BIOGRAPHY:

Joseph Conger lived at Woodbridge, NJ for many years, and it is likely that he died there.

He is mentioned in his father's will, dated 11 Jan 1710, in which he was given his father's freehold rights, in the town of Woodbridge, and was also allowed to occupy the eastern portion of the farm for ten years after the decease of his father, and to have the use of all tools, carts, plows, etc., he being to equal in their repair as long as he lived on the place.

That portion of the land that he was allowed to live upon, had been devised to his younger brother, Benjamin, who at the time of the dating of the will, was about ten years of age, being born about 1700.

The permission given to Joseph to live on the land might indicate that he was married, in which event his wife must have been born as early as he was -- 1792 [sic, 1692]. However, Joseph Conger was mentioned in the will of John Marsh of Rahway, as being the husband of the testator's grand-daughter, Mary, which might indicate that she was rather old to have been named as grand-daughter of a man living as late as 1739, the date of the will, unless she was the second wife of Joseph Conger.

Charles L. Conger said there were four unattached Congers of the period, namely, Joseph of Sherman, Conn., John of Hanover, Morris county, NJ, Elizabeth, who married John Baldwin, and James, who he listed as being children of Joseph Conger (1692). They were all born between 1714 and 1720, except that James was born about 1734, and may be the issue of the second marriage of Joseph Conger.

His reasons for assuming that they were the children of Joseph Conger is by elimination. To begin with, there is no New Jersey record of any sort showing the birth of a son or daughter to Joseph Conger, but as a result of the elimination of all known parental contenders of that time, it is assumed the four above-mentioned Congers were the children of Joseph Conger.

On 2 Nov 1712, Joseph Conger, together with a number of other freeholders of the town of Woodbridge, gave power of attorney to three of their number, viz. John Bishop, Thomas Pike and Adam Hude, to sell as much of their land as will bring forty pounds, which was to be applied to the cost of a lawsuit being carried on in the name of John Pike, in defense against paying Quit-rents (new Jersey Deeds, C-2-86).

The Middlesex county court records show that in 1714 there was a case on trial, John Brock vs. Joseph Conger. No particulars were given.

On 23 Aug 1716 there was laid out to James Clarkson, Jr., 5 acres of land in Rahway, "it being half a third division lot in Woodbridge, which the said James Clarkson purchased of Joseph Conger." (W.T.R.A.-25)

On 13 Mar 1735, Joseph Conger witnessed the will of John Moore of Woodbridge.

On 14 Mar 1737, it was voted "that the committee appointed to manage the school land shall pay to Joseph Conger the sum of four pounds and ten shillings out of the rent of the said school land, it being the sum agreed upon by Henry Freeman and Joseph Bloomfield, appointed for the purpose." (W.T.R.-B-8)

BIOGRAPHY:

Joseph Conger was the fifth signer of the Articles of Association of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of Pequannock Township, Morris county, New Jersey in May 1776. (New Jersey Archives, Vol. X, p. 717)

In 1784, he was one of the Proprietors of a school taught by George Harris, at Rockaway, Morris county, NJ. Among the scholars at this school were James and Rhoda Conger, children of Joseph Conger. (History of Morris County, p. 340)

Joseph was a member of the Rockaway Church in 1779. Mrs. Leonard concludes that Rhoda was the child of Joseph's first wife, Rhoda.

He, without doubt, removed from Morris county to Knox county, Ohio prior to the death of his unmarried son, James, because had he been in New Jersey he would probably have probated the estate himself. [Note: No source citation for this conclusion.]

PROBATE:

There is no record of administration of the estate of James Conger, other than the inventory, taken 28 Oct 1805 and sworn to 2 Nov 1805 by Thomas Mann and William Ross, Junior. The estate showed a valuation of $69.12. There is no further record of the son, James, and the tradition among the descendants of his father is that he died unmarried.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 336 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

PROBATE: About 1805, John Conger, b. 14 Feb 1752 and married to Sarah Jones took his entire family to Ludlowville, Tompkins Co., NY, as in that year he relinquished his right of administration of the estate of his nephew, James Conger, of Morris county to Benjamin Lampson. ## CONFLICT:

Stephen W. Conger served in the Revolution from New Jersey, according to Stryker, "Jerseymen in the Revolution," p. 548, but nothing is given to indicate from what county he enlisted. This Stephen W. Conger was either the son of John Conger, b. 1724 or Hanover, Morris county, [NJ], or the son of Samuel Conger, b. 1715, as they were the only two Stephen Congers known of during that period.

[Researcher,] Charles Leslie Conger places this Stephen W. Conger as the son of Samuel.

Stephen Conger, son of John Conger, b. 1724, and Sarah Tuttle of Hanover, served in the Revolution in 1777 as a Private and Sergeant Major in the 1st North Carolina Continental Line, as was also Acting Adjutant. This is a matter of record in the War Department at Washington, DC, and Mrs. Geanie Perrin of New Orleans, LA has a membership in the DAR through this service. [Note: Mrs. Perrin's lineage doesn't appear to be listed in CFA I. REH]

After this North Carolina service, Stephen Conger returned to Morris county, New Jersey, where in 1781 he was a member of the Rockaway Presbyterian Church. There is a tradition among the descendants that he was married in New Jersey before his North Carolina service, but upon his return to New Jersey he did not live with his wife and there was no issue from this marriage. It is not known when or where he married, Pimina.

Stephen [Conger] was mentioned in the will of his father, from whom he received a legacy of thirty pounds. The only other mention we find of him in Morris county records is that on 26 Oct 1790 Stephen Conger of Hanover sold to Bernard Smith of Pequannock Twp., Morris county, a part of a tract of land that he had bought from Stephen Jackson, the remainder of which he had sold 7 Apr 1790 to brother, David Conger (Morris County, [NJ] Deeds). It was, perhaps, about this time the he returned to North Carolina.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 473-474 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

COMMENT: The account of Stephen Conger living in both New Jersey and North Carolina and moving back and forth between the two places, found on pages 473-474 of CFA I, is interesting and very unusual. It is unfortunate that little source citation was provided which would help in proving the conclusion that this was the same person. [REH]

Stephen Conger and Pimina Bowers were married. Pimina Bowers died in Tennessee.

Stephen Conger and Pimina Bowers had the following children:

- 23      i. James Bowers Conger, born 23 May 1792, North Carolina; married Elizabeth Fletcher, Clarksville, Montgomery Co., TN; died 7 Nov 1871, Jackson, Madison Co., TN.

- 25      iii. Unknown Conger, married Unknown Prevast.

7. John Conger (John-2, Joseph-1) was born on 14 Feb 1752 in Hanover, Morris Co., NJ. He was christened on 22 Mar 1752. He died on 20 Jan 1826 at the age of 73 in Ludlowville, Tompkins Co., NY. John Conger

EMIGRATION: About 1805 he took his entire family to Ludlowville, Tompkins Co., NY, as in that year he relinquished his right of administration of the estate of his nephew, James Conger, of Morris county to Benjamin Lampson. James Conger was a son of Joseph Conger who had removed to Knox Co., OH.

8. Thomas Conger (John-2, Joseph-1) was born on 3 Apr 1758 or 3 Apr 1759 in Hanover, Morris Co., NJ. He died on 31 Dec 1831 at the age of 73 in Rockaway, Morris Co., NJ. Thomas Conger

PARENTS: John Conger and Sarah Tuttle

MILITARY: Thomas Conger had no Revolutionary War record that we know of, the name not being mentioned by Stryker. (CFA I, p. 486)

CHURCH_AFFILIATION: Thomas Conger was a trustee in the Rockaway Presbyterian Church [Rockaway, NJ] during the years 1794-8, 1802-10, 1812-13 (History of Morris County, NJ, p. 340). He was also mentioned in Rockaway Records as being an Elder in the Presbyterian Church.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 487 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

OCCUPATION: Said to have been a blacksmith, silversmith, and maker of edge tools. (CFA I, p. 487)

CHILD-QUESTION: Did Thomas Conger also have a daughter, Charity Conger, who married James Lockwood? (See CFA I, p. 112) She is not listed in the Thomas Conger family on p. 486 of CFA I.

MARRIAGE-CONFLICT:

On page 199, "Rockaway Records," it states that Thomas Conger married Lydia Beeman and that they had the following name children: Harriet born 1796, John P. born 1798, William born 1802, Phebe, born 1803, and Hannah born 1807. All of them were baptized in the Rockaway Presbyterian Church on 25 Apr 1809.

[Researcher] Charles Leslie Conger wrote, "We are certain, however, that the Rockaway Records are wrong in naming Lydia Conger as being the mother of the above named children of Thomas Conger."

"When the will of Thomas Conger, dated 18 September 1828, was drawn, he named his wife, Phebe Conger. We also find that Phebe Conger joined with her husband, Thomas Conger, in the execution of deeds in Morris county, [NJ] as early as the year 1800. Which, to the writer, is convincing proof that she, Phebe, not Lydia, was the mother of the previously named children of Thomas Conger."

"A great deal of study has been given to the apparent mix-up in the name of the wife of Thomas Conger. In the opinion of the writer, Thomas Conger married twice, and the name of the first wife was, Lydia Beeman, and that they married as early as 1780, and that they had children, David B. and Diadema, and perhaps others."

"Both David Conger, who married Hannah Lockwood, and Diadema Conger, who married Joel Brown, at Rockaway, Morris, NJ, 6 Jan 1810, were the only unidentified Congers of that period at Rockaway."

"It will be noted that his son, David B. and daughter, Diadema (Conger) Brown, are not mentioned in his will, nor are his daughters, Harriet and Phebe. It is certain that Harriet was living and was listed as a member of the Presbyterian Church of Rockaway, and she married a man named, Howell."

In later years an old family Bible [CFA I, does not state who owned the Bible], printed by Sage and Clough for William Durrell in 1803, verified that Thomas' first wife was Lydia Beaman [sic] and the second was Phoebe Pierson. The names and birthdates of children were given, but not mention of Charity [Conger], who married James Lockwood. Perhaps the reason David B. was not mentioned in the will was because he had removed to Mt. Clemmens, Michigan and the family didn't know how to reach him.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 486 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

BIOGRAPHY: In 1804, among those engaging to pay $2 quarterly for every child subscribed to the school were David and Thomas Conger. (History of Morris county, NJ, p. 340 - CFA I, p. 487)

BIOGRAPHY:

On January 26, 1813, funds subscribed to build a school in Rockaway: Thomas Conger, $10. He was a trustee of the Presbyterian Congregation.

Levi Styles went to Thomas Conger, a blacksmith at Rockaway, to get a scythe. He got one for which he paid $3, and Conger warranted it for six years; he used it every season for five years and then sold it for $2.50 (showing that in those early days there were workers who understood their business).

CONFLICT:

There is no record of any military service performed by any David Conger from Morris county, New Jersey, in the Revolution that we have been able to find (1925?). We have been informed that the New Jersey Revolutionary War records, and some census records, were destroyed [when] burned by the British, when they captured the City of Washington in the War of 1812. However, the late Adjutant General Stryker of New Jersey, compiled a list of officers and men serving in the Revolution from New Jersey.

David Conger, son of John and Sarah Tuttle Conger, born in 1760, would have been rather young to be a Captain. Crayon states that he had no service in the Revolution, but that he was a Captain of militia on general graining days after the war.

Mrs. Louise Conger Dietrich has a DAR Lineage (Vol. 78, p. 156-157) traced to [a] David Conger who was a Private in the Middlesex County New Jersey Militia. Chances are that this is in error -- this was probably the David born about 1741, son of Jonathan and Ann Enyard Conger, who died during the Revolution in 1778. David, 1760, was living in Rockaway, NJ in 1793. (See David Conger, 1760 & Elizabeth Blue) [Note: As of November 1999, Richard E. Henthorn had been unable to find the lineage of Mrs. Louise Conger Dietrich in the CFAs.]

The names of the children being: Mary, Emily, Delia, Cynthia and Elizabeth.

The will also mentions three daughters viz., Sally, Anne and Phebe, and forgives them "all that I have against them on my books."

None of the sons are mentioned in the will.

BIOGRAPHY:

In 1776, Joseph Conger served as a Private in Capt. William Hubbell's company of Col. David Waterbury's Regt. of Conn. Volunteers, and may have served in other Connecticut forces. In the same company there was a Jesse Conger serving. He was probably the brother of Joseph, for whom there is no further record, unless he was the Jesse Conger who removed to Cincinnati, Ohio.

After his marriage to Phoebe Eggleston he apparently remained in that vicinity for some time. When the first U.S. Census was taken in 1790 he is shown as being the head of a family in Columbia, New York, at which time the family consisted of one male over 16, himself, three males under sixteen (Jesse, Abel and Parley), one female over sixteen, his wife.

He removed later to Stockwell, Oneida county, New York, where he died.

CEMETERY: Epperson Cemetery, Callaway County, MO by Noel William Conger

Like many private cemeteries this is an exception. It seems to be unknown to even close inhabitants of the area around Wainwright. One may find the cemetery by going east from Highway 54 on 94 just past the entry road of Wainwright about 1/2 mile to the first gravel road with a sign pointing left indicating "Kar-tel-Hills," keep left when one reaches a fork in the road and go past a few houses, and the fifth house is where Roy Gordon lives on the left side of the road. "Don't know if his family had any connections to Lucy Jane Conger Gordon or not."

Just beyond this house about 200 yards and just at the left turn in this road is an older house on the right and a fence going around a small hill. There is a gate in this fence by the house but one had to get permission from these people to go in. The son of Roy Gordon lives in this older place. Proceeding up the hill a short way one must walk further to the top of the hill through tall grass, weeds and sunflower stalks, maybe snakes for all one knows.

Here is the Epperson Cemetery with about four gravestones still standing -- the rest are broken off their bases or just broken to pieces and lying under many years of grass and dirt. Not having a shovel along but luckily wearing heavy shoes, I was able to scratch around deep enough to unearth gravestones of all the Congers buried there.

The stones were not of the modern granite by sort of a limestone about four feet high, 1 1/2 feet wide and about two inches thick. Surprisingly enough the inscriptions were still very plain after one had gotten the dirt scraped off.

This researcher picked one of the hottest days in July 1977 to find this place. It was 95 degrees and humid and sweat ran off in quarts -- this was just plain sweat, soaking clothing and running onto the paper for taking notes. Going back to the Gordon place to beg a drink of water I was given two glasses of iced tea. The Gordons informed me that the man who bought the property from Epperson many years ago had offered to furnish the posts if any of the descendants of the people buried there wanted to fence in the cemetery but no one seemed interested enough to do so. Therefore, another abandoned cemetery.

[Note: Noel William Conger lives in South Dakota and has no interest in this line. He read CFA thoroughly, looking for loose ends, and has traveled to many places to try to solve the missing links in the Conger chains. But soon after these ventures, he became housebound with emphysema. Maxine Leonard]

Elijah Conger and his entire family removed to Greenfield Township, Huron county, Ohio about 1840, where his descendants are now living. The names and dates of birth and death of his children were obtained from his grandson, Lewis L. Conger of Milan, Ohio.

In 1840, he erected a mill in Greenfield Township, sold the Macksville (now Peru) store and for ten years devoted his attention to the milling industry.

OBITUARY:

Mrs. (Hannah) Conger was highly respected wherever she was known. Her life abounded in good will towards others, having deeply rooted in her life the Bible precept, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." She was a worthy member of the church militant nearly all the days of her earthly pilgrimage; a life adorned by the fruits of the spirit, now beyond one doubt, a member of the church triumphant.

Her family bear but one testimony: "She was a noble, loving mother." Those who knew her most loved her best and say that in the full meaning of the words, she was a mother, a woman, and a Christian.

33. David Beeman Conger (Thomas-3, John-2, Joseph-1) was born on 8 Oct 1779 in Morris Co., NJ. He died about 1839 at the age of 60 in Mount Clemens, Macomb Co., MI. David Beeman Conger

Problem: Was his middle name, Beaman or Beeman, CFA I uses both?

RESIDENCES: As a young man, Morris county, NJ; central New York near Phelps and Ontario counties, New York; Lake Co., OH; Cleveland, OH; Mt. Clemmens, MI

RELATIONSHIP: Mrs. H.D. Lough was the granddaughter of David Conger. She provided information to Maxine Leonard. It appears that Mrs. Lough's lineage cannot be determined from the information contained in CFA I.

RECOLLECTIONS: A letter written by David Conger's granddaughter, Mrs. H.D. Lough from Grand Rapids, MI, dtd 13 Dec 1900 states:

"David Conger is thought to have been one of the children of the first marriage of Thomas Conger. In the event this is true, then his mother would have been Lydia Beeman, daughter of David and Mary Beeman, of Morris county, New Jersey. In the subsequent naming of his own children, there seems to be sufficient indication that Lydia Beeman was his mother.

"It is also quite evident that David Conger had two sisters, namely: Diadema and Charity Conger. Diadema married Joel Brown in Rockaway Presbyterian Church on 6 Jan 1810, and Charity married James Lockwood. Our reason for this assumption lies in the fact that David B. Conger subsequently named his youngest daughter, Diadema; he named another daughter 'Charity,' and gave his son James the middle name of 'Lockwood.' These are the only two instances where the names Diadema and Charity were ever used in any Conger family, that we have any knowledge of."

We find in Morris County Deed Records that David Conger and wife, Hannah, owned land in Pequannock Twp., Morris County, NJ, which they sold to George Stickle in the year 1805. The name of David B. Conger appears quite frequently in the Deed Records for a number of years. In 1807, he sold to Trustum Harriman some land in Randolph and Hanover Townships.

According to Mrs. Lough's letter, she states, "My grandfather, David B. Conger, lived as a young man in Morris County, New Jersey. I do not know where he was born. He married Hannah Lockwood about 1800 and moved to central New York near Phelps and Ontario counties, New York. He went from there to Lake county, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio and from there to Mt. Clemmens, Michigan, where he died about 1839."

OCCUPATION-RESIDENCES: Abijah Conger, 1782, and his family, along with his sister, Emily (Conger) Talmadge and her family, settled at the Brainard Mission Station for Cherokee Indians, now the site of Chattanooga, TN. They were Presbyterian Missionaries.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 39a - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

RELATIONSHIP: Miss Mary E. Woods was a great great granddaughter of Abijah Conger. (CFA I, p. 8)

RECOLLECTIONS: A letter written by J.E. Brown of Los Angeles, California on 6 Oct 1905 states that he was a grandson of Abijah Conger, late of Athens, GA; that Abijah Conger was born in New Jersey about 1780. He also stated that his information concerning Abijah was quite meager, and entirely verbal and traditional.

He stated that Abijah Conger was said to have ten brothers and sister, but that the only one of whom he heard were Emily Conger, who married a Talmadge, and a brother, John, who lost an eye as a youth, learned the blacksmith's trade and settled in New York City; that his grandfather, Abijah, emigrated to the South long before the Civil War, going first to Blount County, Tennessee, where some of his children were born, and thence to Athens, GA, where he lived the remainder of his life.

Mr. Brown further stated that Abijah was a strong Presbyterian. He claimed that all of the Congers descended from three brothers who came from England; that "his" grandfather, Abijah, was one of the three, and that they were of Irish and Italian descent.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 8 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

BIOGRAPHY: The History of Morris County, New Jersey, mentions that Abijah Conger was a Trustee of the Rockaway Church in 1818-1819 (p. 340). On page 355, it mentions that in 1820 Abijah Conger built a cider mill on the north side of the road from Dover to Franklin, and on the same page mention is made of his teaching school at Rockaway, in the absense of the regular teacher, or when no teacher had been engaged.

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 8 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

BIOGRAPHY: Miss Mary E. Woods, great great granddaughter of Abijah Conger, gives information through newspaper clippings of the "Athens Advertiser, 9 Sep 1964 and "The Athens Daily News (Banner-Herald) 12 Jun 1966, p. 9.

Abijah Conger grew to manhood in Rockaway, [NJ] and served in the War of 1812. He married his neighbor, Phoebe Tappan, and they began their family. At this time Abijah was teaching in the academies of New Jersey.

From 1808 to 1820 his name frequently appears in land records of Morris County, [NJ]. On 14 Sep 1819 he appointed his brother, Judge Stephen Conger, to be his attorney, with full power to take care of and dispose of his land, and after this date there is only reference of his disposing of any land himself, and that was on 5 Jun 1821, when he sold some lands in Hanover to his brother, Stephen.

On 1 Apr 1814, Abijah Conger bought some land in Newark, Essex, NJ, from Moses Rolf and wife Mary, of Hanover (Essex County Deeds C 2:96). He sold this on 4 Jan 1828 through his attorney Stephen Conger, to William Jackson of Pequannock Twp., Morris County. The deed recites the power of attorney, issued to Stephen Conger (Essex County Deeds Y 2:422).

These records state that Abijah Conger was the son of David Conger and Elizabeth Ayres, grandson of John Conger and Sarah Tuttle, great grandson of Joseph Conger and Mary Marsh, and 2nd great grandson of John Conger and Sarah Cawood -- which seems to contradict the foregoing statement about his grandfather being named Abijah also.

The Conger family were strong Presbyterians, and when the call went out for missionaries to preach to and teach the Cherokee Indians, both Abijah and his sister and brother-in-law, John and Emily Talmadge, responded. Both families left prosperous New Jersey to take up life at the mission at Brainard Station, now the site of Chattanooga, Tennessee. While the fathers taught and preached to the Indians, the young Conger and Talmadge children grew up with Indian playmates, speaking several Cherokee dialects.

The Federal government began in 1831 the mass removal of all Indians from the region east of the Mississippi River, and the Cherokee tribes were among those to be resettled in Oklahoma. The missionaries at Brainard Station divided; part went west with their Indian charges, while other families sought to begin life again in the "White Man's World." The Conger and the Talmadges went to Athens, Georgia to settle.

The Descendants of Joseph Conger and Mary Marsh

31 January 2015

Abijah Conger, with typical vigor, began to build houses for himself and others. He purchased land in the vicinity of Baldwin Street, now on the university campus, and erected a story-and-a-half dwelling for himself, wife and unmarried children, and built the house still lived in by his descendant, Mr. A.Y. Woods Sr. on the Danielsville Road, for son David and his family.

Abijah lived to see his children and grandchildren go off to war, and died shortly before the final surrender of the Confederacy. His contribution to mankind -- faith, and hard work, a heritage of which his descendants can be justly proud. His granddaughter remembered him as an old man, wrapped in a cloak from shoulders to shoes in cold weather, always present in his pew on Sunday.

Mrs. W.B. Brook, great great granddaughter of Abijah's sister, Emily Conger Talmadge, found an article about the Brainard Mission in "Torchlights to the Cherokees." This includes a sketch, made by Thomas E. Paine in 1821, which shows locations of the boy's school house, boy's cabin, Mission House, Girl's House, Girl's school house, barn, Farmer's house, Carpenter's house, sawmill, garden and graveyard.

REFERENCE: Researcher Ivan A. Conger and his wife, Dorothy, of Owosso, MI frequented garage sales and auctions. In 1970, while they were attending a sale in Owosso someone noticed a black leather case with letters in it written by various members of the Roswell Conger family, b. 21 Sep 1793. The finder called Ivan's attention to the item and he bought it for 25 cents. The mystery remains as to who preserved the letters for over 100 years and how they happened to be in the sale attended by Ivan Conger. The Congers living in the area of the sale were from another branch, Job Conger, 1819.

The Roswell Conger family letters frequently mention activities in Waterville, NY, which is just a short distance north of Sangerfield. Hops seem to have been their main harvest. It is not known if Elijah Conger, brother of Roswell, was engaged in this business, but his son, Daniel, b. 1828, and grandson, DeWitt, b. 1854, apparently had a thriving business, according to the letterhead.

The letters can be found in CFA II, p. 199-2065.

COMMENT: "The History of Callaway County, MO" gave a list of emigrants who had signed up to form a group to go to California in 1850. The Congers on this list were: S.D. Conger; Thomas D. Conger; James and Stephen D. Conger, Jr.. This did not mean that all who signed up made the journey, however in the 1860 census none of the Congers appear. (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. II, p. 133 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

MARRIAGE: On page 489 of CFA I, Thomas Dorris Conger, b. Abt. 1805 is listed as married to Sarah (Sallie) Amyra McCampbell. However, Callaway Co., MO marriage records state that Thomas Dorris Conger married Moniza Campbell. The 1860 census shows Moniza Conger living in Boydsville alone. It was later determined that he and sons, James Bowers and Stephen Dorris, 1833, were doctors and perhaps he was involved in the early stages of the Civil War. There is a marriage record of a Thomas Conger to Josephine MacCroy on 18 Nov 1871, but his must have been the s/o Stephen Dorris Conger, 1833, whose birth year is approximated at Abt. 1853.

RECOLLECTIONS: From Lorraine Smith, 355 W. Kern, Bakersfield, CA 93250, dtd 25 Nov 1981

I might tell you one thing -- a tragedy that happened to Dr. Thomas Dorris Conger. You know in those days the doctors filled all their prescriptions themselves. Well, Dr. Thomas had a considerable amount of money on his person -- some his, some of his sons, Dr. James Bowers [Conger] and Dr. Stephen Dorris [Conger]. He went to Shreveport and took a riverboat to Baton Rouge to take another riverboat on to St. Louis to buy drugs for the three doctors. But he was never heard of again. He took an occasional "toddy," so the family always felt that some rogues had drugged his drink, robbed him and threw him overboard.

Six weeks later, when he hadn't been heard from, Dr. James, when on horseback to Shreveport and found that he had taken the riverboat on that day on schedule but had not arrived at Baton Rouge. Dr. James then went to Missouri in and spring wagon and brought his mother and her things back to Red Oak, TX to live with him. She never could accept her husband's death. She seldom ever smiled after that, and when in a crowd, she was always looking around, hoping to see him. They had always been very close.

I got this information from a 92 year-old cousin in New Mexico whom I didn't know existed until I wrote to the Red Oak Cemetery Assn. and a woman in town remembered my Nellie as the first "hello" girl when the telephone lines were first installed in Red Oak. She sent me Nellie's address and other materials. Nellie has a clear mind and steady hand -- a good memory too.

In 1852, he was elected and served as a member of the 32nd U.S. Congress, as a Free Soil Whig. The Congressional Biographical Record, page 467, also confirms this with the following notice, "James L. ## BIBLE:

I recently (prior to March 2001) purchased two Family Bibles at an estate sale in South Carolina in hopes of finding an interested descendant of the family. I was told the woman of the estate inherited them and other family heirlooms from her aunt in Alabama several years ago.

The first Bible was published in 1822 and is in fairly good shape and bound together. The oldest entry in this Bible is that of Ezra Clark b. May 27, 1766. Ezra was originally of Vermont and moved to Ohio in the early 1800s. His daughter, Paulina B. Clark married James Lockwood Conger.

The second Bible was published in 1842 and inside the front cover is inscribed "Presented to Helen E. Conger Dec. 25, 1843 By her affectionate father James L. Conger of Belvidere Mich". This Bible is not in the best condition but is full of newspaper clippings dating to 1842. There are also some loose handwritten documents relating to the family history. The recorded family record is also full of information. Other surnames that are in this Bible include Lough and Waggoner. All of these families were in Michigan and Ohio.

I believe both Bibles were passed down through the Waggoner family who moved to Alabama. [Note: The Bibles probably belonged to Mary Louise (Lough) Waggoner a granddaughter of James Lockwood Conger. Richard E. Henthorn]

If any one can prove they are a descendant of these families and is interested in obtaining the Bibles please contact me at my e-mail address.

known to have been living. Then he also went to Cleveland, Ohio where his brother, James Lockwood Conger, was practicing law, and then he and his parents and brother, Thomas, moved to Mount Clemens, [Michigan] where his father died about 1839. Not much is known of his further movements or the place of his marriage.

In 1848, he was living at Sheboygan, Wisconsin. From here he apparently moved to Janesville, Wis., where we find that on 1 June 1861, at the age of 47, he enrolled and was assigned to Co. B, 8th Wis Inf of which he was elected Captain. This regiment was known as the Eagle Regiment. He served a little more than one year, and on 23 June 1862 he resigned as Captain.

David B. Conger and Clarissa Decker were married. Clarissa Decker was born (date unknown). Clarissa Decker

RELATIONSHIP: Her two sisters were the first two wives sealed to Brigham Young.

[Note: No source citation. On 13 Aug 2010 I looked at the make-up of the Isaac Decker family in a family history on the Internet. There is no evidence to support the statement that this Clarissa Decker, who married David B. Conger, was a sister-in-law of Brigham Young. As a matter of fact the two sisters married to Brigham Young were named, Lucy and Clarissa Decker and as I understand it, they weren't the first two wives sealed to Brigham Young. In my opinion this relationship statement, made by Mrs. Leonard, is just another instance of genealogical wishful thinking. Upon completing his education he first engaged in the butcher business and through industry and economy was enabled to acquire something more than a mere living. He became noted for his upright and reputable conduct and the interest he revealed in the welfare of the community and the advancement of municipal and civic prosperity.

He was the founder or originator of the Roseville Riding Academy, in the success of which he took a deep and abiding interest. He passed away on September 17 1909, leaving behind him a splendid fulfilment of life's duties and a reputation of superior renown.

His wife was born in Newark and was there reared and educated. As a child she vastly enjoyed the hours spent at study and play and was a life enthusiast, inspired by the highest ideals and influenced by the obligations of life. She is yet living, at an advanced age, and is much concerned in the progress of social advancement. Both were citizens of high character and repute.

CEMETERY: The Beaver Bog Cemetery, which is located at the intersection of Bigelow Road, Beaver Bog Road and Route 37, was originally part of the Methodist Church. Thy present church was built in 1835 and was called the Methodist Episcopal Church. The building was built by Jesse and Isaac Scudder, Archibald Campbell, Hezekiah Wildman and Amos Stevens. Several of the early families buried at this cemetery belonged to the church.

The cemetery separated from the church in 1935, since most of the orginal church members were then deceased. At that time it became the Beaver Bog Cemetery. An association was formed in later years to cover the maintenance.

The oldest legible stone in the cemetery is that of Zebulon Plat who died in 1809.

In 1908 a monument was erected in the cemetery to honor the Revolutionary War soldiers buried there.

The burial ground was recorded in 1915 and again in 1934. After comparing those records with the actual tombstones left in 1982, there were found to be 24 stones missing, destroyed or totally illegible.

BIRTH-DEATH: b. 20 Sep 1807, NY; d. 20 Aug 1883, Allenton, Berlin, St. Clair, MI (Furnished by Linda Cendro)

NAME: Phoebe (Jane) Conger, CFA II, p. 711

COMMENT: On the front page of "The Allen/Conger Family Newsletter," Summer 2000, Volume 10, Issue 1, appeared the following:

"As we revealed briefly in our 1999 newsletter, we have discovered, with the help of Buel Conger of Fort Gratiot, MI, that the family of Phoebe Conger Allen is included in "The Conger Family of America" publication which has two huge volumes, and was compiled by Maxine Crowell Leonard and published in 1972."

An examination of both the 1972 and 1990 volumes doesn't seem to support this statement if one reads it to mean that Phoebe Conger and her descendants are listed in "The Conger Family of America," (CFA).

The family of her parents, Jesse Conger and Delight Benedict does appear on page 272 of Volume One. Phoebe Conger is listed as their first child with a birth date of Abt. 1810. No place of birth is listed and no date of death is listed. There is no husband listed. Checking the section of Volume One where the non-Conger surnames appear reveals no men with the Allen surname.

The Descendants of Joseph Conger and Mary Marsh

31 January 2015

Therefore, I believe it can be said that Volume One of the CFA doesn't reveal that this Phoebe Conger ever married.

Checking the non-Conger surname section of Volume Two of the CFA one finds two family groups headed by men with the Allen surname. Neither of them is husband of Phoebe Conger.

At the back of Volume Two is a section listing marriage information. Near the top of page, 711 we find her listed as Phoebe (Jane) Conger, d/o Jesse Conger, b. 1784, found on page 282 of CFA I. She is listed as married on 9 Apr 1836 to John Fransham, by James Dean, J.P. of Utica, NY. As far as this writer can determine this is the only reference in either volume of CFA to a marriage of Phoebe (Jane) Conger. That isn't to say that she wasn't married twice and that the marriage to John Fransham was the second marriage. (Written by Richard E. Henthorn, 11 Jan 2001)

QUESTION-MARRIAGE: Can anyone cite a source to prove the marriage of Phoebe Conger to Douglass Allen? Can anyone cite a source that would prove the Phoebe Conger who married John Fransham was in fact the daughter of Jesse Conger and Delight Benedict?

BIRTH-CONFLICT: His birth date has been listed as, 10 Jul 1878. The 1885 census of Mills Co., Iowa lists him as, John L. Conger, age 18. Calculated birth year is, Abt. 1867.

RECOLLECTIONS: James Greenwood Conger, 1907, wrote of his father, John Leonard Conger, to Miss Cornelia Conger of Chicago on 29 Nov 1966: "Many thanks for your nice note of the 19th. I have been practicing law in Chicago and have lived in or near the city for the past thirty-five years. During that time, on numerous occasions, friends and others have inquired whether I was in any way related to you. My father always claimed that anyone with the name CONGER was at least a fifth cousin of anyone else with the same name. [Note: Cornelia Conger might have been the daughter of William Perez Conger and Emily Wright Lyon, if so, she was the 6th cousin of James Greenwood Conger. Their common ancestor was John Belconger. REH]

"My father spent two years at the University of Nebraska and then taught school for several years to accumulate enough capital to go on with his education. He graduated from the University of Michigan in 1904 and then attended the University of Wisconsin on a Fellowship where he received a Master's Degree and in 1907, a Doctor's Degree in American History. I was born in Madison Wisconsin about the time he was completing his thesis. He then accepted an appointment as Professor of History and Government at Knox College in Galesburg, Illinois where I grew up and where my sisters, Amy and Virginia were born.

"Except for brief interludes as a visiting professor at Harvard, the University of Michigan and the University of California, my father continued at Knox College as Professor of History and Head of the Department until his retirement about 1945.

"He served as an alderman, mayor and president of the school board in Galesburg, always in a reform and what in those days was considered a liberal tradition. While not a crusader type, he staunchly espoused what he regarded as worthy causes, particularly those which had cultural aspects. He just as staunchly opposed what in those days in a small midwestern, rather back-water community, was regarded as evil such as saloons, public gambling and other such vices. Over the opposition of the prevailing establishment, he did much to clean up and elevate the cultural environment of the community.

"Without going into his other many achievements, it has always seemed to me that they were such, and the respect in which he was held in the community was such, that so far as I am concerned, he could well have been considered the primus in a new line of Congers. Paradoxically, he never gave up trying to find out something about his antecedent and collateral relatives."

(His entire lineage was in the records.)

BIOGRAPHY: John William Conger

There was no prophet of God, like Samuel to go under divine constraint to the home of P.D.W. Conger of Jackson, TN to appoint one of his sons to be a king, but there was just as truly a divine anointing, which came upon the kingly soul of John William Conger, a son of that home, for the work to which God would, in after years, call him.

It is difficult for one who knows Dr. Conger, and has watched with deepest interest the monumental work he has accomplished, through the years, to speak in tempered language of the man and his successful life.

It is next to impossible to tell in a brief sketch, as this of necessity must be, what a great blessing this gifted and great man has been to the world.

Jesus of Nazareth gave us that standard by which to measure greatness, and by that standard the greatness of J.W. Conger has been, and is now, being measured.

"He that is greatest among you shall be servant of all." A great character and career must be judged solely to humanity in the name of the Master. Measured by that standard the subject of this sketch deserves to be called great.

He saw the light of this world on Feb. 20, 1857 at Jackson, TN. His parents, P.D.W. and Eliza Jane Chambers Conger, were consecrated Christians, who felt that God had greatly honored them in the gift of this child.

Like Moses' parents, "they saw he was a goodly child," and they sought to rear him for the glory of God.

In the city of Jackson, which was destined to become an educational center, Dr. Conger grew to manhood. He spent his early life in attending private schools, selling newspapers and helping in a newspaper office.

Later he attended Southwestern Baptist (non-union) University, where he took his A.B. degree in 1878. Three times in after years, did his Alma Mater honor him. In 1884 the university conferred upon him the A.M. degree, and later the honorary degree of L.L.D. and in 1907 unanimously called him to be president of the institution, where for two years he served with unusual success.

He saw "The Light that ligtheth every man that cometh unto the world" in 1872 when he gave his heart in glad surrender to Christ, and felt impelled by the power of the Holy Spirit to make teaching his life profession.

Dr. Conger was first married to the daughter of Judge J.M. McKinney of Purdy, TN, but his wife lived only six months after their marriage.

His second wife, Tennie C. Conger, was a daughter of Dr. E.E. Hamilton, deceased, of Dyersburg, TN. Thirty-nine years they lived happily together. She passed to her rest May 25, 1923.

Five bright happy children have been given to bless their home, two of whom have passed over to the other side to await the glory the home coming of the other loved ones. All three of his gifted daughters are following in the footsteps of the father and are giving their lives to teaching.

Immediately after graduation, he took charge of the school at McNairy, TN and the following year accepted the presidency of Odd Fellows College at Humboldt, TN. He rapidly forged to the front as an educational leader, and in the summer of 1883 he helped to organize and become one of the managers of the West Tennessee Teacher's Summer School. In September of the same year he organized the Searcy College at Searcy, Arkansas and became the president of the college.

He was somewhat a pioneer in the field of education in Arkansas, and was doubtless the first man to travel over the state in the interest of a college, and to place the educational ideal in the minds and hearts of the masses of people.

Searcy College, although a private enterprise, grew rapidly, enrolling more [than] 300 pupils in the second year of its history. Dr. Conger sold his interest in the school to Professor W.H. Tharp and in 1886, again following his pioneer instincts, and led, as we believe, by the Holy Spirit, he organized under the auspices of the Arkansas Baptist Convention, a new Baptist College at Arkadelphia, Arkansas, known as Ouachita College. As president of this institution he served for twenty-one years.

As the presiding genius of Ouachita he did his most monumental work. The great stream of student life which flowed through this college for more than two decades was sweetened and blessed forever by the power and personality of this gifted educator and leader.

Handsome and commanding in appearance, charming in personality, keen witted and capable, tender and abounding in enthusiasm, Dr. Conger drew the pupils to him, with an irresistible power. He inspired them with an ambition to be and do something worthwhile in the world.

He helped them to believe in themselves and in God -- to lay themselves out to the limit to do something for the good of humanity and the glory of God.

The writer of this sketch has never met a man who believed more deeply in the office [sic] work and unfailing leadership of the Holy Spirit than Dr. Conger. He confidently believed he was led of the Spirit in all his life places.

Every evening for nearly three decades he has expounded the Scriptures to the student body of the colleges over which he presided and followed the lesson with an earnest appeal to the bright, aspiring young men and women to give God their best -- "to seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness."

Every year, when the revival services were being held in the local church, and sometimes in the college proper, he was seen day and night seeking to lead unsaved pupils to Christ. His passion for souls was so great that he seemed to feel that his life would be a failure if any pupil should graduate from the institution over which he presided without becoming a Christian.

While president of Ouachita College he dreamed dreams and saw visions of a greater day for Baptist education and influence in Arkansas. Before the State Convention and in counsel with his brethern in all the Boards he advocated the idea of locating at strategic points all over the state, Baptist Academies.

When he resigned the presidency of Ouachita College to accept the presidency [of] Union University, there were more than 1,600 pupils enrolled in Baptist schools in Arkansas -- a greater number than has ever been since that time.

Ouachita, the parent institution, had reached an enrollment of 476 pupils, 400 or more of these boarding pupils, and there stood on the beautiful campus of Arkadelphia, seven buildings, all erected during the Conger administration, and the curriculum of the college had been raised to standard character.

After Dr. Conger returned to Arkansas from Tennessee, he was elected president of Central College, the Baptist College for girls at Conway, Arkansas. Many of this friends in the state feared that the Baptists had called him to a life of sacrifice, and invited him to a field of failure, when they asked him to take this school. The school was almost completely dead. It was heavily in debt, almost without equipment and nearly destitute of patronage.

But the same indomitable spirit that had made him a success everywhere enabled him to bring victory to Central Collge. He seemed to touch the institution with a magic wand, so marvelous and rapid was the change for the better.

In the nine fruitful years he has served as president of this college he has made it one of the leading colleges for women in the great Southwest, and he prepared the way for new buildings and greater growth. Near the close of the ninth year, to avoid a complete breakdown in health he resigned, and the Board of Trustees out of deep appreciation for the man and his services, elected him President Emeritus for life, on salary.

Dr. Conger for thirty years has served the denomination as a member of the Executive Board and other boards of the Convention, and for two years served as President of the State Convention. He also served as President of the Arkansas Teacher's Assn. He has always been recognized for his wise, constructive leadership. The man who lives the sacrificed life, who embraces all men in his loving sympathies is the man we delight to honor.

We would with loving hands lay upon his brow the richest crown of human gratitude and love, and we feel confident the "Crown of Righteousness" and the "Crown of Life" will be placed there by the One who shall "reward every man according as this work shall be."

BIOGRAPHY: Dr. James Bowers Conger Pioneer Physician

Dr. Conger was descended from a long line of physicians. His father, Dr. Thomas Dorris Conger, was Alsatian and his mother, Amira Manzie McCampbell was of Scottish ancestry. He came to Texas from Missouri in the 1850's. It is not known where he acquired his medical education, but it appears that he was qualified to practice when he came to Texas. Perhaps he "read medicine" with his father as this method of education was common in his day. He was highly respected by other physicians in the area.

While on a professional visit to the David Mitchell home, Dr. Conger met one of the daughters, Miss Mary Caroline Mitchell. They were married on August 23, 1853 when she was 16 years of age. Their marriage license was obtained in Ellis County, but they travelled to Johnson County to the home of Rev. and Mrs. R.E. Sanders for the ceremony. Mrs. Sanders was a sister of Mary Caroline Mitchell.

He apparently did his early practice in Johnson County where he homesteaded his land. His pre-emption certificate is recorded in the General Land Office in Austin. According to this certificate, he lived on and cultivated this land from 1854 to 1857 to meet the pre-emption requirements.

During the Civil War the family lived in Freestone County. Dr. Conger served as a surgeon in Parker's Brigade.

About 1870 Dr. Conger sold his practice and moved to Ellis County, 1 1/2 miles S.E. of Red Oak. In the yard of this home he had a small hexagon building erected. This served as his apothecary shop as physicians in this day compounded their own medicines. His Pharmacopoeia is now in the possession of his great-great grandson, Dr. William Robert Hiatt, Capt. U.S. Navy. He usually made his calls on horseback, carrying his instruments and medicines in his saddle bags. Many times he would arrive home only to find he had to leave again. Several horses were kept, so that he would always have a fresh mount. During epidemics, such as Typhoid, he would be away from home a week at a time. When two-wheel carts came in, he bought one. This was considered a luxury, but it enabled him to take his wife along as nurse when he had an especially difficult case. The area covered by his practice was as follows: North of Red Oak to Bear Creek, West to Ovilla and Shiloh, East to Ferris and South to Grove Creek.

Dr. Conger was an artistic man and loved beauty, even finding splendor in lightning displays during storms. His home reflected his tastes. The Apothecary building had so much fancy work that it cost $500 to build. This was considered an extravagant price to pay for a one room structure, as labor and materials were quite cheap at that time. The grounds had a well built barn, an orchard, flowers and a grape arbor extending from the door to the style block, an attractive covered well house and a white paling fence. His home was considered a show place in his day.

He was inventive and ingenious. It is said that he developed a black rose by planting a dark red variety in a pot of charcoal. His wife and daughter had rings which he had fashioned from gold coins. He also made a belt buckle from a silver dollar. This buckle is in the possession of a granddaughter, Mrs. J.A. Conner.

Another granddaughter, Carrie Ross, was crippled. Dr. Conger took her to a blacksmith shop where he gave instructions for a brace to be made in the following manner: a rod was to be fastened through the heel of her shoe with an attached steel cradle extending almost to her knee. These two shell-like cradles were padded and fastened around the child's leg. This brace seems to have been advanced for the time which was sometime during the 1880's.

He always sought easier ways for doing the laundry and bought any new kind of washing device he heard of. Mrs. Conner recalls one on which the scrubbing was accomplished by means of two rollers, one smooth and one corrugated. These rollers were hooked onto two hardwood tubs and turned by hand. Each tub contained soap suds.

After Dr. Conger became paralyzed, he had his son-in-law bore holes in the ceiling above his bed, then run heavy ropes over the joist. Hand holds were attached to the rope ends by which he was able to move himself about in bed.

Mary Caroline Conger owned the first sewing machine in the area. It was not uncommon for her to look out in the morning and see a woman and her children arriving in a wagon or buggy. Women would buy material to supply all the family, cut it out at home, and bring it to Mrs. Conger's to sew on her machine. This meant several more to feed and more children underfoot. Often families would bring a patient to stay in Dr. Conger's home until he was much improved. Apparently Mrs. Conger had the patience and adaptability to meet these challenges, as she is remembered for her sweet and gentle manner.

The Congers were members of the Liberty Presbyterian Church which was located on Red Oak Creek near Rockett. After Dr. Conger's death his widow joined Bell's Chapel Methodist Church as it was nearer to her home. The younger children became members there also.

(Mrs. J.A. Conner supplied most of the above Conger data. She was reared by her grandmother, Mrs. J.B. Conger.) [Note: While the piece begins with the line, "From the PHARMACAOEIA OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, pub 1851:" it is not clear which paragraphs come from that source and which come from the recollections of Mrs. Conner. Also, the identity of Mrs. Conner, other than being a granddaughter, doesn't seem to be revealed in CFA II. REH] (Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. II, p. 122-123 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

James (Bowers Conger) is at Red Oak himself and family were all well a few days ago. He is doing a good practice & is living in splendid fashion of the country where he can live well & be well -- As to U.A. (Ulysses Alpheus Conger) I can tell you nothing for I have not had a letter from him in two years. I have written time and again but get no reply.

W. Overton is at Fort Worth. It has been some time since I saw him. He is highly pleased with Texas & doing well. As to myself, I am satisfied with the country altho I have had some hard luck financially, but I am like an old man in this town who got his store X 70000 worth of goods burned, said he didn't brake worth a cent, for he didn't intend to stay so, which word he has made good.

Texas as regards fruits is somewhat limited. The older settled portions are pretty well supplied especially the Northeast where there is a good supply of apples - peaches found in all parts, as apples will soon. Vegetables of all kinds everywhere - many persons don't have them because they don't plant -- hogs are easily raised more so than with you. I never hear any complaint here about not being able to make bacon. The bacon made here is equal in quality to any and I know of no reason why it should not.

Milch cows (ordinary) from 10 ' 20 lb fine blooded stock from 50 to 100 lb -- Horses, average from 60 to 125 lb outstock is seldom fed. I believe sheep are about (?). Beef 2 1/2 to 3 cts, eggs 20 to 40 cts owing the season - generally in this market 25 cts. Butter 20 to 40 cts per lb - bacon 10 to 15 cts - corn from 50 to 100 per bushel wheat 100 - Irish & sweet potatoes from 15 - 100 per bush. Labor for day $1 - 2.

Texas as a general rule has good schools, much better than they used to be in MO and within reach of everyone. Those who have not the means have some provisions made them ---- land very much in price owing altogether to circumstances -- frontier lands can be had from 50 ct to 100 -- the generality of lands in the older settled parts range from 2 to 5 dollars without improvement - there is always land & houses to rent on reasonable terms as many people in this section live entirely by their rents, some even furnish stock, ploughs, harness and in fact everything necessary to carry on a farm at a proportionate rent.

Having answered pretty much all of your questions as best I know how, I close with a few other remarks as possible, for having been to church tonight you may guess its bed time, besides I leave tomorrow to be gone 4 or 5 days. You did mention Uell's name but that was about all - if he writes any in your letter it faded out before I saw it. He must do better the next time - I do not remember to have even heard a word about Uncle Uell - would sometime you tell me something about him.

Sallie is in Dallas at her Grandpas yet. She will be back in Aug. Tommie has for some months been clerking in a grocery store but now in dry goods. I have 3 others Willie, George & Stephen D. we call him Dorris altogether.

If Bro J.B. (James Bowers Conger) has married again I have never heard of it. I know his wife is not dead unless it has been within a week past. Mollie (writer's wife) has gone to sleep & I shall follow her example -- so with kind regards & love to all I bid you good night. Your cousin, S.D. Conger.

AKA-NAME-CONFLICT: Mrs. Virginia Jennie Craghead in her obituary.

OBITUARY: Nonogenarian Died Suddenly

Mrs. Jennie Craghead [sic Craighead] Passed Away at Home of Daughter, Mrs. A. G. Graves, Sunday. [24 Feb 1929]

Mrs. Virginia Jennie Craghead, 90 years old a native of Callaway County, died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Graves, of Bluff street, at 10:00 o'clock Sunday morning. Her death came unexpectedly as she had not been ill. She had been active, both mentally and physically, until a week ago, when she suffered a fall and had been confined to her bed since that time.

A funeral service was conducted at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Ebenezer Baptist church, northeast of Fulton, by the Rev. S.S. Keith, and burial was in the cemetery at that church.

Mrs. Craghead's maiden name was Virginia Herring. [this is not correct, her name was Jane Frances Herring] She was a daughter of the late George Washington and Lucy Herring who came to Missouri from Virginia in 1835. She was born in November, 1838, three years after the arrival of her parents in Callaway County.

Mrs. Craghead was first married to John Congo [Conger] and to this union two children were born. They are: Lee Congo [Conger] and Mrs. Matthew Wright, both living east of Fulton. Her first husband was killed at Kenesaw Mountain, Tenn., [it's in Georgia] in 1863 [June of 1864] while serving as a soldier of the Confederacy.

Mrs. Craghead was married a second time to Benjamin Suggett, who died in 1875 [1877]. To this union, three children were born. They are: Benjamin Suggett Jr. of California, Mrs. S.P. Beaven of Kirksville, and O.B. Suggett of Fulton.

The last marriage of Mrs. Craghead was to Calvin C. Craghead who preceeded her in death by ten years. [fifteen years] To this union, two children were born. They are: Gertrude Craghead, who died in young womanhood [she died at age 5], and Mrs. A.G. Graves, with whom Mrs. Craghead has made her home the last few years.

Mrs. Craghead was a member of a family of twelve children, [I only have records of ten and no evidence that there were twelve...] three of whom are left to mourn her passing, They are: George W. Herring, and Dabney W. Herring, both living south of Fulton, and Mrs. Mary Gannaway of St. Louis.

Shed light and hope around our way.
Her melting love-lit eye of blue,

Her velvet cheeks of rosy hue
Shed beauty round our little girl.

We knew the sheen upon her cheek

BIOGRAPHY:

Jesse Lyman Conger, who at the present time is one of the leading citizens and successful business men of the city of Newark, New Jersey, was born at Roseville, same state, September 25, 1867, and is the son of Theodore and Mary Elizabeth (Simonson) Conger.

Jesse L. Conger, like his father and mother, was educated in the local public schools, at the start taking his place in the grades until he successfully passed the eighth, when he was duly admitted to the city high school and there practically finished his literary training with high standing and praise worthy behavior. At the conclusion of his course at high school he at once entered active business operations.

For the first year and a half he was engaged in the stamping business, but in 1897 he became a banker, which pursuit he followed ever since with both unusual success and occupational distinction. First he was connected with the Seaboard National Bank of New York City, serving with distinction in various official positions and doing much to expand its reputation and improve its environments.

In 1914, he became connected with the Mutual Bank of Roseville and from the start took an active concern in the development of the business. For four years he has served this banking institution in the important capacity of cashier. He then became connected with the Liberty Trust Co., and at the present date is its treasurer. In that important capacity he has greatly aided the company in building up an excellent reputation, and at the same time he has managed to amass a comfortable fortune and attain a high reputation for his faithfulness and capacity.

He has likewise attained distinction in the walks and welfare of civic and public advancement and expansion. At the present time he is a prominent member of the Chamber of Commerce and is highly regarded by his business associates.

During the World War, when the country was convulsed with dismay and perplexity, he took an active part in assisting Uncle Sam to quell the militarists of Central Europe. He entered the service and for six months served with credit at Indian Head, Maryland, as an aid in construction work for the government. He was finally dismissed with a high standing and distinction.

He and the family attend the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the present time he is treasurer of the Liberty Square B. & L. Association.

OBITUARY: MRS. FRED NORTH DIED THIS MORNING

This community was saddened this morning by news of the death of Mrs. Fred North, 74 years old, citizen of Neosho since her early childhood, at Reynolds hospital at 1:30 o'clock this morning after a month's illness following a fall in which she was injured.

The accident occurred at the Congregational church early Sunday morning, June 6, [1937] when Mrs. North had gone there to arrange flowers, decorating the church for morning services, which had been her custom for more than 30 years. In reaching from the church steps for a spray of spirea, which grows nearby, she fell a distance of eight feet or more. She was removed to the hospital where her injuries were pronounced serious but not necessarily critical, and hopes for her immediate recovery were held. However, complications developed which were impossible to combat, and for a week she has lain at the point of death.

Funeral services are to be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Congregational church, the Rev. John W. Moore, pastor of the First Methodist church and a lifelong friend of the family, to be in charge. He will be assisted by the pastor, the Rev. Harry A. Weaver. Burial will be in the I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Mrs. North before her marriage was Miss Adeline M. Conger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Conger, and was born in Wisconsin [sic]. She came to Newton county as a child about 65 years ago.

OBITUARY: FRED NORTH DIES AT McDONALD HOSPITAL

Fred North, 79 years old, one of Neosho's best known citizens, died at the McDonald hospital, [Neosho, MO] at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday morning [16 Dec 1941]. Although he had been in failing health for more than a year, he had been critically ill for only about a week.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of a son, Richard North, Neosho Heights, Rev. John W. Moore of Joplin, former Neosho minister saying the rites, and burial under the direction of Bigham mortuary, was made in the I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Mr. North was born in Wisconsin in 1862, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. North, and came to this county with his parents when he was three years old. Most of his life has been spent in Neosho. He was married to Miss Addie Conger, and to them were born six sons and six daughters, all of whom, with the exception of one daughter who died years ago, survive him. Surviving also is one brother, W. H. North of Monrovia, Cal., a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Unfailing energy, hard work and sterling honesty were dominating factors in Mr. North's entire life. He was a farmer, stock man and business man, and had done more to build up a certain important business center of Neosho than any other man of his generation. He had a deep, abiding kindness of heart known most surely by friends near to him who have felt its generous impulses. Although he was a member of no church, he contributed liberally to the upkeep of his wife's church, always desiring, however that his giving remain unknown.

RECOLLECTIONS: Ina (Young) Taylor wrote, "I always loved to go to Grandma Conger's. She and Grandpa were so dear. I loved to stay all night there -- wake up in the morning and Grandma was frying meat and baking pancakes. One would sink into the feather beds she had and they surely were warm and cozy. All these beautiful memories. Also I used to go there for lunch on rainy days from school. When it rained they always knew Flossie & I would be there. Grandpa was just like my husband is -- could fix anything; always had the idea which did the trick."

RECOLLECTIONS: On 6 Feb 1947, Horace Glenn Conger wrote to Mrs. Henry L. Monat, 1036 Bryant St., Palo Alto, Calif., as follows:

"My Dear Cousin: I have delayed answering your letter for the reason that I had so little to offer in the way of assistance. First of all, the Bible which you refer to is doubtless packed away among the effects of my sister in Dubuque, who is the one referred to by brother, Ralph, as being in a sanatorium. This all happened so suddenly that it has taken my breath away. She had a nervous breakdown and it seemed the humane thing to do to place her where she could be taken care of. It isn't a public institution and I pray that it may continue to be a private place - at my expense, for those things are tragic, at best.

Anyway, the Bible you refer to I have seen many times and does not contain any reference to who married who and when. It is one of those old fashioned documents which simply shows the birth date, death date and names, but it may be that I can add little to what you are trying to compile. A good many years back I had occasion - in connection with applications for insurance - to have a record of the names, birth and death dates of my ancestors and I'm going to give you some of that information.

My father's father's name was Ephraim Conger, born Oct. 25, 1795 and died Aug. 8, 1847. My grandmother's name was Almira Conger, born Sep. 13, 1799 and died May 26, 1873. In your list you have a statement that they had six sons, but do not include my father, Edwin Jerome, born Dec. 18, 1841, and died Oct. 25, 1907.

There is another brother by the name of Marvin, whose birth and death date I do not have, but he was the one that became enamoured with a spiritualist and left my Aunt Mary, and as the story went - in my boyhood days, she had a big going away supper the night he was to leave her. That sounds a bit like Hollywood, doesn't it?

Well, some years ago a man came to my office in Des Moines and claimed to be my cousin, living in Winterset, Iowa. I was somewhat disturbed about it for I knew of no cousin that I had anywhere in these parts, but I allowed him to come into my private office and was prepared for any emergency by having a heavy ink-well in my hand to use if it became necessary. Ha. This is quite a joke to me now, but wasn't then. It developed that he was a son of Marvin's and had taken his mother, Mary, with him to Winterset and had lived there for a number of years, as a tin-smith.

He related some interesting things about my father so I knew that he was real. Had taught father to swim, by holding him up with his hand while father paddled. This is not of much interest, but it [is] just a reminiscence. Anyway, those are two sons of Almira that you do not show."

(Glenn went on to speak of his brother, Ralph, but part of the carbon paper had been torn off. Ralph fell when a child about four years old. A stick went into the palate of his mouth, causing his right arm to be crooked and useless.)

Horace Glenn "Glenn" Conger and Edith Edmonds were married on 10 Oct 1896. Edith Edmonds was born on 26 Nov 1872. She was buried in Apr 1949 in Des Moines, Polk Co., IA, Masonic Cemetery. She died on 17 Apr 1949 at the age of 76 in Des Moines, Polk Co., IA. Edith Edmonds

Problem: Was her surname, Edmonds (CFA I, p. 211) or Edmunds? Both listed in CFA I.

CHURCH_AFFILIATION: Christian Scientist

Horace Glenn Conger and Edith Edmonds had the following child:

- 595        i. Dale E. Conger, born 1 Apr 1901, La Porte City, Black Hawk Co., IA; married Helen Oshel, 10 Oct 1929; died 30 Jun 1963.

Horace Glenn "Glenn" Conger and Laura E. Hess were married on 10 Jan 1946 in Des Moines, Polk Co., IA. Laura E. Hess, daughter of Almo Hess and Clara Angelina Johnson, was born on 26 Jul 1915 in Liberty Center, Warren Co., IA. Laura E. Hess

RESIDENCES: As a widow, 1316 68th Street; Des Moines, IA 50311

RECOLLECTIONS: On 2 Feb 1969, widow, Laura Conger wrote to Beach Conger, saying, "I have separated some of Papa Conger's papers somewhat, but oh, what a job. With his Masonic - Commandery, Independent Telephone papers, N.W. Bell Tel. papers, his first wife's clippings (Edith Edmonds) and what little there is about her family, I find it interesting reading. Also the way they both (H.G. and Edith) helped in the Red Cross during World War II and the Bond raising, food cards, etc., I must say the first Mrs. Conger was quite a lady to behold.

"In reading some of the information I've found Mr. Conger loved his first wife as much as he did me, but the circumstances were different. He worked while he was married to the first Mrs. Conger and he was retired when he married me.

"My husband was so fed up with his going to the Des Moines Club (of which he was a charter member) even before the building was built -- have a drink, a bite of lunch with some of his friends, playing cards all afternoon and pool. So therefore when we were married he wanted me by his twenty-four hours per day.

"So we spent over 19 years together, twenty-four hours per day, 365 days per year. Therefore you can see I miss him very much, but wouldn't want him back the way he was suffering at the time of death. One thing his mind was keen throughout his life. He was blind the last ten years. The last thing I said to him was, "I love you, Papa." He replied, "I love you too, Mama.""

(Source: The Conger Family of America, Vol. I, p. 212 - Maxine Crowell Leonard)

RECOLLECTIONS: Mrs. Conger told Mrs. Leonard, over the telephone, that Glenn was exceptionally considerate. Once he and his first wife quarreled and he left the house for work without kissing her. He left his work in the middle of the morning to go back home and "make up." When he and Laura had differences, they never let the day end without kissing and apologizing.

DEATH-OBITUARY:

A tragedy so appalling in its nature that the town and community have not yet recovered from the shock and horror occurred in Neosho about 6:30 o'clock the evening of the Fourth of July [1930] when something apparently went wrong with the mechanism of an airplane driven by Richard North 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick North, Wood and Grand streets, and the plane crashed on East Spring street, the accident and the incident leading up to it costing the lives of the young pilot and his 18-year-old companion, George Stach of Topeka, Kans.

No one will ever know what happened 300 feet in the air when trouble first was apparent to the spectators. It is believed that engine trouble which had bothered the young aviators earlier in the day, and to correct which they were said to have made a landing at Monett, again developed. Young Stach was seen out on the wing and it is thought that he had climbed there to try to make repairs. Suddenly he slipped from the wing as the plane made a quick turn and he fell the three hundred feet, being killed instantly, it is believed. After his fall the plane went into a nose dive and crashed upon the Kansas City Southern tracks just east of the North storage plant. Workmen nearby rushed to the plane to extricate the pilot's body, but before this could be accomplished the gasoline tank exploded, the ship burst into flames, driving the rescuers back and the boy's body was burned past recognition. A ring given Richard recently by his aunt, Miss Mabel Robinson, and a belt buckle were means by which the body was positively identified.

Hundreds of people all over Neosho witnessed the tragedy. Fred North, grandfather of Richard, was standing in the yard at his home watching the maneuvers of the plane. He knew his grandson had flown to Eureka Springs in the black and orange plane of the ----- (part of article is missing)

The boys had been to Eureka Springs, Ark. doing exhibition flying and were on their way home when the accident occurred. They evidently had some engine trouble over Monett, as reports say they had a forced landing near the golf course there. Evidently it was remedied for a short time later they appeared over town here, circling the square North piloting and Stach walking the wings.

North made a wide circle over the south side and was east of the square when he made a fairly sharp left bank and we are told that the steepness of the bank made Stach lose his hold, throwing him to the ground near the scene of the crash and breaking practically every bone in his body. As soon as Stach slipped from the wing, the plane went into a tail spin and crashed, after desperate efforts on North's part to right it.

A coroner's jury, under the direction of Coroner James Nutman of Granby, composed of John S. Sutherland, Chas. Kirk, With McFadden, W. A. Rose, Chas. Wilhite and C. S. Daugherty of Neosho was summoned soon after the accident and several witnesses testified. the verdict was that the boys came to their death by an airplane accident.

Richard North was a student of the Flying School having received his private pilot's license from the commerce department of the government a short time ago. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick North, Mr North being proprietor of the Seiberling tire shop and a member of one of Neosho's oldest families. Besides his parents he is survived by one sister, Eleanor, 13 years old, and a host of other relatives. He was one of our finest young men, a good student in high school and his ambition to be a flyer was great enough that he earned his own money to pay for his flying tuition.

The plane was completely destroyed. Ira S. McReynolds, owner of the school's planes, came to Neosho Friday night. He was very much distressed over the tragedy. He agreed with the spectators that the accident was caused by the fact that Stach, who was very heavily built, fell from the wing, the sudden release of weight throwing the ship into a spin and the low altitude at which they were flying made it impossible to bring it to a straight position and regain complete control before crashing.

On Sunday afternoon at 2;30 o'clock one of the largest funerals ever held in Neosho took place at the North home, corner Wood street and Grand avenue, when the Rev. Roy Morgan, pastor of the First Congregational Church, preached the funeral sermon which was most touching and his words most wisely chosen. He told of the pleasure he had personally had in his contact with Richard, as a pupil in his Sunday school class, and as he had received him into membership of the First Congregational Church of the city. Reverend Morgan spoke most fittingly of the joy of youth in the world of progress, and of the fullness of the life of such a boy, with his stalwart character, in accomplishing the one thing which had been a dream of his boyish life.

BIOGRAPHY:

"I was born in the 'Reform School' at Waukesha, Wisconsin; my father and mother both being there, to add quickly, however, as teachers. My uncle John, in New Brunswick, NJ got my father a job as clerk in a general store for a brick company in Sayreville, NJ where we spent the next three years. Then moved back to Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin where he became partner in a general store, previously in the Conger family, where we lived thereafter. My mother had attended the Lake Forest Academy, where she specialized in Physical Education and Art, and did some nice oil painting until family duties interfered.

"Father died at 42 of heavy work in the heat and brain hemorrhage. Mother died at 98 of old age -- active till within a year. A little, energetic, remarkable and much loved lady - though not geneo-biographical, it is notable (and I can't refrain from telling) even doctors were impressed, she recovered from cancer of bladder operation at 62, lived with arthritis for 35 years, and recovered from two broken hips and broken right arm (simultaneous) at 91 to walk as usual about town on errands; remarried at 76 a childhood friend and lived six years in California until (Mr. Knapp) died.

"Outstanding event in my childhood -- it was all outstanding, as would be to a boy in a quiet, peaceful Mid-west town, with good parents and fine teachers, and some truly 'outstanding' townspeople, a swimming-hole, canoe and cane fish-pole, before the automobile, airplane, radio, or television; before erosion, pollution, the bulldozer, pesticides, weed-killer, oil - smoke and noise. A story in itself, rightly told, as it never will be. Talents and business accomplishments -- few; hobbies, plenty.

"Courses in Agriculture and Biology led me to a job at the U.S. National Museum (Smithsonian Institution) where I have been in the Department of Botany, as Associate Curator and Custodian of the Diatom collection, doing study of Diatoms, now emeritus."

MILITARY: Retired Lt. Commander USN; air photo officer in WWII, did photos for maps from Gaud. to mainland in Japan.

OCCUPATION: Top man in the National Archives (Photo Microfilm Div), made 5 trips to Antarctica in charge of photos. CFA II, p. 190.

OBITUARY: Richard R. Conger, Navy Specialist In Underwater Photography, Dies by Patricia Sullivan, Washington Post Staff Writer

Richard Russell Conger, 82, a Navy photographer who specialized in underwater and cold-weather photography, died Oct. 9, [2003] of complications from colon cancer at his home in Ijamsville, [MD].

Mr. Conger was a resident of Chevy Chase, [MD] from 1967 until 1996, when he moved to Leisure World in Silver Spring. He had lived in Frederick County, [MD] since 1999.

Mr. Conger, who was born in Detroit, enlisted in the Navy in 1938. He was one of five people chosen to learn cinematography from the staff who made the "March of Time" newsreels, an experiment to see if non-Navy training would be useful to the military. On his nights off, he worked at Life magazine to learn still photography.

Assigned to aerial mapping, he photographed or filmed many Pacific islands and Japan during World War II.

In 1946, he went to the Antarctic, where he would travel three more times.

The Bluejacket, a civilian publication that covers the Navy, reported that a plane carrying an eight-person crew and the captain of the USS Pine Island crashed into the icy mountains. After the wreck was discovered 23 days later, the plane that Mr. Conger was assigned to undertook the rescue mission, but the closest place to land was 12 miles away. The rescue plane's commander and Mr. Conger set out in a lifeboat, threading their way through ice-choked waters and pulling a sled. They reached the crew, got them aboard the lifeboat and arrived back at their plane just in time to take off before they would have been iced in. Six of the rescued crew members survived.

Mr. Conger told a Pensacola, Fla. newspaper that he and his crew were enthusiastically received during one Antarctic trip to a naval station. But when their plane had engine trouble and the visitors were stuck at the station for six weeks, the personnel there turned standoffish. The station didn't have enough food, bed[s] or space for the extra people, but the visitors redeemed themselves by pitching in on chores and other work.

In 1947, Mr. Conger and a commander found the Mount Erebus hut that was abandoned in 1910 by polar explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton. Mr. Conger's photographs showed that the hut was just as Shackleton's team had left it.

A glacier was named for Mr. Conger in 1948, according to the policy at the U.S. Board of Geographic Names of honoring those who have advanced hydrographic and geodetic work. The glacier flows to Antarctica's Knox Coast, five miles east of Glenzer Glacier.

Mr. Conger also made amphibious-warfare training films. He developed underwater motion photography to make training films for demolition teams. In 1949 and 1950, he was lent to the 20th Century Fox studio to shoot underwater sequences for the 1951 movie "The Frogmen," starring Richard Widmark. He was sent to the Arctic in the early 1950s to shoot photos for maps. In 1963, he took the first combat photo team to Vietnam.

DIVORCE-NO_ISSUE: The marriage of Richard Johnson and Merrie Louise Brooks ended in divorce, there was no issue.

COMMENT: In the December 1999 issue of Conger Confab, pl. 13, Dr. Johnson wrote, "I have subscribed to Confab for over 20 years. I am listed several times in the "Conger Confabs News Letters 1975-1994." When I retired six years ago after practicing medicine in Sacramento, I moved back to the area where I was reared. I have become active in the Episcopal Church, have taken on the editor-ship of a small historical society publication and have been appointed to a couple of Colusa County boards and commissions.

My wife, Clair, is equally active in the church and as a state certified volunteer ombudsman for long term care (nursing home) facilities."
