OCCUPATION: medical doctor

HOBBIES: Liked to fish and pitch horseshoes

BIOGRAPHY: From "History of Washington County," submitted by George Ringland Conger, b. 1935.

The man who devotes his life to the alleviation of human suffering is pursuing a calling which in importance and beneficial results is second to no other, for if true to his calling and earnest in his efforts, he is indeed a public benefactor. Dr. George Ringland Conger early realized that to those who attain determinate results in the medical profession there must be given not only technical skill but also a broad human sympathy which must become the actuating motive for helpfulness. So he has dignified and honored his profession by his able and self-abnegating services in which, through year of close application, he has attained notable distinction and unqualified success.

Dr. Conger was born near Amity, Washington county, [PA] on the 8th of June 1865, and is the son of Henry and Elizabeth (Ringland) Conger. The father was born near Lindley's Mills, spent practically his entire life in this county and died near Hackney Station, March 20, 1912. He was a farmer and owned the land on which was at one time located the oldest Indian settlement west of the Alleghany mountains. he was the son of David and Mary (Bell) Conger, the former of whom was a lifelong resident of Washington county, a farmer and member of the Presbyterian church.

His father, also named David, was a native of Scotland [sic, not true], who, on coming to this country settled in Washington county, where he devoted himself to agricultural pursuits. Elizabeth Ringland was also a native of Washington county and died there. She was the daughter of James and Sarah (Stockdale) Ringland, the former of whom, a native of Ireland, became a successful farmer of this county. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and a man of strong character.

George R. Conger secured his elementary education in the public schools and in Lone Pine Academy, of which he was a graduate. Having determined to devote his life to the medical profession, he then matrrriculated in the medical department of the University of Pittsburgh, where he was graduated in 1892, with the degree of Doctor of Medicine. He immediately came to Taylorstown and engaged in the practice of his profession, to which he has devoted himself since.

A physician of rare attainments, broard general culture and perfected skill, it has fallen to his lot to bring alleviation of suffering and restoration of health to countless afflicted ones in his community. This has been his professional contribution and has naturally constituted the larger part of his labors, but it has not by any means measured the whole sum of his activities. As a valiant champion of all lines of civic and social progress and betterment he is entitled to the respect of the community. His cheerful presence, his kindly manner, his utter freedom from every form of affectation, have endeared him personally in an unusually intimate relation to one of the largest circles of devoted and loyal patients and friends ever possessed by a physician in this locality.

Fraternally, Dr. Conger belongs to Claysvill Lodge, No. 447, Free and Accepted Masons, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias. He has been deeply interested in the educational welfare of his community and served for sixteen years as a member of the board of school directors in Blaine Township. He is a member and elder in the Christian church at Taylorstown.

Dr. and Mrs. Conger are the parents of two children, namely: George Ringland Conger, Jr., who was born August 14, 1911 and is a student in the Taylorstown High School; and Sarah Frances Conger, who was born January 26, 1916, and is attending the public schools.

I wish all the many descendants of David and Sarah could see this place. The road curves around the yard and runs a few rods down into an old-fashioned picturesque covered bridge across the winding stream and into the little village of Conger Station, named for this couple, and which is no longer a town since the coming of the paved roads and automobiles. If David and Sarah could come back to the old home the hills and stream might look natural after 150 years, but the fine Pennsylvania road system would be beyond belief.

is listed in the 1900 census. The 1860 census of Edgar Co., IL was taken in September and John was not listed. The 1880 census of Dodge Co., NE lists a John Conger age 18, which gives a calculated birth date of Abt. 1862. The parents are listed as born in Ireland, which casts doubt on whether this is John Lincoln Conger.

PARENTS-COMMENT: Researcher Mary Jo Khan believes that John Lincoln Conger is the son of Charles Atkinson Conger and Harmony Katherine Erlewine. No proof of this relationship has been found. If his place of birth was Hackneys Mill (near Amity) Washington Co., PA the possibility of this couple being his parents seems unlikely as they have never been reported as living in that area.

BIOGRAPHY:

At this time, John Lincoln Conger is a bit of a mystery between his birth at Hackney's Mill, Pa. (Near Amity) Washington Co., Pa., and the autumn of 1881 where we find him at Grand Lake, Grand County, Colorado.

Due to insufficient proof of parental relationship because the 1870 Federal Census has not been found for Charles and Harmony, we shall just have to continue with the circumstantial assumption as presented by others that John Lincoln is the son of Charles A. and Harmony Earleywine Conger from Monroe County, Ohio, who finally settled in Dodge County, Nebraska.

John about 1880 or soon after this date migrated to Grand Lake, Colorado, where he supported himself as a carpenter and building contractor per his wife "Jennie's" memoirs put to paper about 1930. This is supported by the 1885 Colorado Census. Jennie in her memoirs states ... "John built or had a hand in building most of the buildings in early Grand Lake, one of which was my Mother's Fairview Hotel which was located on 115 acres that she bought in 1879 on the west side of the Lake." ... "John worked for my Uncle Chris Young for a short while. My uncle received an injury and stopped doing such hard work and started a freight service between Hot Sulphur Springs and Grand Lake. John organized where Uncle Chris left off." This Hotel was built in the Autumn of 1881 and was the second large structure built in Grand Lake per the History of Grand Lake Pioneers by Mary Cairns. Mary goes on to state ... "THE FAIRVIEW HOUSE. The mining boom of the late seventies and early eighties caused four leading hotels to be built at Grand Lake. The Grand Lake House, The Fairview House, Garrison House (later called The Grandview) and the Grand Central Hotel and Restaurant, also known as "The Nickerson House."

"The Fairview House which stood on the Craig Point (West Side of the Lake) until the summer of 1937 when it was torn down, was built in the autumn by Mrs. Mary J. Young. It had, indeed, one of the fairest views imaginable, looking out across the clear waters of the lake toward the Continental Divide to the Eastward and looking up both the deep forested valleys of the North and East Inlets. The Fairview House was built for Mrs. Young, a widow, by a "house raising. The work was done by her son Chris and several other young men of the village. Mrs. Young had taken up the point of land on which to build her hotel, and an adjoining large tract, as a homestead. The table was always well supplied with trout and game. Mrs. Young was a famous cook, and her house was ever a popular stopping place for local people as well as travelers. "She was a little dancing gypsy" has been said of her. "She could work all day -- cooking, cleaning, putting things to rights -- and then still be so light on her feet that she could dance half of the night without seeming to tire. Mrs. Young was assisted in her management and hostessing duties by her daughter Jennie who had even more energy.

"The Fairview was an immediate success partially due to the fact that Mrs. Young's father, John R. Baker of Summit and Clear Creek County mining fame was constantly heralding her hotel when in Denver concerning legal matters connected with his Baker Mines. He seemed to know everybody between Grand Lake and Denver from his days of service as the first elected sheriff of Grand County and his prospecting days on Kelso and Baker Mountain. He always took a stack of printed flyers for all of the businesses in Grand Lake with him to Denver for distribution.

A story in the Grand Lake Prospector published on November 18, 1882, indicates that the Hotel was expanded. ... "The last of the week Mrs. M. J. Young, of the Fairview House, gave notice of a log raising. At the appointed time, the boys commenced to flock in.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

They came up from the ranches, they came down from the mines, and they came across from the settlements. They came on foot, they came on horseback, and they came in boats. When about forty had arrived they fell to work - some with skids, some with axes and some with their tongues; these latter were in the majority.

At noon the estimable hostess informed the hungry horde that the fatted venison had been slain, and told them to enter and partake thereof. About this time we came and joined the rabble. And such a dinner - rabbits, venison, trout, grouse, cakes, pies, puddings, and everything to satisfy the greedy soul of man and give him dyspepsia. After dinner those who were able went down and finished the barn, which they accomplished by sundown. Then an excellent supper was served, such a supper as only Mrs. Young and her daughter Miss Jennie can prepare.

After doing ample justice to the supper the boys went home, shined their boots, put themselves inside their bib and tucker, then went in search of the fair ones. These they found and hurried them back to the Fairview House, where jolly John Mitchell was waiting, violin in hand. The folding doors had been thrown open, and the dining and sitting rooms thrown into one. And how Mich did play! Mich always enjoys these gatherings as much as the boys. He likes to see the boys jump fast to catch up with him. The dance lasted until Old Sol put in an appearance, and it is rumored that the dancers were mad because the night was so short."

Per Mary Jane Young's business ledger for the Fairview Hotel, her father and bookkeeper, John R. Baker, paid John Conger, Jules Harmon, Chris Young, Jr., John Pettingill and Michael Flynn $190.00 each for felling and snaking the logs. John was paid an additional $65.00 for his preparational organizing and a trip to Denver for supplies. For the Barn Raising in 1882, and some other outbuildings John received $1004.87.

Carpentry/Contracting was John's main area of endeavor for about five years. He is listed in the 1885 Colorado State Census in Grand Lake as a carpenter and lived about two doors down from the Fairview Hotel with his wife Jennie and their daughter Mary. He did good work apparently as two houses that he built some time later are still in use today as private residences (1996). One on Piney Creek which was about 2,500 square feet and one on the Rifle property which is about 3,000 square feet. The original homestead cabin served for several years as a school house around 1900.

Life was not all work for John because we find in the Grand Lake Prospector that the Grand Lake Dramatic Society was organized on November 18, 1882. ..."Last evening a number of Grand Lakers met at the schoolhouse for the purpose of organizing a Dramatic Society. The meeting was called to order by John Barbee, who stated the object of the gathering. The Society was organized by the selection of the following officers:

President, Ed B. Sisty; Stage Manager, John Pettingell
Manager, John Barbee; Prop Man, John Warren; Vice President, Mrs. Garrison;
Prompter, George W. Bailey; Sec.-Treas. Mrs. Ed B. Sisty; Stage Carpenter,
John Conger

John also sang baritone in the Minstrel and Glee Club which gave a performance Dec. 25, 1882, at Ruby Hall in Grand Lake where admission to the Entertainment was 50 cents.

Tickets to the supper and dance went for $2.00. Both were available at the door. Jennie sang soprano in the Glee Club which rehearsed twice a week.

John L. Conger and Jennie Young, aka Mary Lucinda Jane Young, were married at the Fairview Hotel Aug. 15, 1883, and their first child, Mary Ethlyn was born June 10, 1884, at the Fairview.

Jennie continues ... "John had spent a little time working at various things. Before I married him he was a cowhand, spent time on the railroad and a summer tramping the hills of Wyoming with a relative of his father who was successful in mining. There he met two other young fellows, Chuck Hadley and Tom Elliott. The three of them left Wyoming and went over to Clear Creek to try their hand. They were not successful, but they did get a job with Sam Monniger running a sluice box so that they didn't starve. My grandfather used to find John's distaste for and impatience with mining to be amusing. John wouldn't go when Charles Royer needed help on one of my Granddad's claims. I think that he was a little bit sorry he hadn't gone when it came in big. However, John had made and saved a little money in Grand Lake in carpentry but saw contracting as only a means to a quick end. He wanted his own land, which I guess is every man's dream. He thought of all his adventures that running cattle was the easiest and wanted to try his hand."

"In September John fell off the roof of the two-story building he had a contract to build. He was fortunate in that he landed in the wood chips pile which sufficed to cushion the fall. Nevertheless, he was layed up most of the winter with a half-broken leg, back and neck that just wouldn't work quite right. He did get all right and had no permanent ill effects from the mishaps. However, he was through with carpentry as a means of making a living.

Because of John's shaky condition, I continued to help Mother out at the Fairview when her help couldn't come and John did bookwork for my grandfather relative to the hotel and the mines. We rented out our little house and stayed at the hotel with mother. My grandfather would very patiently work over John's muscles every day, sink him in a tub of hot water and then stretch his muscles to the maximum. This continued all winter. With Granddad and god's help he did heal satisfactorily and had no permanent ill effects from the ordeal."

In November 1884 my Uncle Xavier from Indiana came for a visit. He'd served in the Union Army with Judge Wescott who was my grandfather's long-time friend from his early days at Hot Sulphur Springs, Georgetown and Central City. Wescott now lived at Grand Lake and at my mother's hotel in the winter. Between the three of them, John had plenty of good and some not so good advice about how to start a cattle operation.

John Lincoln Conger and Mary Lucinda Jane Young were married on 15 Aug 1883 in Grand Lake, Grand Co., CO. Mary Lucinda Jane Young, daughter of Henry Jacob Young and Mary Jane Baker, was born on 8 Oct 1859 in Fort Wayne, Allen Co., IN. She died on 25 Feb 1947 at the age of 87 in South Pasadena, Los Angeles Co., CA. She was buried on 7 May 1947 in Eagle Co., CO, Eagle Cemetery. Mary Lucinda Jane Young APPEARANCE-TRAITS: 5'2"; slim build; dark brown hair; near fashionable appearance; affable; decisive; must have liked silk, lace and fur coats; knew quality merchandise.

AKA: Jennie

MARRIAGE-SPOUSE:

After divorcing John Conger, Jennie married George Fargher in Colorado Springs, Colo. and moved to Victor, Colo. Her fifteen years with him were quite different than with John. They made four trips to England, the Isle of Man, stopped in various places in Europe and generally had a good time for the balance of Mr. Fargher's life. After he died, she closed out his businesses gave the money to his children and moved to Southern California with Mrs. Horn who was also a widow. The Horns had moved to Upper Conger Mesa very shortly after John and Jennie had gone there so they had been good friends for years. The ladies spent a lot of time in San Diego where Mrs. Horn had children. When Mrs. Horn died in 1939, Jenny finally settled in South Pasadena where she died in 1947 of cancer. Her estate was divided equally between her two children. Shortly before she died, she gave $20,000 to each of Mr. Fargher's children. ("John Lincoln Conger," 1 Oct 1996, by Mary Jo Khan)

DIVORCE:

While reviewing early issues of the Rifle Telegram, I found the following regarding John and his womanizing. The letters were found in a trunk in 1995 while cleaning things up after my father's demise. This tale found in the Rifle Telegram, Rifle, Colo, Dec. 17, 1909, must be indicative of John's method of conducting his life.

WHERE IS DR. WILSON?

Friends in Rifle, [CO] Solicitous to Determine his whereabouts. -- Left here two months ago -- Masons are making search in this jurisdiction for him.-- No cause apparent.

The Masonic Order, in this jurisdiction, and many of his warm personal friends in Rifle are solicitous for an answer to this question.

More than this, a daughter, living in Pittsburgh, Pa., before this appears in print, will be notified of the perplexing conditions connected with his absence.

The doctor left Rifle eight weeks ago. Before leaving, he confided to Mr. Boughton, of J.W. Hugus and Company, who is a prominent Mason, that he intended to go to Denver, procure furniture and fit up an office and rooms so that he could have the daughter come out and furnish him a home.

He had even declared his intentions in a more emphatic manner by suggesting that his ideal in a business way would be the purchase of some of the land on the Mesa to the east of town, where a modest little sanitarium could be built and where accommodations could be provided for the well to do as well as the poor.

He asked Mr. Boughton to transfer whatever mail might come over to the Boughton box at the post office. Since his departure not one word has been heard from him, and while he may be simply isolated from mail facilities temporarily, his friends are beginning to worry.

As nearly as it is possible to ascertain, the daughter has been attending the University in Pittsburgh, and her grace and manner was a favorite topic for the doctor. At times he seemed gloomy and lonesome and confided his isolation to his most intimate friends, but to the outside world he always appeared optimistic and happy.

It is stated that he appeared to have plenty of money and it is known that he often carried considerable with him on his person. This has led to the suggestion that he might have met with foul play. His habits and wide experience, however, would lead to the conclusion that he was able to care for himself.

Last spring he purchased a tract of land in Washington County, East of Denver, but it is not believed that he has located or attempted to locate in this vicinity.

Nothing is known of any indisposition which he might have had that might have caused his sudden death, and the matter is a complete mystery to his friends here. Mr. Boughton has notified the daughter that all mail and checks have been returned here and that there is no explanation for his continued absence.

Dr. Wilson is extensively traveled. He was formerly U.S. Surgeon for Alaska, and has seen service as physician and surgeon in the Navy Department. His travels have extended to nearly every portion of the globe, and it is believed by some that the old habit has again taken hold of him and that he is pursuing the nomadic traits of nature.

Personally the doctor made many friends in Rifle. He was agreeable in conversation, and an interesting talker on account of his broad and varied experience. He was recognized as a first-class surgeon and general physician.

The only feature of the affair that would even tend to indicate that he intended to remain away for some time is the fact that before his departure for Denver he ordered his professional cards taken out of the newspapers, but this is only used as a connecting link in the chain that might suggest the idea that he intended to remain away permanently.

Nothing is known of any reason why he should have desired to leave Rifle, as he often expressed himself as a firm believer in the future of the town.

DR. WILSON HAS BEEN LOCATED: Our esteemed Dr. Wilson has been located in Nevada in good health and in the company of his cousin, the notorious John Conger. However, I'm sad to say that our good friend John's health and well being are probably in great jeopardy owing to his sordid activities being found out by the wife.

Here's the story: Mr. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Conger both boarded the train here with plans of going to Denver. Naturally conversation took place and it was found that before coming to Rifle, Dr. Wilson had purchased some claims in Nevada which were not too far from some that John Conger owned. John canceled the Indiana portion of his trip, sent his wife, Jennie, on forward while he and Dr. Wilson went to Nevada and Utah on mining business. John promised to catch up with Mrs. Conger in Indiana as soon as possible and then together they would go on to Pennsylvania. Mrs. Conger waited nearly two months in Indiana with no word from John and decided to return to Rifle instead of continuing on to Pennsylvania without him.

The authorities had tried to find John Conger when they began looking for Dr. Wilson, but he was no where to be found. When Mrs. Conger came home, the authorities were told of her return and she was questioned. She assured us all that John and his cousin Dr. Wilson were probably safe and sound, but that she would send a telegram to them and let us know. When she got no response to her telegrams from John, she, her son-in-law, Ben Lemon, and J.F. McCoy from Glenwood Springs all decided that they should go to Utah and Nevada to investigate the matter.

Our lost dandies were both found registered in a local hotel with a Mrs. The happy couples were both out of the hotel for dinner when Mrs. Conger's search party arrived. Mrs. Conger plunged head first into inquiring at the hotel desk about John Conger and there was nothing either man could do to shield her from the horrid truth of her husband's conduct. Mrs. Conger never missed a beat. She drew herself up to her full five feet two inches of height, tipped the clerk and turned on her heel and left the desk. This was the first that either Ben or JF knew about such conduct on John's part. Neither of the men knew what to say or do for Mrs. Conger. JF determined upon further examination of the desk clerk that Mr. and Mrs. Conger had stayed at his hotel many times in the past two years, and the lady in the lobby was certainly not Mrs. Conger.

The real Mrs. Conger assured both men that she was fine and suggested that they should both go on up to bed and rest as they'd had a long trip and must be tired. She was going to wait for John and then would be up to bed. Mrs. Conger got a piece of paper from the desk clerk and requested that a pitcher of lemonade and a bottle of his cheapest whiskey be brought to her in the lobby for her refreshment while she waited. She wrote a note to the phony Mrs. Conger as follows: "My Dear Mrs. Conger, It takes a great deal of effort and more than reasonable tolerance to be the real Mrs. John L. Conger I have found. For years he's chased trollops and you are only the latest in a string of them. If you think it is going to lead anywhere but to unhappiness, you are sadly wrong. If you've had a ceremony, John's a bigamist and your marriage is illegal. Jennie Conger, The Real Mrs. Conger."

Ben and JF went upstairs, talked over the situation, and decided to go back downstairs and wait for John with Mrs. Conger. As they came down the stairs, they encountered the scene as follows: The happy couples were seated with their backs to Mrs. Conger who was scooted down in a chair at the end of the couch. Due to her diminutive stature, she could not be seen from the couch on which the revelers were sitting. The real Mrs.

Conger rose like a phoenix from her chair, delivered her note to the phony Mrs. Conger, grabbed the pitcher of lemonade and poured it on John and then poured the bottle of cheap whiskey on the phony Mrs. Conger. She then turned on her heel, left the hotel and went to the train station where she boarded the departing train which happened to be the San Francisco Special. JF threw a handful of money to the Clerk with instructions to clean up the mess, grabbed Ben by the arm and they both ran for the train arriving just in time to catch the caboose as it left the station. When last seen, John L. Conger was in a state of shock and his sweet honey was yelling at him like a wild woman.

Ben spent the trip to San Francisco on the caboose and JF spent the balance of the trip reasoning with Mrs. Conger. After a few days in San Francisco all three returned to Rifle on the train. John and Dr. Wilson have not returned to our midst.

This truly lovely, giving and usually every bit a lady is well liked amongst our midst. If she has had to tolerate this scurrilous conduct on John's part all these years, she sincerely has the sympathy of the editor of this newspaper. I do not feel that she deserves such shabby conduct on the part of her husband. She is the sort of woman that most men would be proud to have as their wife and would spend their waking hours making her happy instead of sad. John is a well-heeled fool.

DIVORCE:

Relationships are complicated affairs and doubly complicated once the cornerstone of faith has been eroded. John's womanizing is apparently true as letters between Mother and daughter survive from as early as 1891 making references to the trysts. Girlfriend Lilly seems to be the only one that came to review the situation for herself.

Jennie wrote her Mother, Mary Jane Hanscome in Wolcott about the incident.

"Mother,

I think that I have probably come to the end of my rope with John's tom cating. I guess he really did marry me for my money. I just as well admit the horrid truth about my misjudgment of John's character and get on with putting my life in order. My children are grown and getting on with their own cycles of life so I'm just responsible to myself now. I've always been a good judge of character, but where John was concerned I must have been blind. I just thought all respectable men were faithful and respectable husbands like Dad and Granddad, but that just isn't so. John had the audacity to leave me sitting for nearly two months in Ft. Wayne waiting for him to come so that we could go on to Pennsylvania together. I never got as much as a post card from the man. I finally just came home only to find I was in a bigger fire.

"I was fool enough to go hunting for him when he and Wilson didn't come back. McCoy decided that we should go hunt John up, and I didn't really protest considering the circumstances. The worst part is that Ben went with us. I found John in his usual hotel in Nevada with a couple of trollops. When I first came to know about this conduct, I thought that his shabby behavior was in some way my fault, but I don't think so any more. I'm no raving beauty but I'm no mud fence either and he knew it when he married me. Compared with my peers I know I'm better preserved and I can function a whole lot better so I don't think my plainness or functionality is the problem. John Conger has the problem.

"When put on the spot, John says that he doesn't want a divorce, but he persists with this abhorrent behavior. I guess most men somewhere along the way begin to think at times with the wrong end of their anatomy, but John's hell in bed craze started earlier and has struck harder than most. There comes a point of too much and judging from my conduct I've reached the point.

"When I next see the man I may serve notice of divorce and wanted you to hear it from me and not others first. If he changes his ways I'll stay, but I'm not trash and I won't be treated as such by this man. I want you to do several things for me. Have Mr. Hanscome get me the necessary recorded documents to prove in court what I brought to this marriage in land and money. Currently everything is in John's name, but I contributed all of the land with the exception of 160 acres and a lot of money to this marriage. You know that I did all of the daily supervising of the ranches while John was away and you know how long that was at times. I wonder now if maybe he wasn't up to this "good time" trick even then. However, for now, I'll give him the benefit of the doubt.

I want your affidavit as to how much cash you gave us in the beginning for cattle and whatever documentation you have for what Granddad gave me. I refuse to leave this marriage without my half (need it or not) even though John acts as though it is all his. However, he has always given me the money I needed without much discussion.

I want you to talk to Mr. Hanscome and have him arrange your affairs so that your assets go to my children in the event I go through with a divorce and some judge rules against my request on the strength of what I may inherit from you. It's not that I need the half as much as it is the principal of the situation and John's conduct.

Also, you once mentioned a life insurance policy that Mr. Hanscome had taken out on us a long time ago. What is the status of the policy or policies? Just get all of these documents and hold them for me.

"I guess you were right when you wanted me to marry J.N. Pettingill. You were quite right about John and his ways. You saw things that I couldn't see. Sorry I was such a silly girl, but at the time John was what I wanted and still is if he straightens up.

"Thank you and I love you. My best to Mr. Hanscome.
All my love, Jennie."

DIVORCE: Mrs. Hanscome wrote back.

"My Darling Daughter,

I'm so sorry that John Conger has broken your heart. You were so much in love with that lovable rogue. You're wrong that I didn't like him. I did and so did your Grandfather. Your Grandfather only felt that he was a little too dashing and fun-loving to keep his nose to life's grindstone and that has proven true. To this day he is still very handsome and women flock to him like bees to honey. Even Alfred has commented on his magnetism and persuasive talents.

John has been successful financially beyond either of your wildest dreams and for that I'm grateful. That success though has had its price. He was gone so much that maybe he just strayed onto the wrong path because he was lonely. If the women is the only problem, ask why and don't be judgmental. See what his explanation for them is. He likes company and you're not around so he found some. Maybe it's just that simple. You always seem to get along quite well when he's here. However, if a divorce is necessary, then so be it. Just be sure that it is what you really want before you start on that path. You have our blessings and support either way, but do be fair with John also. He has worked very hard through the years. What you brought in property and money was substantial, but it was nothing more than the start that you both needed at the time. Your Grandfather and I only wanted you to have our excess resources when you needed them rather than waiting until we were dead and gone. It was John who had the business acumen to keep it and to make it multiply so handsomely for you both. This was also a substantial contribution that you must not overlook in your anger. Also, your children will only think ill of you if you don't maintain a proper perspective in the settlement.

If he's being tight and you need money, I can give you some. If divorce is the answer, you are right not to compromise about half of the property. Alfred feels that you will get a square deal at court. If you do file, Alfred knows the Judge from his Harvard days and will pay him a visit on your behalf, though I don't know how much good it will do. Alfred wants to know if you feel that John has been up front with you about his investments. He could have stashed money anywhere since his boundaries have been both oceans and Canada. Alfred knows that he has money in accounts in Kansas City in sizable amounts some of which I suppose belongs to Clay. Alfred will get a copy of all the incorporation papers for you. He already has Clay and Company which he had gotten some years back for John when he was in the lawsuit. John never came to get them so I guess he didn't need them in the end.

If you follow through with your divorce intentions, the gossip mongers are going to have a field day. Just remember that these gossip folks will gossip regardless. We have all lived here long enough to have a good handle on our reputations so never you mind about those aspects of the situation. Hold your head high and be the lady you have always been. Your life can go on productively despite a divorce. You really have everything to be thankful for. Good health, lots of friends and enough money to enjoy both whether you get your half from John or not. Your Grandfather has very liberally taken care of all of us. I miss him so.

All my love, Your Mother."

LAND:

John and Jennie must have done their estate planning at the time of their divorce. The land was all transferred to their children. The business buildings in Rifle were sold and the cash split between them. John bought Jennie's half of the Rifle House and kept all of the furniture. The balance of the investments were converted to cash and split 50-50 between them. John then reinvested his half. At this point, each walked away with $175,000.00 per Jennie's and her daughter's diaries. The Record Court documents don't have much other than that they got the property divided to the satisfaction of both parties. Open Court Reporter Documents reveal a good bit more. Title to the Rifle house was not effected by Court Hearing time so the title to the house was deposited with the bank at Rifle, until John got his cash together to buy out Jennie's half. Prior to the divorce Fred had bought a piece of land from his father. Fred continued to pay for this property after the divorce. Ben and Mary gave John a cash payoff for theirs.

LEGAL_MATTER:

After the divorce, Jennie moved to Denver. Jennie's diary indicates that she took a look at the mail coming to her house addressed to John and discovered that John hadn't been very truthful about his investments and had forgotten to change the address of record. They went back to Court three times and she was awarded half each time. She promptly divided whatever she received between the children. This hidden asset problem kept surfacing until after 1950 as unclaimed assets that were about to be sold or turned over to the State as unclaimed property. According to Mary and Jennie's diaries, these assets turned up in Mo., Ill., New Mex., Colo., Calif., Nebr. and Wyo. and those are just the ones that Jennie got wind of.

Obviously Jennie had offers of companionship so her "plainness" must not have been much of a hindrance. In truth I don't think she was such a plain woman judging from the jewelry she chose to wear that came into my possession. Pictures of her portray a well-kept woman who kept up with fashion. It would appear that George Fargher was quick to seize the initiative and did become her second husband very shortly after her divorce from John. Jennie did go to Europe but I have not figured out yet whether it was before or after she and George were married. His letter to her is as follows:

MARRIAGE-SPOUSE:

"Cripple Creek, _____,

Dear Jennie,

Forgive my forwardness, but I just heard from Frank Gough that you are finally divorcing John. I know this was not a decision that you came to lightly. Knowing you, you probably feel like you carry a scarlet letter. I urge you not to give such nonsense a second thought. You should have done it a long time ago. Now that it's out in the open, I fired John in Gilman in '91 for just this conduct. It reflected so unfavorably upon my business when he conducted himself in such a reckless manner while being my attache.

If this divorce news is true, I hope that you will entertain an offer of courtship from me. I'm not as flamboyant nor handsome as John Conger, and your mother doesn't approve of me either, but I do own a nice home, have amassed some money in the bank and can afford to maintain a comfortable lifestyle. Above all, I do stay home. My children are all properly and securely settled in now. My only obligation is my old Mother on the Isle of Man. However, I don't think that will be an obligation for very long.

In fact, I have for the last few months been entertaining thoughts of taking a vacation to go home and see the family. I have spent the last three months organizing the help to effect the continued smooth operation of my businesses so that I can go and still have something to come back to. My Mother asks me to come in every letter now and my brother tells me she is getting quite feeble.

Since we've known each other socially for years, you probably already know me as well as you ever will. Therefore, I'll risk being gauche for a moment. Why don't you join me and I'll take you to see my home on the Isle of Man. If you would like to go on to Ireland and Bremen to see your ancestral lands, it can be arranged. Married/unmarried, with a companion/without a companion - I don't care. There will be no strings attached I promise. I've spoken of you so often to my family that they already know you pretty well. You need a change of scene now above all to let your broken heart mend. I think I could get my son to look after your parents for a short while if that has become a necessity.

As you can see from the return on the envelope, I've moved my businesses to Cripple Creek and Victor. Let me know your thoughts about my suggestions.

Best Wishes, George Fargher."

DEATH-HEALTH_HISTORY: 25 Feb 1947, South Pasadena, Los Angeles Co. CA; ovarian cancer.

CREMATION-CEMETERY: The remains were cremated and probably buried on 7 May 1947 at Eagle Cemetery, Eagle Co., CO, between her mother, M.J. Hanscome and her stepfather, Alfred Hanscome; Plot 65, Space 71 & 72. Cemetery records do not reflect this. Mary Jo Khan found this information in a book about Grand Lake where her grandmother had penciled it in. Mrs. Khan has been told that there are no Fargher graves in that cemetery. Times were tough in 1947, so there may be no other record than her daughters penciled note.

Margaret H. Vest was a widow. Her husband, John W. Reardon, was killed in a railroad accident at Rifle, Colorado. She was the mother of at least one child who would have been about 5 when she began living with John Conger. They moved to Glenwood Springs to property that John owned there. On April 1, 1918, her son and John's grandson (about the same age) went horseback riding together. Something happened and the Reardon child was drug to death. At that time John bought an eight space plot and Marion Reardon was the first space used. Margaret couldn't handle the horror of what had happened to her child. John was not much help in the matter. For a period she was institutionalized in Denver. When she came back from the institution, John went on a trip and upon return flew into a jealous rage, accused her of infidelity which Margaret felt was not true and was generally abusive. She solved the problem by divorcing John in order to preserve her own sanity.

Per Jennie's (wife no. 1) diary she sent Margaret a congratulatory note when she heard about the divorce and asked her if she needed money. Margaret did. Jennie bought her a train ticket back to Tennessee and gave her $1500.00 in cash and her blessings. When Margaret got back to Tennessee, she taught elementary school in Nashville and corresponded for some years with Jennie. Jennie declined to accept repayment of the cash advanced. Per Jennie's Diary Margaret was "...A tall, slim and genuinely sweet woman who is far too innocent to be able to keep John Conger in line without the devil's pitchfork or a lot of incidental help from God . . ."

Per Jennie's description after John's funeral as entered in her diary... "I know now what I did wrong with John Conger. I aged. This one is prettier than Margaret and young enough to be his daughter. Since he died in less than twenty-four hours after marrying her, she either poisoned him for his money or he was overstressed in bed. I wonder if I should give her a fan with the names of his harem ladies on it." . . . "As pretty as she is, it won't be long before she remarries." "I didn't see a tear for our dead husband, but certainly saw a lot of flirting with every man at the funeral." Sure enough, Katherine in three months was married to John's good friend Tom Dice of Eagle. Tom's wife had died within days of John Conger.

John-1) was born on 18 Jul 1868 in West Union, Greene Co., PA. He died on 11 Jun 1938 at the age of 69. William Franklin Conger

RESIDENCES: Lindley's Mills, Washington Co., PA

QUESTION: Where was Lindley's Mills, (Lindly's Mills) PA Located? Demas Lindley, with his family came in 1773 [to Washington Co., PA], and with him twenty other families, all from New Jersey, nearly all from the county of Morris, which had been his home before this migration. The families settled at different points along Ten-Mile Creek.

Demas Lindley located upon four hundred acres of land situated on the middle fork of Ten-Mile. This property was warranted to him, Feb. 5, 1785, receiving the title of "Mill Place," it's location being very near the present village of Prosperity. (Prosperity, PA was platted out in 1848, by Robert Wallace, page 845.)

Mr. Lindley became owner of another tract of land called, "Headquarters," warranted to him on 18 Apr 1796, containing 368 acres.

A fort was early established upon the property of Mr. Lindley, called Lindley's Fort, and was the rendezvous for the residents of the county.

Mr. Lindley built a grist and merchant mill on his property soon after his settlement here, the mills were known as "Lindley's Mills."

Demas Lindley died in 1818.

LAND:

Lindley Fort - Demas Lindley had settled on this track, known as "Mill Seat," in 1773, patented in 1785. Lindley fortified blockhouse was built in 1774-1775. Location: About a quarter mile south of Prosperity, [PA] on Pennsylvania #18.

- vii. Reed Conger died in 1937 in West Union, Greene Co., PA. He was born in Lindley's Mills, Washington Co., PA.

- 2155 viii. Juneta Conger, born 1916, Lindley's Mills, Washington Co., PA; married Edger Pollick.

1161. Eleanor Conger (Elias-6, Ephraim-5, David-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born about 1870 in West Union, Greene Co., PA. Eleanor Conger

COMMENT: Not listed in the 1880 census.

Eleanor Conger and Clarence Bristol were married. Clarence Bristol was born (date unknown).

1162. Emma Gertrude Conger (John Calvin-6, Ephraim-5, David-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born about May 1870 in West Union, Greene Co., PA. She died on 28 Jan 1923 at the age of 52 in Amity, Washington Co., PA. She was buried on 31 Jan 1923 in Amity, Washington Co., PA, Amity Presbyterian Cemetery. Emma Gertrude Conger

PARENTS: John Calvin Conger and Joannah Milliken

Problem: A birth date of 26 Nov in an unspecified year has been suggested by David Dodd. This doesn't agree with the date of birth of 27 Sep 1870 found in her obituary.

BIRTH-CONFLICT: There is much confusion about when Emma G. Conger was born. Emma G. Conger is listed in the 1870 Census of Morris Twp., Washington Co., PA, taken on 11 June 1870. This would make birth dates of either, 27 Sep 1870 or 26 Nov 1870 impossible.

Several other Conger researchers have listed her as being 8 months old at the time of the June 1870 census. It is not known where they found this information. This would make a birth date of 27 Sep 1869, plausible.

Apparently there is a tombstone with the date of birth listed as 1869.

Reading the 1870 PA Census record, Robert Guilinger, feels it clearly reads, age 1/12, thus making her date of birth Abt. May 1870. This date is used here.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Albert Benton Conger, was known as Al. Warren Grubner first met him in 1946. Warren stated that to his knowledge he was never referred to as Junior.

Al worked for the Burroughs Corp., for 43 years. He maintained adding machines, typewriters and any other machine sold by his company. His beginning territory was Brooklyn, NY. Later he transferred to Suffolk County, NY, settling in Bay Shore, NY.

John Conger Jr

He liked baseball. He coached and kept score and statistics for local teams. He once took Warren Grubner to see the "House of David" team, of all bearded men play at Huntington, NY. At that time it was the only field with lights for night games. Another time they went to Ebbetts Field to see the Dodgers play a Twi-Night Double Header with Pittsburgh.

Al worked very hard at his job. When he was at home, his wife and three daughters did his bidding.

He bowled very well and played on bowling teams. He even played catch with his 5 grandsons, sitting down.

He loved his family, had many friends and associates, but was a little conservative in his life style - socially. I am glad to have known him.

DEATH: 8 Aug 1970 at the Southside Hospital in Bayshore, NY

Albert Benton Conger and Ruth Eleanor Reid were married on 10 Jun 1923 in Brooklyn, Delaware Co., NY. Ruth Eleanor Reid, daughter of Thomas Adam Reid and Charlotte Webber, was born on 17 Jan 1903 in Brooklyn, , NY. She died on 22 Jun 1984 at the age of 81 in Bay Shore, Suffolk Co., NY. She was buried on 25 Jun 1984 in Bay Shore, Suffolk Co., NY, Oakwood Cemetery. Ruth Eleanor Reid

RECOLLECTIONS:

Ruth Eleanor Conger was the consummate extrovert. Warren Grubner met her on 19 Jun 1946 when she drove her daughter, Eleanor, to the Mason General Hospital to pick Warren up when he was discharged from the hospital.

She was talkative, smiled a lot, caring, compulsive. She became a saleslady for a dress shop (very chic place). She bought many of the dresses and wore them well. She liked to dance and often would, though her husband, Albert, only watched. Warren and Eleanor were often present at the dances.

Daughter Eleanor Conger, like her mother, wore the best. She liked high heels and was very neat with her make-up, etc. She always liked shopping. But, Eleanor was an introvert. Like her mother she was often smiling. She only spoke when spoken to, not a conversationalist at all. She was usually with her mom, so there was no need for her to speak. Mother and daughter were very close.

When Al died, Ruth kept her job with "Post and Company" and stayed in her own home until time forced her to go to live with Warren and Eleanor. Ruth added a room to the home of Warren and Eleanor at her own expense in 1978. She died in 1984.

COMMENT: The place of birth is in conflict. Mary E. Palmer wrote, "Apparently Sam's Irish birth was a well kept secret during his life. Only the family knew that his parents immigrated to NYC when he was a small child. He considered it a private joke, but Sam did show the Aberdeen city comptroller his Naturalization papers in the early 1900s. It only became public a few days after he was buried. At least I know that either census information wasn't provided by Sam or Martha, or that they felt they couldn't trust the census taker to keep it private."

RECOLLECTIONS:

Samuel Benn was born on 2 Jul 1832 in Emo, Queens, Ireland. He immigrated in 1845. He was naturalized on 9 Oct 1855 in Brooklyn, New York.

Going to California to find out what happened to two missing brothers who were working the gold fields, Sam left New York City aboard the steamer 'Northern Light' on 5 March 1856 bound for Panama. At Colon he crossed the isthmus by rail to Balboa. There he boarded the paddle wheeler 'Sonora' for California, arriving on the 26th of March. After finding out that his brothers had drowned in an accident on the Feather River, Sam worked in the Tuolumne mines.

In April 1859 Sam and a cousin, George Hubbard, sailed from California to Victoria, Canada. There they bought a sailboat and sailed Puget Sound for a month looking for a place to settle. When they stopped in Olympia they heard of the Chehalis valley and traveled overland to scout the area. Liking what they found they returned to Olympia for their boat and supplies needed to settle, arriving back at their homesteads on June 15, 1859. Sam chose the south bank while George picked the north bank of the Chehalis. At the site of the present (1935) Wishkah bridge, Sam founded his first home on Grays Harbor. Sam and his father-in-law, Reuben Redman, eventually traded their lands as Reuben was tired of pulling his cattle out of the sloughs near the harbor and Sam was looking for more land for his cattle. Sam ended up with the land at present day Aberdeen and Reuben with Melbourne.

To attract the railroad to Aberdeen, Sam gave building lots to men who either worked 10 days labor building the railroad or paid 10 days wages (at $2/day) for someone to do so. In one of the news articles after his death, it was estimated that Sam had paid over $500,000 in property taxes during his lifetime.

He appeared on the census in 1860 in Grand Mound PO, Chehalis, Washington Territory. He was Sheriff on 9 May 1860. Sam still earned a living as a carpenter. Being sheriff didn't pay well and took too much time, so Sam didn't keep the job for many years.

He appeared on the census in 1870 in Chehalis co., Washington.

He appeared on the census in 1880 in Chehalis co., Washington.

He was elected as Mayor in 1891 in Aberdeen, Grays Harbor, Washington. Mayors in Aberdeen serve 1 year terms.

Sam was 100 years old on 2 Jul 1932 and received a telegram from President Herbert Hoover, "Felicitations and God's continued blessing to Aberdeen's beloved pioneer father from a grateful nation on the occasion of the centennial of his birth."

Sam Benn died on 16 Sep 1935 in Aberdeen, Grays Harbor, Washington. According to his death certificate, he died of senility. This doesn't agree with what Sam's surviving family recalled about him and what was written in his obituaries printed in the Aberdeen newspapers. He was noted for having a sharp mind.

The headline of 'The Aberdeen Daily World' (17 Sept. 1935 front page) reads "BENN DEAD; SORROW GRIPS HARBOR, Father Of Aberdeen Expires Peacefully, Mind Clear To Last"

The obituaries refer to a recent illness (of several months) that wasn't specified. He was buried on 19 Sep 1935 in Fern Hill Cemetery, Aberdeen, Grays Harbor, Washington. The funeral services, officiated by Wm. McDowell, Russel Mack and Rev. Sylvester Robertson, were held at 2pm in the First Congregational church, First and H streets in Aberdeen. Governor Clarence D. Martin and other state officials came from Olympia to attend the funeral. The services were broadcast on KXRO radio "to permit those who through illness or the size of the crowd cannot be present inside the church" -

'Grays Harbor Washingtonian'. A front page article in the same paper reported 'City offices, stores and other business places of Aberdeen will be closed Thursday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock as a final salute to Aberdeen's "grand old man."' Even the US Post Office in Aberdeen closed for the funeral.

CENSUS: Appears in the 1860 census of Monroe Co., OH as Sarah A., age 2.

This person might have been, Sarah Ann Henthorn, who married Raleigh Yoho.

Census: 1910 in Marshall Co., WV, Franklin District, 185 186 on Pine Ridge Road
Sarah Yoho, 48, mother of 4, 3 living, b. in WV, father born in WV, mother born in WV, cannot read or write

Problem: Who were the parents of Sarah Ann Henthorn? Could they have been Elijah and Nancy Henthorn who were living in Green Twp., Monroe Co., OH 206-205 at the time of the 1870 census? They had a daughter, Sarah A., age 11, which would make her date of birth, Abt 1859. Rolly Yoho was also born in 1859.

LAND: In 1929 heirs sold the mineral rights to property they had inherited.

At an unspecified date, William Shaw signed a Quit Claim deed to Mary Jane Shaw. In 1995 John G. Shaw, son of William H. Shaw got a Quit Claim deed from Mary Jane's grandson and granddaughter. John G. Shaw and Shirley J. (Keevert) Craib have a Quit Claim deed for the 8 3/4th acres. This land is in the middle of nowhere according to Shirley Craib. As of 1995, approximately 20 trees had been cut by someone in the last 2-5 years. About 10 trees remain.

BIRTH: 1 Nov 1869, near Urich, Henry Co., MO, CFA II, p. 429-429.

OCCUPATION: Farmer

AKA: Charles Stevens in CFA II, p. 431; Charlie Stevens by Tom Stevens

BIOGRAPHY:

In sharp contrast to the travels of his father, William Stevens (1819-1891), and grandfather, John C. Wright (1811-1890), Charlie Stevens did not migrate. Born near Urich, MO, southeast of Kansas City on 1 Nov 1869, he spent his first forty years within a few miles of his birthplace.

The prolonged illness and early death of Melissa Stevens (Charlie's mother) seemed to break up the Stevens family, when coupled with the presence in the home of a new stepmother who seemed singularly hostile to the Stevens boys. There also seems to have been little contact with John Conger Wright and his family near Centerville, IA. Accordingly, Charlie's stories and life were centered around his early days in Henry county.

He married Lillie May Clark on 24 Oct 1894 at Urich, Vernon Co., MO and they began their family there.

Early in their 57 year marriage, Charlie and Lillie bought an 80 acre farm a mile south of Hartwell, MO. Ducks abounded and brought a dollar a piece at the market. Using a single-shot shotgun, Charlie killed ducks to make payments on their new farm.

In early 1918, Charlie rented two boxcars and they loaded their livestock and equipment at Hartwell, MO. With livestock in one car and tools and furniture in the other, they traveled in bitter cold weather to Schell City, about 65 miles south, where they began a new life.

They raised a family of two daughters, Gertrude and Isa, and one son, Glenn, while battling drought, Army worms, and tornadoes. Each spring brought a new burst of optimism to the small family, which spent most of its years about twenty miles northeast of Nevada, MO. Charlie farmed a small acreage with horses. A typical general farmer, he raised hogs, chickens, row crops and small grains, had an orchard and always milked a cow or two. Food filled the table and money seemed not to find a home at Stevens.

Charlie loved to fish and hunt small game. A crack shot, he also enjoyed the squirrels and rabbits he brought to the table. An extremely personable fellow, he enjoyed debates with friends and neighbors, especially about the Bible, which he seemed to know very well. He loved to play Pitch, as did his brothers, and the love of the game carried to his great-grandsons.

Charlie wielded an ax with great authority and could keep a constant stream of chips in the air. A wood chip blinded him in one eye and it was no problem for years. But it became necessary to remove the eye. Glenn Stevens, his son, recalls that he went to Charlie's the day the doctor chose to do the removal. No anesthetic was given. Glenn did not actually see the removal, but the doctor stopped to talk with him on the way out, commenting on the toughness Charlie showed. Two days later, Charlie plowed his corn.

In another instance, Glenn recalled that they found rats in the corn crib. They had to go. So, he and his dad went into the crib with clubs and a shovel. As they shoveled the corn, the rats ran out and were killed. Cold weather caused Charlie to wear an overcoat. One rat ran up under it. Charlie paused, caught the rat in his coat with one hand, squeezed it to death and went on shoveling.

While he rarely went to church, Charlie's favorite song in later years was "Love Lifted Me." He could be heard singing it as he carefully tended his garden. It would be interesting to know how he would react today if he knew that four of his great-grandchildren graduated from Bible college and are in some facet of ministry.

Charlie Stevens died on 30 Dec 1951 at Nevada, Vernon Co., MO and was buried at the Greenlawn Cemetery, Schell City, Vernon Co., MO.

BIOGRAPHY:

It is not known just when John L. Wright arrived in the Urich area in Henry County, Missouri, but it was prior to 1880. In 1880 he and his future brother-in-law, James Bollar Gillilan had their picture taken.

Mary A. Gillilan was born in Henry County, Missouri on 7 September 1859, the daughter of James Thomas and Amanda McClung Gillilan, and grew to adulthood in that area. She and John L. Wright, born in Centerville, Iowa 13 Apr 1860, were married in Henry County, [MO] on 21 February 1883. They lived in the Urich area until about the turn of the century when they moved to Dodge City, Kansas.

When the railroad was built near Grand River in the Urich area, the town of Urich was moved to the railroad location. The land for the present town was purchased from J.L. Wright and J.T. McClung who was a double cousin of Mary Gillilan Wright. The first lots were sold in July 1885, part of which was called the Wright Addition. Lots were sold for from $5.00 to $15.00 per lot. Immediately after the sale of the lots, the town began to move to the new location.

In August, R.J. Hurley purchased land for the R.J. Hurley Lumberyard, and Power of Attorney was made for James T. McClung and wife, Elizzie, John L. Wright and wife, Mary, "to bargain sell upon such terms as may seem to him best, all the interest we have in any or all the lots in the Town of Urich in Henry County, Missouri." Dated July 8, 1885. This property was purchased by James T. Gillilan (father of Mary) in 1860 and owned by him until his death in 1877.

R.J. Hurley of Bates County bought several lots in 1885 from John L. and Mary A. Wright for the sum of $585.00.

John and Mary had three children: Lela Ethel, born 26 Jul 1886 at Urich and died 5 Dec 1986, just past her 100th birthday. Omer Gillilan Wright, born 5 Oct 1890 at Urich and died 15 Nov 1964 in Ogden, Utah. Gladys Wynne born 4 July 1892 at Urich, and died 10 September 1972 in San Leandro, California.

John and Mary moved from Urich to Dodge City, Kansas in 1898, where they lived many years before moving to Colorado for sometime, and in the early 1940's they moved to San Leandros, California. This is where John L. and Mary died, although they are buried in Dodge City, Kansas.

Lela Ethel first married George H. Partridge, and in this marriage she had two children: Jewell Delida and John Lowell. Shortly after the birth of these children, she and Mr. Partridge were divorced. She later married Fletcher King Parks, and he adopted her two children. Mr. Parks is buried in the Urich, Missouri Cemetery, and Ethel is buried in Oakland, California.

Omer G. married Ruby Ethel Jones. They had three children: John Vernon, Frances Carol, and Omer Gerald. Omer and Ruby lived many years in Odgen, Utah, and this is where Omer died.

Gladys W. married Leon Barron Young, and their children were: Corenne Hope and Kenton Boyne. Gladys and Leon died in San Leandro, California, and [were] buried in that area.

This family lived for many years on Gardner Boulevard in San Leandro, California, however when I attempted to contact them in 1994, I could find no trace of them in that area. Unfortunately, all contact with them has been lost.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Aunt Mary and Uncle John [Wright] were delightful people. Aunt Mary was a rather tall lady, nice looking, and always perfectly groomed. She was a "no-nonsense" type of lady, but she also had a wonderful sense of humor, and [was] always pleasant and felt the world was [a] good place to live. She lived a long and health[y] life passing away in her 96th year. She was living with her daughter, Ethel, in San Leandro, [CA]. One morning after having her breakfast, she said she thought she would take a nap. The nap was a permanent one, she did not wake up. She lived her life to the fullest, and left it in the same way.

RECOLLECTIONS:

About 1906 the family moved to southern Missouri, later to Kansas, then to Colorado. Because of the serious illness of a young son in 1911, the family returned to Iowa and settled on a farm in the Zoar vicinity. After two years, they bought a farm near Cincinnati, [IA] in the Mayflower school district, where most of the children attended the rural school and high school at Cincinnati. All, except three of the children who grew to adulthood, were school teachers.

In our large family, each had plenty to do. We farmed, had our own thrashing machine - powered by a steam engine, of course, sawed lumber, and oh yes, made sorghum molasses. What a sticky mess! Neighbors sometimes brought cane for us to make into molasses for them. The taffy and popcorn balls were favorite treats for the kids during the autumn and winter.

RECOLLECTIONS: Wild Hogs Were Cause of People Climbing Trees

E.A. [sic J.A.] Wright living on Cincinnati R. 2 [Iowa] has an interesting story to tell of incidents handed down by his parents and grandparents concerning early days. [Note: The first line was in error. It should read, "J.A. Wright for John Albert Wright." REH] He furnishes the following:

I see you have been wanting to hear some stories about some of the earliest settlers in Appanoose county. I will try to give a true story concerning this matter just as I remember it and that which has been handed down to me by my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Wright, and grandparents.

My grandfather John C. Wright's family came here when father was seven years old, in the year of 1847, which has been 86 years ago. My great-grandfather, Jesse McElroy came a few years before but I do not know the date; however, it was long before Centerville, [IA] was begun or heard of.

The first store built in Centerville was a log building west of Wooden's bank and near by where the Lowrey store now stands. It was several years before the town was started and probably several years after that before the newspaper was begun, but I am sure that it was taken by my grandfather at the time, or within a short while after it was first published as the "Citizen."

The early settlers didn't have much money, but they didn't need very much because in that day there were little taxes [t]o pay. My grandfather was a cooper; he could make good oak barrels and sell them for $1.00 each. I don't say he always got a dollar, because money was so scarce, but if he didn't he could trade them for something else he needed.

There were four boys, including my father, who learned to tan deer hides and plait in large cattle whips. Father learned to be a good cattle driver while very young and helped drive ten or twelve yoke of oxen to a 22-in. breaking plow and also helped turn the prairie over not far from where Centerville now stands; they sometimes turned under hazlebrush four or five feet high, but of course they didn't expect to raise much the first year on that kind of breaking. However, by the second year it could be put in good shape.

When Grandfather Wright first came here he settled in what is now known as the Beggs farm, about six miles west of Moulton and about one-half mile west of the south end of the Old Goose Lake where they remained for a period of two or three years, because of having the chills and ague so bad they let that place go back and settled on part of the old farm now owned by Dave Daniels, which is about four miles southeast of Centerville. He lived on that place and owned it until he died.

The Old Goose lake which I previously mentioned was much deeper in their time than it was when I can first remember it; it had a ridge around the edge two or three feet high. No white man ever knew how it got there but some of the earliest settlers thought that it might have been done by the wild hogs.

The early settlers went through many hardships, they had to go to Keokuk to mill, which was a very long trip and was generally accompanied with much grief. Many times on these trips they would be caught in storms, rivers and creeks would be out of banks, which would detain them, and many times teams would run off. These stories which our folks told, sounded funny to us kids.

The Wild Hogs

At first there were signs left everywhere by the Indians, wild game, turkey, geese, ducks, etc. Also the prairie wolf and the wild hog, which was very different from our tame hogs. They were not considered good for food and some of them were the most dangerous things to meet without one had a good gun; they could not be tamed and if penned up for awhile, they wouldn't eat or do any good. Many stories we heard of them chasing people up trees, running dogs, and when a dog saw a herd of them he would run for his master, who had to immediately climb a tree and remain there until the herd had gone.

The ponds, lakes and streams had plenty of fish which were very easy to catch. It was sometimes impossible to get anything to make bread out of, and father said they had to eat hominy and dried venison only, for a while. Some will remember that they didn't have good guns then as now; an old flint-lock rifle or a long barreled rifle, using caps, was used.

I guess I should have mentioned that all our folks came from Ohio. The Wrights came by boat to Keokuk, then in a wagon the balance of the way. Grandfather Daniels' family drove clear through and just happened to take up and build on part of the same claim that our Grandfather Wright had relinquished back a few years before. Then father bought out the Daniels' heirs and we moved there when I was seven years old, where he lived until he sold out in 1900. It can be seen that both of the grandfathers lived on the same farm.

At the present time the folks have all moved away to Oklahoma, Colorado, Arkansas, Missouri and other places except Wm. Stevens of near Sedan, Mrs. Clara McCreary of Centerville, and the writer of this article.

We have a few old relics including Grandfather Wright's old cooper ads, which I suppose is considerably over 100 years old, and also some old papers, receipts, deeds, etc., dating back to the early times.

I used to know, where many of the old roads were, also including the old Mormon ford across the Chariton river, but such things did not concern me then in the least. So I'm not sure that I could locate them now since so many changes have been made.

The old Wright cemetery, which is about three miles southeast of Centerville near the Hawkeye school by the Brannon crossing has been much neglected. All of the Wrights' grandparents are buried there, besides many others of the family, together with lots of old settlers. It has been so neglected that several old graves cannot be located.

But readers, "Will you stop for a moment and think of the future?" What about 86 years from now? But we cannot tell about the future.

I am sure glad to contribute these few lines, hoping it will reach many welcome readers. Also I can hardly wait to read other stories of the earliest settlers in Appanoose county.

Here's hoping the earliest settlers a good time, with none of the grief of the early days. The Iowegain, I'm sure, has served as a history of our county for our people since it was first edited and has been read by each family, also hoping that this article will help with its history, also thanking the editor for this opportunity. ### COMMENT: Wright Reunion

The second Wright reunion was held in the Centerville, [Iowa] City Park July 24, [1983].

A basket dinner was held at the noon hour.

Nineteen descendants of John A. and Mary A. Wright attended the morning services at the Methodist Church in Cincinnati where they had attended when they were growing up. They lived on a far south of Cincinnati, and the children attended the Mayflower rural school. They attended high school in Cincinnati.

Of the seven Wright children, six are still living. They are Ruth Patterson, Bertha Bauman, Mary Correll, Lola Patterson, Boyd Wright and Paul Wright.

Following the dinner, the afternoon was spent visiting, picture taking and reading letters from some who were unable to attend.

COMMENT: Wright-Riggle Reunion Held

The Wright-Riggle reunion was held Saturday, June 15, 1991, at the Centerville, [Iowa] City Park.

Of the 11 children born to John A. and Mary A. Riggle Wright, five are deceased, and of the six remaining, five attended the reunion Saturday. Paul the youngest son, lives in Florida and could not be present. Those living are Ruth Patterson, Centerville; Bertha Bauman, Clio, Mich.; Mary Correll, Meadview, Ariz.; Boyd Wright, Cincinnati, [IA]; Paul Wright of Port Orange, Fla.; and Lola Patterson of Centerville, [IA].

The family lived south of Cincinnati in the Mayflower School district where they

COMMENT: Wright-Riggle families hold reunion recently in Exline
The Wright/Riggle reunion was held at the Exline Community Center in Exline, [IA] on Saturday, June 19, [1993]. A basket dinner was shared at noon after John Bauman of Flint, Mich., asked the blessing. Of the descendants of John Albert Wright and Mary Almina Riggle Wright, six of their 11 children are living and were present at the reunion: Ruth Patterson, Lola Patterson, Boyd Wright, Bertha Bauman, Paul Wright and Mary Correll. They grew up in the Mayflower School District south of Cincinnati, [IA] and the majority of them became school teachers.

An acknowledgement was made of those relatives who have passed away since our last reunion two years ago. Special recognition was given to the oldest person attending, Ruth Patterson of the Centerville Care Center, who is 90 years old; the person coming the farthest, Paul Wright from Port Orange, Fla.; and the youngest person, 21-day-old Heidi Gottman of Cincinnati.

[Note: A list of attendees and places of residences appeared here. REH]

When John A. and Mary A. Wright's children were growing up they regularly attended the Methodist Church in Cincinnati, [IA]. Enough descendants chose to experience the worship service in this same church on Sunday morning following the reunion to fill four pews. After the worship service several enjoyed lunch at the Blue Bird in Centerville, where they were privileged to chat with another cousin and her husband who were unable to attend the reunion, Don and Wilma Lister of Centerville.

After an exciting weekend of renewing relationships and starting new ones, the Wright/Riggle family is looking forward to [the] next year's (sic) reunion on June 17, 1995.

RECOLLECTIONS: Harley Conger, son of John Thomas Conger, recalls the following incidents, submitted by his son, Milton Bailey (Pete) Conger.

"When Alfred, Horace, John, Harley and Roy [Conger] were small boys the adventurous men who scouted in the West were the heroes of the day and were revered by these boys. One of these retired scouts was grandfather, John Burtlow, who was the father of [Laura] Viola (Burtlow) [Conger.] He had scouted for the army out of Fort Wallace, Kansas and Fort Laramie, Wyoming and up through Yellowstone Park and in the Dakotas. Grandfather Burtlow would sit with the boys in the afternoon shade and tell wonderful stories of the west and fighting Indians, of swimming dangerous rivers, etc. He could shoot out a squirrel's eye, saying the squirrel was not fit to eat if shot otherwise. He was a deadly shot. Grandfather scouted with Buffalo Bill Cody and also knew Wild Bill Hickock.

"When John T. [Conger] was sparking Viola, before they were married, he was coming home through heavy woods one night. Uncle Owen Bowers waited behind a log to scare John T., as reports had come in of a big cat in the neighborhood. He waited for John T. to come close; then Owen raised up from behind the log and made a terrifying sound like a cat. What Owen didn't know -- but was soon to find out -- was that John T. carried two nice big rocks in his hands! Immediately he threw at that terrible cat (he thought) and hit it directly in the forehead. From the whooping and hollering then ensuing from behind the log he knew that Uncle Owen had tried to play another trick on him. This one back-fired.

"John T. acquired a 160 acre timbered farm 6 miles south of Ottumwa, Iowa. He cut barrel hoops and delivered them to Ottumwa Packing House for $9.00 per thousand. All the family worked at the barrell hoops and they did this work in the kitchen of the house in the winter time on a shaving horse.

"Tom (John T.) and Harley went to Fremon to do some trading; Tom had a good horse except he was a "stump sucker." They met a friend that had a heavier mare and the friend talked Tom into an even trade. Seemed like a fine horse for the first few miles; then it became evident that the mare had 'heaves.' When they reached home Viola said, 'Tom, what happened to your horse?' Upon confessing the trade to her, Viola said, 'Dog-gone it, Tom, you know you can't trade horses without getting took every time. You are too honest to come out ahead of a horse-trader.'

"Times were tough and it seemed the people of substance looked down on tenant farmers (Tom and his boys farmed and did building at the same time). It seemed that they could not get ahead, so Tom began to think about moving west. In 1906, he took a Homestead at Landsman, Colorado (near Burlington) on the South Fork of the Republican River. After the covered wagon trip in 1907 Viola was very homesick and returned to Iowa to visit her people. While in Iowa she became ill with smallpox and was under quarantine.

"Tom wrote: 'Well, Viola, I would like to hear from you, we are well. Write and tell me when you are going to get to go to Delta and make arrangements to come home.

"'Monday and Tuesday we are going to plant a big corn patch, about 20 acres and get us a mill to make molasses. Well, Viola, I attended a meeting today with the beet factory men and signed a $100.00 note for a railroad and factory and agreed to raise 20 acres of beets. You know what a railroad means to us; it means that our land is worth $50.00 per acre today. We will build a good stone house and get a good grow. Won't we enjoy life?

"'Now Uncle Porter (Burtlow), we are building that stone house for Mace. We have the first story built. Porter, everybody is going wild over the railroad. You ought to be here as soon as you can and get in on the ground floor. When they locate the towns there will be a boom. There will be about five towns from St. Francis. All will have to be build. It will take 1,000 hands for the beets. I like this country better every day I stay here.

"'Viola, when you get home let us spend the rest of our days together and be happy. We have had a long and stormy life so let us build and enjoy our remaining days as best we can. I hope when these lines come to hand it will find you all well.' (From Tom to Viola)

"Tom later returned to Iowa for his family, livestock and belongings. The family making the trip consisted of Tom and wife, Viola, children: Alfred, Horace, John, Roy, Harley and Merle. Also, Grandmother, Mahala [E. (Bowers) Conger], and her other son, Aaron Conger. The trip was made in a covered wagon, also one riding horse. The family carried a tent which was pitched at night to sleep in. In Nebraska Grandmother became sick so they pitched camp and nursed her back to health. During this time Tom got a job on construction at some small town. Two weeks later they were able to travel. Without further incident they arrived at the Colorado homestead on October 25, 1907.

"The railroad was never finished. ... no beets were raised until 1956 -- twenty-vie

DEATH: Cause not known in boat accident The cause of a boating accident off the Oregon coast that claimed the lives of a Morro Bay, [CA] couple remains a mystery to Coast Guard investigators. The bodies of Oliver Conger, 64, and his wife, Grace, 62, were found floating early July 29, [1975] by fishing boat "Native Daughter," 210 miles northwest of Astoria. Pieces of their boat, "White Cap," were found nearby.

"None of the debris examined so far shows any evidence of a collision with another boat," said Lt. Robert Nield, a marine safety inspector for the Coast Guard in Portland, OR.

Neild said he was waiting to examine more pieces of debris from the "White Cap" which are being brought into port by a fishing boat that was at the scene of the accident. Nield said that a coroner's investigation has determined that the couple did not die from a blast or fire. He said both Congers had water in their lungs.

Mrs. Conger also received shark bites on the leg and arm. Neild pointed out, however, that the sharks were not viciously attacking the bodies. Nield also speculated the bodies were found shortly after the accident because the debris was still together. The reason their bodies were afloat was natural gas in their stomachs and intestines.

The Congers started fishing for pleasure in 1961. Conger had been a contractor and his wife a county employee in Marin County. They were fishing for tuna with a group of 12 other boats about 250 miles off Cape Flattery, WA. Frank Martin, a commercial fisherman, spotted the wreckage of the "White Cap" and sailed over to find the bodies afloat and sharks circling around them.

Problem: CFA II, p. 118 lists the date of birth as, 17 Nov 1874 and in his account of his life in Oklahoma, Elisha Conger's birth date is listed as Nov 1873.

MOTHER-CONFLICT: In his recollections he lists his mother as, Anna (Harmon) Conger. Based on his date of birth, 17 Nov 1874, it seems more likely that Joanna (Wiley) (Conger) (Harmon) Hunt was his step-mother and that his mother was, Mary E. Felker, who died, 24 Nov 1874, shortly after his birth, probably as a result of complications due to the birth. Of course, Joanna would be the only mother he would have remembered.

RECOLLECTIONS: Elisha Conger Remembers Early Days in Oklahoma Territory I am sixty-four years of age, having been born in November 1873 on a little farm near Fort Smith, Arkansas, and now live on Route 2, Oktaha, Oklahoma.

Father: Tom Conger, white man born in Kentucky. Mother: Anna Harmon-Conger, born in Indiana.

I came along with my parents in 1886 from Arkansas and we first settled on a farm in the Sugarloaf mountain region near the town of Cameron, Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, and began farming with one mule and a single stock. The next year we moved near Texanna, Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

The school and church buildings in these localities (The Choctaw and Cherokee Nations) were of native lumber construction and some few were of slab construction, the slabs being set up end-wise. The residences occupied by the Indians and some whites were principally of log construction with rock fire places built of native stone. Roofs were of shaped shingles and some of these cabins had dirt floors and no windows.

The English language was taught in the schools and the church I attended was of the Baptist faith.

We raised cotton and corn. We did not pick cotton in sacks as they do now but we used baskets that held about two bushels. The gin at Cameron was operated by horsepower and likewise the one in Texanna. The man who operated and owned the gin and mill at Texanna was named John Pierce. Cotton seed in the late eighties were of no value. People did not feed them to their stock or send them to a cotton oil mill as they do today to get the lint, hulls, meal and oil.

We gave one-eighth of the corn for toll. Out of two bushels of shelled corn, shelled by hand, with toll out, we would get back a two-bushel sack full of seed.

The cost of ginning cotton, a horse-power gin, we would have to pay three dollars a bale, which included ginning, bagging, and ties. It was tied by hand.

Our social affairs consisted of barbecues, camp meetings, horse racing, foot racing and poker games. Our camp meetings usually would last for two or three weeks at a time. The meetings usually would start along in the fall and we would take our bedding & provisions and just camp near the meeting grounds until the meeting time. There were old arbors. They were constructed of poles, limbs and brush. Seats were usually logs rolled into position.

There were lots of wild berries and fruits such as blackberries, dewberries, hawberries, grapes, plums and a few seedling peach trees. There was plenty of nuts, namely hickory nuts, walnuts, chinquapins and pecans. All kinds of game haunted the sections of these parts of Choctaw and Cherokee Nations, such as black bear, panther, wild cat, wild turkey, deer, quail, rabbit, squirrel, possum and raccoon. The first deer I ever saw was in the big Sugarloaf Mountains, in the now LeFlore County, Oklahoma; and the first black bear was about four miles north of the South Canadian River, near Texanna, now McIntosh county.

All the streams, large and small, were full of all kinds of fish. The Indians used to catch lots of fish and the prize fish among the Choctaws was the Sun-Perch. They would cook them brown and eat them bones and all.

In the now LeFlore County and near the towns of Cameron, Bokoshe and Panama, coal was just beginning to be mined and when the Kansas City Southern Railroad came through that section, little mining camps sprang up every few miles.

There were herds of wild horses in the Sugarloaf Mountain region. They would come down on the plains to graze and take refuge in the mountains. There was lots of wild hogs in the low lands and woods on the South Canadian near Texanna. If a man could show that he had turned out some three or four gilts and a boar he had what they called a hog title and that would permit him to kill a wild hog for food when he so desired. These hogs were never fed by anyone, as they lived on the moss, acorns, hickory nuts, pecans, chinquapins, roots, grass and herbs. They usually hunted and killed these hogs for meat in the late fall for at this time they would be fat on the moss.

There was considerable stock raising, cattle. The market was Fort Smith, Arkansas. However, some were driven north on the Texas road for points in Missouri. The cattle grazed on the open range, herded by cow hands or sometimes called cowpunchers. These cowpunchers were men of very little education, but they were all jolly good fellows, honest and square in all their dealings, and law abiding citizens.

I might say more than law abiding citizens, for their six shooters were the Law. A thief in their midst meant if they knew him to be guilty, that is caught in the act, of rustling cattle or horses, that he be left dangling at the end of a rope tied to the limb of a tree with his body riddled with bullets. They would pull their cow ponies off a few paces after the thief was hung and with their six-shooters and saddle guns, rifles, which they carried to protect themselves, and fire volleys of shots into the body of the thief. The reason they always carried these weapons was not only to protect themselves but to protect their herds from cattle rustlers, coyotes and other wild animals.

The Kansas City Southern Railroad built into what is now LeFlore County in the early '80s. I can't recall the exact year. The old steamboat landing at Skullvill was missed by the railroad and the town of Spiro sprang up, back a few miles from the river. When grading through this section for the railroad hundreds upon hundreds of human bones were excavated, supposedly those of Indians who had died years before from some epidemic as they were buried side by side in long trenches, and it was nothing unsightly to see hundreds of skulls in a pile together that the railroad men would pick up on their shovels and pile back. I never did know why the steamboat landing was called Skullville, but it was a very appropriate name for it for nothing more than the above named reason.

In the early 1900's, I think it was in 1903, the Midland Valley Railroad and the Fort Smith and Western Railroad built through the towns of the present Panama, Bokoshe and Coal Creek and at this period the coal industry was in full blast as these railroads traversed the present large coal fields.

The first and only store for a long time was owned by John Pierce. John Pierce furnished nearly all the Indians as he was the first settler and better known. Months and years he furnished them and individual families owed him thousands of dollars. He depended upon the Indians receiving their government pay and they paying him. I am a white man but I give the Indian credit of being honest for I don't believe that Mr. Pierce lost a single dollar they owed him.

NOTE: By Maxine (Crowell) Leonard in CFA Vol. I, p 149.

Elijah's father, Tom, could be Ira T. (Thomas) Conger, 1848, a son of Elisha Conger, 1820, of Crittenden county, Kentucky. Ira T. and his family moved to the Oklahoma Indian Territory. The main question that arises is that there is a marriage record for Ira T. Conger and Mary E. Felker on 22 Dec 1872. This Elijah was born in November of 1873. He stated his mother was Anna Harmon; there were Hammons near the Congers in Kentucky.

It is also possible that he could have been the son of Elisha's brother, John, 1820, who had a son, Toby (Thomas?) born around 1856. This family lived at Johnson county, Arkansas, but there is no record of their being in Kentucky.

NOTE: Place Names and Their Locations - By Richard E. Henthorn

The account of life in the Oklahoma Territory was probably written about 1937, if Elisha E. Conger was 64 years old and born in November of 1873. A number of place names in the Oklahoma Territory were mentioned in the piece. To assist the reader in understanding where these places are located they are listed below with the counties in which they lie according to the 1995 Rand McNally Commercial Atlas.

Fort Smith, Sebastian Co., AR
Oktaha, Muskogee Co., OK
Texanna, McIntosh Co., OK
Cameron, LeFlore Co., OK
Bokoshe, LeFlore Co., OK
Panama, LeFlore Co., OK
Spiro, LeFlore Co., OK
Coal Creek, LeFlore Co., OK

PARENTS-RELATIONSHIP: By the time of the publication of CFA II in 1992 a good deal more was known about Elisha E. Conger than was known at the time of the publication of CFA I in 1972.

Elisha E. Conger was born on 17 Nov 1874 on a farm near Fort Smith, Sebastian Co., AR. His parents were, Ira Thomas Conger, called Tom, born 14 Aug 1848 in Marion, Crittenden Co., KY. Ira Thomas Conger had married, his first wife, Mary E. Felker on 22 Dec 1872. Mary gave birth to, Elisha E. Conger on 17 Nov 1874 and died seven days later on 24 Nov 1874 of the complications of childbirth. As a result, Elisha never knew his birth mother.

Ira Thomas Conger next married Joanna Wiley and they had six children. Their first child, Carrie Lou Conger was born on 22 Nov 1880. Later, Joanna married a Mr. Harmon and had a son, Tom Harmon. Her 3rd husband was James Hunt.

1441. Dora Ann Conger (Paten N.-7, Elisha-6, John-5, Joshua-4, John-3, John-2, John-1) was born on 30 Jan 1881 in Pleasant, Crittenden Co., KY. She died on 8 May 1961 at the age of 80 in Marion, Crittenden Co., KY. Dora Ann Conger

Problem: Was she born in, Pleasant, Crittenden Co., KY or as listed in CFA I, p. 805, Marion, KY?

RECOLLECTIONS: On 8 Feb 1969, Genevea (Wilcox) Clark wrote: "Following are some dim, and vivid, memories of the Conger family as told by my mother, Mrs. Dora (Conger) Wilcox, and deductions made by me from the records, etc."

"The earliest record I have found of a Conger in Crittenden County, Kentucky, is purchase of land on 11 Oct 1851. No Congers are found in the 1850 census of this county. The deed states: Lemuel Conger of Christian County, Ky. bought from Elisha Tabor 30 acres of land on Piney Fort Creek for $150.00.

"On 18 Jan 1855, another deed states: Lemuel Conger bought 5 acres for $10.00 from Martin Hammons. On 17 Jan 1854, Henry F. Rice of White Co., Illn, sold to Elisha Conger of Crittenden County 133 acres on Piney Fork headwaters for $617.00. Elisha was my great-grandfather. [Lemuel Conger might have been brother of Elisha Conger. REH]

"The reason for giving this information is that I believe this family of Congers started coming to Crittenden County [KY] soon after 1850. According to tradition, they all came from Smith County, Tennessee and settled in the eastern part of Crittenden county, Kentucky near the Piney and Piney Fork Creeks.

"Herman Conger, son of Emanuel and grandson of Elisha, told me about two years ago that our Conger ancestors lived in Christian Co., Ky, a while before coming to Crittenden county, and that his father took him there once and showed him the house where they lived. Herman died in 1968.

John Conger Jr

"Conger descendants now living in this county don't seem to know much more than I about their ancestors. So many Congers died and left young children, including my grandfather. I've also had a busy life and didn't keep a record of what I heard.

"A son of one of my grandfather's cousins says his grandfather was Richard Conger (called Uncle Dick). Now I remember the name "Uncle Dick" and believe I heard he was a brother of Jane R. Conger (Elisha's wife and cousin) and that his family was the only Conger close relatives on her side. (This "Dick" has been established as William J. Conger, b. 1826, who married Julia Spurr.)

"My mother told me some of her great grandmother's maiden names -- two stick in my mind -- Coffee and Wallace. I think Coffee belongs to the Conger family -- more probably, Jane R.'s mother. I hadn't heard of a John Conger relative -- Eli sounds more likely.

"Elisha Conger married his first cousin, Jane R. Conger, in Smith Co., Tenn. on Apr. 19, 1838, when Jane was 14 years old and Elisha less than 18 years old. They were still living in Smith Co. when the 1840 census was taken. Sometime later they traveled to Kentucky in an ox cart, carrying only such possessions as the cart would hold.

"We find the name spelled, "Congo" in old records of both Tennessee and Kentucky. I can remember when some people "insisted" on calling them CONGO and I would correct them as to the spelling. I wonder if that pronunciation started because of Tennessee people not sounding "R," yet people have accented it with a long "O."

"On of Elisha's sons, with his family, moved to Oklahoma -- then Indian Territory. I think this would be Ira. We found Ira's marriage record but I know nothing more about his family. Emanuel's daughter, Mrs. Sallie Duvall of Detroit, the only grandchild of Elisha now living, says her father only talked about 4 boys in his father's family. We believe the others died when infants or small children. The four boys would be: Ira T., Lemuel, Paton (my grandfather), and Emanuel -- the last three lived, died and left families in this county. Of the two daughters, Malinda Jane married and died the same year -- leaving a baby girl, named Ida Turley, who lived with her grandparents her first few years, and then was taken away by her father, Thomas Turley, and never heard from again by her Conger grandparents. The other daughter, Sarah or Sally, married Granville P. Slaton, a brother of Paton's wife.

"Elisha's son, Lemuel, was a farmer and sometimes Baptist preacher. Paton, my grandfather, was a farmer and dealer in produce -- going from farm to farm buying chickens, eggs, etc. His oldest son, Doss, who was 12 years old when his father died, took up the same type of business when a young man, except that he was a buyer and shipper of cattle and hogs.

John Conger Jr

"It may be that Ira T. Conger's middle name was, Thomas, and that he was the father of Elijah [Elisha] Conger, b. 1873, whose biography is filed with the Oklahoma Historical Society. He said his father was Thomas Conger, born in Kentucky, and mother Anna Harmon, born in Indiana. Ira was married 22 Dec 1872 to Mary E. Felker. Perhaps she was the mother of Elijah born November 1873 and she died shortly thereafter. Anna Harmon may have been the second wife -- the only mother Elijah knew. There were Hammons in the area. This ties in with the fact that Ira T. moved to Oklahoma."

RECOLLECTIONS: Douglas Conger wrote in 1969:

"My father owned an 80 acre farm two miles from town where we lived (Kiowa, OK). He owned a shop in town where he worked until we were about grown. He built wheels and wagons and rented out the blacksmith part of the shop. I finished high school there in 1931 and left to work on construction in Arkansas and Louisiana, then back to Oklahoma where I was married to Ruby Mae Berryhill.

"We came to Merced, Calif. in 1936 where I worked on construction. In 1939, I started contracting on my own. Thirty years later I am doing the same thing. We have one son, Robert Douglas, who is California Highway Patrolman. We belong to the Methodist Church. I am a 32 degree Mason and Ruby Mae belongs to the Eastern Star."

Before his line was established he wrote, "It is a shame I can not trace my lineage no further back than DeKalb, Tenn. On the other hand, I have the lineage of my bulldogs traced all the way back to England."

RECOLLECTIONS: On 4 Aug 1982, Jeff Davis Conger wrote:

I was recently in contact with a Mrs. Clarine Tucker of Pensacola, FL. She had recently completed a ship cruise up the British Columbia coast to Alaska and on a whim, phoned me because she was interested in the name CONGER.

Here is all I know about the CONGER name, for what it is worth. As far back as I can go is my grandfather christened JEFFERSON DAVIS, named after you know who. I don't know really where he was born but he was a horse and buggy bonafide doctor in Quitman, Wood county, TX for many years. He also had a brother, Andrew Conger, also a doctor who practiced somewhere in the Eastern states.

Jeff Davis married "Jimmy Haines" whose father was evidently a colonel in the Confederate Army, and [for] who[m] the town of Hainesville, TX [was named]. There is a Conger street in Quitman and a few Congers scattered about the area. Also a few colored Congers.

My grandfather and Jimmy Haines had two children, namely my aunt Reber and my father, Eugene Martin. My father died in 1939. He left Texas and went to Montana where he worked a while on the railroad as a "boomer" brakeman. He then moved to Revelstoke, B.C. where he met and married my mother, Ethel Tetlock, and where I was born, 27 Sep 1920, and christened JEFF DAVIS. My sone is Jeff Davis III and his son is Jeff Davis IV.

(Dr. Jeff Davis was the s/o Eli Martin Conger, b. 1815 in NC, who lived in Butts Co., GA, before emigrating to Quitman, TX.)

BIOGRAPHY:

Bob Powell wrote, Charles W. Powell, my father, moved to Picher [OK] in the fall of 1943.

He and his brother, Joe, were drafted into WWII earlier that year. Because of Dad's age, family and prior mining experience he was transferred into the Enlisted Reserve Corps, with the understanding he would work in the mines at Picher. Joe went to the Philippines. I have a newspaper page from the Chicago Sun, dated 8 Feb 1945, with a picture of him taking a nap in a foxhole.

After the war Joe joined Charles in Picher and worked for Eagle-Picher [mining company] until he retired. He moved back to Lindsay and lived near Delia until he passed away."

After Charles married, he & Ruby moved to Leadville, Colorado, where he worked in the gold mines. He was injured, they moved to Denver to recuperate and then moved back to Lindsay. I [Bob] was born there in 1941. Charles worked in the mines in Picher until they shut down in 1959 and he was laid off.

I joined the Navy and Dad & Mom moved to Kellogg Idaho. He worked the mines there until 1962, contracted emphysema and asthma. He retired on total disability. Returned to Picher, he lived there until he died in 1981. [Charles & Ruby are buried at Picher, Ottawa Co., Okla.] Bob was the only child born.

MARRIAGE: Fay Norman Miller and Dora Mabel Powell were married on 18 Aug 1930 at the Julesburg Methodist Church, Julesburg, CO.

OCCUPATION: Bricklayer. He worked on many construction jobs in the area of Ovid and Julesburg, CO

RECOLLECTIONS:

In November 1931, the family was called to Lodgepole, Nebraska due to the death of Dora Miller's aunt, Rebecca Ann (Powell) Kilgore. Fay wanted to go hunting after the services. He and Dora drove 10 miles out into the prairie. After loading the gun, he leaned it against the running board of the car, while he put on a jacket. The gun fell to the ground and went off hitting Fay in the foot. Dora had never driven a car. Somehow, she steered and handled the clutch and brakes while Fay shifted the gears. Dora never drove a car again. The injury was so severe that Fay's leg was amputated just below the knee.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Gail Delbert Powell, at the age of fourteen, learned to operate a road grader, and became so proficient he could do so with precision.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

Gail Delbert Powell enlisted in the US Navy on 9 October 1943. He trained at Farragut, Idaho. He later served on 5 different ships. His longest assignment was served aboard the destroyer, USS Acree #169 in the Pacific.

From a letter written home from Farragut, Idaho dated 18 May 1944 he wrote that his basic training was completed and he was on furlough waiting for his assignment to a base or ship. He did not have enough money for bus fare home. He went into town, where he got a job running a "blade" for the Catapillar Tractor Company, making 92 cents an hour. He complained about the high prices of food in town, 20 cents for 2 doughnuts and a cup of coffee, 30 cents for a hamburger and cup of coffee.

During the war there were holes in some of his letters, where locations were cut away. Some letters tell he was at the Marshall Islands, New Guinea and the Phillipines.

At some point he attended a Naval Diesel School. He was discharged on 17 Oct 1945, as a Motor Machinist Mate 3C.

When he arrived home his hair had turned totally white and it never returned to its natural brown color. He was 6'1" with blue eyes.

Gail Powell was employed in the construction field most of his life. As young boys, he and his older brother, Orson, worked with road building crews in Lodgepole, Nebraska and Ovid, Colorado. They worked on the excavation of the ground when the Great Western sugar factory was built at Julesburg, Sedgwick Co., CO. When the factory was in operation they both worked there processing sugar beets.

The construction jobs he worked on are too numerous to remember. Colorado has over 80,000 miles of roads and he worked on most of them at some time.

His daughter, Joyce, remembers seeing him operate the road grader, a bull dozer and a back-holer, for the water systems. He worked on I-70, from the east to west borders of the state of Colorado, on I-80 in Wyoming, on I-25 and others no longer remembered.

After the war he worked for Sigmond Feed Lot in Adams Co., Colorado. He fed and cared for cattle brought in from the range, before they were trucked to Swift and Co., for slaughter. When Swift began closing business in Denver he worked for the Cabusco Company on West Evens Ave. before he returned to construction work.

He worked for Warrner Brothers Construction Company for several years. They put in water and drain pipes. Some of the jobs were: water systems at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs; water and sprinkler systems at Denver's City Park and at Stapleton Airport.

In 1976, while he was working on I-65 near Fort Morgan, CO he and Alice decided to sell out at Englewood. They purchased a nice older home in Crook, Logan Co., CO which is 28 miles east of Sterling. This was a nice community of 200 people.

On 23 Dec 1977 Gail Powell retired. He received a 35 year award from the Colorado Operating Engineers. On Christmas day 1977, just two days after retirement, he suffered a massive stroke that left him paralyzed on the left side. He suffered poor health the rest of this life.

In 1979 Gail and Alice sold their property in Crook, CO and returned to Englewood.

Gail Powell worked hard all his life. He relaxed by going fishing. He could spot fish in a creek when no one else could see them. He'd catch 6-7 nice trout in 15 minutes.

Gail Delbert Powell and Alice Carolyn Rundle were married on 6 Oct 1936 in Denver, Denver Co., CO. They were divorced in 1981. Alice Carolyn Rundle, daughter of William Brown Rundle and Jessie Louise Butler, was born on 14 Apr 1917 in Englewood, Arapahoe Co., CO. She died on 20 Sep 1993 at the age of 76 in Denver, Denver Co., CO. She was buried on 23 Sep 1993 in Denver, Denver Co., CO, Crown Hill Cemetery. Alice Carolyn Rundle

EDUCATION: Attended schools in Englewood, Arapahoe Co., CO and Black Hawk, Clear Creek Co., CO

RECOLLECTIONS:

During the depression years of the 1930s her father operated a placer mine on Chicago Creek, in Golden Creek Canyon, near Black Hawk, Colorado. He needed help with the mining operation. It was decided that Alice and her brother, Steuart, would go to the mine site, while her mother and two older sisters would remain in Englewood, CO. The two sisters were operators for the Mountain States Telephone Company.

In the mountains, Alice cooked meals, kept house and worked at the mine. At that time, many houses in the area had been abandoned by previous owners who had made or lost their fortunes and moved on. From the allowance that Alice received, she saved enough to purchase her own house. She paid $25.00 plus $110.00 in back taxes. This house is located in Black Hawk, Colorado, next door to the famous "Lace House." Today (1996) it is a gambling establishment. By 1940, she sold the house for $400.00. She always referred to the house as, "My House," and always regretted that she sold it.

Alice had many talents in hand crafts and cooking. She could make homemade breads and cinnamon rolls that melted in your mouth. Her children never knew "fast" or "instant" foods until they were out on their own. Daughter Joyce said, "I never learned Mom's cooking talent. I can only cook with the help of God and Betty Crocker."

Alice was a member of the 20 Grand Club for years. She made numerous hand-made quilts for the children at the Ridge State Home for the retarded.

In Loving Memory Of Alice Carolyn (Rundle) Powell

Memorial gathering was held September 23, 1993, 1:00 PM, Tower of Memories, Crown Hill Cemetery. Inurnment followed.

She was the youngest daughter of William Brown and Jessie Louise (Butler) Rundle Jr. of Englewood, Colorado and was born at the family home located on South Logan Street. She was educated in the Englewood, Colorado school system and as a homemaker and Mother with children. She worked at Ingersol-Rand, Denver plant during the war years of the forties.

She is survived by four children, Galen S. of Haskell, Texas, Joyce E. Posey (Powell) of Dayton, Ohio, David O. Powell of Las Vegas, Nevada, Alicemarie Dodson (Powell) of Denver, Colorado, fourteen grand children and twenty three great-grand children.

She was predeceased by a brother Steuart and two sisters Jessie and Dorothy, of the Denver area.

She assisted and cared for her father in the operation of his placer gold mine at Blackhawk, Colorado. Her talents in crafts, knitting, sewing and quilt making were not exceeded and she loved horse racing. She was a wonderful cook, made homemade bread and cinnamon rolls that melted in your mouth. She was a member in good standing of the "20 Grand Club" of Denver for better than 20 years, which supported retarded children at the Ridge State Home. She battled deformity of the back most of her adult life and succumb to disease of the pancreas and lungs. The Hospice of St. John's in Lakewood, Colorado provided final comfort to her day's.

She was a loving Mother and devoted Grandmother and friend to all she came in contact with and is dearly missed by all of her family.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Fredrick Peter Powell was a construction worker. He enlisted in the Navy in Sept. 1944. His first ship took part in action in Sicily and Italy. Twice ships he served on received damage in action. Later, he was aboard the ship that participated in the return of General MacArthur to the Phillipines.

Fred's brother, Gail, asked in every one of his letters home for word of Fred and Orson. He wrote of how he always looked for their ships. Finally, in July 1944, Gail's and Fred's ships docked at the same port in The Marshall Islands. Gail wrote, "What a happy reunion!" Then in Nov. 1944, Orson and Fred's ships docked together at a port in the Phillipines. Orson wrote home, "What a reunion!"

In Gail's letter, dated 12 Jul 1945, he wrote about hearing the announcement over this ship's radio that Fred's ship had been hit by suicide planes at Okinawa, with 224 casualties. Fred Powell was listed as missing in action. After investigation he was declared, killed in action.

BIOGRAPHY: Finis and Bessie Conger

Finis Conger was born near Cincinnati, Iowa, October 10, 1885, near the Missouri border. In 1910, he filed on a Kincaid claim three miles north and four east of Brewster, NE. He came by train to Dunning and walked to Brewster. Thirty years later an old friend told him that he had done very well for a man who had walked to the Sandhills. A Kincaid was 640 acres, a homestead 160 acres.

In the fall of 1910 he returned to Iowa and spent the winter. He returned in 1911 and built his original house, which measured about 12' x 12'. During his early months in Blaine county he worked for the Sandall Ranch.

One winter he helped drive a large herd of horses from easter Wyoming to Norfolk, NE. He was quoted as saying he didn't believe it possible to get as cold as they did on that trip. He farmed, with horses, about 200 acres. The principle crops were rye and corn. Since he was a firm believer in soil conservation none of his land suffered from wind erosion, so common in the area.

In the early 1930's he bought 640 acres from Ross and Edna Carpenter, who bordered him on the north. He also bought 480 acres from John Drury, who was Edna Carpenter's father. This land did not join any of the other.

On November 18, 1913 he married Mary Elizabeth "Bessie" Stevens. She was born November 10, 1894, in the Ozark Mountains of southern Missouri, near the town of Cross Timbers. She filed on a Kincaid Claim, October 18, 1912. The land is located in the southeast corner of German Valley. Her sister, Mrs. Fred (Cynthia) Smith had filed earlier.

Bessie came to visit and decided to stay there. Her 640 acres added to those of Finis totaled 2400. Since she had not completed her claim requirements by the time Finis had, they lived 6 months [on her claim] spring and summer and on his in fall and winter. Part of the time they lived in a tent.

They raised Hereford cattle and during the 1940's they sold a lot of 4-H calves. They also raised a lot of turkeys and chickens. In the late 1920's and 1930's they dressed and shipped turkeys by rail to Chicago in winter. They packed them in newspaper in wooden barrels.

The children born to Finis and Bessie were: Mildred Lorraine who was killed by a horse in 1920. Roy, who married Evelyn Jacobitz [and] had two daughters. He died in 1982. Charles, served in WWII and died in 1969. Robert, married Mildred Fox and had 3 children, [and] 2 step-children. Mary, married Fritz Kendall and had 2 daughters and lived in California. Betty, married George Hillin, [and had] 3 daughters, lived in California.

Finis and Bessie with Elber and Nellie Simon helped re-establish a Sunday School and Church in the Round Glen-Pleasant Valley area in 1927. They were very active in the work and support of the church and community. The children all attended rural school district #15 and graduated from Taylor Nebraska High.

In the fall of 1947 the Congers decided to dispose of the ranch and sold it to Rudy and Florence Niemoth. They took a trip to southern Missouri in late October to look for a retirement home. On October 31, 1947 they were both killed in a train - automobile accident at Rogersville, MO. They are buried in the Sargent, NE Cemetery. Sargent was their residence at the time of their death.

RECOLLECTIONS: Audrey N. Dodson of Hastings, NE wrote that: Walter is buried in Palmer, NE; "Ike" at Polk, NE; Ed, Mertie, Gertie, Mary Endora and Jennie are buried at Oakdale, NE. She adds, "Uncle Joe was married, but I have forgotten his wife's name. I remember he took his own life. My mother and her sister were surprised to learn he had married this woman from Oakdale. They had not lived together because she had an aged father she had the care of, and felt it would be too much for him to learn of their marriage. Uncle Joe lived with and took care of grandmother."

BIOGRAPHY:

Dr. J.W. Ruckman, of West Liberty, [WV], is a leading physician and surgeon of Ohio County. He was born in Marshall County, West Virginia, August 10, 1886, and is a son of Van and Susan (Hafer) Ruckman.

Dr. J.W. Ruckman attended the district schools of Marshall County and in early life engaged in teaching, after completing a course at West Liberty State Normal School. He received his teacher's certificate in 1903 and taught school until 1907. In 1910 Doctor Ruckman received his degree as Doctor of Medicine from the Cincinnati Medical College and spent the following two years as an intern in Cincinnati General Hospital. He then spent a year in practice at Captavia, West Virginia, and then purchased the practice of Doctor Duffey at Rosbys Rock, Marshall County. Eight years later he removed to West Liberty, where he has a well established practice. During the World War Doctor Ruckman was the only physician in this section of the county not in the service, and he was therefore unable to enlist.

On September 15, 1921, Doctor Ruckman was united in marriage with Miss Etrulia Bernice Dixon, of West Liberty, the daughter of R.H.L. and Bernice E. (Garrison) Dixon, residents of West Liberty. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon have three children: Alva, lives at

BIOGRAPHY: Louis Raymond Phillips

Originally from Iowa, was a cowboy in Montana (during which time he became acquainted with the cowboy artist Charles Marion Russell). Later in life homesteaded in Musselshell County, Montana. At one point he worked in the copper mines in Montana, I believe around Butte but am not certain. He was injured in a mining accident during the Great Depression and was unable to work after that. He died of a coronary occlusion. Was known as Ray. My second cousin twice removed Charles Hulette Friedrich told me, "Your grandfather Ray had one blue eye and one brown eye."

DEATH-HEALTH_HISTORY: coronary occlusion

Louis Raymond Phillips and Mabel Blanche Perkins were married on 5 Oct 1920 in Easton, Mason Co., IL. Mabel Blanche Perkins, daughter of James Dunbar Perkins and Barbara Friedrich, was born on 2 Jan 1891 in Kilbourne Twp., Mason Co., IL. She was buried in Jan 1947 in Easton, Mason Co., IL, Easton Cemetery. She died on 26 Jan 1947 at the age of 56 in Pekin, Tazewell/Peoria Co., IL. Mabel Blanche Perkins

OCCUPATION: School teacher

RESIDENCES: Montana; Illinois

BIOGRAPHY: Mabel Blanche Perkins

Mabel Perkins was Ray Phillips's wife. She was originally from Illinois, the daughter of James Dunbar Perkins, who published a newspaper in Easton, Illinois (we still have his printing press), and Barbara Friedrich, who immigrated in her early childhood from Unterleinleiter, Oberfranken, Kingdom of Bavaria in the 1860's.

Blanche, as she was known, was a schoolteacher by training. She and her mother homesteaded in Musselshell County, Montana. At one point they were so homesick to see trees they rode all day to get to the nearest tree, which it turned out had a dozen dead Indians "buried" in its branches (so the wolves wouldn't eat the corpses.) They overnighted and rode back home the next day having seen the tree.

After Ray was injured in the mining accident, she went to work as a school teacher at the Crow Reservation in Montana, where my mother was the only white pupil. By all accounts Blanche was very smart. She worked integral calculus problems at night out of boredom, by lamplight, as a means of entertainment.

In later years she and her family moved back to Illinois. She and Ray are buried in Easton, Illinois. She died of cancer.

John Conger Jr

Marietta Jane Burtch Caywood, in Kansas City, MO, in 1936 When father went to war in 1861 I was expected to help work on the farm. I gathered eggs and milked as soon as I could do that. Father was in the war for three years. When he returned I was eight years old. That was the age I started school. We went to the Barber School in Iowa. It was at the corner of the 'Barber Place,' and owned by Aunt Sabina (Conger) Barber. It was a 2 1/2 mile hike to school. We went when the days were so that we could. We started at daylight. We went through the fields to school. I was scared to death of the horses and cattle, and the woods made us afraid.

At school there were 19 kids. My parents were so strict. A good many fellows from Sunday School, and some from school, wanted to come see me, but my father forbade it. A Mr. Stinson, a nice young man who was an officer in the Red Cross, was allowed to walk by my side from the meeting to my home, if father and mother walked behind. I went to a church social once with Mr. Stinson, but we had to be home by 9:00 o'clock. (Source: The Conger Family of America - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

Mary Eliza Sutfin and John Hampden Koogler were married on 6 Apr 1876 in Las Vegas, San Miguel Co., NM. John Hampden Koogler died on 5 Mar 1918 in Kansas City, Jackson Co., MO. John Hampden Koogler

OCCUPATION: newspaper man

RECOLLECTIONS: Of Mary Eliza Sutfin Koogler as recorded for her granddaughter, Marietta Jane Burtch Caywood, in Kansas City, MO, in 1936

At first [in Las Vegas, NM] we lived right over the newspaper office. I saw Mr. Koogler often. We started going to church together, and then he went everywhere with me. We were married in April in the old Presbyterian Mission. We had a big wedding supper at home. We took all the furniture out to make room for all the tables. Then we all went to the Exchange Hotel and danced until morning.

We were invited to all the Mexican dances because of my husband being a newspaper man. We went to the old Romero home to parties. They would give a freshly dressed kid as a present of esteem to the "American Newspaper Man."

The mail coaches came from Santa Fe right down Pacific Street at four in the morning. You could hear them yelling three or four blocks away -- then come rattling past our windows, change horses, and start off again. The Eastern mail came in the daytime.

My husband and father had their efforts rewarded when the Santa Fe Railroad chose Las Vegas for their route to the West. They were in the ceremony for this event and my father had a coach which met the trains. The hotel bus, with four horses, turned over one day on the steep activity on the way back from Hot Springs. My husband got hurt pretty bad protecting our daughter Nell, who was sitting on his lap.

When "Billy the Kid" was killed, they brought him right past our house, thrown in the back of a cart. No respect was given to the corpse at all. My husband often aroused the ire of outlaws and others of that caliber because of his newspaper editorials or his activities as a lawyer, but he never wore a gun as did most of the men. AKA: Called, Russell Crowell (CFA I, p. 721)

BIOGRAPHY:

Russell Crowell was a painter. He lived in Ottumwa, Iowa. He kept the family records for many years, thereby making it possible for his work to be compiled and extended. He was a big man, with a hearty laugh. He organized the CROWELL-CONGER Family Reunions for many years at Ottumwa. He was so jolly as he handed out "pop" iced in tubs to the children, which was a rare treat in the late 1920's.

He had his own paint store, which was later taken over by his son Raymond, who later branched off into interior decorating.

As a result of strokes, Russell became bedfast and lay helpless for ten years before his death. The only word he could say was, "no." He sobbed with joy when a copy of the Crowell book was presented to him in 1962. His face lighted up with recognition at each name and picture.

Henry Norton Crowell

PARENTS: Wilber Fisk Crowell and Margaret Bowler

OCCUPATION: carpenter, autobody maker

BIOGRAPHY:

Henry Norton Crowell, like his father, was even-tempered. He was honest, kind and trusting. He was always a hard worker and ready to lend anyone a helping hand. Because of his trust in others, he lost a farm in Colorado and an auto-building business in Des Moines, Iowa. His salesman's embezzling wiped out his business, but rather than take bankruptcy, he personally paid off each debt several years later.

He worked for the WPA for awhile. Later he worked for the Railway Express Agency as a carpenter until his retirement.

He returned to Iowa from Colorado in 1914 and never went back.

Henry met Violet Wright when he attended a "red hog" sale. She was working for the people sponsoring the sale. They were married in Ottumwa, Iowa. After their first child was born they moved to Des Moines. They bought an acre of land and spent many years building on and remodeling the house in which they lived for 48 years.

They moved to the Valley View Retirement Home in Des Moines, [IA] in 1965.

CEMETERY: According to the Ancestral File he was buried on 20 Aug 1979 at the Sunset Memorial Gardens in Des Moines, Polk Co., IA

BIOGRAPHY: Henry Norton Crowell (1885 - 1979)

He wasn't a scientist...professional man...politician...businessman. He was a carpenter--and I say that with much pride. He was my father.

Hiram Crowell, 1809, a cooper, died in 1853 at Dearborn Co., IN, leaving his widow, Mary Conger, 1814, with eight children -- five months pregnant.

About a year later Mary's parents, David S. Conger, 1787 and Rebecca Sharp, emigrated to Monroe Co., IA, with daughters, Rhoda (Hunter), Rachel (Peas, Brewington), Jane (Holsclaw), Sabina (Barber) and deaf mute son, Elias M. and wife, Mary Jane, and families. A year later Mary joined them, escorted by her brother, Edward, unmarried at the time.

Mary homesteaded in Monroe Co., IA and raised her children to maturity. Her son-in-law, John Sutfin, came home from the Civil War in such poor health that he and his wife, Jane, and family left for the west finally settling in Las Vegas, NM in 1875. John Sutfin was a dentist, and he built the Grandview Hotel, the first four story building in town.

Mary's children were all grown and settled on her land in Iowa, so she and her unmarried son, Wilbur [Crowell], went to Las Vegas to live with the Sutfins (in the 1880 census).

Wilbur worked on the railroad and at the hotel for his sister, and there met Maggie Bowler of near Winfield, KS, whose father, Thomas, had helped build the railroad through Missouri during the war.

Wilbur and Maggie [Crowell] were married in Las Vegas where their family began with sons George and Henry. Meanwhile, Mary [Conger] had gone back to Iowa where she died in [May] 1884. In due time, Wilbur took his family to Iowa where he lived on the 40 acres inherited from his mother.

Henry [Norton Crowell] went through the 8th grade in school but had to quit to help on the farm. His parents died when he was 17 [in 1902], but he and his brother George managed to look after their two younger brothers, Clarence and Guy, when they both homesteaded near Willard, Colorado.

Henry went back to Iowa to marry Violette Wright in 1914. Their son, Floyd, was born a year later at Ottumwa, [IA], and Maxine came along after the family moved to Des Moines in 1919.

Henry worked on many buildings there including the dam, and later went to work for Kratzer Carriage Company. After this company folded, Dad went into the body-building business for himself in the early thirties. His salesman absconded with many of the down payments on jobs and he lost his business. He was advised to file for bankruptcy, but he refused.

Unable to find work, he still found dignity on WPA until he became house carpenter for the Railway Express [where he worked] until his retirement. During this time he paid all his business debts. Funny thing that I never knew we were poor.

I shall always remember how kind and honest he was. He spanked me once, at my mother's insistence, because I had stayed to see a movie through three times.

During the 15 years he lived in the retirement home he always joked with other residents, and for several years he would shave some of the men in the care center. I never heard him swear or speak unkindly about anyone.

He was devoted to my mother, who had three spinal fusions and later became an arthritic invalid. She never complained. She did much of her housework in a wheelchair until the folks gave up their home. Mother died in 1972.

In his late seventies, Dad suffered a severe stroke but overcame it, learning to walk and talk again. One hip simply wore out and he used a cane until the age of 92 when he resorted to pushing a wheelchair to steady himself in going to the dining room. He died [on] August 17th [1979 in Des Moines, IA].

Henry Norton Crowell and Violette Wright were married on 26 Aug 1914 in Ottumwa, Wapello Co., IA. Violette Wright, daughter of Matthew Wright and Louisa Pearce, was born on 3 Dec 1892 in Rotherham, , Yorkshire, England. She died on 29 Feb 1972 at the age of 79 in Des Moines, Polk Co., IA. She has Ancestral File Number 51DJ-RM. Violette Wright

Problem: Was her first name, Violette or Violet? Maxine Crowell Leonard uses both spellings on the same page of CFA I. Violet on p. 705 of CFA II.

BIOGRAPHY:

Violette had poor health all her married life, although she never complained about it. She had abdominal surgery after Maxine's birth and a goiter was removed. She had three spinal fusions, where bone was taken from her leg and grafted into her spine. Just as she was getting around pretty well she became a victim of arthritis and had to use a wheel chair in 1950. Despite this she did her own housework except for the laundry and running the sweeper. She died 29 Feb 1972.

Henry Norton Crowell and Violette Wright had the following children:

- 2909 i. Floyd David Crowell, born 19 Jun 1915, Ottumwa, Wapello Co., IA; married Cecelia Ekwall, 7 Aug 1936; married Hazel Rubandall, 13 Jun 1946.
- 2910 ii. Helen Maxine "Maxine" Crowell, born 5 Apr 1919, Des Moines, Polk Co., IA; married Laurence Otto Leonard, 28 Jul 1944, Des Moines, Polk Co., IA; died 2 Oct 2005, Waverly, Bremer Co., IA.

1776. Clarence Lemley Crowell (Wilber Fisk-7, Mary Conger-6, David S.-5, Elias Darby-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born on 31 Jan 1893 in Albia, Monroe Co., IA. He died on 29 Oct 1986 at the age of 93 in Weed, Siskiyou Co., CA. He has Ancestral File Number 7F17-52. Clarence Lemley Crowell

Problem: Was the middle name, Lemly or Lemley? The Ancestral File lists, Lemley.

RESIDENCES: 644 W. Lennox; Yreka, CA 96097

BIOGRAPHY:

Clarence and Alice Crowell settled on a farm near Sterling, [CO], but the land was so poor they couldn't make a living. They left there with three small children and about $25.00 cash, and went to California where Clarence went to work for the water company.

Clarence never knew what his middle initial, "L." was for until he visited his brother Henry in 1958 and was told his middle name was "Lemly." This was the first reunion of the two brothers since Henry left Colorado in 1914 -- a period of 44 years. Clarence was 9 and Guy was 6 when their parents died. They were left in the custody of their aunt, Mary Rebecca Neill. Their oldest brother, Geroge, petitioned for their guardianship in 1909 when he married and homesteaded in Colorado. Henry went with them at the same time and purchased a homestead, but returned to Iowa in 1914 to get married and never went back.

BIOGRAPHY:

James Lloyd Conger was born in a dugout on the homestead in Jewell County, near Burr Oak, Kansas on October 15, 1871. He moved with his parents to Rooks County in 1878, where he grew up at the family home. He was a teacher as a young man, and later a rancher-farmer on his own ranch which joined his parent's ranch on the east.

He was married on August 3, 1898 to Serena Bromley at Plainville, Kansas. Two sons were born to this couple: Ralph Lloyd and Halbert Mark.

Jim, as he was known, was active in community affairs, and as an advisor in business. He was well liked and a friend to many.

After living about forty years at his home, he died there May 29, 1940, the third son of Isaac and Emma to pass away.

OBITUARY: Wesley A. Young Dies from Heart Trouble

Wesley A. Young, a native of Neelyville and a former well-known grocer of McConnelsville, [OH], died Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at his home on Jefferson street after being ill for a number of months from heart trouble. He had been retired from active work for some time but had been able to be around and about until recent weeks when a marked change came for the worse.

Mr. Young was the son of Lafayette and Jane Leggett Young and was born at Neelyville, October 1 [sic, should be 21, according to Zeta Young] 1882. This youth was spent in that vicinity where he was at one time employed at the T.J. Neely store.

Mr. Young and wife, the former Lucetta Allen of Cross Roads church vicinity, came to McConnelsville shortly after their marriage on September 23, 1905. For 21 years he conducted a grocery in the Durbin building and then located in Zanesville where he owned and operated a grocery for nine years on Abington Ave.

Mr. Young was a member of the Methodist church and of the Woodman lodge. He was a quiet, unassuming man, a good neighbor and a good citizen who enjoyed the respect of the community.

Surviving are the widow; a daughter, Mrs. Bernice Parsons, wife of Capt. Cary Parsons; a son, Sgt. Raymond Young of Camp Livingston, La., now home on furlough; a granddaughter, Kathleen Parsons; and a brother, Melvin Young. One brother, Carlos, is deceased.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the residence, Rev. L.S. Wees and Rev. Geo. E. Brown officiating. Interment will be made in the McConnelsville cemetery by pallbearers Jos. E. Cowan, Chas. A. Gaylord, H.J. Leggett, Harry G. Allen, Forest Tomson and H.B. Hopper.

RECOLLECTIONS: Letters from Ottice Conger Ridgely

29 Aug 1973 -- Joseph M. [Conger, my father] was born in 1861 and some time after that my grandfather [Stephen Jackson Conger] joined the Union Army. He was ill and home on furlough. Before he was fully recovered he started back to join his company and died on the way. I have confirmation of this from the War Records in Washington, DC. His name was Stephen Conger and he lived near Marietta, OH.

When we lived in Warren, Ohio we met a Napoleon Conger, who said his cousin was tracing the Conger family and he would let us know what she found out, but he never did. We thought he must be related as he looked a lot likemy father. He was a professor in the schools and later the head of a small college in the South.

25 Jul 1974 -- Remember me? I bought the Conger Book last October and now that I have time to read it thought I would let you know that I think you did a very good job of compiling all of those records. At first it was just a jumble of names. I read some and thought parts were interesting but I couldn't see how it led any of us back to the first Belconger. I was just about to write you and ask, then a few weeks ago I got it out again and started with with Stephen 1883 and worked back and found we went back to the first sone, John. Then I traced your family and found yours was same as mine -- saw where yours branched off.

Of course this is old stuff to you, but it is new to me and I found it very interesting; am boring my family telling them about it. I think I wrote you in the first letter about Lester C. from Ashland (Ohio). My father just said he was a cousin and I presumed a first, but I see by the records his father was a cousin to my father. I met him (Lester) in Ashland once, and he came to Warren to my father's funeral in 1930.

In looking through the "BOOK" I happened to notice the name of Napoleon C. I stopped to look and found he was the one I met in Warren. His wife, Gladys Pelton had lived next door to us, and she was the principal of the school my children attended the first year after we moved to Warren.

AKA: Leota; Nellie "Leota" Conger, CFA II, p. 367

COMMENT: Robert Guilinger wrote: I believe Nellie Leota Conger, born 17 Aug 1905, in Dalzell, Washington Co., OH was named after my Aunt, Nellie Leota Guilinger, who died in 1904 in Washington Co., OH as the result of burns suffered in a stove oil explosion. Early in 1995, I wrote to my remaining aunt, 97 year old, Elizabeth Marie Guilinger Foust about this. My Aunt Bettie only vaguely remembers her sister, Nellie, as she was only 6 years old at the time of her death. However, she remembers that her mother (Margaret E. Conger) knew the Dearth family, including Olive Mae Dearth, the mother of Nellie Leota Conger. It was a custom in the early 1900's to name another child after one who had died. Usually it was done in the family; i.e., a cousin. (Source: Written by Robert Guilinger, Dec 1995)

RELATIONSHIP: Nellie Leota Conger was the 4th cousin of Nellie Leota Guilinger. Their common ancestor was, David Conger Sr. who married, Mary (Darby) Green.

BIOGRAPHY:

Warren Robert Conger was the eldest son of David Conger and Sarah Ellen Combs. His father, David, was a pioneer farmer. Times were hard in those days. It was very difficult to support a family.

When Warren was about five years of age, David and the family moved to Ft. Sheridan, Wyoming. They traveled to Ft. Sheridan in covered wagons, along with David's father, Enos and his family. This was a frontier town at this time, surrounded by cattle ranches and Indians. Supplies were hauled into town on large freight wagons, with ten yoke of oxen pulling three freight wagons hooked together. They traveled near the place where Indians surrounded and massacred General Custer and his men.

David and Enos bought a livery stable and feed barn. They experienced many hard times and sickness at Ft. Sheridan. Warren Robert was sick with Mountain Fever. He recovered after a long illness, but had to learn to walk again. After many hardships, the women persuaded the men to sell their business and they returned to Plainville, Kansas, where their daughter, Edna Minnie, was born. Later they moved to Woodston, [KS] where Sherman Ray and Luella May were born.

The children attended school at Woodston and a few other schools near this area. The Woodston school was located near the Solomon River and near Medicine Creek. The boys used to swim, fish and hunt birds and rabbits in the river bottom area. They loved the great outdoors.

When Warren was about fifteen years of age, on 4 April 1899, his mother, Sarah Ella, died from lock-jaw poisoning. She was buried in the Woodston Cemetery. Her death had a definite impact on the family. The older boys found employment in ranching and farming. Warren helped a Henry Clemons on cattle drives into northern Kansas and Nebraska. He followed the trade of farm-hand and ranch worker and became skilled in blacksmithing and carpentry work. He lived and worked in Codell, Plainville, Woodston, Hays City, Kansas and surrounding areas.

All the family loved music. Warren had a tenor voice and enjoyed singing. As a young man, he attended the dances as a square dance caller. He was nimble on his feet and was often called on to entertain at dances with song and tap dancing. He was fast on his feet, winning many matched races. He could run a hundred yards in ten seconds.

In the spring of 1909, Warren went to Friday Harbor, Washington, to visit his sisters, Mabel and Edna. He returned from Friday Harbor and stopped off at a place called Tremonton, Utah. Here he visited with the family of Joseph Albert Frazier and wife, Elizabeth Jane Hall and their daughter Adna. He knew Adna as a child when the Frazier family lived at Palco, Rooks county, Kansas. Warren and Adna were married in Brigham City, Box Elder, Utah, on 31 Dec 1909. They first lived at Colliston, Utah, where Warren worked for Claude Jensen on the farm. By 1916 he had saved enough money to purchase a farm southwest of Tremonton, which became the "Home Site" where they raised their family of eight boys and three girls. All grew up and married except one boy that died as an infant.

The first years, especially from 1917 thru 1924, were difficult years. The land needed improvements and leveling. Prices were low as a result of the depression following the First World War. In order to make money to support his large family Warren bought cattle and hogs which he butchered and sold to neighbors and families close around the city area. Warren was in debt at this time; most everyone was, but he said, "If a man is honest, he will always try to pay his debts." He worked and saved until he paid them, and tried hard to never default on anyone.

The years following the First World War saw the family grow. Several had married. They were a close knit family and enjoyed each other's company very much. All enjoyed music and several played different instruments. They tried to always gather each week at the home place to play and sing and have their good times.

When the Second World War came, the five older boys served their country. At the close of this war two boys remained in the service, Warren Edgar in the U.S. Air Force and Harold Sherman in the U.S. Navy. Warren Robert's home was always open to men in the service.

Warren Robert and all his family became members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. During the year of 1947, Warren served as Scoutmaster of the troop which went to the Centennial Jamboree. It was at this time that the "This Is the Place" monument was erected at the mouth of Immigration Canyon in Salt Lake City, Utah. Warren's troops won camp honors this year and they were selected to unveil the monument. They stood as Honor Guard. Two boys were chosen from this group to pull the ropes that unveiled the monument. Warren had the boys draw lots to see who had this honor. His youngest twin son, Leo Robert, pulled one, and a Coombs boy pulled the other. Warren was very proud and happy to serve in this calling.

The Korean War followed the Second World War and the twins, the youngest sons, Leo Robert and Leon Herbert, were in this war together; also Warren Edgar and Harold Sherman, who had remained in the service. At the close of the Korean War, all of the boys returned home safely.

Shortly after this time, Mother Adna took sick and died 23 Mar 1954, following surgery for the removal of a malignant tumor on the brain. She died in the St. Marks Hospital in Salt Lake City. This loss was felt deeply by all who knew her. She had great kindness and affection for her family and friends. Years following found Warren a despondent and bewildered man. The loss of his dear wife was almost more than he could adjust to. He finally traveled and visited among his married children, helping many times in the best way he could. On 10 November 1954 he married a sister-in-law of Adna's, Elizabeth Cooke Frazier. They traveled and enjoyed life together, but a separation came.

Warren continued on travelling among his children; living with his son, Warren Edgar and wife, Ruth and family; a great length of time with daughter, Ione, and husband, Wayne Larsen and family; with daughter Ara and husband, Roger Nielson and family. Ara and Roger Neilson purchased the "W.R. Conger homeplace." Warren wanted once again to be back home, to the place he dearly loved. He lived quite some time with Ada and her family. All dearly loved their father, and have done all they could to make his last years as pleasant as possible.

Warren Robert, in 1972 [when this was written], was eighty-eight years of age; a High Priest in the Melchizedek Priesthood in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He is proud of his family and has a numerous posterity. He loved and cared for each and every one. He always believed a man should be completely honest with everyone, and that a man's word should be as good as his bond.

DEATH-COMMENT: This is a note [about the death] written by a Dan Huddleston; I was looking for this message. I had heard that the man who "lived" at the Wood County Records Room had died. I knew immediately who they were talking about, and I'm sure anyone else who had been up there too, even if they never knew his name. I had been up there 7 or 8 times over the last 8 years, and written him another 10 times. He knew more about the records there than some of the younger clerks. He helped everyone whether you offered him any money or not, whether you knew anything about Wood County or not, or had ever been to a courthouse before. He helped everyone from teenagers looking for grandma to grandmas doing research. He always had ideas on how to find the information you needed even when the record wasn't there. Research in Wood County will never be the same, even if the records are still there.

Just one of many he helped, thank you Darrell.

Clement Ellis Conger and Hallie Ramsay were married in 1906. Hallie Ramsay, daughter of George William Ramsay and Harriet Alexandria Fawcett, was born on 31 Jan 1874 in Alexandria, Fairfax Co., VA. She died on 8 Feb 1977 at the age of 103 in Alexandria, Fairfax Co., VA. Hallie Ramsay

AKA: Hallie Ramsey (CFA II, p. 700)

DEATH: 8 Feb 1977 (calculates to the an age of 103, which Robert Guilinger says is apparently correct.)

OBITUARY: Hallie Conger, 103, Member of Early Alexandria Family Hallie Ramsay Conger, 103, a descendant of colonial era families, died Tuesday at Oak Meadow Nursing Home in Alexandria, [VA].

Her great-great-grandfather, William Ramsay, was a founder of Alexandria and built the city's first house, Ramsay House, which still stands at the corner of King and Fairfax streets. He was married to a first cousin of George Washington's mother, Mary Ball.

Mrs. Conger was born in Alexandria and grew up in another Ramsay house on Prince street.

As a young woman, she taught Sunday school at Christ Episcopal Church in Alexandria and was a student at the Corcoran Gallery of Art, where she graduated as a portrait and landscape painter.

Mrs. Conger recalled how President Theodore Roosevelt spotted one of her paintings, an ear of corn in its husk, at the gallery and took it back to the White House. His intent, she said she learned, was to present it to Congress in an effort to have an ear of corn made the national flower. But a bill bringing that about failed to pass.

In 1900, Mrs. Conger left Alexandria for the Shenandoah Valley to recover from an attack of malaria. She established an art school in Harrisonburg, Va., and in 1906 was married to Dr. Clement E. Conger, a well known physician.

While in Harrisonburg, she was an active member of Emmanuel Episcopal Church and during World War I was a leader in Red Cross activities.

Dr. Conger died in 1932, Mrs. Conger returned to Alexandria in 1944 and had lived there since then.

She is survived by two sons, Clement E. Conger Jr., curator of the White House and State Department diplomatic reception rooms, who lives in Alexandria, and Dennis Ramsay Conger, a retired Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. official, of Manassas; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The family suggests that expressions of sympathy may be in the form of contributions to the Restoration Fund of Christ Church Alexandria. (Source: undated clipping, with d. 8 Feb 1977 added, Conger Confab, Vol. III, No. 2, June 1977, included photograph)

OBITUARY: GERTRUDE E. DELANO

Gertrude Estelle [Conger] was the first of six girls born to Kathryn Estelle and Porterfield Conger on October 5, 1902 at the home of Kathryn's sister, Maude Davis in Tilden, Nebraska.

She graduated from Ewing, Nebraska high school and Peru State Teachers College, followed by teaching home economics for two years in the high school at Ree Heights, South Dakota. She went on to the University of Southern California to qualify to teach in California, which she did for a short time but returned to Ewing, Nebraska to marry Harold LeRoy DeLano on August 6th 1925.

They lived all of their 65 years of married life in St. Paul, Minnesota where their first jobs were with Montgomery Wards. After three years they purchased a grocery store on the East side of St. Paul and were there for ten years until the great depression came forcing them to give up the store.

During the time they had the grocery store, their children were born, a son Lee Richard, who died in three days due to birth injuries, and a daughter, Adora Jean, who was born three years later on Christmas Eve.

After they gave up the store, Harold gained a position with Prudential Insurance Company. They then bought a house on the West side where his debit was, living there forty years until his retirement from Prudential.

Gertrude was an Episcopalian all of her life, attending St. Peter's Church on the East side, Ascension Church on the West side, and St. Christopher's Church in Roseville where they lived since Harold's retirement. In 1989 she received, at the Episcopal Dicesan Convention, the first lay ministry award, "In celebration of a lifetime of ministry performed within and beyond the Episcopal church." She also belonged to the Order of Eastern Star for over 70 years and served as Worthy Matron in 1937.

BIOGRAPHY:

The Basil Trosper family lived in southern Oklahoma with a mailing address of Booker, TX. In 1901 he took up his abode and was a real Oklahoma pioneer. With a walking plow and three mules he broke the land. With hard work and good management and the good help of an excellent wife, he built a good home, dealt in pure bred stock and raised a family of nine children. He also served his community and took part in the political life of his county.

Jonathan-2, John-1) was born on 16 Mar 1882 in Sumner, Chariton Co., MO. He was buried in Mar 1959 in Greenwood. He died on 17 Mar 1959 at the age of 77 in Newcastle, Weston Co., WY. Frank Conger

PARENTS: Moses Conger and Mary Ann Wilson

MILITARY: Served overseas during WWII (CFA II, p. 716)

CONFLICT: Listed as, b. Abt. 1888 & unmarried (CFA II, p. 716)

COMMENT: "A statement from the undertaker in Newcastle, [WY] said: "Frank was used to carrying a .45 revolver tucked into his belt and was not afraid to use it. Am told he was a man not to try and cheat or cross." Maybe that is why he was omitted from the family group. Another source stated he had served in WWI and was shell shocked. The name of Frank Conger was found in Mary's obit.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. II, p. 97 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

Frank Conger and Mary Giachino were married. Mary Giachino was born on 12 Sep 1904 in Newcastle, Weston Co., WY. She was buried in May 1976 in Greenwood. She died on 24 May 1976 at the age of 71. Mary Giachino

NAME-CONFLICT: Mary Giochio; Mary Giachino on p. 97 & 169 of CFA II. Mary Giochino

2098. Charles Marshall Conger (Moses-7, George Washington-6, Moses-5, David-4, David-3, Jonathan-2, John-1) was born on 11 May 1884 in Sumner, Chariton Co., MO. He was buried in Nov 1946 in Bridgeport, Douglas Co., WA. He died on 24 Nov 1946 at the age of 62 in Coulee Dam, Douglas Co., WA. Charles Marshall Conger

PARENTS: Moses Conger and Mary Ann Wilson

NAME-CONFLICT: Was the middle name, Marshal or Marshall? CFA I, lists both. Maxine Leonard states that the name is spelled with two "ll"s on the death certificate but his son spelled it with one "l".

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 67 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

NAME: Charles Marshall Conger (CFA II, p. 714)

MILITARY: Four years in Marines

DEATH: CFA II, p. 714 points out that he died on 24 Nov 1946, not 26 Nov 1946.

Charles Marshall Conger and Ethel May Welch were married. Ethel May Welch was born on 28 Oct 1884 in Bridgeport, Fairfield Co., CT. She was buried in Jan 1961 in Bridgeport, Douglas Co., WA. She died on 29 Jan 1961 at the age of 76 in Brewster, Okanogan Co., WA. Ethel May Welch

QUESTION: CFA I, says she was born in Bridgeport, CT. Was she really born in Conn.?

BIOGRAPHY:

Mary Lemon was a tall, well proportioned and pretty woman who possessed a lot of artistic talent. I learned a lot of things from my Grandmother Lemon. She took all of the fashion magazines. When something caught her eye, she ripped out the page and it was quickly reproduced. She taught me how to do it from the basic sloper once you got it to fit. Through knowledgeable manipulation of those basic parts you could come up with any dress style you wanted and not have to be bothered with buying patterns. She'd go to the movies and a portion of the next day you can be sure was reserved for reproduction calculations. She did some hat designing as a single woman. She said once that if it had been considered a "respectable life" she'd have become a fashion designer. Worth was certainly a favorite of both Mary and her mother. She did a lot of fur and leather design work for a furrier in San Diego in the 1930's. She was a crack shot with the rifle and come hunting season you could always be sure that she would collect her legal limit. She'd have it tanned and finished with a pyroxylin finish so that it could be laundered without the usual shrinkage you get with leather. She'd make her own outfit and then she'd usually come up with something for me with the scraps. Every dress she ever made for me had a duplicate made for my doll, Barbara. She made gorgeous fancy hats and taught me how to quickly change their appearance with feathers, tulle and flowers. She taught me the basics of wardrobe building. Go for basic design, good quality and lots of accessories. When you make a skirt, make it reversible and then you have two for the price of one. Don't fit it too tight and it won't sag or bag. There is no such thing as a perfect figure. Just learn your good points and work around the bad ones with the proper fit and design. You can pay a million for a dress and unless the design is good for you, it's not worth two cents. All color is nice, but hold the bolt up to your face in good light and look in a mirror. If your skin glows, the color is right. If you see drag lines and circles under your eyes, the color is wrong.

From husband hunting lectures I received from Mary Lemon, I got the distinct impression that her thoughts on a college education boiled down to access to the more promising types of eligible men. Her exact advice was, "Have a solid view of where you want your own life to go. Then look pretty and act properly to attract, don't be too available, but show lively interest and never accept the first invitation. Above all learn the art of subtle flirting. If you set the standard of decorum, expect a man to be a gentleman and give him an opportunity to comply, they will respect your demand, even if they are a ruffian. Hooking a man is a lot like fishing. You have to learn to properly bait the hook and then know how to successfully troll that line to make the catch."

She liked to cook and gave lovely dinner parties and card parties. She had and liked pretty china and linen. Her parents gave her a service of white Havlin with twenty-four place settings, and a full 24 piece set of crystal, sterling flatware and silver tea service as a wedding gift. She always did a flower arrangement centerpiece which was gorgeous and taught me a new napkin fold for every party. I guess her message to the kid was that a pretty table is in the precision of the detail.

She was planning death when it came to food serving. "It's got to be served hot regardless of your number of guests." She had it worked out to a precise science that was smooth as glass. She always served wine with dinner and made at least a dozen different flavors of vinegar. Condiments were another of her favorite additions to a meal.

I remember my Grandmother every day. To keep the kid out of her stuff she equipped me with my own set of shakers for mustard and dry soap which sat beside the sink. After chopping onions and garlic, a quick shake from the mustard shaker with the addition of a little water will completely remove the obnoxious onion odor on the hands.

Pesto was a staple. Chop finely the leaves from the basil plant. Add two tablespoons of salt per quart of chopped basil and saturate the mass with pure olive oil. Make sure that the basil has no water on the leaves when chopping. Store with a layer of olive oil across the top at all times. Will keep at least a year if kept in cool place and covered with a layer of oil. Excellent for soups, eggs, tomato slices and boiled vegetables.

Brown flour for brown gravy. Place a dry skillet one-half full with plain flour. Place on fire and keep stirred so that it will not burn. Brown it to a nice dark brown gravy color. Sift and store in tight container. Keeps indefinitely. Add to pan drippings when you have drained the grease after cooking a roast with a dash of onion and garlic or lemon pepper and you have cheap brown gravy.

Pepper vinegar. Slice in half a variety of hot peppers. Place in hot canning jar. Heat pure white vinegar to boiling and pour over peppers. Seal and let stand for about three months. Strain off vinegar and use peppers in cooking.

Nice when sprinkled on most any vegetable, or quiche.

Any nail will drive more easily if rubbed with a little soap. Either hard or soft soap will do.

OBITUARY:

Rifle Telegram, Rifle, Colo. Thus., Oct. 8, 1959

Mrs. W. B. Lemon, Long-time Holmes Mesa Resident, Dies. Mary Ethlyn Lemon, wife of Ben Lemon, and a long-time resident of Holmes Mesa, died Monday, Oct. 5, at the Rifle Community Hospital after a long illness. (Cancer). Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Christian Church in Rifle, with the Rev. Otto B. Duckworth officiating. Jewell Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star also conducted rites at the church. Interment was in Rose Hill Cemetery.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Peltier - Sowder Funeral Home.

Mrs. Lemon was born June 10, 1884, at Grand Lake, Colorado, the daughter of John L. and "Jennie" Conger. When she was a small child her family moved to the McCoy, Colorado, area and homesteaded on what is now known as Conger Mesa. She was married to Walter B. Lemon, Sr. November 1, 1908, in Glenwood Springs. They moved to Holmes Mesa in the Grand Valley area in 1910. Mrs. Lemon was a charter member of the Battlement Mesa Cowbells and was also a member of Jewel Chapter No. 77, O.E.S. of Rifle. She was also a correspondent for The Rifle Telegram and had written the Holmes Mesa news column for the paper for a number of years.

She is survived by her husband, Walter B. Lemon, Sr. of Holmes Mesa; a son, Walter B. Lemon, Jr., and three grandchildren, Mary Jo Ann Lemon, Walter B. Lemon, III, and James R. Lemon, all of Holmes Mesa. Mrs. Lemon was preceded in death by her parents, one brother, Fred Conger, and one grandson, Wm. Lamar. Active pallbearers were H.L. Winn, Felix Sefcovic, Willard Eames, S. L. Loshbaugh, D.T. Long and Carl Bernklau. Honorary pallbearers were J.D. Caldwell, Clyde Morrow, Warren Wurts and Charles Slaughenhaupt. Soloist was the Rev. Marshall Griffith, who sang, "Sweet Bye and Bye" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," accompanied by Mrs. Otto B. Duckworth at the organ.

Card of Thanks. Rifle Telegram, Rifle, Colo. Oct. 15, 1959 My heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy at the time of the passing of my dear wife, Mary. BEN LEMON

In Memory of Mary E. Lemon

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.
As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier heights,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride.
It followed the light through the crevice-length,
And unfolded itself on the other side.
The light, the dew, the broadening view,
Were found the same as they were before,
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.
Shall claim of death cause us to grieve,
And make our courage faint or fall?
Nay, let us faith and hope receive,
The rose still grows beyond the wall.
Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forevermore.

A. L. Frink.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their flowers, cards and many acts of kindness during our recent bereavement. WALTER, and ROBERTA, Mary Jo, Bennie and James Robert Lemon.

MARRIAGE:

LEMON-CONGER. Mr. Walter B. Lemon and Miss Mary Conger were united in marriage at Glenwood Springs in the parlor of the Glenwood Hotel, Sunday, November 1st, 1908, with a number of friends and relatives being present. Both of these young people are very well known in Eagle and they have a host of friends throughout the county. Miss Conger resided in this county a number of years previous to moving to Rifle a year or so ago. Mr. Lemon made Eagle his home for about four years and is well liked by all. The newly married couple went to Rifle where they will make their future home. The Enterprise joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Lemon much happiness and prosperity.

MARRIAGE:

Rocky Mountain News, Denver, Colo. or Denver Post - exact date unknown.

Conger-Lemon Vows.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Conger of Pueblo and Denver have announced the marriage of their daughter Mary Ethlyn to Walter Benjamin Lemon of Rifle, Colorado. Mr. Lemon is the son of Robert Lemon and his late wife Elitha of the City of Pueblo. His uncle is our esteemed House Speaker, W. J. Barnard.

The vows were celebrated by Presbyterian Minister G.A. Foote of Glenwood Springs, in the candle-light parlor of the Glenwood Hotel before a hundred friends and relatives.

A dinner reception followed at the Hotel Colorado where the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hanscome of Wolcott, offered the first toast and presented the happy couple with a bucket of gold nuggets for hard times. A bucket of gold has been a tradition in the Baker family since 1770 and has been passed to the eldest of each generation.

It went dry while in the possession of John R. Baker. He presented the empty pot filled with a Bible and a coin for luck to his daughter, Mary Jane, at her first marriage in Indiana to Jake Young accompanied with a promise to refill it before he died.

He came to Colorado, shortly thereafter, struck gold and silver in Summit and Clear Creek County and filled the old pot for her many times over. However, Mr. Baker formally refilled the original iron pot with beautiful Colorado gold nuggets from one of the Baker Mines and presented a full pot to her upon the occasion of her second marriage to Alfred Hanscome of Massachusetts.

Mrs. Hanscome presented it full to the John L. Congers on their wedding day in Grand Lake, but they forgot to move it with their belongings so it remained in the possession of Mrs. Hanscome. It has now been passed brimming full to Mary Conger Lemon for safe keeping for future generations. May it bring them luck and no hard times!

After a short wedding trip to Kansas City, the newlyweds will be at home in Rifle, where the groom owns a business.

("John Lincoln Conger," 1 Oct 1996, by Mary Jo Khan)

COMMENT: The Hotel Colorado

The wedding reception of Walter Benjamin Lemon and Mary Ethlyn Conger was held at the Hotel Colorado. John Conger was an original major stockholder in The Hotel Colorado. He held the stock until he was divorced from Jennie in 1914. The Hotel is sort of an area land mark. There are natural hot water springs which are a part of the hotel and the main reason for building such a nice hotel in that location. The hotel history is as follows:

HOTEL COLORADO A National Historic Landmark. Synopsis of the Hotel Colorado's History. In 1883, Princeton engineering graduate Walter B. Devereux came to the frontier mining camp of Aspen. He and his brothers, James and Horace, amassed great wealth in silver, coal, and other minerals.

Having been told, by Kit Carson, of the remarkable curative waters of the Yampa Springs (used for many years by the Ute Indians), at the confluence of the Colorado and Roaring Fork Rivers, Walter Devereau came down the valley, liked what he saw, and bought ten acres, including the springs. Development had to await arrival of the railroad.

Boring, Tilton and Mellon of New York City were the architects. Sandstone from Wilson's Peachblow Quarry on the Frying Pan River in Colorado, combined with Roman brick, were used to build the Hotel. The dimensions are 224 feet across the front and 260 feet from front to rear. It is built around three sides of a large court 124 feet square. Advantage was taken of the natural slope of the ground, thus creating a stately look from below. Corridors encircled the courtyard. The Hotel was modeled after the Villa de Medici in Italy at a cost of $850,000.

Opening day saw leading citizens from all over the world. Such names as the Armours, Goulds, Mayo Brothers, David Moffatt, Lulu Long, Diamond Jim Brady, and Evelyn Walsh McClain appeared in the Hotel Register. President William Howard Taft appeared for an address on the Presidential Balcony during his term.

The Hotel Colorado served as the "Little White House of the United States" in April 1905, when President Theodore Roosevelt came west for his famous bear hunt at that time. The Secretary of State William Loeb set up his offices with telegraph service direct to Washington D.C.

After returning empty-handed from a hard day's hunt, President Roosevelt was somewhat depressed. In order to lift the President's spirits, the maids stitched together a small bear out of scraps of cloth. A reporter of the day found this an amusing story and coined the phrase, "Teddy Bear." A toymaker nabbed onto the caption and began making Teddy Bears.

President Theodore Roosevelt returned to the Hotel Colorado on May 5th after his hunt and entertained all of the men in his party at a gourmet stag banquet in the Hotel's large dining room. The next day, President Roosevelt spoke from the Hotel Colorado balcony to the local citizens.

Glenwood had one of the first motion pictures made of a President of the United States. The episode shocked decent citizens because the scorned ones, known as Madams of the Night, managed to sneak by and be photographed meeting President Roosevelt. When the film was developed, one of the girls was wearing an indiscreet riding habit. The film was ordered destroyed.

BIOGRAPHY:

Ben Lemon was the youngest of three boys. His Mother, Elitha died during a typhoid epidemic in Pueblo, Colo. when he was three. A maternal aunt died in childbirth about the same time so his maternal grandmother took both children. Mrs. Barnard got them both through the time consuming years of initial training. Her other daughter Ellen kept having miscarriages, so it was decided by all that the situation of these two children could best be handled by giving them to Ellen Campbell to rear. (Ben was five) Her husband "Judd" W. A. Campbell was General Foreman of the J.A., a large ranch in the Palo Dura Canyon area of Texas which was owned by Colonel Goodnight.

There were nine school-aged boys 6-10 on the ranch so the Colonel arranged for a full-time teacher for them. The Colonel became a grandfather figure in Ben's life. At that time in Texas, there were a lot of stray cattle around known as mavericks. These strays were rounded up and became the training herd owned and managed by these kids. The Project Overseer was the Colonel. Ben's Ledger has survived. The General Accounting System was set up by the Colonel, the entries made by the kid and the whole certified monthly by the Colonel. Ben started out with 25 head and a mortgage Jan. 15, 1890, at age 6. By age 10 he had increased his herd size to 300 with a net worth of $6,000. He was a tight-fisted little rascal. Each kid had their own brand, had to pay the Colonel stud fees and the hired help for branding their stock. This early training stayed with Ben, because he ran his own businesses later in life with the same care to detail.

Ben had nearly a photographic memory, so learning came easily as did cards. The hired hands broke the house rules and taught him to play all sorts of card games. Poker was the favorite. Of course, with a good memory, Ben did well at the game. The game went undetected for about six months. When discovered, Ben had amassed $6,872.00. Because the house rules had been broken, Ben went to the Colonel's jail for a week at age 8. Thereafter, they played with sticks as money. Ben was required by the Colonel's Court to give all of the illicit proceeds to charity. He gave it to the school teacher and a widow lady in the area whose pies he liked. Cards, however, became a permanent part of his life, as did charity donations to widow ladies, but he would never play for money.

Even though Ben was reared outside of his father's home, he apparently was told the facts of the situation from the beginning. Ellen eventually did have two natural children, but Ben was never made to feel that he wasn't wanted. He felt that he'd been very fortunate in being reared in the Campbell home, and was quite close to Ellen's natural children throughout his lifetime. Robert Lemon, his father, was around as much as possible and there was a genuine bonding there also.

Late in life Ben was still playing successful poker. Of all the mining booms that built and shaped the American West, beginning with the California and Nevada "rushes" of the nineteenth century and progressing through the booms in Id., Mont., Colo., Ariz., and New Mex., none can compare in intensity to the energy boom of the 1970's in Garfield County, Colo. Oil Shale was the El Dorado sent by God. (Only the fifth reenactment of the theme since 1900).

In 1974 there were about 15,000 people in lower Garfield Co. With the shale boom, those numbers were going to soar to 100,000 then 250,000 then 500,000 and at the height 1,000,000. No superlative was too grand for describing what oil shale would mean to that area of Colorado. Unemployment in the entire U.S. was high, and the unemployed flocked to So. Garfield Co. like they migrated from Ok. to Calif. during the Dustbowl of the 1930's. In one day and without notice to any authority, Colony shut down their operation and the area became a ghost town. New buildings stopped construction midway finished, tent cities disappeared in twenty-four hours. A huge abundance of trash and land requiring renovation had to be dealt with by the locals if they intended to continue living there. Housing had been unavailable so many people were there that they were living by the side of the road, in their cars, any wooded area that was flat was a camp ground. There were eight tent cities (25,000 or more each), any deserted building became inhabited regardless of its condition or amenities. The county was ill equipped to handle such a crisis either before the boom or after the bust.

The cause of all of this mess was OIL SHALE of which there is an abundance of both brown and black shale in the area known as the Book Cliffs which are a sandstone formation of mountains that start at Rifle and extend into Central Utah. The thought was that the world's oil shortage was going to be a permanent thing and a new supply of oil could be provided through extracting oil from oil shale. To extract this crude oil required heating the rock in a retort. The U.S. Government, Exxon and Colony dumped millions of dollars into this experiment and did establish that it could be done though not as easily as in Scotland. For the U.S., synthetic fuels would be the more economical way to go. Most all of this action was on the North Side of the Colorado River.

The Lemon property was directly opposite the 1950 Oil Shale Pilot Project known as Anvil Points. There was also a lot of natural gas in the Anvil Points area as well as on the South Side of the Colorado River on Holmes Mesa, Battlement, and Wallace Creek. The knowledgeable souls of learning decided that a nuclear blast would best further their natural gas cause.

" At 3 p.m., Sept. 10, 1969, the Atomic Energy Commission, Austral Oil Co., and CER Geonuclear Co. exploded a 40 kiloton nuclear bomb 8,400 feet below the surface of pretty Battlement Mesa near Grand Valley in Western Colorado. A nuclear device more powerful than 40,000 tons of TNT gouged a cavern deep beneath the Colorado Rockies, in the most controversial exploration program ever undertaken in the state relative to the collection of gas and oil. The purpose was to test the use of nuclear energy to stimulate tight gas sand reservoirs through rock fracturing by explosion which would allow better collection of the underground reserves. The explosion created ground tremors at the time and severe aftershocks which did considerable property damage, but the blast has been declared a success."

The Lemon Ranch was about 6 miles east of the Battlement Explosion Site. Since the Lemon property is part of the same mountain range that the explosion would be in, Austral wanted to use the Lemon property as their headquarters for general operations, ground monitoring and remote detonation of the explosion.

Eighty-five year old Ben Lemon listened to the Austral team's pitch and told them that he thought that it could perhaps be arranged. While you fellows have a cup of tea, I'll just think about it for a second. He yelled for the housekeeper to make plenty of tea quickly. He pulled out his ledger from his old roll topped desk and looked at it. He made a few calculations and drank his tea with his usual shot of brandy in it. He told the Austral lead attorney that it would take a million dollars to use his yard. His terms were cash or certified cashier's check delivered three weeks before the detonation.

The Austral attorney didn't think that Austral would be in a position to pay that much. Couldn't you consider a little less, Mr. Lemon? Well no. You can readily see that I'm about to locate the Pearly Gates and I'm such an SOB that I'll need every penny of that to gain admission through those gates if this goes awry. Well, Mr. Lemon, that's a lot of money. Why don't you consider about $1,000 which is a fair deal for the length of time that we plan to use your yard. We will only be here for about three days. We'll set up equipment in your orchards and corrals and then be gone.

Well yes, that may be true, but I still think that a million dollars is a fair deal for you boys also since you are going to expose me to all types of contamination, cause a small earthquake, damage my old log house, my cows and jeopardize the future of my son, grandson, and great-grandchildren. You see, from my point of view, you are just paying for your damages. I know what earthquakes do. I was in one in Texas in the Palo Duro Canyon and my land and buildings will never be quite the same after you push that little button of progress. My cisterns will all need to be repaired for cracks or maybe replaced, my deep water wells may go dry or fill up with sand, doors will be off plum, all my water head gates probably won't roll without work, my fences will all need attention, the gates won't swing properly, my 3000 gallon fuel tank will need help. Everything in our lives will be just a bit upset for a long while because of this fancy ground shift and be a general annoyance for maybe years afterwards. (His damage predictions were right on target.) His dtr.-in-law, Roberta, was in the bedroom asleep and woke up in the middle of this negotiation. She didn't know whether to go get involved or just stay put in bed. Since Mr. Lemon seemed to be holding the line and obviously was having a good day, she just stayed in bed.

Finally Mr. Lemon suggested that they should call their corporate office for a chat while he went outside to feed his cat. He showed them where the phone was and left for about fifteen minutes. The Austral lawyer called headquarters and told them ..."This old goat wants a million dollars and will not budge. The son has already said no to our offer but we need this site as it falls exactly six miles from the shaft. The area is good and level and is readily accessible. The whole acreage is within the wind patterns that we want to monitor. The other problem is that they own all of the land that falls within the four to eight mile eastern radius that we want to monitor. We are a bit over a barrel. The bottom line is that you'll have to pay what he wants or alter your plan. He's outside and will be back in shortly. I'll call you back in half an hour or you call me at this number." Mr. Lemon, Sr., came back in, sat down, petted his cat and inquired as to whether they had rendered a decision. Well no, Corporate is going to be getting back to me shortly. The phone rang, Ben answered and handed the telephone to the lawyer.

The only way you could get a telephone out in the country was to be part of a big party line. The Holmes Mesa/Rulison party line had twelve households on it. One old lady who didn't have much to do and was a real busy body monitored every phone call in and most going out. You always knew when she was at it, because she rattled her false teeth. She had apparently picked up the phone just to see if there was a conversation going on and had heard the Austral negotiation lawyer talking to corporate headquarters. She was quick to pick up the phone when the return call rang in. Corporate told the negotiator ... "Make the old fool think you're going to walk away from the deal. We'll authorize the million, but see if you can buffalo him into less." Quick as the old gal got a dial tone she called Mr. Lemon and passed the knowledge on to him. After two more hours of "why not" and "no," the deal was sealed and written up for $1,000,000.00 on Mr. Lemon's terms.

Roberta got out of bed and passed through the room so the attorney knew that she'd probably heard his conversation with corporate headquarters. Mr. Lemon Sr., instructed her to hunt up Walter and get him home. Walter fumed his way home that this bunch of fancy panted lawyers had the gall to think that they could hoodwink an old man into their wants. Tea had again been served while they awaited Walter's arrival. Mr. Lemon had announced to his Austral companions that he didn't see too well and wanted his son to read him the agreement that they had just penciled. When Walter arrived, the old man didn't give him an opportunity to breath before handing him the draft agreement. Walter almost dropped his false teeth. The right number of zeros was corrected and they both signed. (W.B. Jr, had a guardianship for W.B. Sr. The day Austral came calling his head was in full residence.)

The Rulison Blast blew and W.B. Sr, Jr. and Roberta were invited, all expenses paid to New York City within a few days of the blast to appear on the television show "To Tell The Truth" hosted by Gary Moore. W.B, Sr. stumped the panel and won another $1,000. Kitty Carlyle cast her vote for Lemon, but was outvoted. Roberta received a string of opera length pearls as a "thank you gift" for coming. Ben wanted to see the Liberty Bell in Philadephia and the White House in Washington D.C. so Walter paid for that segment and pushed W.B. Sr. around in a wheel chair when he got tired.

In the early 1950's Ben and Walter had been victims of a Morman Swindle by design that had nearly broken their business back. There were ten others in the same boat. The fall out from this mishaps had considerably changed the entire family's plans. Ben felt that the man upstairs had handed him this simple one-million dollar deal before he died as a special gift. Before his demise, Ben arranged the balance of his million dollars into investment funds for his son and grandchildren so that the funds did not have to go through his estate. He died the following year.

OBITUARY:

Rifle Telegram, Rifle, Colorado, Sept. 17, 1970

Funeral services for Walter B. Lemon, Sr. were held from the First Christian Church, September 12, at 2:00 o'clock with Rev. Otto B. Duckworth officiating. Burial was in the Rose Hill Cemetery. The Sowder Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Walter Benjamin Lemon, son of Robert and Elitha Barnard Lemon, was born on April 25, 1884, at Pueblo and passed away on Sept. 10, 1970, at the Rifle Clagett Memorial Hospital. Mr. Lemon's parents lived at Fountain and they passed away before he was ten years of age. He made his home with an uncle who lived on the J.A. Ranch near Amarillo, Tex. until he was 16 years of age. He then returned to Pueblo. He came to Eagle County in 1908. He was united in marriage with Mary Ethlyn Conger at Glenwood Springs, Colo. on Nov. 1, 1908. They came to the Rifle community in 1910 and then to the Holmes Mesa community in 1912 where he has since lived. Mr. Lemon was a cattle rancher by profession. He was a member of the Colorado Cattlemen's Association; helped organize the Battlement Mesa Cattlemen's Association, serving as its first president and was secretary of the organization from 1928 until 1952; was a member of the School Board for Dist. No. 16

Mr. Lemon was annoyed with the tax problem. He wrote this poem regarding the matter.

TAX

Tax his head, tax his hide,
Let the government officials ride.
Tax his cow, tax her calf,
Tax his horse, tax his ass.
Tax his houses, tax his lands.
Tax the blisters on his hands.
Tax his Ford and tax his gas,
Tax the road that he must pass.
Tax the payroll, tax the sale,
Tax the hard-earned paper cale.
Tax his pipe and tax his smoke,
Teach him Government is no joke.
Tax the water, tax the air,
Tax the sunlight if you care.
Tax the living, tax the dead,
Tax the unborn before they're fed.
Tax their coffin, tax their shrouds,
Tax their souls beyond the clouds.
Tax them all and tax them well,
Tax them to the gates of Hell.
P.S. Almighty God and our Federal,
State, County and City Government,
Have mercy upon us.

DEATH-HEALTH_HISTORY: 8 Jan 1947 at Redmond, Deschutes Co., OR; suicide precipitated by recurring ulcers

OBITUARY:

CONGER TAKES OWN LIFE FOR FAMILY. FAREWELL NOTES TELL DESIRE TO REMOVE BURDEN AT HOME.

Fred D. Conger, 56, Redmond resident since 1933, took his own life Wednesday morning, saying in notes left his family that he had suffered a long while and no longer wanted to be a burden and expense to them. Conger had been in ill health for a number of years and it was feared that he would have to undergo another operation. Wednesday morning he sent his wife to town on business, then apparently walked to the Frank McCaffery barn about a hundred yards north of his home and shot himself through the left side with a 30-30 rifle.

NOTES LEFT FAMILY.

Thinking of every contingency and wanting to make everything as easy as possible for his family and local authorities, Conger left three notes. One to his wife, said that he had suffered long and that he wanted no more expense for her. Another, to his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Perrin, told where his body would be found. The third note was to the police, informing them of his intentions. Mrs. Perrin, who is employed at Pacific Supply Co-op, found her father's body and stayed at the barn until Chief of Police, Jess Edgar and Officer Ray Hafstad arrived. Sheriff Claude L. McCauley and Deputy County Coroner J. A. Walker, who were notified immediately, determined from their investigation that Conger died as a result of a self-inflicted gun-shot wound.

SERVICES FRIDAY.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 O'clock from Redmond Christian Church, with Reverend D. L. Penhollow officiating. Internment will be at Redmond Cemetery, with Zacker Mortuary in charge of arrangements. Fred D. Conger was born on Piney Creek, near Wolcott, Colorado, Jan. 20, 1890. The family moved from Colorado to Redmond in 1933. Conger worked at Redmond Army Field during the war and more recently, when his health permitted, was employed in the cold storage department of the Central Oregon Cooperative Creamery. He is survived by his widow Liddy (Rogers) Conger, his daughter, Mrs. Wilma Perrin; his son, Elbert Conger, navy veteran, his mother Mrs. Jennie Fargher, 86, of South Pasadena, California, and a sister, Mrs. Ben Lemon of Grand Valley, Colorado.

DEATH:

W. B. Lemon was called to Redmond, Oregon, Wednesday because of the death of his wife's brother, Fred Conger. Mr. Conger spent a great portion of his life in Eagle County and later in Garfield County -- living on the ranch his father owned and which he later purchased to make his home, until he moved to Redmond, Oregon, for his health in 1937. Mr. Conger was preceded in death by a daughter, who passed away on Holmes Mesa. Mr. Conger suffered for many years from stomach trouble; the ultimate cause of his death. Mr. Conger is survived by his wife, Eliza Conger; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Perrin; and a son, Elbert Conger, all of Redmond, Oregon. He has one sister, and one nephew, Mrs. W. B. Lemon, Sr. and Walter Lemon respectively. His mother resides in Los Angeles, California. Mr. Lemon will go from Redmond, Oregon, to Los Angeles, California, to join Mrs. Lemon who is visiting her aged mother, Mrs. Jennie Fargher. Word has been received that she is not expected to live. Their stay in Los Angeles is indefinite.

[Note: There seems to be a discrepancy between the two accounts 1933-1937 as to when they moved to Oregon. I believe that he sold his land to Ben and Mary, but land records haven't been consulted to determine the date of transaction. His Mother Jennie Fargher lived in South Pasadena, Ca.]

BIRTH: 1 Jun 1916 at Paonia, Delta Co., CO

When she was born they were living in Paonia, CO on land that was owned by George Fargher. Exactly why I don't know as Fred already had Holmes Mesa land from his father. The only reason I can see for his being in Paonia is that Ben Lemon was looking after Fred's interests on Holmes Mesa and he and Liddy were requested to go to the Fargher Property in Paonia for some reason. It would appear that they were not there very long but were there long enough to get into the papers and county records for taxes. I think that Fargher had nieces/nephews or something down there. There is a building in Delta that has Fargher in faded letters on the outside. I have never investigated this further.

RECOLLECTIONS-REFERENCE:

During World War II Eleanor Conger was a hospital volunteer. Her group would come to the hospital to read, talk, write letters and listen to the stories of the veterans. Warren Grubner was confined at the Mason General Hospital from November 1945 until 19 June 1946. It was there that Eleanor and Warren became acquainted. Warren later wrote, "We decided we were good for each other and on 24 Aug 1946 tied the knot. I became a Police Officer and for 50 years we made it work."

In 1992 Eleanor and Warren Grubner visited Pennsylvania and West Virginia. They visited her uncle, James Blaine Conger, in Williamstown, WV and he gave her a copy of "The Conger Family in America." Later, Eleanor wrote some birth and death dates in the book. One of these entries was: John Lincoln Conger, born 7 Feb 1900, died Feb 1972.

They visited Dunn's Station - Washington, PA, and also Bentleyville, PA. They went to the graveyard of the West Union Church. They were in Biglerville, PA (her aunt Anna married a Bigler).

BIOGRAPHY:

Glenn Monroe Stevens was born on 6 May 1906 in Hartwell, Henry Co., MO.

He recalled when the family moved to a new locality northwest of Schell City, MO. It could not have been much colder, he believed. His father, Charlie, rented two boxcars. Frost covered the hair of the animals on the train ride and during the drive out to the new farm. Glenn also recalled a hugh flat skillet filled with hot coals that helped warm his bed that first night.

Glenn's early youth included learning to do farm work and to run a trap line. As he grew, he and his dad hunted skunks and kept them in a hen house until their fur ripened in winter, when they would bring more money. Glenn also shipped rabbits by the barrel full to market in Kansas City. A hunting dog always graced the Stevens farm. Glenn learned to love the chase of the coyote and has pursued that interest most of his life. His favorite hound was the July which can run and catch a coyote. Coyote hunting did not become a main occupation, but Glenn believed that his dogs were responsible for the death of hundreds of coyotes. These sly predators cost farmers untold sums of money each year by killing sheep, chickens, pigs and even calves. While Glenn enjoyed many a chase and catch, he actually performed an exemplary public service.

Glenn knew and handled work horses extremely well and he had a reputation in the community for this. He seemed to be able to break and work animals which could not be used by others. He also bred both horses and mules. One feather in his crown is that the sorrel mules which pulled Henry Truman's wagon during his inaugural parade were sired by a jack Glenn owned.

Glenn Monroe Stevens died on 15 Apr 1997 in Springfield, Greene Co., MO. He was buried at the Blue Mound Cemetery, in Harwood, Vernon Co., MO.

RECOLLECTIONS:

My grandparents were, Everal Eugene and Martha Josephine (Wright) Jones.

Grandpa Everal Jones, along with his family moved from Burrton, KS to a ranch about 10 miles east of Dodge City, KS in 1902. I don't know how Grandpa met Martha Josephine Wright; but, her family was in Dodge City, KS by 1915. They may have traveled there by 1910. Most of their nine children were born on the farm. Everal and Josephine retired from farming before 1950 and moved to Dodge City, KS where Dad graduated from high school in 1951.

I remember now that when I was a young kid of about 10, Grandma Jones (Josephine) visited my parents in Goddard, KS. Mom and Dad had moved to Goddard in 1967. We all packed into the car and traveled to Savonburg, Allen Co., KS. Grandma Jones told us about all the wild times they had at a community building in town. I doubt if they had much to do. My grandparents never drank or played cards. Grandpa Jones smoked a pipe.

After we visited Savonburg, KS we traveled up the road to a little town named Moran, KS. I remember Moran, KS because that is where Ms. Kansas; then, she became Miss America or U.S. was from. When I went to Centerville, IA a few days ago and found a child of William Wright's named Alice, I wondered if that was Aunt Alice whom I saw at Moran, KS. Grandma Jones introduced her as Aunt Alice. She was a child of William Wright and Sophia Wendland. This is Aunt Alice whom I saw at a home in Moran, KS. She was probably living at one of her children's homes. She was very elderly at that time. I remember seeing her curled up on a bed being fed some kind of soup or something. She must have been 90 years old at that time. At least I know where Aunt Alice came from. (Written by Duane L. Jones, March 2000)

HONORS: Wrights Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wright were pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening while visiting with Pastor Paul Davenport in their home. About 7 p.m. cars began coming into their driveway blowing their horns to charivari them. The guests took cookies and coffee along with unlabeled canned goods.

The Wrights invited their guests into their home and passed out gourds and candy bars. Pastor Davenport then led the group in telling where each had met their spouses, which was enjoyed by all. He then asked the blessing and cookies and coffee were served with the rest of the evening spent in visiting. All left wishing the Wrights many years of happiness together.

COMMENT:

Last week when I wrote about the rural schools in Caldwell Township, [Appanoose County, Iowa], a paragraph was omitted. I mentioned that while I never attended a rural school, Don spent all of his elementary days at the Beard School south of town.

He particularly remembers two of his teachers - Ada Traxler Parsons of Centerville, whom he still likes to tease about pointing her finger at him and the late David Wright of Cincinnati, [IA].

Don tells me that David was hired to "straighten out the big boys" in the school as their unruly behavior had caused the previous teacher to resign.

The first day the boys continued to have their fun. The second day David told his students that they had run the school the day before and that just wasn't right as he was being paid to run the school.

He proceeded to let them know that he meant business. David not only ran the school, he taught his students well, and he set a fine example for them to follow. Don always had a lot of respect for David Wright!

Following graduation from the Cincinnati High School, Mr. Wright taught in the rural schools of Appanoose County, [IA] for a period of years and later engaged in farming which he continued for the remainder of his lifetime, being one of the more progressive farmers in the area at the time of his passing.

He was a long-time member of the Cincinnati United Methodist Church where he served as Sunday School Superintendent for many years and at the time of his death was assistant superintendent.

He had held many offices of trust, including township clerk, town council member and charter member of the Appanoose County Conservation Board. For many years he was a member of the Cincinnati and Centerville school board and served as President of the Centerville School Board for several years.

He was united in marriage May 10, 1942, in Unionville, Missouri to Pauline Haines, who survives along with the following children: Patricia Else, Des Moines; Wayne Allen Wright, Cincinnati, [IA]; Sherry Hiner, Ottumwa; John Alden Wright, Omaha, Nebraska; and Kristin Keller, St. Louis, Missouri. He is also survived by six grandchildren; two brothers, Boyd Wright, Centerville; Paul Wright of Daytona Beach, Florida; and four sisters, Ruth Patterson, Centerville; Lola Patterson, Centerville; Bertha Bauman, Clio, Michigan; and Mary Correll of Las Vegas, Nevada.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers and one sister.

Throughout this entire area, many people mourn the death of this well known and highly respected citizen who has done so much to make this a better community in which to live.

Services were held Wed. March 17, 1976 at 1:30 p.m. from the Johnson Funeral Home in Centerville, [IA] with the Rev. Donnell Logsdon officiating, assisted by Rev. Lynn Ryon. Music was furnished by Don Kaster, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Clara Swab. Pallbearers were Ted Corder, Zora Allen, Bill Ireland, Tom McDonald, Harold Dudley and Lloyd Cowan. ## John Conger Jr

Mrs. Ola B. Grovenburg, 70, of 201 Main St., Grinnell, [IA] died Saturday evening [29 Nov 1969] at her home. She had been in poor health the past few years and recently had been confined to her home.

The daughter of Aaron and Nettie Miller Conger, she was born Oct. 30, 1899, at Hedrick, Iowa. When 13 years old, her family moved to Grinnell, [IA] where she resided ever since.

On Aug. 2, 1919, she was married to Dennis W. Grovenburg at Montezuma. The couple had eight children, six of whom survive.

Mrs. Grovenburg was employed at the Grinnell Shoe Co. for a number of years. She also worked at the DeKalb Seed Corn Co. and the Danish Maid Bakery prior to her retirement five years ago.

She is survived by her children, Mrs. Maurice (Mildred) Kester of Grinnell, Mrs. Ralph (Helen) Strand of Kellogg, Dennis W. Grovenburg of Grinnell, Mrs. Thelma Fisher of Newton, Lloyd Keith Grovenburg of Grinnell, and Mrs. Manly (Shirley) Lillie of Grinnell; 17 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and her brother, Leslie Conger of Grinnell.

Mrs. Grovenburg was preceded in death by her husband in 1948; two children, Ernest and Kenneth Grovenburg; three grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and six brothers and sisters, Lester, Ollie, Opal and Ellworth Conger, Mrs. Bessie McGrew and Vernon Miller.

Funeral services for Mrs. Grovenburg will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday [2 Dec 1969] at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Ralph Beebe of the Mayflower Home officiating. Organist will be Mrs. Willard Heffner. Pallbearers will include Floyd Beason, Donovan Evans, William J. Haines, Clair Strand, William Stevenson and Asa Talbott. Burial will be in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home.

RECOLLECTIONS:

My dad [Harlon Henry Conger] was born in 1890 so was one of the young men taken up the advent of the automobile. He became a mechanic at a very early age and soon had his own garage. I think it was about 1914 at Keeseville, NY. He later had more garages in more metropolitan cities such as Schenectady. He wasn't a good business man but he became widely known for his tool making ability.

Among the people he worked for was Thomas Edison. In 1917 he built an engine for Henry Ford. It was the first six cylinder motor in America and it was tested in 1918 with a car my dad built for Ford.

Ford, Edison, Stimety and Firestone took an Adirondack vacation in this car in 1918. My father drove the men all over the Adirondacks. Mr. Ford didn't want the engine but he sold the design to the Dodge family. So we Congers never drive Fords!

My mother taught in rural schools and never got more than $4 a day -- and sometimes a lot less. Her family were Finneys and they apparently were merchants for century after century.

My grandfather, Earl Allan Conger, 1856, was a mountain man that my mother thought was lazy. He was fire warden for a PA-Co. ... moonshine moutain for a great many years. He loved to hunt and supplied the road crews and line men for the first power lines in [the] mountains with deer meat.

His big farm was at Port Kent on Lake Champlain. Teams of oxen and horses drew hugh loads of logs across the lake to Burlington, VT on winter ice. It was a trip of thirteen miles. My grandpa, being a mountain man, was a great story teller too.

My younger brother, Robert, died at the age of 59. He was a tool maker and mechanic. He had a good service record in World War II.

My brother, Walter, owned a bottled gas plant which, incidentally, my dad invented the regulator for in the 1930's. Walter was responsible for hundreds of volunteer fire departments in New York State and is a good local civic citizen.

My older sister, Vera, had a son who died and a daughter who has a large family. Vera worked at many things and was a baker for the state of New York. She is just one fine person.

My sister, Dorothy, had one son and is now a retired school teacher. She is another of what I perceive to be a Conger trait; steadfast citizen, more Republican than Democrat; more Dutch Reformed Church than Catholic.

Looking back at Conger families is looking back at America being built into a great nation. The great many steadfast citizens are truly the building blocks. Each one is adding a little to each community in which they lived. None of them is taking away anything but each is leaving a piece of themselves.

The world is changing, but your pulling the floating and scattered families together may be the greatest contribution of all!

Sometimes when one looks at an old and lonesome graveyard, we say, "Look at all the forgotten people." Well, we can just look over at the nice hospitals, the town hall, the school and the business community and "then" you know that only these dead ancestors did this by staying in the community until they died.

BIRTH: Birth Certificate

Daniel Bruce and David Dee Lockwood do not have birth certificates. Gibson County, Indiana has no record of either of their births. The Health Department of the State of Indiana at Indianapolis has the following. Daniel David Dee Lockwood b. 12 Nov. 1931 at Francisco in Gibson County, the child of Guy O. and Dora Mae (Swartz) Lockwood. They also have a birth certificate for Harold Lee Lockwood b. 12 Nov. 1931 at Francisco in Gibson County the child of Guy O. Lockwood and Dora Mae (Swartz) Lockwood. Such a person was never born.

Before my mother died, my twin told me, that she told him that his middle name was Dee and not Dow. My mother thought that my dad wanted him named after Dow Parkinson, a relative, and sort of a shady character. When, the doctor came by and asked for his name she said, "David Dee" and she never told my dad nor anyone else. Therefore, my twin went by the name of David Dow.

When David went into the Navy in July 1950 and had to have a birth certificate the State sent him one with his name David Dee Lockwood. I never found this out until Aug. of 1978.

I also sent a letter to the State asking for a copy of the birth certificate for Daniel Bruce Lockwood and they sent me one. Why the state did this is something I can't understand because they had no birth certificate for either of us.

In 1995 while at the annex in Princeton, Indiana doing genealogy I saw a sign which said, "Birth Certificate $3. I decided to get a copy of my twin brother's certificate and this is when I found they had no record. The lady immediately called the State and that is when we were told that the birth certificates were as indicated above. Each department had to call a supervisor until we were talking to the head "honcho" at the State level. The lady told him that Daniel Bruce Lockwood b. 12 Nov. 1931 at Francisco, IN, the son of Guy O. and Dora Mae (Swartz) Lockwood, was standing in front of her.

Well, he wanted to speak to me. I identified myself and told him that I had been issued a birth certificate in 1950 by the State which he found incomprehensible. He wanted me to go to all kinds of trouble to get the birth certificates in Indianapolis changed. I refused. I told him that I had a Social Security card (original); a high school diploma, a diploma from Indiana State; a diploma from Indiana University; a discharge from the U.S. Army; Veteran's insurance policy from the government; driver's license; retirement papers from the State of Michigan; Income tax records; a passport issued by the passport office; marriage certificate; a will; living trust; deeds; and a birth certificate with the seal of the State of Indiana as proof who I was. If he wanted to change it and make a birth certificate it would be O.K. with me. He said, "That couldn't be done." I said, does the Board of Health lose birth certificates? He said, "No", which I responded then they must make them up whenever they want to since I have one. They weren't very happy with me. But, why should I pay money to get them to make me a birth certificate?

Later, I wrote and got a copy of Harold Lee Lockwood's birth certificate - a person who never existed. And, last year I tried to get a birth certificate for me and was told that no such person existed.

If I known about Harold Lee years ago I could have taken out an insurance policy on his life for few million and then have him disappear. All, I would have had to do back in 1950 is get his birth certificate; a social security card; work a few places during the summer using his name showing that he paid in to the F.I.C.A. Get a passport and go on a cruise except it would be me - pay a ship pilot to pick me up as I jump overboard and collect the millions. I wouldn't have done it but believe it would have worked. Now, I am writing a story about such an episode.

OBITUARY: NCHS Senior Dies in One-Car Accident

The Norton community was shocked today [Friday, April 23, 1976] to learn of the death of Steven Todd Drommer, 19, rural Norton, [KS] as the result of a one-car automobile accident south of Norton early this morning.

Steve was fatally injured when the 1974 Chevy Nova he was driving left U.S. Highway 283 about 1.5 miles south of Norton. The Highway Patrol estimated the time of the accident at 2 a.m.

He was also at the time of the accident which occurred as he drove north toward Norton. His car apparently went out of control and ran off the highway on the west side, overturned several times and came to rest on its top in the west ditch. Steve was thrown from the vehicle. The car was demolished in the crash.

Funeral services will be held Monday, April 26, 2 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church at Norton. Memorials have been established to the Youth Involvement Trust Fund of the United Northwest Federal Credit Union to be used for scholarships for seniors and to Cancer Research.

Friends may call at the Enfield-Eckhart Funeral Home, Norton, from 7 p.m. Saturday evening until service time.

Steven was born Dec. 15, 1956 at Norton, the son of Chrissie and Ida Mae Todd Drommer, and lived his entire life on the family farm seven miles northeast of Norton. He attended the Norton grade school and was currently a senior at Norton Community High School.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church at Norton, the Future Farmers of America, the Busy Jayhawkers 4-H club, a member of the Youth Board of the United Northwest Federal Credit Union, and planned to be a farmer and stockman.

He is survived by his parents, of the home, and a sister, Susan and her husband, John Snodderley, Peoria, Ill.

He was predeceased by his grandparents, George and Jettie Drommer and Harry and Pearl Todd.

Steve was an outstanding student at NCHS and was a leader in the Norton Future Farmers of America chapter where he was presently serving as sentinel. He was to have received the District Proficiency award at the Banquet on May 8 and was to receive the State Farmer Degree, which is awarded to the top two percent of the FFA members in the state, on May 29.

His advisor, Bob Broeckelman, told the Telegram that he was active in many phases of judging, such as livestock, poultry, dairy, dairy products and crops and other FFA activities. "He was a good kid and always thoughtful of others," said Broeckelman.

RECOLLECTIONS:

Speaking of his family, [Joseph Clyde Conger] wrote, "I remember my grandmother most because she was a remarkable woman .. deeply religious, active, alive and very alert even to the end. She and my grandfather raised a wonderful family of their own (9 children) and then borrowed some from the orphans' home to raise. I'm sure they had little of earthly value but a lot of the spiritual things.

"As an example of my grandma's love of life, she suffered broken limbs at an advanced age and healed completely. Later she became addicted wiht "tic della rue" (?) and the intense pain could be relieved only with opiates. When she realized that she was in danger of becoming a drug addict she arranged for this then dangerous operation in which the trigeminal nerve was severed inside the skull. Of course this paralyzed the side of her face but relieved the pain and she became normal again.

"Mother, after my father's death, married L'Grand Capers Wilson. They had one daughter, Mary Capers Wilson, my half-sister. Mother died quietly in her sleep from a heart attack while I was in the Aleutian Islands in 1943.

"As kids, Sue (my sister) and I were never so happy as when we planned a visit to Grandma, or Aunt Susie or Uncle Ben. These were our favorites, but we loved them all very much. We visited Aunt Susie in Drew, Miss. this summer (1969)."

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 82-83 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

COMMENT: Although Clyde and Suzanne have lived in New Jersey many years, their Southern drawl delighted the Leonards when they stopped overnight on their camping trip in 1969. (CFA I, p. 83)

BIOGRAPHY:

"My mother, Geneva Wilcox Clark, always felt the responsibility of the care of her own mother, Dora Ann Conger Wilcox. She was raised in the home of her grandmother, Nancy Margaret Slaton Conger, who had lost her own husband, Paton. Paton, as did his own father, Elisha, kept the custom of this area of "sitting-up" with a neighbor who had died of typhoid fever. Both Paton and Elisha died of the same illness soon afterward.

"Mother's uncles, Albert, "Doss" and Charles, lived nearby and helped their own mother, Nancy, with her crops. Dora Ann also worked in the garden and fields. Frail Malinda, who later died of T.B., helped in the house.

"When Mother was educated and grown, she accepted the responsibility of the total support of her mother, Dora Ann. Mother taught two years in a 'one-room' country school to afford Lockyear's Business College in Evansville, Ind. After graduation she became a secretary and bookkeeper in local offices of Marion Flourspar Offices. My grandmother and mother 'pooled' what money they had from the sale of my great-grandfather's farm with money earned in order to purchase a small home. (I grew up in this home before a new one was built in 1948.)

"After marriage, I came along to stop her from her position. Times were difficult in those depression years, causing Mother to feel obligated to return to her position when I was about three years of age. Grandmother Dora kept me, helping with the cooking, etc. My sister arrived and Mother continued working.

"Dad had begun contracting to build homes, as well as sell lumber and other building materials. As the business grew, so did Mother's responsibility as bookkeeper, salesperson, etc. Today, March 1969, Mother still maintains the book work of Clark Building and Supply Co., with the aid of my sister, a Bowling Green Business graduate. Sam Smith, Linda's husband, works with Dad along with other help. Dad discontinued contracting several years ago in order to slow down. Dora Ann Conger always lived and worked in Mother's home until her death in 1961."

RECOLLECTIONS:

"I have a sad story about Wilma I. Conger Cloyd who died of Alzheimers after being in a rest home 9 1/2 years. When she was in the local hospital a short time before being admitted to the rest home she said, 'I don't need to be here. I don't have any pain whatsoever. I just don't remember like I used to and that worries my family.'

She had lost the use of her hands somewhat and gradually lost control of movement over the years until she was unable to do anything, even eat or talk.

One of the saddest times was the last time she tried to talk to me. She tried so hard and did make me understand, by motion, what she wanted to say. I believe that was as much as five years before she died of pneumonia.

Wilma had an excellent memory, was county spelling champion when she was 12 years old, and was Valedictorian when she graduated from high school after ten years in school. She worked for the Tennessee Valley Authority several years and got that job by making the highest grade on an examination for the job. ## BIOGRAPHY:

Robert Mark Conger graduated in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, December 21, 1982. from Louisiana State University with a Bachelor's of Science in Geology. In December 20, 1996. he graduated from LSU with a Master of Science in Environmental Sciences.

In 1996 he resided in Prairieville, Louisiana at 38016 Therese Ct. W.

Robert Mark Conger was reared in Belle Chasse, Louisiana from the age of 5 until adulthood. The son of Roger Fowler Conger and Martha Jean Nabors, he grew up enjoying all the childhood pleasures of being an American including fishing, hunting, baseball, football, and basketball. His father taught Robert and his younger brother, Steven Luke Conger, to shoot at age 6, using a 22 caliber bolt action. They fired at bottles and cans at a short range along the Mississippi River Bank behind the family home in Belle Chasse. Both of them also learned their fishing skills in the Mississippi River. They spent many hours catfishing on the banks and swimming in the river. They were very mischievous boys as well, building tree houses and club houses from drift wood they collected with the other neighborhood children. Mark and his brother Steve were inseparable during their days of youth. They have many memories of the fun they had growing up as brothers.

Mark's older brother, Russell Paul Conger, is 11 years older than Mark. Since Mark's father commonly worked offshore in the oilfield 7 days on, and 7 days at home, Russell was a very close brother in the absence of his father. This is a closeness that is still there today.

John Conger Jr

He started school at Belle Chasse High School, a K-12, in 1965, and due to desegregation ordered by Federal Courts, his parents placed Mark and his younger brother in a Baptist Private School for a year. In third grade, he attended River Oaks Academy through 5th grade. In 1969, his parents felt it was now safe for Mark and his brother to return to Belle Chasse High School, which was fully integrated.

His first job was at age 12, when he worked for Mr. Sonny Honea picking tomatoes on a citrus farm for $1.50/hour. He later went to work for Mr. Sal Ranatza and worked year round after school picking tomatoes, oranges, plowing, fertilizing, and grafting nursery trees for $1.75/hour.

He was an above average student in elementary school and High School graduating with an above B average from Belle Chasse High School in 1977. He developed an interest in sciences at a young age and was often chastised by teachers for being so quick with the right answer that the rest of the class never had a chance to think. He won the 5th Grade Science Fair with a project on oil exploration and production. In the 6th Grade Science fair he placed with a project on building a crystal diode radio from scratch. He won the high school biology student award for the highest average grade, 99 of 100 in 1975. He represented the High School in 1976 and 1977 at the District Rally in Chemistry and Physics.

Mark began his musical interests when he learned to play the trombone in the 7th grade and continued through high school and college. He was a member of the Belle Chasse High School Band and later the L.S.U. Golden Band from Tigerland. He was awarded the Outstanding High School Bandsman Award in 1977 and was the Band Captain at Belle Chasse. He performed in Concert Bands at Belle Chasse that attained repeated Sweepstake Superior Ratings at both District and State Music Festivals in 1974. He also performed in the High School Marching Band at various March Contests including Mardi Gras Parade Competitions, accounting for many many trophies.

In LSU's Band, he performed at all the LSU football games between 1977 and 1979 without a single absence, including the 1978 Liberty Bowl and the 1979 Tangerine Bowl. In 1978, Mark was invited to pledge the honorary band fraternity, Kappa Kappa Psi, which he did and was inducted. He later was elected treasurer of the fraternity and served honorably in that capacity. It was as a member of Kappa Kappa Psi that Mark became best friends with Donnie LaCombe. He also made life-long friends of Joe Killian and Robert Berg. In 1980, Mark retired from his music interests to concentrate his efforts on the completion of his Bachelor of Science Degree in Geology at LSU.

Mark earned his college tuition and living expense money working summers as an oilfield roustabout and later a rig floor roughneck, following the earlier path taken as a career by his father. With the help of his father, Mark applied for a summer job with Fluor Drilling Company and worked on the "jack-up" movable drilling platform, Mr. Si, each summer through 1981. In 1982, he briefly worked on the Rowan Drilling Company, "Houston" in the Galveston, Texas shipyard for one month between semesters in order to attend Summer School. As a roustabout, his hard work and desire to learn more were soon recognized and he was given a chance to work as a roughneck. Working "lead tong" as a start, Mark soon learned to work "back-up tong", pitching the spinning chain as many a good oilfield roughneck before him. He also tailed pipe, relieved the derrick man at supper time and spend time working the shale shaker and mixing mud. As a roughneck,

Mark got a good appreciation for how his father had climbed the ranks in the oilfield and just how valuable hard work and the common man are to our society.

During those years, 1977-1982, the American oil industry was in a boom. Crude oil prices were at record highs and job opportunities were unlimited. This and his earned interest in the drilling business through his summer employment, and due to the common interest with his father, were the reasons that Mark initially chose the field of Geology in which to pursue an education. During the Fall Semester of 1981, Mark decided to take a part-time campus job working for the Louisiana Geological Survey, in order to make himself a stronger employment candidate upon graduation, since the oilfield boom was beginning to show signs of bust.

At the LGS, Mark worked for Brad Hanson and Syed Haque, Research Geologists in the Water Resources Section of the Geological Survey. Mark was primarily assigned to "slip" or correlate electric log measurements from deep oil and gas exploration wells and construct geologic cross-sections and maps of subsurface injection zones being used for hazardous waste disposal. Mark was a good candidate for the job since his oilfield experience provided critical knowledge about well exploration drilling not often possessed in academia and government. In this job Mark gained his first experience in groundwater hydrology. He assisted the LGS Geologists in preparing both potentiometric maps of the Chicot Aquifer in Lake Charles and geochemistry plots of water samples from the aquifer. Although at this time, Mark had not lost sight of his interest in the oilfield, this learning would later prove to have been some of the most valuable experience in his early career.

In December 1982, Mark graduated in Geology with a B.S. Degree and sought employment in the Oil Industry. Unfortunately, all opportunities were gone as the American Oilfield was beginning a decline that would continue into the mid 1990's. However, much to his delight, the LGS was able to offer him an unclassified position as a "Utility Laborer" for a mere $525/month. Mark gratefully accepted the job as a chance to gain more experience while continuing to seek a job in Geology.

Mark's abilities in Geology began to shine within a short time. He worked "moonlight" hours developing oilfield prospects with a co-worker, Blair Spencer. Blair introduced Mark to his father, Fritz Spencer, the assistant commissioner of the Office of Conservation for the State of Louisiana. After taking the State Civil Service Exam and scoring 99 of 100, the highest score to date on that exam, Mark was hired at the Office of Conservation to regulate underground injection practices for both oilfield and hazardous wastes in Louisiana. This job was his first real job in the environmental field and he finally was paid as a professional, a handsome salary of $27,000/year, above average for 1983.

Mark continued in his job at the Office of Conservation working all across Louisiana, continuing to build knowledge and experience in the groundwater and environmental fields. From 1983 to 1986, Mark worked in every one of the 64 parishes of Louisiana and wrote more than 1/2 dozen professional open file reports on subsurface geology and groundwater, including two official published scientific papers.

As were those times, Mark's job was a "soft" money job and afforded little long-term security. The work of State employees was not well appreciated and the few career advancements that did occur were provided often to favorite sons of Louisiana politicians. During this time, the environmental consulting field was booming as the country began complying with the volumes of new environmental regulations that were the product of a liberal democratically controlled Congress. Before leaving the Office of Conservation, he reviewed the repermit of over 70 hazardous waste injection wells in Louisiana and once he completed this task, he felt it was time to make a career advancement in the private sector.

In 1986, Mark joined Environmental Management, Inc. as a consultant for an excellent salary of $32,000/year plus a 5% bonus on gross business developed. This was a totally new field for Mark and learning the business was his first order. EMI was a family owned business of Dr. Robert Flournoy and as such had the many problems associated with small size and low resources.

It was about this time that Mark began pursuit of a life-long interest in flying. He started in 1987 taking flying lessons from Eddie Duffard in Eddie's Piper Cherokee. On February 14, 1987 after 7 hours in the air with Eddie, Mark soloed at Ryan Field in Baton Rouge. He earned his pilot's license in August the same year and continued flying light planes as a hobby until after he was married in late 1988. Mark gave up flying due to his own concern not to take any risks with his life after he was married. He has over 120 hours as pilot in command and was rated to fly four different makes of single engine land airplanes.

In 1987, after a little over one year at EMI, Mark joined Woodward-Clyde Consultants, a nationally recognized consulting firm in Baton Rouge. At WCC, Mark perfected his groundwater skills and developed new ones in project management and environmental remediation. He developed a keen interest in effective remediation systems while at Woodward-Clyde which would later prove to be valuable in his career. It was about this time that Mark began to settle down in his personal life and met the love of his life, Laurina Amos of Prairieville. They were married in December 1988 and moved into a new home at 5522 Holly Springs Drive in Shenandoah Estates in Baton Rouge. Mark built the home himself with the aid of his best friend, Mr. Donnie LaCombe. In 1989, Mark joined Geraghty & Miller, Inc. another nationally recognized consulting firm as the Baton Rouge Office's Hydrocarbon Services Division Manager. But as the oilfield boom busted in 1982, the general deflation of environmental consulting began in the late 1989 to 1990 era as the first predictions of flat growth for the consulting industry were made.

In June of 1990, Mark joined BASF Corporation in Geismar, Louisiana, just south of Baton Rouge as an Environmental Affairs Engineer. Mark was hired by Mr. Harry Stafford and George Smith to solve one of the most controversial remediation problems in Louisiana, the remediation of a former herbicide plant known as the basagran plant. Mark was instrumental in developing a plan to remediate the site that was agreeable to both the State of Louisiana and BASF. The environmentalists were demanding the excavation of the property, which had a cost of tens of millions, but Mark's ingenious plan to install the first horizontal well pumping systems in the State, if successful would only cost a little over three million. The plan was a success and Mark's reputation as an innovative scientist in Louisiana grew by leaps and bounds.

Since that first project Mark developed the first successful aquifer recharge system for speeding up environmental clean-up and was a pioneer in Louisiana of researching and implementing the largest phytoremediation project in Louisiana at BASF. In 1994, Dr. Ralph Portier of LSU convinced Mark to return to LSU and seek a Master of Science Degree in Environmental Sciences. He was awarded this degree in December 1996, and continues his studies today toward a PhD he hopes to obtain in Spring 2000. Mark has authored over a dozen professionally published research articles and speaks frequently at seminars, symposia, and conferences on environmental remediation.

Mark and Laurina began their family in 1990 with Matthew Wayne Conger, followed in 1991 by Meredith Claire Conger and finally in 1995 Maxwell Benton Conger. They moved from Baton Rouge in 1996 to Prairieville to escape growing urbanization and poor schools. They now live in Ascension Parish where they are active Catholics and enjoy their children.

Mark enjoys big game hunting and fishing and has bagged several trophy white tail deer, wild boar, and a pair of Corsican Rams. The later of these he shot from over 300 yards and killed two rams with one single shot. He owns a 300 Winchester Magnum, Model 70 Rifle, a 30-30 caliber Winchester Model 94, and a Black Hawk, 54 Caliber muzzle loader which he hunts with all. He loves fishing both saltwater and freshwater. His favorite fishing is speckled trout trips in the Louisiana Barrier Islands.

Mark relaxes with woodworking and enjoys reading Civil War History as well as Family Genealogy. He is active in his children's education and extra curricular activities. He attends Cub Scouts with Matthew and looks forward to Meredith's dance recital each May.

Mark's greatest treasure and his biggest inspiration is his beautiful wife Laurina. Her beautiful singing and loving personality are his greatest fondness. She is certainly Mark's greatest collaborator on all he does and he values her above all else.

COMMENT: In 2003, Robert Powell drove to Litchfield, NE. He went to a local cafe and was put in contact with Mable, who had worked there the longest & knew everybody. She put Bob in contact with Clarabelle Cornford, 93 years old.

Clarabelle remembered Rose (Powell) Dickenson & her daughter, Daisy, but did not remember any of the other Powell's. She said Rose & Daisy had moved to Oregon & died there. Clarabelle gave Bob, Ila (Cornford) Powell's phone number in Lincoln, Neb.

Robert drove there & made contact with Ila, her husband Benny & his brother, Billy. [sons of Jesse & Mamie Powell.] Ila was very helpful with information about Charles Powell. She had photographs of Charles & Rebecca and gave one to Bob. He scanned the photo and sent it to me. Charles Powell looked just like my grandfather, Isaac Powell & his brother Oath. Ila had other family information including the obituaries of Samuel B. Powell and his wife, Mary Elizabeth Bacus, who died in Minatare, Neb. [The youngest brother of William G. Powell.]

PARENTS: Gail Delbert Powell and Alice Carolyn Rundle

EDUCATION: Attended schools in Denver, Adams Co., and Englewood, Colorado.

MILITARY:

David Orson Powell joined the US Navy in 1959, taking training at San Diego, CA. He received further training at Norfolk, VA, Great Lakes and San Diego. He was assigned to various ships, serving duty in the Mediterranean and the Pacific. He was a Naval Recruiting Office in the state of Nevada prior to an assignment in Vietnam. Later he was a Liaison Officer in Belgium.

HONORS:

For his service in Vietnam he received a: Citation for meritorious service while serving with foreign forces engaged in armed conflict against the North Vietnamese, in the Republic of Vietnam. While serving as Engineering Advisor at Operations Base, Tan Chau, Chief Powell performed in an exemplary manner. He was directly responsible for instructing the Vietnamese in the maintenance of their Public Works plant, power generators and all systems handling fresh water and fuel. Chief Powell provided leadership, knowledge and encouragement necessary to accomplish every task.

He was directly responsible for saving a sinking United States Navy Landing Craft and a Vietnamese Armored Troop Carrier by his rapid organization of pumping teams and his supervision of effective damage control procedures. His prompt actions were instrumental in the recovery of a United States Army helicopter when it crashed near the base in March 1971.

Chief Powell's exemplary professionalism and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

Bronze Star Medal ("with Combat") to Chief Engineman David O. Powell, United States Navy, for Meritorious Service from January to December 1971.

HONORS:

From the "San Diego Navy Dispatch," 3 Feb 1978: Two A-6 Intruder aircraft from the USS Enterprise made bombing runs on the USS Cree, 18 Jan 1978, some 80 miles from San Diego, CA. The Cree had towed a ship to be used for bombing practice to a designated area and had taken up station some eight miles away to take the hulk back in tow if she was not sunk during the bomb drops. Investigations were held to determine how the USS Cree was mistaken for the target and subsequent damages inflicted when the first of the two plane attack force dropped three 500-pound bombs on the fleet tug.

Lt. Merrow, cited actions of Chief Warrant David Powell, the ship's engineering officer and the man in charge of damage control as one of the individuals most responsible for saving the ship.

Powell said, "I heard the jet and within split seconds, the grinding metal and vibrations as the ship heeled sharply to one side. Paint flew off the bulkheads. I could hear glass crashing and a thousand other sounds that are part of a disaster. Without thinking, I knew we'd been hit. My first concern was fire. I ran aft, yelling General Quarters, as I went, and started breaking out life jackets and emergency gear, when I reached my station." Powell said, "Two portable pumps were rigged in the immediate period following the damage assessments that included shipping of water through hull seams that had been split by the second bomb's detonation under the ship. It had become necessary to finally man-handle a six-inch salvage pump from the hold, an incredible feat." He said, "The pump weighed 2, 165 pounds and normally requires the ships boom to lift it on deck. Somehow those men displayed the strength, using a block and tackle with light nylon line to lift that pump on deck and get it into operation." "This saved the ship, of course," said CWO Barrs. There are stories of bravery, leadership and individual courage, in the work of what could have been a disastrous finish for the USS Cree.

Navy Commendation Medal to Chief Warrant Officer, David O. Powell, United States Navy, for Meritorious Service on 18 Jan 1978, given this day, 3 Oct 1978.

RESIDENCES: 802 W. 27th, Kearney, NE 68847

EMIGRATION: Moved to Missouri after his 2nd marriage.

RECOLLECTIONS: Robert and Mildred Conger visited Maxine Crowell Leonard one morning in August 1971. Genealogy time was used to the utmost for Robert as Mildred washed the Leonard's dishes.

Robert said his father homesteaded in Nebraska at the age of 18. His mother, Bessie, went to Nebraska to live with her sister, and she too took up a homestead. [Note: Robert Guilinger points out that the first 2 sentences of this paragraph should read:

Robert said his father moved to near Brewster, Nebraska at the age of 18 and took up a kincaid. His mother, Bessie, went to Nebraska to live with her sister, and she too took up a kincaid. A kincaid is 640 acres while a homestead is only 160 acres. REH] Finis and Bessie each had 640 acres when they married, and later accrued 2380 acres. They lived six months on one homestead and six months on the other to meet the federal stipulations for a claim. Finis had lied about his age to the government, and later, when he became a Christian, this bothered him. He wrote to Washington to confess and he was forgiven.

Robert had the privilege of bequeathing a family walking stick to his first grandson, Andrew Ival Conger. This stick was made in the early 1800's by Joseph Tibbles, called, "Uncle Joe." It was made for one of his Conger progenitors--for Finis's father, Sigel, or Sigel's father, Elias, or for Elias's father, Enos. Traditionally it has been passed on to the oldest son to his oldest son. It was given to Robert when Ival was born because his three brothers all had daughters.

Whoever it was made for, Uncle Joe reputedly was very particular.

"It is a hickory stick. He hunted all over the woods until he found the branch he wanted. Then he tied it. And in two or three years he returned to it, and it had grown straight by that time," Robert said.

"After he cut it, he threw it up in the barn and left it for a year. After that year was up, he went and got it. He peeled the bark off of it and threw it up there for another year."

"The next year he began to whittle. The walking stick was carved into four separate segments with each segment made in the form of a different tool handle: a hammer, ax, adz and mall," he said. "Once each of the handles was carved, the wood was smoothed with a piece of broken glass. There was no sandpaper in those days."

In keeping with the tradition of handing down the walking stick, Robert has made an old fashioned baby cradle for each of his four daughters and his son. The cradles are to be handed down from generation to generation. Some are made from walnut and some from cherry. Mildred contributed to this project by making the spindles, covering the foam mattresses and making the linens. They made 6 large cradles and 9 small ones. PARENTS: 3rd child of Lowell Edward Conger and Elizabeth Patten.

OCCUPATION: Worked for telephone company

RESIDENCES: As of April 1961, Mrs. Robert (Mary Lou) Thompson of Grinnell, IA

RECOLLECTIONS: Mary Lou Thompson of Montezuma, IA writes as follows: My mother, Elizabeth Patten Conger, was born in a corn crib, which was a temporary home after her parent's home was burned down at Milford, IA, on May 8, 1893.

Shortly after this they moved to Brooklyn, IA on a farm where she lived until her marriage to Lowell Edward Conger.

My dad was the son of Charles Seigel Conger. My father was the 7th of 8 sons, all born in Appanoose county in Iowa. He and many others came to Powesheik county in the fall to pick corn.

My folks got acquainted and were married. Dad farmed for a while and they had two sons who died at [the] age of 10 days & 18 months. They they had me and Alice.

In 1932 they moved to Lemons, MO, which was a small town close to Unionville, MO. We lived there until 1943, while Dad farmed and raised cattle.

I don't remember a great deal about Granddad except going to visit him where he lived on a acreage on the edge of Unionville. He drove a Ford card which he had to crank to start and every time he stopped in town the motor would die and he had to get out and crank. Also, he had a Loganberry patch which had beautiful big black berries to us who were used to wild dewberries.

John Conger Jr

Granddad lived with us the winter I started to school and he took me on horseback when the weather was bad.

We used to go visit Uncle Wallace at Cincinnati, [IA]. I don't know for sure if he was really an uncle or if they were the family who raised Granddad after his mother died. [Note by Maxine Leonard: (Joseph) Wallace Conger, [b. 24 Dec] 1863 was [indeed] the uncle [of Charles Seigel Conger, b. 8 Aug 1862] -- [Wallace was] the half brother of [Charles' father] Elias Gregory [Conger b.] 1843. He was only 2 years older than Seigel [Conger]. Note by REH: The last sentence is in error. The nephew was over a year older than his uncle.]

I 1943, Dad sold out and we moved to Longmount, CO. Dad worked in a flour mill and we girls loved it there. It was such a new experience to live in town and go to a big town school. Aunt Jenny and Uncle Jake Whitmore lived in the same town. I think that was the reason Dad chose to move there.

In February 1944, we moved back to Brooklyn, IA. The following summer my folks separated and Dad moved to Harrisburg, MO on a farm. He remarried while living there, but had no children. He moved to Grinnell, [IA] in 1959 and died in 1961 and is buried in Brooklyn, IA.

When I graduated from high school, Mom, Alice and I moved to Grinnell. Alice married Branford Hitchison and has a girl and 2 boys. Alice and her husband live in Buffalo, IA. Their girl, Debra, married Bobby Phillips and live[d] in Briceville, TN; [they] have a girl, Misty, and a boy, Mathew. Their son, Richard lives in Davenport, [IA] and son, Douglas has [a] son, Mike, also in Davenport.

I married Robert Thompson in 1948 and we have 5 sons. We live at Montezuma, [IA] now on a private lake. We lived at Grinnell for many years. Bob retired from Fisher Govenor at Marshalltown and I from General Telephone in Grinnell. Bob and I have done quite a bit of travelling since retirement. We've been to Hawaii, a Caribbean cruise, and a tour to 8 countries in Europe. Also a trip to Idaho to visit my cousin, Ruth, daughter of Uncle Ira. We had not seen each other since we were 11 years old.

Mom lived with us a number of years and then moved into an elderly housing apartment where she lived 12 years until she fell and cracked her pelvis. She went to the nursing home in 1985. Her health is quite good for being 100 years old.

Her medicine was always a cup of coffee and an aspirin for whatever ailed her. Even now she takes no medicine. She is feeble and in a wheelchair. Her memory is not so good but [she] has no aches or pains.

She loves to sing and remembers all the words to songs at Sing-Alongs. She also does math problems in her head.

We had a five generation picture taken on her 100th birthday.

PARENTS: Troy Eugene Conger and Pansy Rosalie Seals

AKA: Called Gene

RESEARCHER: Gene Conger was interested in genealogy. As of Oct 2001 he had a website at: <http://members.iowasocean.com/genecong>.

RESIDENCES: Centerville, IA

RELATIONSHIP: Brothers, Ernest Eugene and Ronald Truman Conger were married to sisters, Shirley Ann and Donna Marie Ehlers, respectively.

RECOLLECTIONS: Ernest Eugene Conger, "Gene," was born July 4th, 1937 at the John Griggs home on the corner of Hwy 149 as it enters Exline, Iowa from the west. We moved to a house right across from the school in 1938. I went to school there for first 8 years (no kindergarten). We lived right across the street (south) from the school which is now gone, and my father Troy still lives there. As the Exline High School was closed the year I graduated from 8th grade, I attended the High School in Cincinnati, Iowa for 4 years and graduated in 1954 when I was 16 years of age.

Then I lived in Brookefield, Missouri with an uncle, Tom Seals. I got my first job with Brown Shoe Co. there in Brookefield making shoes in the fall of 1954. Quit there and moved back to Exline, Iowa in Jan 1955 and got a job in Centerville, Iowa at the Box Factory (Baxter Box). Quit there and went north for more money and I took a job at Gray Iron Foundry in east end of Marshalltown, Iowa working with Litel Bates, Freddy Sumpter and Danny O'Donnel. Turned 18 years of age while working there.

Enlisted in the Army's 3rd Armored Division (Gyroscope) with Bob Hudson and Gene Hamm in July of 1955 soon after turning 18. We went to Des Moines (where Gene Hamm was separated from the group and did not go to 3AD) then on to Camp Chaffee, Arkansas where we got all clothing issue, shots, etc. then on to 3AD at Ft Knox, Kentucky where we took "Basic Training" in the units we were assigned to. We got there a little late which in my case, shortened an already reduced (6 week), schedule because they felt Ordnance units didn't need the full 8 week basic training. I think I received just a little less than 5 weeks of the training.

Emphasis was given to our advanced training and I was assigned to Co. B 122nd Armored Ordnance Battalion. At the end of basic training, we were in formation by the Company Orderly Room when the 1st Sergeant announced that the different company sections were set up at tables inside the orderly room and that we would select that same day the jobs or training that we would be doing the remainder of our enlistments. He said that when he gave the command "Fall Out!" it was first come, first served - the first ones there got their pick of jobs.

I was lucky as I was in direct line with the door and was one of the first on the landing and in the door. There were several tables set up around the room in a crescent starting at the door. The first table had Headquarters Section, supply, clerks and the like which since I flunked typing in high school I figured I'd better pass. Went to the next table and it was Service Section; heaters, carburetor/ignition, machinist, etc. and I almost took one of them. The "Technical Supply Section" (all ordnance parts in our command) was in there somewhere. Not sure but I think the next table was Wheel &

Track Maintenance and I did not want that as it looked like a lot of work and seemed to be pretty dirty.

I had gone through all the tables there except the last one and I was standing there thinking about trying to go back to the Service Section - Carburetor/Ignition table when the guy at the Wheel Track table, Sgt. Truslow, said, "Better make up your mind kid, you're running out of tables. Just what kind of job do you want, anyway?" Having come from a coal mining area where even that was petering out, I blurted out "I don't know, I'll do about anything as long as it's clean and not too heavy work!" (I sure didn't want to dig coal).

And to my astonishment and later delight, the guy at the very last table, Sgt. Mullett, said, "Come on over here son, I think I have just what you are looking for." and signed me up for Fire Control Instrument Repair in his Armaments Platoon. I then went to school in Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland and was given MOS 403.20 Fire Control Instrument Repairman and worked on artillery, tank, etc. gun sights and other optical equipment like binoculars and telescopes - I really loved and appreciated the job. I then returned to Ft Knox and stayed until May 1956 and then the 3rd Armored Division, went to Coleman Kaserne in Gelnhausen, Germany for 2 years and then home to end the 3-year enlistment. I turned 21 years of age coming back on the boat and was honorably discharged on Jul 9, 1958 in Ft Sheridan, IL.

I only relate this story of the military training for some of the old-timers that might see it and have interest and to advise the youngsters to always speak up and at least let the world know of your aspirations, your Sgt. Mullett might be listening.

After I got out of the Army in 1958, I worked at various jobs around Appanoose county, Iowa. The County was a "depressed" area in those days because of the shift of industry from coal, which we mined, to natural gas and fuel oil which we don't. It has been depressed since I can remember and good jobs were always hard to find. We have had a continual drain on the local population because of this, the county losing at least half of its population during my lifetime, so after about 2.5 years thrashing around in this area looking for a good job and not finding it, I went back into the Army for another 3-year enlistment. I went to Alaska this time and was there in Ft. Richardson for 2 years with the 24th Ordnance Company after which I rotated back to the states and spent 1 year with the 705th Maintenance Battalion of the 5th Infantry Division (Mechanized) in Ft. Carson, Colorado. I was a Fire Control Repairman, again. Sometimes even an "aggressor" - in 5th Infantry Division Yakima, Washington exercise.

While in Ft. Richardson, Alaska I managed to go to their NCO Academy. It was not much of an institution as far as size, etc. goes but I sure learned a lot at that little school and have always appreciated what they taught me as it has stood me in good stead ever since and I yet today successfully employ principles that I learned there.

After finishing my 2nd 3-year enlistment in Dec 1963, I went straight to the "Quad-City" area (Davenport, Iowa) and quickly found employment with John Deere Malleable Foundry in East Moline, Illinois. I worked there until I could get a job at the Rock Island Arsenal where hopefully I could make use of my military training for personal advancement and "military time" for retirement.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

The civil service employment did not work out for me so I returned to the "civilian" work force and quickly worked, in succession, at John Deere Plow Works, Farmall, and J.I. Case (combine) as regular production worker before entering construction work where I settled in and worked as a laborer for several years, generally around concrete. I belonged to Laborer's Local 309 in Rock Island, Illinois, enjoyed the work generally and was/am very proud of some of the projects I helped build:

- * Cordova Nuclear Plant
- * 3-M Plant in the Cordova Industrial Park
- * Davenport Library
- * I-74 By -Pass
- * Locust Street Improvement
- * Largest Aluminum Rolling Mill in the world (addition) at ALCOA
- * And several lesser jobs

About this time, in 1970, I became acquainted with a young woman who was to become my wife and who still calls me her husband. And this is Shirley Ann (Ehlers) Conger.

Shirley's family, parents Bernice and Emil and two Brothers and two sisters, are small farmers from northeast of Wyoming, Iowa. She went to the schools in the area; Country School, Monmouth and Wyoming. One of her sisters, Donna, married Ronald Conger, my brother, thus was acquaintance of Gene and Shirley made.

So having made acquaintance, Shirley and I were quietly married in the Methodist Parsonage in Moulton, Iowa on June 17, 1971 and just as quietly celebrated the event with my brother John and his wife and my parents in the lengthening shadows of my father's Troy's front yard, next to "Banty" Sales' home.

In a couple of years, our family of three, Gene, Shirley, and Brian, saw an addition, the first of Shirley's and Gene's four children, Naomi Ann.

And about every two years (for six years) another child was added until we had 5 kids (Brian, 4 Oct 1966; Naomi Ann, 5 Sep 1973; Daniel Eugene, 14 Aug 1976; Samuel Dean, 14 Sep 1978; Sarah Amy, 7 Mar 1981), a dog or two, some cats and a cockatoo bird.

This all happened in Exline, Iowa and the kids went to church at the "Christian Church" where everyone is pretty nice. The kids went to grade school in Cincinnati, Iowa and we lived in a double wide "trailer" in the north east part of Exline.

When we set up our domicile there in Exline, I went to work on construction projects in the area and sandwiched between them, I worked at Iowa Steel & Wire where we set up the "Wire" plant, later "Penn Dixie".

I was pretty slim in those younger days but cake at my mother's and lots of fried fish and morel mushrooms have collected their toll.

My last construction job was Reed Construction out of Kirksville, Missouri which built the Young Radiator Company plant here in Centerville, Iowa. I worked building the plant and was "laid off" just before they were completely done.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

Since I was contemplating a move from construction to manufacturing, I beat it over to the local community college in Ottumwa and using the "G.I. Bill" financing, took some refresher courses on drafting, shop math and machining out at the airport. I ran into Larry Reed and Terry King there (later Young Radiator Co. employees) and we went to school together for awhile until Young's responded to my resume and called me for possible employment in the early summer of 1975. Larry & Terry came to Young's after they completed the course.

I started employment with Young Radiator Co. on June 2nd, 1975. Some maintenance people were in place when I went there in the first production group of 11 people. Our 11 people drew clock numbers and I drew number 27 (as I said, there were some maintenance employees there when we got there).

We received some training in soldering and more shop math and drawing at the same time we started making radiators. The back doors were still not completely installed when we shipped our first radiators (destined for forklifts some where, I think).

Soon after the start-up phase, I was asked if I would be interested in the job of a Quality Control Manager and I accepted, of course.

We produced radiators for just about everybody in the country that used radiators, except the automotive industry. We served markets in industrial, mining, agricultural, military, construction, oil, transportation (especially railroads) and just about everything - anything that used diesel or natural gas engines and of all sizes and descriptions. Our sister plant in Mattoon, Illinois manufactured the large stuff, and made and shipped one radiator (in sections, of course) via rail and boat to a gold mine in South Africa. It took up seven flatcars to load/transport it to port of embarkation.

Sometiems we made "Motor Coach" radiators with drawn 1/8" steel tanks, two radiators per installation, which were placed in buses (like Greyhound).

We received a Quality Excellence award from FMC Corp. of San Jose, California, awarded to the Centerville Plant. There were two other awards, very similar, Targets For Excellence Award by General Motors Electro Motive Division of La Grange, Illinois and the Department Of Defense Blue Ribbon Award.

I was called, Ernie, at the Young Radiator Company.

Young Radiator Company was sold to Motive Power Industries which in turn merged with Westinghouse Airbrake Company and in the reorganization of the company, the Centerville plant (with their product line) are being phased out. Since I am retirement age, I have taken the early retirement package and have retired, effective 1 Apr 2000). I'll lay around this summer doing some put-off chores and familiarize myself with this new life then start looking for something to occupy my time this fall. Not sure what the wife is planning but I imagine it would have something to do with housewiving and relaxing at every chance? And now it's getting close to time to say "OK kids, its all yours, just let the Grand kids come over and play every now and then" ... after all, the kids are what its all about, isn't it?

RECOLLECTIONS: The family of Joshua Goddard, Sr. came from Greene county, Pennsylvania about 1850 and settled in Wetzel county, Virginia.

My parents were James Rosco Goodard, the second son of Moses and Rachel (Hafer) Goddard, and Bertha Ellen Sidenstricker (Dennis). I was an only child of this marriage, although both parents were married before.

I was born on Jan. 20, 1929, on "Dutch Run," at the home of my grandparents Goddard.

John Conger Jr

6 February 2017

My first five years we lived in Paden City, WV. I was three and a half years old when my father was hit by a car while crossing the street and died from the injuries received.

My mother and I later moved to New Martinsville. We lived in the old "Johnson's Flat" house along the beautiful "Ohio River." I attended Central Grade and Magnolia High School. While attending Magnolia I met and later married my husband Ralph Andrew Williams, Dec. 19, 1947, at Benwood, W.Va. Ralph and I were blessed with two children, born at Wetzel County Hospital, who are now both grown.

Ralph wasn't able to find any decent work in Wetzel County, so we decided to move. Ralph had an older brother living in Auburn, California the "Mother Lode Country." We loaded up our belongings, two small children, car, our love for each other, our heart's full of dreams and headed out west. We drifted from one small job to another for three years. We spent many hours in fruit sheds making packing boxes for grapes, peaches, pears and cherries. We then moved to Alameda, California where Ralph got his first good job with Carnation Milk Co., Fresh Milk Div. in Oakland. One year later we were able to buy our first home. I returned to school that year and got my license in nursing. I worked for 17 years at "Mt. Diablo Hospital" before I became ill and had to retire.

Grays Harbor Co., WA. Barbara Patricia Phillips

OCCUPATION: School teacher; musician

HOBBIES: Collected Indian baskets

COMMENT: Barbara Patricia Phillips was an only child. Her mother nearly died in childbirth and the doctor advised against any more children.

BIOGRAPHY: Barbara Patricia Phillips

My mother, Barbara Patricia (Phillips) Mustard. She was known as Patsy in childhood.

She attended Illinois Wesleyan College in Normal, Illinois, where she earned a B.Music (flute, piano, violin, and conducting) then went on to the American Conservatory in Chicago, where she studied conducting under Walter Aschenbrenner. I still have her violin, a 1758 David Tecchler (Tecchler was one of Stradivari's students at the Cremona workshop.) She went on to teach grade school, first in eastern Illinois.

She married my father in 1948, moved to Sequim, Washington, and began raising a family of four children. They moved to Kentucky in 1950, then my father went into the Air Force in 1951 and was base veterinarian at San Marcos, Texas from 1951 to 1954. They then moved back to Washington State, to the Mustard family farm near Montesano, where she spent the rest of her life.

She taught second grade for one year at the Garden City School then the next 25 years taught third grade in Elma.

She was elected to Delta Kappa Gamma, the national honorary for school teachers.

She and her mother collected Indian baskets while living in Montana, and she became an expert on Indian basketry of the Northwest, studying informally under Erna Gunther of the University of Washington later in life. She also learned to weave baskets from Indians at the Moclips Indian Reservation at Tahola. At the time of her death, she had one of the most extensive collections of Pacific Northwest Indian basketry in private hands.

Mother had 20/10 vision and was a crack shot with long guns, as she had spent her childhood in Montana shooting jackrabbits with a single-shot Winchester .22 rifle. She was also a proficient violinist, pianist, and flautist.

OCCUPATION: Doctor of Veterinary Medicine

MILITARY: U.S.A.F. Captain Veterinary Corps

RESIDENCES:

104 Brady Loop Road East; Montesano, WA 98563

HEALTH_HISTORY: high blood pressure and atherosclerosis

BIOGRAPHY: Donald Hugh Mustard

My father, Donald Hugh Mustard, was born and reared in Brady, Washington, on a farm bought by his grandfather.

He studied veterinary medicine at Washington State University and graduated with his D.V.M. degree in 1944. Upon graduation he went into private practice in Elma, Wash., then in 1947 or so moved to Sequim to enter practice with another veterinarian.

He married my mother in 1948 and they had four children: Richard Hugh 10/10/49-1/15/93, Catherine Jane 4/30/51- , Allan Phillip 10/4/55- , and Edward Louis 1/13/57- .

In 1951 moved to Texas to serve in the Air Force as base veterinarian at San Marcos. This service was obligatory as part of his education had been financed by the Army during World War II. In WWII the Army needed veterinarians, but by 1944 decided it didn't need as many as it was financing, then in 1951 during the Korean War, the military told him he could either enlist as an officer or be drafted as an enlisted man as compensation for the Army's contribution to his education. He chose to enlist and was commissioned a captain in the USAF veterinary corps. In 1954 he was honorably discharged.

He moved back to Washington State to take over the family dairy farm, which was on the verge of bankruptcy. He ran it until 1973, when he sold the herd and went back to full-time veterinary practice. He is still practicing veterinary medicine, though he has shifted from large animals to small animals.

BIOGRAPHY:

Maxine Leonard was stricken with Rheumatoid Arthritis at the age of 37. She turned to genealogy for something to do. She had five foot operations and the knuckles and wrists of both hands were repaired. Through chiropractic she was able to return to a fairly normal life.

As a Latter-Day Saint, she taught, directed the choir and put out the monthly ward paper. She directed the Waterloo Mothers Chorus (a community group of 35). She also sang in the Sweet Adelines.

Besides typing the entire CONGER manuscript, she did most of the mimeograph work alone. In the 1970's she was also preparing for publication of the records of the CROWELL, WRIGHT, BOWLER, LEONHARDT, and WILLSON families. Through the Willsons, her husband, Larry, is descended from William the Conqueror, whose lineage goes back to Rollo, 1st Duke of Normandy, born in the early 800's.

In Volume I, of "The Conger Family of America," H. Maxine (Crowell) Leonard wrote of her involvement in Conger genealogy.

"You could say these records [of Charles Leslie Conger which had been filmed at the Library of Congress for Elijah Hagens Conger] were handed to your compiler on a "Silver platter," thanks to Era (Conger) Jones [sister of Elijah Hagens Conger], who let me copy the books one at a time. Why did I, Helen Maxine Crowell Leonard, get involved, when I am not a Conger -- my closest relationship is that of my great grandmother, Mary (Conger) Croel, born 1814, in Monroe county, Ohio?

I have been "Conger Conscious" since about the age of eight. I, with my folks, visited the cemetery in Monroe county, Iowa, where Mary is buried with her son, Wilbur, and his wife, Margaret, my grandparents. As I stood beside her grave I had the strongest feeling about her -- the urge to know her. I liked the sound of the name CONGER. I knew that in some way she was very special.

In 1956, I was stricken with Rheumatoid Arthritis and was bed ridden for three months, as stiff as a board. Through prayer, food supplements, exercise and diet I was able to assume a fairly normal life. Five foot operations alleviated a lot of pain, and both hands and wrists were restored to good use through surgery. Through all this I needed something to occupy my time and mind and genealogy seemed to be the answer.

I "met" Era Jones through correspondence, and in 1962 we had the opportunity to visit her. It was then I began copying her books. When I finished I thought, "Someone should index all this," for it was impossible to find anything specific. And so, I made file cards for everyone, and recorded the Conger spouses. Every place my husband's Army travels took us, I looked for Congers and interviewed them.

My husband retired from the service in 1967 and we settled in Janesville, Iowa. I had no idea what to do with the records, for I really didn't know any Congers. I thought of typing all the material and sending copies to the Library of Congress and the Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City, UT and keep a copy for myself.

Then in July 1968 I received a letter from Beach Conger of Pleasantville, New York. He was planning to update his line, that of Job, which Charles Greenwood Barker Conger had published in 1903. He heard of me through correspondence and wondered if I could help him. When he learned what I had, he offered to finance the publication if we worked together to put all the Conger material into one book.

Since Beach lived near a large library, I suggested he search telephone directories for Congers throughout the country. This he began to do and contacted about 150 people of this name. For six months he sent material to be cataloged -- and then he died on 6 Jan 1969. Marion, his widow, sent me his files, which contained the booklets of "Job A. Conger and his Descendants, by Ivan Albert Conger and the story of "Norman Hurd Conger," by Roger N. Conger (included in Volume One of CFA, with their permission).

Lauren Tenney Conger of Lake Forest, Illinois, came to my rescue by helping with the telephone directory search in Chicago -- and my slipping me a couple of $10.00 bills to help defray the gigantic postage costs. Later, I spent an entire day in the St. Louis library to finish the project. About a 1,000 Congers were contacted; over 2500 letters have been written. In this way the past three or four generations have been added to the existing records.

Special credit goes to the following people for many hours of research -- reading census reports on microfilm, checking courthouse records, writing letters and personally interviewing people: Marion Barton for checking all the Vermont Vital Statistics and libraries; Geneva Clark, finding and identifying the Congers of Marion county, Kentucky; Willa Dean Eaves for research in Georgia; Beulah Frehner and daughter, Connie Money for finding the missing link to establish Jonas Conger in Georgia; Leona Robertson and Lesba Thompson for finding the descendants of Jonathan Conger of Pike county, Indiana and proving him for DAR; (William) Russell Conger for further search of the Ohio branch; and Geary H. Worth and Don Ruth Merritt for checking Tennessee census films.

(Joseph) Clyde Conger went that extra mile to round up the descendants of Lucius Lee Conger in Mississippi; Sidney Conger Mendenhall has kept records of James Westfall Conger's descendants from Kansas. Mary E. Woods has done a splendid job in preserving the records of the descendants of Abijah Conger from Athens, Georgia. Many letters were written by Noel William Conger to find the descendants of Colvin Conger of New York. Ivan Albert Conger kept the descendants of Job A. Conger together by an annual family reunion at his home in Owoso, Michigan.

Although Abraham H. Conger, 1810, of Lowndes county, Georgia, cannot be linked to John Belconger, his prolific posterity has kept in close contact and John Robert Conger prodded them into submitting their records.

There are many others too numerous to mention.

Now, after 120 years, several thousand dollars, and the devoted efforts of many kinsmen, "THE CONGER FAMILY OF AMERICA" is assembled into one cover. I personally have not done much research; I make no claims of any kind. I have compiled the existing material, which undoubtedly contains errors. In many instances additional children have been found, so the reader must bear in mind that these records are not necessarily complete; none probably ever will be. When known, the religious denomination is given as an aid in directing further search and verification.

This is only the beginning! There should be a supplement every five years, giving additions and corrections. The family should become "Conger Conscious" and make sincere efforts to keep individual records henceforth. There should be more family reunions to preserve our rich heritage. Seek out your Conger cousins wherever you go. Unless there is another volunteer, I promise to continue in the roll of "compiler" so long as I am able. If I have no successor, the records will be donated to the Genealogical Society of Salt Lake City, UT.

RESEARCHER-REFERENCE: Helen Maxine (Crowell) Leonard was the author of the massive (844 page): "The Conger Family of America, Vol. I" which she published in 1972. She listed her name on this work as: Maxine Crowell Leonard. At least 838 copies were made. One of two copies at the Library of Congress bears the number, 456. The LOC call number is:

CS71 .C7515 1972 Vol. 1. This book has several sections. The largest section is an alphabetized grouping of family group sheet data on Conger families. Another section is an alphabetized grouping of family group sheet data about the families that Conger women married.

In 1992, Mrs. Leonard published the 725 page, "The Conger Family of America, Vol. II." This volume is also available at the Library of Congress. In the front of this volume is a list of some of the places where copies of Volume I can be found.

In 1994, she published "The Conger Confabs - Quarterly Newsletters - 1975-1994." A bound copy is available at the Library of Congress, call number, CT275 .C7623 C66. One of the issues contains a fairly comprehensive list of places where Volume I of CFA can be found. The publication of the issues of the newsletter she had edited for so many years was the culmination of more than a quarter century of, interest in, and dedication to the history and genealogy of the Conger family. Maxine passed the role of newsletter editor to Job Conger in 1996.

Anyone interested in the Conger family of America owes a debt of gratitude to Helen Maxine (Crowell) Leonard for her monumental contributions toward recording information about this family

Richard E. Henthorn, working with Robert Guilinger, Joyce Posey and other Conger researchers, attempted to extract all of the information about the Congers who lived in Monroe County, OH and Appanoose County, IA, from the two volumes and the Conger Confabs, and enter it into the Personal Ancestral File.

PUBLIC_SERVICE: Meeting of the Conger-Gregation is no ordinary family Reunion; by Lawn Griffiths, Assistant State Editor of unspecified publication.

Janesville, [IA] -- There are family reunions, and then there is a Conger-Gregation.

The second national Conger-Gregation was the July 4th weekend [1978] at the Riviera Ballroom in Janesville, a time to celebrate membership in a family that goes back about 10 generations in America.

The 171 who came from 18 states and Canada played "Congo," instead of Bingo, poked around in other branches of the family tree, and briefed each other on what they know about the Conger dynasty.

The two-day gathering, promoted for the past couple years by the quarterly "Conger Confab" newsletter, brought together many people who had never met. The national reunion was a follow-up to the first staged five years ago here. Regional Conger reunions are regularly held coast to coast for the far-flung descendants of John Conger who arrived in American in 1640.

The major force behind the Congers' celebration of common roots is Maxine Crowell Leonard of Janesville whose great-grandmother was a Conger.

John Conger Jr

Mrs. Leonard's painstaking efforts at compiling the family's history and lineage records, then publishing a 924-page book, have made her the keystone in the bridge that has brought the scattered family into a common sense of oneness.

She spent four years compiling the information for "The Conger Family of America." For two years she devoted four to seven hours daily typing the manuscript.

Then for an average of 12 hours a day for three months Mrs. Leonard personally printed the book's pages on her home mimeograph. It was hand-bound -- all 800 copies -- in Waverly. That was done five years ago, just in time for the first every national Conger-Gregation.

Like what happens when a mother bakes a couple dozen cookies for a big party on Saturday afternoon, the Conger clan gobbled up the books. The 800 copies went so quickly that the last one for sale was given away in a raffle at the reunion a week ago Saturday. Tickets for a chance at the last book went for $1 each.

The reunion featured a table with Conger memorabilia, books and looseleaf notebooks containing articles noting famous or interesting Congers, and plenty of pictures of people who represent leaves on the family tree.

Mrs. Leonard says the most prominent Conger is considered to be Clement Ellis Conger, 65, White House curator since 1973 and former deputy chief of protocol under President Nixon. So far, he hasn't attended a Conger-Gregation, but Mrs. Leonard corresponds with him.

But at the national reunion again was Duane R. Conger of Tenino, Wash., dressed up in full Revolutionary War costume. His authentic garb is a reminders to the family that 23 Conger ancestors fought in the American Revolution - though not all fought for the cause of the colonists. Some were Tories.

Moreover, Congers have fought in every war since the French and Indian War (1754-1763).

Duane Conger put the outfit together for the Bicentennial and wore it to 25 parades or events. He considers that by wearing the $1,500 costume, complete with his own handmade tools, and carrying a smooth bore musket named Brown ?, he's paying honor to his own family and can help educate people about the war for independence.

He's a member of the 3rd Regiment of the New Jersey Brigade, descendants of an outfit that fought in the Revolution. Conger also participates in state cutting matches with his musket.

The eight generation American Conger, roamed around the reunion party room at the Riviera, posed for pictures and answered a litany of questions about soldiering 200 years ago. He admits the Bicentennial enthusiasm has gone flat, but expects it will make somewhat of a comeback in 1981, the 200th anniversary of the end of the war.

What's it feel like to be inside of the uniform? "It's completely miserable," he says, mopping his brow.

Another person appearing at the gathering was Jerry Conger of Washington, Ill., the family member Mrs. Leonard says, "is such an inspiration to us." The 42-year-old man is a quadriplegic, paralyzed below the neck as result of an accident at the age of 15. He broke his neck when he dived into the Ohio River at Monclare, Ill., and struck the bottom.

PUBLIC_SERVICE: (Helen) Maxine Crowell Leonard Announces Retirement as Editor of "Conger Confabs."

SO LONG, FAREWELL-- ... and thank you, CONGER COUSINS, for the happiest 25 years of my life! Our blessings have been numerous. Few compilers of family history have been fortunate enough to actually meet the people they write about. We have.

We have travelled coast to coast and border to border, a-Congering all the way. Most of this has been written up and pictured in the "Conger Confab."

We have also had the privilege of hosting six Conger-gregations at Janesville, [IA] and Waverly, until 1990. Then health problems for both of us cancelled them. Larry is now 79 and I, 77.

"The Conger Family of America," Volumes I (1972) and II (1992) are first in alphabetical format. The index gives each person's statistics. These two features were divinely inspired. I also believe putting 20 years of the "Conger Confabs" into book form and indexed is a first.

It is time now for the "Baby Boomers" to take over, and I have confidence that Job Conger, IV, is the one to lead them. With his computer and many talents and energy he will breathe new life into the "Conger Confab."

I shall continue as a "consulting secretary" as mail comes in and Job's address is better known.

Book orders should continue to come to me. CFA II is $35.00 pp and only 60 are left. The "Conger Confabs" books are gone. Like CFA I, they will never be reprinted, but all three books are on film [and can be requested] at your local LDS Family History Center. (ML)

OBITUARY:

Helen Maxine (Crowell) Leonard
Waverly, Iowa

Born in Des Moines, Iowa on April 5, 1919

Died in Waverly, Iowa on October 2, 2005

Burial services held October 6, 2005 at Oakland Cemetery, Janesville, Iowa

The following is transcribed, with permission from the obituary posted by Kaiser-Corson Funeral Homes Inc. web page. Our thoughts and prayers are with Maxine's daughters and son during this time of loss.

Helen Maxine Leonard drew her first breath on April 5, 1919 in Des Moines, Iowa and returned to her Heavenly Father during the early morning hours of October 2, 2005 while in hospice care at the Bartels Lutheran Retirement Community in Waverly, Iowa

Maxine was the daughter of Henry and Violet (Wright) Crowell. She spent her first 25 years engaged in a flurry of creative activities ranging from becoming an award winning drummer in her high school orchestra and marching band, singing as a regular on a Saturday morning "Teen Frolic" radio broadcast on (radio station) WHO when Ronald Reagan was a D.J., writing a regular column for her school newspaper and modeling for magazines that were being published in Des Moines at the time.

In 1944 she married Laurence Otto Leonard and began her journey as a career military man's wife, welcoming the opportunity to live in many places and meet and make many new friends.

In her late thirties, Maxine was stricken with acute rheumatoid arthritis, found herself bedridden and with little hope given from the traditional mainstream medical world. Never complaining, she began what became a lifelong exploration of the alternative remedies and treatments with great success. During this time she discovered a passion for researching family history and published 13 books on the subject -- several in rare book libraries on the east coast. Later she was asked to write the history of Janesville during the year of their 125th celebration. For 20 years, Maxine wrote and published her church newsletter as well as a family quarterly and a newsletter for Larry's cavalry unit, still finding time to sing in the Sweet Adeleines and direct the Waterloo Mothers Chorus.

In retirement, Maxine loved traveling here and abroad, visiting old friends and family as much as she reveled in the private tranquility of her country home, with a cat purring in her lap while she and Larry identified birds at the bird feeder.

Maxine is survived by her birth son, Brant Warren Leonard of Travers City, Michigan, Hans Martin (Joyce) Leonard of Green Ridge, Missouri, and Karin Maria Leonard of Cedar Falls, Iowa whom they adopted as children while they were stationed in Austria, as well as 9 grandchildren and her cat. She was preceded in death by her parents, her beloved partner, Larry, her prankster brother Floyd Crowell, her precious boy Brian and her 15 year old lightfilled granddaughter Adrienne Leonard Eacret.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, October 6, 2005 at 1:00 p.m. at the Good Shepherd Chapel (Bartels Lutheran Retirement Community) in Waverly, with Ken Shaw presiding. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery in Janesville. Visitation will be held on Wednesday from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Kaiser-Corson Funeral Home in Waverly and also for an hour before services on Thursday at the Good Shepherd Chapel. Please direct memorials to the Cedar Valley Hospice or <http://www.kaisercorson.com/>

STILL THE BOSS
EULOGY OF MAXINE LEONARD
OCTOBER 6, 2005
JOSEPH BEENKEN

Karin, Brant and Hans this is a great honor to be standing here today. Thank you.

The banner on the casket spray "Still the Boss" came about the other day as the Hospice staff was moving Maxine on her bed and she said "Don't move me" and just to leave her lay the way she was. Karin told her "Don't worry Mommy, your Still the Boss."

Maxine felt reading the obituary was unnecessary since we've all read it before the service starts. So if you haven't read it, do so later. Hers was an amazing life. And if you haven't see the life album that she put together look at that.

I worked in business for 30 years and endured annual performance appraisals. Inevitably they will focus on the last couple of months instead of that year or an entire career. So within a few minutes today I want to share not the life of Maxine but the last couple of years of the 25 years that Sheryl and I knew Maxine. First as the chorister of the Cedar Falls congregation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and finally as the closest thing to a Mother and Grandmother to both of us. Sheryl or I saw her at least twice a week for one reason or another the past several years.

The picture over there fits so into her plan as the "Boss" to go home to our Heavenly Father at this time of year. She would receive therapeutic massages from my wife or me on our portable table in her living room. Each time she sat up on the table she would look at that picture and say. "Isn't it beautiful?" I want to sit here for a second, this is the perfect angle for me to see the path and the beauty of the fall colors." The clothing that you saw her earthly body in was a part of her Path. They are the temple robes of a faithful Christian and member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and reflect a deep commitment to God and His Son Jesus Christ. She wears them because of her absolute belief in the eternalness of Mankind and the day of Resurrection we all look forward to.

Last night I got on the computer and typed a search for my name Joe Beenken and found nothing. I typed Maxine Leonard and found several references to her and the books that she and Larry published. I found that the Conger family already mourns the loss of it's genealogical matriarch. And this photo of her with the Conger plate (photo at the funeral). "Still the Boss."

Three weeks ago she told me that she felt ashamed to pray to Heavenly Father for healing when so many had lost so much in Hurricane Katrina. So family wishes of memorials being sent to storm relief is so poignantly appropriate. "Still the Boss."

Maxine was always "the Boss." Whether it was writing and mailing a letter to every member of the US House and Senate this past spring telling them what was wrong with major government policy issues and how to fix them. She told them all to give up their last self-given pay raise and use that money to fund the notch baby social security problem. She knew it wouldn't happen but "you get the government you deserve".

Engaging her in a logical debate on a subject soon showed you that for a woman in her mid 80's her mind was sharper than most of ours every will be. If you were ever given one of your congressional letters to read. Or told to "sit down on the couch" and "asked to" listen to her read the letter you were always amazed at the clarity of thought and the subtle humor she used on the politicians. "Always the Boss."

Last year when her drivers license came due, she was worried about getting it renewed but needed it for when she would go to the dentist or optician. Medical doctor trips where not a concern. She had no high blood pressure, no diabetes, no aches or pains. She had asked the Lord for no pain with the severe rheumatoid arthritis she had and he had granted her prayer, so no pain pills or antibiotics. With the bones in her toes removed because of the arthritis she walked with a wobble. And this is what the license inspector saw and so required her to take a driving test. To a lot of us the inspector wanted to fail her "AN OLD LADY" and did for not signaling a turn 150 foot before an intersection. Maxine didn't give up. Another week another driving test. Another here's why I'm failing you this time. Another week another driving test. Another here's why I'm failing you this time. Maxine could keep taking the test and wear her down or do the appeal process. The state of Iowa got the appeal letter with wording of "age discrimination." A different inspector was assigned and Maxine passed the driving test. "Always the Boss."

She had dearly hoped to see the new Latter-day Saint chapel being built here in Waverly and somehow attend church services there. She was so happy when people would take her there or show her pictures. The Church will be completed in January with an open house in the spring for all to see. When we go to the cemetery later the procession will past by the Church for her. "Still the Boss."

She had a great way of asking for a favor or an errand. Sometimes you really thought that you were volunteering instead of being told that you would do it. "Always the Boss."

Many of us can remember that cute little tilted head when she didn't understand what we had just said. It wasn't that she needed a hearing aid - we just need to speak up and be directly in front of her. So what did we do - Stand Straighter and Speak Louder. "Always the Boss."

She showed a deep respect and love for the freedoms of this great nation and a deep concern for it's future. If you went to her apartment at night she was always watching the world news and commentaries. She would quiz you on your views and knowledge of the days events. She knew the names of the party leaders both the House and Senate, the voting history and names of the Supreme Court judges and many others. If you thought she was a Republican you where wrong. She could get just as mad at them as at the Democrats. She was the American we all should strive to be. And yes the TV was loud. "Still the Boss."

Maxine saw material needs at Bartels and quietly filled them with purchases. The big screen TV in the Eichorn House dining room is there because the old one didn't have close captioning and she thought the residents should have that. The Lord sent her some money in the mail that she didn't think she was getting one day and so the TV happened. The fish aquarium in Linden Place is there so that the folks there can have something to look at. The TV in Woodland Terrance was given for the same reason. The flower lamps "where ever they are now here at Bartels" for the same reason - to help others to be more comfortable.

So to sum up Maxine's performance appraisal I read from St Matthew in the King James Bible that she so loved. Mathew chapter 25: 15 - 21.

In the name of Jesus Christ Amen.

Reasearcher, Richard E. Henthorn, was fortunate to obtain copies of both editions of The CFA. Over a period of many months he entered most of the information from these two volumes into his Personal Ancestral File. Later, he loaded the data into the RootsMagic genealogy program. Much additional data was added to his Conger file from information published by deceased Conger researchers and from information shared by many living Conger researchers in the United States and Canada. OBITUARY: Goodbye Larry Leonard!

I met the man fewer times than many readers of this newsletter. Larry Leonard, husband of "Conger Confab" creator, Maxine Leonard, enthusiastic supporter of her decades of labor on behalf of Congers worldwide, died August 16, 1998. In tribute to this stellar example for the best of us who remain to emulate, following is the text that was originally printed in the program of Kaiser-Corson Funeral Home, Waverly, IA.

"Laurence Otto Leonard, 70, died 16 August 1998 of bronchitis and kidney failure. He was admitted to Covenant Medical Center on 27 July, one day before his 54th wedding anniversary. He was given two partial dialysis treatments, but declined to do further treatment. He was transferred to the Cedar Falls Health Care Center on August 12, where he died.

Larry was born 14 November 1917 at Slayton, Murray County, Minnesota, son of Otto Rudolph Leonard and Vera Margaret Willson. His father died when Larry was five years old. He and his sister, Bernice Leonard Dorsey (deceased), were raised by their grandparents in Sabula, Iowa, where he graduated from high school.

He joined the Iowa National Guard in the 113th Cavalry in Des Moines, Iowa, where the unit was inducted into federal service in January 1941 and sent to Camp Bowie, TX. In 1944 he was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant at Fort Riley, Kansas and was assigned to the Texas 124th Cavalry. They were sent to Burma with mules to aid them on their trek of 500 miles over mountains and through jungles to their combat area. He was wounded in action by deliberately standing up to draw fire upon himself, allowing another platoon to withdraw to safety. He was hospitalized five months in India. He was awarded the Silver Star and Purple Heart.

He was married 28 Jul 1944 at Des Moines, Iowa to (Helen) Maxine Crowell, a week before going overseas. After the war he returned to Des Moines where he spent five months building a house with the aid and instruction of Maxine's father.

The next eight months he gained experience in retail and wholesale popcorn processing and sales. He learned to process popcorn from the field to the finished product for sale to the public, manufactured caramel corn, candies, etc. He also sold popcorn machines to theaters and confectioners, and learned the management of retail popcorn and candy stores. He helped plan, set up and establish five retail stores, including the one on "the hill" in Cedar Falls.

In 1947 a special offer to combat wounded veterans gave them a permanent administrative Master Sergeant rating in the Regular Army. With five years of service behind him, he accepted and retired with this rank on 1 November 1967 at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He held the rank of Captain in the Reserve Army.

In 1958 while attached to the Iowa National Guard in Cedar Falls, the couple bought a 220 acre farm in Janesville, IA. Still in the service, Larry took an Animal Science course at Hawkeye Tech, but two months after graduation he signed a three year lease for the Cedar Falls Dairy Queen. Later he had the Janesville Cafe for two years. Meanwhile he leased the farm land.

He was a member of the American Legion Post #522 in Janesville and the Joe W. Cretzmeyer V.F.W. Post #2208 in Waverly. He also was a member of the Disabled American Veterans and the Ex-China, Burma, India Veterans.

The couple had two sons born in Des Moines: Brian Maurice, born 14 Aug 1946 and Brant Warren born 25 Jun 1949. Brian died of polio on 14 September 1952 while Maxine was awaiting port call to join Larry on assignment in Austria. While there they adopted Hans Martin Leonard, now of Green Ridge, Missouri and Karin Maria Leonard, now of Cedar Falls. Brant lives in Traverse City, Michigan. Since Adrianne "Adee" Eacret died 30 August 1996, there are nine living grandchildren and two great grandchildren."

Funeral services for Larry were held August 20th at Kaiser-Corson Funeral Home, Waverly, IA. Burial was at Oakland Cemetery, Janesville, IA.

Maxine was assisted during the crisis by Ivan Conger and his wife. Her children also came to help as well. Over the phone Maxine reports that she is driving again for the first time in some years and sounds as healthy as she's ever sounded over the phone. Karin still visits regularly. I will personally miss the sound of Larry picking up the phone when I called.

OBITUARY: Sound Taps for Ralph L. Conger Last Thursday - Call Comes as he Directs Wentworth Football Team - Heart Attack is Fatal
Final Services Held at Natoma on Sunday, November 23, with a Large and Sorrowful Throng in Attendance

Suddenly, tragically, and without warning, death called Capt. Ralph L. Conger, last Thursday afternoon. The final summons came after the start of the second quarter of the Kemper - Wentworth football game at Boonville, Mo. Capt. Conger, coach of the Wentworth squad, had leaned forward to speak to a substitute player. The player evidently did not hear him and as he started to call again, he fell back against a player sitting near him on the bench. Death followed within thirty seconds, according to Dr. D.B. Payne, Wentworth team physician.

The sudden death was due to a blood clot in the heart. Reports are Conger had been under treatment for high blood pressure, there had been no previous indication of any especially serious condition.

At the half members of the Wentworth team were informed of the death of their coach, but decided it would have been his wish that they continue the game, which they did, grief-stricken and bewildered. Kemper won the game by a score of 14 to 0, both scores being made against the saddened Wentworth team during the last half.

Captain Conger was 41 years of age, a native of Natoma, [KS]. He graduated from Ft. Hays State College, was a coach at Glen Elder and Smith Center high schools, freshman coach at Kansas University at Lawrence, and three years ago took over the duties of head coach at Wentworth Military Academy at Lexington, Mo. Mrs. Conger and their son and daughter survive.

After services at Lexington, last rites were held at Captain Conger's old home town, Natoma, last Sunday, November 23, before a large and sorrowful throng of relatives and intimate friends. Friends from Smith Center were in attendance. Burial was in the cemetery near Natoma, the chaplain from Wentworth conducted services.

Ralph L. Conger came to Smith Center, [KS] in 1927 as a high school coach, leaving her to take charge of freshman football at Kansas University in 1937. During his stay here he left the indelible imprint of his clean, strong personality upon the hearts and minds of the hundreds of boys and girls who came in contact with him at the school. As a coach of football, Conger knew few equals and the clean, hard play of his teams became almost legendary in this section. But perhaps that was the least important of his accomplishments. He had a spirit, a will to win, a determination to succeed that did not recognize the loss of a game as defeat but merely an obstacle to be overcome. Into his charges he inculcated this same spirit, to apply not only to football but to all the trials and vicissitudes that life may have to offer.

He was a friend, a confidant, not only of the members of his football squad but of all the students. His ready smile, and kindly, cheerful words have smoothed and made clear many a rough and perplexing problem. He spoke pleasantly, his tongue, keen and caustic when the occasion demanded, was never harsh. He held the love and respect of all the students during his many years here and likewise the admiration and high regard of the whole community.

With his family and friends, the whole community mourns the sudden and untimely death of Captain Conger. His memory is forever imprinted on the minds and hearts of his countless friends and acquaintances and will serve as a lasting monument of the high esteem and respect in which he was universally held.

MILITARY-OCCUPATION:

W.H. Conger was appointed postmaster [of Plymouth, IN] on July 1, 1897. This post office is at present rated third class; it was formerly second class. The chances are that before long it will be rated as a second class office again.

Mr. Conger was born in this county. For three years he was connected with the bicycle factory. Previous to that time he was farming. He is a Mason, and a member of the G.A.R. post. He enlisted on February 4, 1864, in Company I, 155th Indiana Infantry, and was mustered out in August 1865.

COMMENT: Missing links are found in the most unusual ways. Wayne Hobbs Conger of 3235 N. Raceway Road, Indianapolis, IN 46234 was interested in buying a copy of THE CONGER FAMILY OF AMERICA, but he nor his father were in it. His father, Harry Elmer Conger, 1870, was born in Plymouth, Marshall [Co.] IN. Wayne did not know his grandfather's name, but he was postmaster in Plymouth for many years.
