the floor. Dr. W.C. Keettel was called and upon examination it was found that she had died from a heart attack.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the home and from the Presbyterian church in Lyons at w:30 p.m. Rev. L.A. Thompson conducted the services. Interment was made in the Lyons cemetery.

Maggie Lemon, daughter of Frank and Mary Davison Lemon was born near Madison, Wisconsin, May 19, 1871, and departed this life at her home near Lyons, Nebraska, January 13, 1936, at the age of 64 years, 7 months and 25 days.

In childhood she moved with her parents to Osborne county, Kansas, where on October 20, 1888, she was united in marriage to William Conger and to this union four children were born, who with the husband survive. They are Mrs Iilda Hollingsworth of Ollie, Iowa, Mrs. Edna Robley of Lyons and Dail and Darrel at home.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Conger moved to Iowa and in 1911 came to this community, where they have since made their home.

Mrs. Conger was reared in the Christian faith and her trust has never wavered. She was a kind and loving wife and mother and though she has been in poor health for a number of years she has been patient and uncomplaining, thinking ever of the loved ones about her.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Sadie, who died in infancy, and two brothers, James and Robert Lemon.

Besides the husband and children she leaves to mourn her loss, four grandchildren, nieces and nephews and many other relatives and friends, who will sadly miss her. ### OBITUARY:

Olen Allen, adopted son of Benoni and Sarah Allen, was born March 17th 1879 and departed this life Oct. 13, [18]'92, aged 13y, 6m, 27d.

He leaves a father, mother and two brothers to mourn for him.

He is gone from us forever. We never again shall see his smiling face not hear his cheerful voice calling us to join in his merriment; but, kind friends and sorrowing relatives, let us be comforted by the hope that he is safe in the arms of a dear Savior who has said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, for such is the kingdom of heaven." Let it comfort us to know that he is done with the troubles and trials of this world. He has finished his mission on earth and has gone to that home prepared for him in heaven.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.

991. John Conger (John-6, Stephen Elijah-5, Elias Darby-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born on 28 Nov 1870 in Washington Co., OH. He died on 18 Jan 1953 at the age of 82 in Dalzell, Washington Co., OH. John Conger

CONFLICT: It has been reported that John Conger was born 28 Nov 1870 and that he was the son of Stephen Jackson Conger and Mary Smith (her middle name was not given). This birth date was 8 years after the death of Stephen Jackson Conger. Then whose son was John Conger? Robert Guilinger thinks that John was probably the son of Mary Jane Smith by her second marriage to John Conger the brother of her first husband.

Problem: Was in born in Woodsfield, Monroe Co., OH or in Washington Co, OH?
Robert Gulinger lists, Washington Co., OH.

John Conger and Olive Mae Dearth were married on 24 Dec 1899. Olive Mae Dearth, daughter of James Maurice Dearth and Mary Elizabeth Warfield, was born on 6 Jul 1879. She died on 24 Mar 1939 at the age of 59. Olive May Dearth Problem: Was her first name, Olive or Ollie?

John Conger and Olive Mae Dearth had the following children:

- 1848 i. Harley Ervin Conger, born 14 Jan 1903, Dalzell, Washington Co., OH; married Emma Frances Spies, 21 Jun 1922; died 3 Dec 1979, Wadsworth, Medina Co., OH.

OCCUPATION: carpenter

Stephen Jackson "Jackson" Conger and Luticia Alcena Hartshorn were married about 1882. Luticia Alcena Hartshorn, daughter of William Wallace Hartshorn and Sarah Varner, was born about 18 May 1861 in Graysville, Monroe Co., OH. She died on 16 Feb 1928 at the age of 66 in Ashland, Ashland Co., OH. Luticia Alcena Hartshorn

NAME-CONFLICT: Tacy A. Hartshorn by Catharine Fedorchak in 17 Jul 1981 column in The Spirit of Democracy; Tacey Alcena Hartshorn (CFA I, p. 479); Luticia A. Hartshorn. Lutitia Alcene Hartshorn

Problem: A birth date of 18 May 1861 has been listed. This doesn't agree with the 1860 and 1870 census of Monroe Co., OH which indicates that this person was probably born, Abt. 1859.

Problem: What was the name of this person? She was listed as Luticia A. Hartshorn, age 1, born in Ohio, in the 1860 census and as, Tacy A., age 11, in the 1870 census. Others have said her name was Tacey Alcena Hartshorn. Both Tacy and Tacey were probably nicknames for, Luticia.

RESIDENCES: All Hartshorn family members lived very close to each other in Wayne Township, Monroe Co., OH at the time of the 1860 and 1870 census.

Census: 1860, in Monroe Co., OH, Wayne Twp., 1222/1222 (P.O. Stafford) 25 Jul 1860, p. 177, Sheet 317

OCCUPATION: Teacher, Farmer

RESIDENCES: From 1902, Orange Twp., Ashland Co., OH, per Rita Bone Kopp.
(Source: "Family Research in Monroe County, Ohio," by Catharine Foreaker Fedorchak, Vol. V, p. 163)

BIOGRAPHY: John C. Shafer

John C. Shafer owns and cultivates a good farm of seventy acres in Orange township [Ashland County, OH] and is numbered among the representative agriculturists of the community. He was born April 22, 1866, in Monroe county, Ohio, and is a son of Isaac W. and Pluma (Conger) Shafer. The father also followed the occupation of farming and both he and his wife are still residents of Monroe county.

Spending his boyhood days under the parental roof, John C. Shafer was early trained to the work of the fields and pursued his education in the district schools and the county normal. He engaged in teaching for thirteen years in the country schools, and was quite successful, imparting readily and clearly to others the knowledge he had acquired, and thus contributing to the intellectual progress of the community. Since February 1902, he has resided in Orange township and now has seventy acres of good land which he has brought under a high state of cultivation. He carefully tills his fields according to the modern methods of farming and as a result annually gathers good harvests as a reward for his industry and perseverance.

On the 6th of February 1890, Mr. Shafer was united in marriage to Miss Campie Moose, a daughter of John J. and Sarah (Early) Moose, of Monroe county, Ohio. Her father served his country as a soldier in the Union army in the Civil war and was wounded in the battle of Gettysburg.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Shafer there were born four children: Bessie, a school teacher; Crystal; Myrtle; and Opal, but the third daughter has passed away.

The parents are well known in Orange township where their genuine worth has won them many friends and gained for them the hospitality of the best homes of the community in which they reside.

Mr. Shafter has been somewhat active in public life. He has never ceased to feel the deepest interest in the cause of education, has served as president of the school board and for two years has been its clerk. In this connection he has done effective work in the interests of education. He also belongs to a teacher's organization and is a member of Mohican Lodge, No. 87, I.O.O.F., at Ashland and of the encampment.

He gives his political allegiance to the democratic party, keeps well informed on the questions and issues of the day and does all in his power to promote the growth and insure the success of democratic principles. He is now serving as a member of the county central committee and was clerk of the county election board in Monroe county. He has likewise frequently been a delegate to the county conventions and his opinions carry weight in the local councils.

His religious faith is indicated in his membership in the Christian church, to which his family also belong. He takes an active and helpful interest in the church work, is serving as one of the deacons and is a worker as well in the Sunday school.

He is justly regarded as an intelligent, progressive citizen, favoring everything that is good and practical and lending helpful aid to many measures which have been of marked benefit in promoting the interests and upbuilding of the county.

- iii. Grace Sidney Conger was born on 4 Dec 1874. She died on 14 Jan 1944 at the age of 69. Grace Sidney Conger RESEARCHER: According to Robert Guilinger, Grace Sidney Conger, the aunt of Clement Ellis Conger, was one of the Conger family researchers. She never married. She died on 14 Jan 1944. Sometime after her death Clement Ellis Conger donated her files to the Library of Congress.

One item that she researched was to identify the ship that John Belconger came on from England to the Massachusetts colony. She found a ship called, the "Ann & Elizabeth" that made numerous trips from England to Massachusetts in the late 1600's. Whether this ship actually brought John Belconger to Newburyport, MA in 1665 could not be proven.

BIOGRAPHY:

George Guilinger, the husband of Margaret E. Guilinger, spent the last few years of his life in a wheelchair and died at age 45. George and Margaret had a total of 10 children but only 5 (3 boys and 2 girls) were alive in 1907 at the time of George's death.

Margaret took in washing to support her family and the two older boys raised a large garden. After the death of George's parents in 1908/1909 Margaret inherited their home near Reno, OH which she expanded to handle a larger family. Margaret saw to it that four of her five children received a High School education, highly unusual for the times and her circumstances. One daughter obtained an Ohio Teaching Certificate and taught school for several years. One son, the father of Robert Guilinger, took a 2 year business course at the Marietta Commercial College. Another son joined the U.S. Navy in 1918 and later, using his World War I GI Bill, he obtained an LLB degree from Ohio Northern Law School in Ada, Oh.

Margaret and three children, Elizabeth, Roxie and Ralph, moved to Youngstown, Mahoning Co., OH in 1918. There Margaret rented a large home that she converted to a rooming house. She supported herself by taking in roomers until her death in 1927. Although Robert Guilinger, the author of this piece, never knew his grandmother, since she died before he was born, he considers her a truly remarkable woman.

Margaret Emmaline Conger and George (NMI) Guilinger were married on 8 Jan 1883 in Lower Newport, Washington Co., OH. George (NMI) Guilinger, son of Jacob Hendricks Guilinger and Jane Phillips, was born on 8 Jul 1861 in Newport Twp., Washington Co., OH. He was buried in Feb 1907 in Veto, Washington Co., OH, Veto Cemetery. He died on 5 Feb 1907 at the age of 45 in Belpre Twp., Washington Co., OH. George (NMI) Guilinger

PARENTS: Jacob Hendricks Guilinger and Jane Phillips

George (NMI) Guilinger and Margaret Emmaline Conger had the following children:

- i. Corbyn Guilinger was born on 1 Dec 1883 in Washington Co., OH. He was buried in Jul 1902 in Veto, Washington Co., OH, Veto Cemetery. He died on 2 Jul 1902 at the age of 18 in Washington Co., OH. Corbyn Guilinger DEATH: Corbyn Guilinger died on 2 Jul 1902 in Washington Co., OH as a result of being struck by lightning.

- ii. Nellie Leota Guilinger was born on 23 Sep 1889 in Dunham Twp., Washington Co., OH. She died in 1904 at the age of 15 in Washington Co., OH. She was buried in 1904 in Veto, Washington Co., OH, Veto Cemetery. Nellie Leota Gulinger DEATH: Nellie L. Guilinger died in 1904 as a result of burns received in a stove oil explosion.

COMMENT: Robert Guilinger wrote: I believe Nellie Leota Conger, born 17 Aug 1905, in Dalzell, Washington Co., OH was named after my Aunt, Nellie Leota Guilinger, who died in 1904 in Washington Co., OH as the result of burns suffered in a stove oil explosion. Early in 1995, I wrote to my remaining aunt, 97 year old, Elizabeth Marie Guilinger Foust about this. My Aunt Bettie only vaguely remembers her sister, Nellie, as she was only 6 years old at the time of her death. However, she remembers that her mother (Margaret E. Conger) knew the Dearth family, including Olive Mae Dearth, the mother of Nellie Leota Conger. It was a custom in the early 1900's to name another child after one who had died. Usually it was done in the family; i.e., a cousin.

(Source: Written by Robert Guilinger, Dec 1995)

RELATIONSHIP: Nellie Leota Conger was the 4th cousin of Nellie Leota Guilinger. Their common ancestor was, David Conger Sr. who married, Mary (Darby) Green.

OCCUPATION: farmer

RESIDENCES: Round Barn Ranch in Aug 1899.

Elbert Conger's obituary indicates that Charles and Harminney Conger were the parents of 6 sons and 6 daughters.

OBITUARY: Elbert Conger was born in Illinois, May 15, 1868, departing this life at ten minutes till three on the morning of Tuesday, June 8, 1926, at the age of fifty-eight years, twenty-four days.

He came to Dodge county, Nebraska, with his parents, when he was three years old. In his eleventh year they moved to Iowa, remaining there until he was nineteen years of age, when they returned to Nebraska, locating at Grant.

He was united in marriage June 1, 1891, to Ida B. Brown of Eustis, Nebraska, when he was twenty-three years old. Twenty-seven years of his married life was spent in this vicinity.

He leaves to mourn their loss, his beloved wife, three daughters, Mrs. Cora Wright of Elmcreek, Mrs. Hattie Halliwell and Mrs. Ethel Turnell of Odessa and one son, Pearle, living at home, twelve grandchildren, and neighbors and friends. Another son, Charles, preceded him in death as did his father and mother, three sisters and five brothers. He also leaves three sisters: Miss Ellen Conger of Crane, Oregon, Mrs. Ruth Carmicheal, of Monitor, Oregon, and Mrs. Mary Raycraft, of Seattle, Washington.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. S.B. Thomas of Elmcreek, and Rev. C.B. Thomas of Odessa, at the Methodist church in Elmcreek, Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, June 12, 1926. Interment was made in the Elmcreek cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank everyone for their kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved husband and father.

OBITUARY: Elias Conger

Elias Conger was born at Columbus, Indiana, March 2, 1854 and died Saturday Sept., 17, 1932 at his home in Neligh, [NE] after an illness of 10 days at the age of 78 years, 6 months and 15 days.

He was the son of Aaron and Mary Conger. His mother died when he was a year and a half old. His boyhood was spent with his father and step mother in Indiana, Missouri and Illinois.

In 1876 he came to Dodge county, Nebr. On December 18, 1877 he was united in marriage to Sarah E. Garner at Nickerson, Nebr. To this union were born 10 children, 3 of whom survive. One son and five daughters died of diphtheria at Clarkson, Nebr., in October 1892. A daughter, Nellie died at Neligh July 15, 1918.

His early married life was spent on a farm in Dodge County, Nebr.

In 1898 he moved to Antelope county and resided on farms near Neligh until 1921, when he moved to the residence in the east part of Neligh.

Although living in town he made daily trips to his farms, taking an active part in farming.

In 1927 he celebrated his 50th wedding anniversary.

He is survived by his wife and 3 children, Elias and Roy of Neligh and Mrs. Josephine Wagner of Oakdale. Also four grand children and a number of brothers and sisters.

Many kind and loving words could be spoken of him. He was a pioneer of Nebraska,

OBITUARY: Conger Services Held April 25 at Oakdale

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Oakdale Sunday, April 25, for Mrs. Sarah E. Conger, 88, who died at the home of her daughter in Oakdale April 22. Burial was in Laurel Hill cemetery at Neligh.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Dawson Park.

Sarah Elizabeth Garner, daughter of the Rev. John and Henrietta Garner, was born at Wilkesboro, North Carolina, August 14, 1859 and passed away at the home of her daughter near Oakdale, [NE], on April 22, 19848 at the age of 88 years, 8 months, and 8 days.

At the age of 12, she moved with her parents to Virginia. While living [t]here she became a member of the Christian church. In March, 1877, the family came to Nebraska, settling in Dodge county, near Nickerson. On December 18, 1877, she was united in marriage to Elias Conger. Their marriage, which lasted nearly 55 years, was terminated on September 17, 1932, with the death of her husband at Neligh.

Their early married life was spent on farms in Dodge county. In 1884, they moved to a homestead which they had taken in Keya Paha county. They spent seven years there enduring all the hardships of the early pioneer.

In 1898, they moved to Antelope county and the rest of their married life was spent on farms near Neligh or in Neligh.

Mr. and Mrs. Conger were the parents of ten children, only three of whom are living. They lost their entire family of five daughters and one son at Clarkson in October, 1892 of diphtheria. Another daughter, Nellie, died at Neligh in 1918.

Surviving Mrs. Conger are her two sons, Elias of Pender and Roy of Neligh; her daughter, Mrs. Irven Wagner, of Oakdale, 8 grandchildren, one great grand daughter and three sisters, Mrs. George Crocker, Olympia, Wash.; Mrs. Cora Fitch, Omaha; and Mrs. Edward Weihhold, of Lincoln.

DEATH: SAD FATALITY. - Howells Journal

We have been called upon many times to chronicle the death of many a loved one in many a home, but the saddest duty devolves upon us to this week record the death of five of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Conger, residing three and a half miles west of this place, of that dread disease, diphtheria, only one child of a family of six remaining and she is now very low with the same sickness. Two other children, one half-sister and a half-brother of Mr. Conger, who are also living with them, are also very low. In their hour of need they have the assistance of Mrs. Conger's father, Rev. Garner of Nickerson, who arrived last Sunday, and neighbors have kindly assisted them in the burial of their loved ones, but because of fear of the contagious disease many friends have been unable to help them in caring for the sick. It is to be hoped that the children still sick may be spared them.

DEATH: 15 Jul 1918 at Neligh, Antelope, NE, at age 23, from nephritis

OBITUARY: Nellie May Conger

Death at all times casts a shadow over the home but particularly so when it claims one in the full tide of youth with all the indications of a useful life. Miss Nellie Conger was such. Possessed with talent, a personality that was pleasant and forceful and an ambition to do something, a promising career has been cut short.

Miss Nellie Conger was born in Stanton county, Nebraska, February 12, 1895 and died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Conger, east of Neligh Monday, July 15. The funeral will be held Friday at 4:30 p.m., from the Congregational church, services conducted by Rev. Rose.

When three years of age she moved to Antelope county with her parents and this has since been her home. She graduated from the Neligh high school in 1913 and taught school for four years. She was a member of the Rebecca lodge. She has been sick for some time and her death has been anticipated at any time for a month or more. Her brother, Elias Conger, Jr., is serving in the army, being stationed at Camp Cody, N.M., and is expected home for the funeral.

OBITUARY: Porterfield M. Conger

On Wednesday morning, May 29th, at 9 o'clock in the Methodist church were held the funeral services over the remains of Porterfield Mabe Conger, who died at his home in this city on Monday noon, May 27th, 1918. The interment was made in Tilden cemetery, [Tilden, NE].

The members of Pythagoras Lodge A.F. and A.M. well represented by local and non-residents of which he was an old and esteemed member, escorted the remains from his residence to the church, being joined at Fraternal Hall by the members of Jephtha Chapter O.E.S. of which society he was also a member. At the church, which was filled to overflowing with sympathizing friends and relatives, the full Episcopal burial service was impressively read and an appropriate address delivered by the Rev. W.W. Wells of Valentine, who had been summoned especially for this purpose. There were beautiful floral tributes placed upon the casket. After the ceremonies at the church the remains were taken to the depot, thence by rail to Tilden where they were finally laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery of that place with the solemn funeral committal service of the Masonic fraternity, whose members in conformity with their ancient custom accompanied the remains faithfully to their last resting place. These services were also conducted by Rev. Wells as Master, at the request of the local Master of Pythagoras Lodge.

A delicious lunch was then served in their hall by Tilden Chapter O.E.S. for the visiting members, friends and relatives, thereby displaying in a touching and much appreciated manner their sympathy and fraternal spirit. Much praise is also due to the local Masons for the efficient manner in which they met and cared for the funeral party.

Mr. Conger was born in Sidney, Champaign county, Illinois, Dec. 6th, (sic) 1866, moved with his parents to Missouri at the age of one year, living there five years. He then returned to his birthplace where he resided until 10 years of age, moving thence to Nebraska in 1882 and living there until the date of his death.

The deceased is survived by seven brothers and five sisters, a wife and six daughters, of whom the wife, daughters and following brothers and sisters were present: Mrs. Dave Miller of Stanton; Mrs. W.R. Goll of Ft. Calhoun, Nebr.; Mrs. Levi Acton of Wakefield, Nebr.; Messrs. Alex Conger of Ewing; Wm. Conger, Clearwater and John Conger, Pilger. Those not able to be present were: Mesdames Geo. Ward of Deer Lodge, Mont.; John Foy, Pilger; and Messrs. Sam Conger, Mead, Kansas; Elias Conger, Neligh; C.P. Conger, So., Dak.; and Anderson Conger, Neligh.

Mr. Conger, in his long residence in Ewing is spoken of as a successful business man of fine ability and attainments. He was a kind and loving father and one of his chief regrets was to leave them fatherless and bereft. He was a member of Trinity Episcopal church at Ewing, [NE], and died in full communion with the same, having received the last sacrament just before his death. He went to Rochester a little over a year ago for an operation at the hands of the Mayo Bros., from which he never fully recovered.

During his last illness all that money, care and loving attention could do for his recovery were lavished upon him, but all to none effect, even when accompanied by the most astonishing patience, perseverance and will power on his part during all his weeks of intense suffering, when with "Thy will be done," he commend his soul to God who gave it. For three weeks before his death his sister, Mrs. Miller, acted as his special nurse, faithfully remaining at his bedside with affectionate attention until death came to relieve him of his sufferings.

Surely he fought a good fight, kept the faith, and henceforth there is a crown of righteousness laid up for him. May he rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon him.

BIOGRAPHY: H.W. Conger

On the 1st of January, 1908, H.W. Conger came into possession, through purchase, of his present fine farm property, consisting of two hundred and fifty acres, located in Perry township, Licking county, [IL], and here he gives the greater part of his time and attention to raising fine grades of stock, although he carries on general farming to some extent. Mr. Conger was born in McLean county, Illinois, November 9, 1857, a son of Elias J. and Harriet Marinda (Miller) Conger, both of whom were natives of Licking county, their respective parents removing here from Pennsylvania. Elias J. Conger and Harriet M. Miller were here reared and married and three or four children were added to the household ere they made a removal to McLean county, Illinois. After spending several years in the latter place they returned to Licking county, believing it to be a more healthful climate, as the land in McLean county was very swampy. They then spent the remainder of their lives in Licking county, the father passing away on the 8th of October 1871. He was a stanch (sic) democrat in his political belief but was never active as an office holder. Following the death of the husband and father, the mother afterward married a man by the name of Jonathan Frost, who died six years later. She then became the wife of George Lacey and survived his death for about twelve years, her demise occurring in 1906.

H.W. Conger was a little lad of eight years when his parents removed from McLean county, Illinois, to Licking county, [OH], so that he was practically reared in the latter place. He was but fourteen years old when his father's death occurred and until his mother married again he was the main support of the family. However, following her marriage the son was given his time and he then worked as a farm hand, being thus employed for twelve years. As an indication of this thrift it is said that he was paid a higher wage than any other farm hand in this section of the county. In 1880, when a young man of twenty-three years, he, with several others, purchased what proved to be a worthless tax title on land in Pound county, Kentucky. The land was heavily timbered and after Mr. Conger learned of the invalidity of his title, he immediately set to work to clear a portion of the land of the timber, which he shipped and in this way recovered the full amount of money which he had invested, he being the only one of the investors who recovered their money.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

In 1882 Mr. Conger established a home of his own by his marriage to Miss Leora Barcroft, a native of Knox county, Ohio. Following their marriage the young couple began their domestic life upon a farm, which Mr. Conger rented for seven years. He worked earnestly and persistently in the cultivation of his farm, and, carefully saving his earnings, was eventually enabled to purchase sixty-five acres of land, adjoining the tract which he now owns. To this place he removed and there spent his time in its cultivation during the succeeding four years, subsequent to which time he disposed of this farm and removed to Zanesville, Ohio, where he lived for eighteen months, his time being given to the conduct of a wholesale meat establishment. On the expiration of that period he disposed of his business there and removed to Newark, [OH] and for four years engaged in buying butcher cattle for the firm of Miller & Howell. He then became one of five men who organized the Howell Provision Company, of which Mr. Conger was elected vice president. For five years he was identified with this firm but on the 1st of January, 1908, severed his connection therewith and purchased his present farm, comprising two hundred and fifty acres located in Perry township. This is a well improved property on which stands a comfortable country residence, while substantial barns and outbuildings furnish ample shelter for grain and stock. Mr. Conger has here given a portion of his time to general farming but his farm is heavily stocked and he expects in the near future to give his time exclusively to raising and shipping stock, in which he is already meeting with excellent success. His long experience in buying stock has given him excellent knowledge of the worth of animals, so that he will undoubtedly meet with good results in this field of activity.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Conger has been blessed with five children, so whom three survive, these being Earl J., Lena Blanche and Helen M., all still under the parental roof. Mr. Conger is a liberal democrat in his political views, not feeling bound by party ties. He is largely a self-made man, for he started out upon his own resources at an early age and in the years that have come and gone, through the inherent force of his nature and the utilization of opportunities, has passed from a humble position to one of prominence in agricultural and stockraising circles of Licking county. He is well known in Licking county and other sections and none with whom he has been brought in contact, either in a business or social capacity, have found him other than what he represents himself to be -- a straightforward, honorable citizen.

QUESTION: What would the initials "R.P." after the name of Mr. Watson mean?

BIOGRAPHY:

Nicholas Watson was a descendant of John Howland and John and Elizabeth Tilley, all of whom were passengers on the Mayflower in 1620. Also of Perez Chipman, Thomas Watson, William Robinson and William Horney, who were Revolutionary soldiers, William Robinson, Jr., a soldier of the War of 1812 and his father, Lewis Watson, who was a Civil War soldier. All of these lines are proved.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson lived most of their married life at Anchor, IL where he owned a drugstore and was Post Master.

RESEARCHER:

Ethel (Conger) Heagler, born on 12 Jan 1881 in either Bloomington, McLean county, IL or Towanda, McLean county, IL was another Conger researcher who published her work.

She wrote to Maxine Leonard on 18 May 1962 and told of attending a DAR National Conference in Washington, DC the previous year, at the age of 80. She wrote, "I went to the Rare Books Department of the Congressional Library to see the seven volumes of typed bound books left by Charles Conger of Minnesota. You have to almost swear your life away to get in. A guard sits at the door with a rope across the opening. I told him what I wanted and he said, 'What references do you have?' I said, 'I am here as a delegate to the DAR Conference,' and I gave him my membership card. That didn't mean anything. 'What else do you have?' I showed him my cards of the Pen Women of America, Farm Bureau and Home Bureau of McLean Co., Illinois. He then asked to see all my cards, and what did he take, but the credit card from the Chicago Motor Club! A young girl stood by me and said she had no reference with her, and they would not let her in.

"Then I went in and they brought me the seven books and sat me down in front of the desk and that lady never took her eyes off of me all afternoon."

Mrs. Heagler published her line in 1941, through the help of Charles Leslie Conger who had established her lineage.

Mrs. Orral (Barnhouse) Laughlin and her brother, Dick, lived on and operated large sheep ranches in Central Oregon. Their father and mother went into the, then, new country of Oregon in 1872, two years after their marriage in Illinois and a stay of one year in Missouri.

The Laughlin Ranch, high in a valley of the John Day River, contained thousands of sheep and more than five thousand acres. It was too high for any cultivation of grain. Their only crop was hay of which many tons are stacked for the winter feeding of the sheep. In the summer the sheep were taken up higher on the mountain and into the timber.

Ethel Conger Heagler wrote that a visit to this ranch in 1937 was an experience never to be forgotten. During the haying season with many men employed on the job and the daughters at home helping with the cooking and sixteen at every meal.

Dick lived further down the valley and had fruit and grain on his ranch. Some of his married children lived on nearby ranches.

RECOLLECTIONS: Catherine Elima Russman Conger was interviewed by the Works Progress Administration on 22 May 1937, for the Indian - Pioneer History Project for Oklahoma. This report is in the Indian Archives of the Oklahoma Historical Society. It is as follows:

My mother died when I was about twelve years old, and father married the second time about a year later. He only lived three years after his second marriage. At this time we broke up housekeeping and I went to live with my brother in northern Missouri. I was sixteen years old. I lived with him until I married three years later.

I married Joseph Albert Conger at Guthrie, Oklahoma, the 23rd day of February in 1889. We went back to Missouri and lived there for about ten years.

When we made another start for Oklahoma, we had a good wagon and teams. Altho it was a good outfit, and we had money to make the trip and keep us until we could get work or make a crop, it didn't keep us from having hardships all along the way. We were in constant fear of the Indians and wild animals. We came alone, and the only weapon we had was a Parker Gun, which is now over one hundred years old. We also had a good watchdog. One night when we were camped not far from Blue Jacket (this was northwest of Guthrie), we heard what was either a wild cat or panther. I was so frightened that I sat up all night. I was afraid they would harm or carry one of the children away.

On our way we had to cross the Arkansas, Missouri and Grand Rivers. We crossed the Arkansas and Grand on ferryboats and the Missouri on a steamboat.

We found our first work in Custer county at a little place called Seven Oaks; I do not think this place is there now. We got a farm with a dugout. It had a dirt floor and we had to carry water; but found wood plentiful in the canyons, although it was very difficult to get it out. It was free for the settlers, and as money was scarce the neighbors would go in groups to cut and haul it out.

We stayed in Custer county two years, raising cotton and corn. We made good crops, but had to take the cotton to Weatherford or Independence to get it ginned. We paid twenty cents per bushel for our seed corn.

After our second year we decided to go farther south and file on some land. We came to our present location, nine miles northwest of Olustee, Jackson county, Oklahoma, at that time part of the Indian Territory. My husband bought a relinquishment, the E 1/2 of the NW 1/2 and the W 1/2 of the NE 1/4 of Section 27, Township 2N of Range, 22 WIM. We had a small shack on the farm twelve by fourteen feet, which we made into a half dugout. We had to get our water from a nearby well.

Our first post office was two miles north of Olustee at a gristmill, run by a man named Lee, and was called, Lee's Mill. The name was soon changed to Victory, and we then got our mail only once a week.

I didn't seem to learn how to keep a dirt floor clean. I took sacks and sewed them together, put down a layer of straw and put my sack carpet over this, which made a very nice covering, or so it seemed to me at that time, and made the work so much easier.

I bought three Plymouth Rock hens and one rooster. I had no poultry house, so my husband, not having any material with which to build nests and coops, hauled some large smooth stones and made some very substantial nests. By buying some eggs to set I raised one hundred and eighteen chickens the first year.

Our school was one-roomed rock school, five miles south of our farm and all the school we had. The children had to walk that far; that is, all except the two girls who got to go to Olustee two years. The building is still standing, but not in use.

I had two boys who fought in the World War. Millard J. Conger was in Co., A, 133rd Infantry and he died while on his way to France from influence and pneumonia. The body was buried at sea.

Albert L. Conger, 8th Regt, Fort Crockett, United States Marines.

One boy is in California, one in Colorado, two at Olustee, Route 2, one daughter is living at home with me, and the other lives two miles west of me on a farm.

I have always worked hard. I made my own soap, made dye out of sumac berries and walnut hulls, by boiling them in a sack. I would then stain by putting my cloth in the juice, and boiling until of the right shade. I put salt in to set the color. I knitted all of my stockings and gloves. I never had a pair of store-bought stockings before I was sixteen years of age. I helped my mother spin and weave.

But I think that of all my life's hardships, the worst was on September 18, 1923 when I lost everything I had in a Western Oklahoma cyclone. This loss I estimated to be about $3,000. One of the freaks of the storm was the fact that it picked the feathers from some of the turkeys, clean enough for the market. I had one of the neighbors haul away the dead turkeys and chickens in his grain wagon. There was a big load. I lost all of my furniture, new plow tools -- well just everything I had. We saw it coming and got in the dugout. I have not bought back any furniture, only necessities. I do not want any more.

It has been very difficult at times for me to make a living on my little farm, rear and educate my children; but I found in an early day that my farm had isin-glass deposits, which when cleaned, and heated, made a substance when ground as white and fine as flour. I learned to make plaques, which I sold to visitors and took the money to buy groceries and by some hook and crook I managed to stay and carry on, as many of the pioneer mothers have done before me.
